George Miller to helm 'Man of Steel 2'?

Los Angeles

"Mad Max: Fury Road" helmer George Miller is reportedly being eyed to direct the sequel to Zack Snyder's Superman reboot "Man of Steel 2".

The film is delayed due to the release of "Batman v Superman: Dawn of Justice". According to Jon Schnepf who directed the documentary of Tim Burton's cancelled movie "Superman Lives", Miller is reportedly expected to direct the sequel.

"George Miller is doing Man of Steel 2. I don't feel weird about breaking it," Jon said in a recent podcast.

NOTHING OFFICIAL: SIDHARTH ON 'BANG BANG!' SEQUEL

Mumbai

Sidharth Malhotra has reportedly replaced Hrithik Roshan in the "Bang Bang!" sequel, but the "Brothers" actor says "so far there is no such official news". Though he didn't confirm signing the film, he did share that he will start working on an action film soon.

Asked if he will star with Jacqueline Fernandez in the sequel to the 2014 action thriller "Bang Bang!", Sidharth said: "So far there is no such official news."

"When there is, I will talk about it. I've been reading stuff about it too. But when it becomes official, I think we will talk about it. So far there is nothing to say." He is currently tied up with "Kapoor and Sons", which also features his "Student of the Year" co-star Alia Bhatt and Pakistani actor Fawad Khan.

Vanessa Hudgens' father fighting cancer

Los Angeles

Actress Vanessa Hudgens has revealed that her father is battling stage four cancer.

The 26-year-old actress reportedly announced the news when she accepted the Breakthrough Performer honour at the 2015 Industry Dance Awards.

"Last year, my boyfriend, Austin (Butler) lost his mom, Lori, to cancer, and my dad has just been recently diagnosed with stage four cancer. Let me tell you, I hate cancer. I hate cancer with every cell of my being," Hudgens said onstage.

The "High School Musical" actress also dedicated the award to her beau's mother and her father and to the families "who are struggling" with cancer.

Megan Fox files for divorce

Los Angeles

Megan Fox has filed for divorce from husband Brian Austin Green, just days after US Weekly exclusively revealed the couple had separated.

Fox, who called it quits from her longtime love six months ago, cited their separation date as June 15 and irreconcilable differences as the reason for the split, according to sources.

Fox is seeking joint physical and legal custody of their two sons, Noah, 2, and Bodhi, 18 months.

The exes, who met back in 2004 and got married in 2010, did not have a prenup and their assets will be split evenly. Fox will reportedly pay Green spousal support due to unspecified medical problems and a lesser income.
