Selena Gomez's 'life-or-death' situation

Los Angeles
Singer Selena Gomez says she faced a "life-or-death" situation prior to her kidney transplant earlier this year. The 25-year-old singer received an organ from her friend Francia Raisa in a life-saving operation, which was needed as a result of her battle with Lupus. Gomez says because she wasn't sure of the warning signs, her health got to a point where her life was at risk, reports eonline.com. Speaking at the Lupus Research Alliance Annual Gala on Monday, Gomez said: "I am really honoured to be here with all of you guys tonight, my lupus community. As many of you know, or might now know, I was diagnosed with lupus about five or six years ago. (IANS)

Tom Hollander to star in 'A Private War'

Los Angeles
Actor Tom Hollander has joined the cast of 'A Private War'. 'The Night Manager' star's role in the film has not been revealed as yet. The film will be directed by Matthew Heineman and also features actors Rosamund Pike, Jamie Dornan and Jeremie Laheurte, according to reporter. Arash Amel penned the script, which has been adapted from Marie Brenners 2012 Vanity Fair article 'Marie Colvins Private War'. Pike plays the role of Colvin, who filed reports from conflict zones including Sri Lanka, where she lost her left eye in 2001. Basil Iwanyk and Charlize Theron along with Marissa McMahon are producing the project. (PTI)

JANET, JERMAINE DUPRI RECONNECTING AFTER SPLIT

Los Angeles
Singer Janet Jackson and her former boyfriend Jermaine Dupri are reportedly "getting close again". There has been a lot of speculation about the relationship status of the exes, who split in 2009 after seven years together. A source told eonline.com that the two reconnected after Janet split from Wissam Al Mana and before she went on tour. They are "consistently in contact". Janet split from Al Mana in April 2017 after five years of marriage. Before their split, they welcomed a son, Eissa Al Mana, in January. (IANS)
