

King Salman Al Khalifa received at Gudaibiya Palace economic and political figures, media persons, journalists, the intelligentsia and citizens. Prime Minister paid tribute to the Bahraini people for their achievements and the reputation of the nation and its interests above anything else.

Commander-in-Chief Field Marshal Shaikh Khalifa bin Salman Al Khalifa received the commanders of Combined Operations Admiral John Johnston and Australian Forces in the Middle East V. Admiral Johnston, and their accompanying delegation. They reviewed the bilateral friendship and cooperation plans of further boosting them.

Foreign Affairs Minister Shaikh Khalid bin Ahmed Al Khalifa received An Wa'er, who presented a copy of his credentials as the newly appointed Ambassador of China to Bahrain. The minister praised the friendly ties between Bahrain and China, affirming the Kingdom's keenness to further boost them at all levels, wishing the ambassador all success in his duties.

Chief of Staff of BDF Lieutenant General Dhiab bin Saqr Al Nuaimi attended the opening of the mobilisation drill "Dawn of Storms 22" at the Royal Bahrain Naval Force (RBNF) which is performed by RBNF with the participation of a number of BDF weaponries, the Interior Ministry's Coastguard and the National Guard. The military exercise is part of the "Dawn of Storms" series of drills aimed at training, grooming and raising the competence of the participants.

The Nine Training Centre had recently conducted a training program on Customer Service Excellence for their valued client Lulu Group at the Wyndham Garden Hotel, Juffair. The Tamkeen Supported Training Program was attended by 20 participants and delivered by a certified trainer with a hands-on approach towards the training and exceptional knowledge on modern training methodologies and practices.

Attorney General Dr. Ali bin Fadhl Al Buainain has received Dr. Arif Ahmed Al Zayani, Director of Criminal Procedures Department who presented to him a copy of his doctoral thesis from the Faculty of Applied, Economic and Social Sciences at Sidi Mohamed ben Abdellah University in Fez-Morocco, titled "Administrative Investigation with Public Service Employees in Bahrain: A Comparative Study." Attorney General praised Dr. Al Zayani's efforts to obtain this advanced academic degree.