Your star today

(Mar 21st - Apr 20th)

Your mental and emotional pictures of things should be in agreement, helping you to develop a clear understanding of all sides. This is a great time for you to rationally analyse your emotions to help you understand why you are feeling the way you do. Don't let this day slip by without spending a little time.

(Apr 21st - May 21st)

You are on the brink of something fantastic, so just hang in there a little bit longer. It could be that you feel like the little train engine who is slowly working her way up the mountain. Perhaps you have made compromises and sacrifices along the way in order to get where you are. Just keep going. Pretty soon you will top the crest.

(May 22nd - Jun 21st)

Your may be running into serious conflicts, that strike deep within you emotionally. More than likely, your first reaction will be to turn to your brain to make sense of the issue, and try to figure out what to do next. Be careful of escaping so far into your mind that you neglect the thing that needs the most consideration: your heart.

(June 22nd - July 23rd)

The adventurous spirit of the day is likely to keep you on your toes. There is a fast-paced energy swirling about that is encouraging you to take what you know, and move ahead based on your findings. You will find that by the time evening rolls around, the frenzy of the day should have died down, and you will have some quiet time to reflect on the events of the day.

(July 24th - Aug 23rd)

Your heart may be fully dedicated to the project at hand, but for some reason, your head just does not seem to be into it. Perhaps you are experiencing some conflict with a romantic partner or work colleague who is challenging the way you think about the situation. Remember that there are always multiple ways of looking at the same elephant.

(Aug 24th - Sep 23rd)

Try not to be overwhelmed by the tremendous amount of stimuli all around you. As you drive down the highway, do not be lured by the words on every advertising billboard. Their purpose is only to manipulate you in some way or another in order to make you spend your money. Don't be coerced into thinking you need a certain product or service to be happy.

(Sep 24th - Oct 23rd)

When you ask for the answer, it should be there right in front of you. When you need advice on a difficult situation, a caring person will suddenly appear. Trust that you have the support you need to go out on a limb - both mentally and emotionally. If you get into trouble and find that you need help, all you have to do is ask for it. You are never as alone as you sometimes think you are.

(Oct 24th - Nov 22nd)

Life is only as complicated as you choose to make it. In reality, things are simple and will flow quite smoothly. This is how you know that you are on the right path. Keep in mind that your path may feel a bit awkward right now, but it is nothing that you should get obsessed about. The more you overreact to a situation that doesn't require such a volcanic response, the more difficult you are actually making it for yourself.

(Nov 23rd - Dec 21st)

You may feel like a great queen who reigns over a tremendous kingdom. Feel free to direct your subjects as you see fit. There is a great deal of wisdom available to you that can help you make decisions for the benefit of the entire population. Your regard for greater humanity is noble, and you should make sure to maintain this attitude in order to keep a good rapport.

(Dec 22nd - Jan 20th)

The increased pace of the introduction of new ideas, new adventures, and new gadgets may have your head whirling. Be careful of letting yourself get too overwhelmed by what is going on around you. Take things one step at a time. If you try to jump on a train that is whizzing through the station at breakneck speed, you are apt to hurt yourself.

(Jan 21st - Feb 19th)

Your mental confidence is strong, and you will find that there is a great deal of emotional support coming from your heart, as well. Nothing is likely to hold you back, so what are you waiting for? The gate is open, so be off and running. If others try to restrain you in anyway, tell them to move aside. This is not a time to limit yourself because others are slow to start.

(Feb 20th - Mar 20th)

Seize greater control of the situation around you by getting your emotions under control. Stabilize yourself in a rational manner to keep from slipping down a slope of self-pity. You have tremendous strength and power in your feelings. Don't let this asset go to waste. Instead, you should make sure to direct this energy toward something positive.
