A frantic search for a missing 5-year-old boy ended successfully yesterday when he was found safely on a street near to the family's residence in Hidd.

About an hour after the search started, a resident in the locality spotted the little boy roaming the crowded street and took him to a nearby police station.

However, not knowing about the developments, the family members of the boy frantically searched the locality before visiting the Hidd police station to report the incident.

Family members told the officers that the boy sneaked out of their apartment on the second floor of the building and they failed to notice.

After interrogation, the kid was united with his parents at the police station.

An eyewitness told DT News, "The father, the child's siblings and neighbours went out looking for him. They were all in intense panic worrying about the child's safety. When the father finally visited the police station he found him there and took him back home."

Spying for Qatar: Court adjourns case to March 1

Manama

The High Criminal Court yesterday adjourned the hearing of a Qatar spying case against Ali Salman Ali Ahmed, Hassan Ali Jumaa Sultan and Ali Mehdi Ali Al Aswad to March 1.

The Court decided to adjourn the case to present the recorded telephone conversation in which the suspect was a party, and implement the Court's decision of assigning a member of the Court to hear the statement of a witness who is under protective measures.

The Court, Advocate General Osama Al Oufi said, heard the case in an open session according to the law.

The first suspect attended the trial accompanied by his lawyers. The Public Prosecution referred them to the Court on charges of exchanging intelligence information with Qatar to carry out hostile acts against Bahrain, undermine its political and economic status as well as its national interest to overthrow the political system.

The defendants were also charged with divulging of defence secrets to a foreign country, accepting money from a foreign country for providing it with military secrets and information about the internal situation of the country, spreading tendentious rumours and fallacies abroad to weaken the financial confidence in the Kingdom.
