Your star today

(Mar 21st - Apr 20th)

Enthusiasm for your career could have you putting in a lot of extra effort - and perhaps a lot of extra hours - getting something going for yourself. Your mind is working especially quickly - perhaps too quickly, as you may be experiencing a mental overload. Stop a moment, catch your breath, and write down the most workable of your ideas.

(Apr 21st - May 21st)

Events over the past few days, perhaps information coming from far away, could have your mind buzzing with new and revolutionary ideas that you've never considered before. This might involve new business opportunities, new spiritual concepts, or possible lifestyle changes that you find particularly appealing.

(May 22nd - Jun 21st)

New information might have you considering new investment possibilities. Take care, however. All is not quite as rosy as it seems! Wait a while, then, if you still feel so inclined, take a close look at the facts involved. Some interesting dreams could inspire you to read about specific subjects, perhaps the sciences or the occult.

(June 22nd - July 23rd)

Social events could take up a lot of your time today. You might find them a bit boring and tiresome, however, and are likely to spend more time enjoying the refreshments than conversing with others. You might find a few people whom you enjoy, however. If so, stick with them! Useful information could come your way - perhaps too much.

(July 24th - Aug 23rd)

Overindulgence over the past couple of days could well have you feeling a bit stressed out, perhaps a little headachy. This is definitely the day to take it easy, and avoid working too hard if you can. A little rest, perhaps with a good book, could not only release stress, but also open you up to different interests.

(Aug 24th - Sep 23rd)

A desire to create something beautiful and yet practical might find you making a huge investment of time and resources into a creative project. You're always one to push yourself too hard, but don't do that today. You're likely to sabotage the very results you're trying to create. Your mind could be spinning too quickly, and you might not be able to focus.

(Sep 24th - Oct 23rd)

Today you might be hosting a social event in your home, and inviting a lot of guests. This can be a lot of fun, but it can also be very draining. Too many people might demand your attention, and you, with your desire to be a good hostess, will try to keep them all happy. Enlist the aid of a friend or family member to act as co-host. This way you won't have to work too hard.

(Oct 24th - Nov 22nd)

Too many phone calls could plague you today, to the point where you almost want to unplug the phone. Neighbours or relatives might seek practical advice from you, though you might not be in the space to give it. You're probably feeling more solitary than usual, and it's best to indulge that feeling to clear your head. You can give advice tomorrow!

(Nov 23rd - Dec 21st)

A desire to redecorate, remodel, or otherwise beautify your home might tempt you to spend a little too much today. This is fine, as long as you make sure you overspend on what you really want or need. Don't get so carried away that you might have to take truly unaffordable stuff back to the store! You might invite some people over tonight, but again, be careful you don't invite too many.

(Dec 22nd - Jan 20th)

You might want to put a talent you have into creative overdrive today. You could come up with a sudden idea for a new project, and throw yourself into it totally. This is OK, as long as you don't push yourself too hard and overdo it. Sometimes exhaustion feeds creativity, but more often it clouds judgment and causes mistakes. You don't have to do it all today. Take time out and get some rest.

(Jan 21st - Feb 19th)

A surprising phone call could come from someone you haven't heard from for a long time. This conversation could set you off on an information treasure hunt. An excess of books, magazines, TV documentaries, and other information sources on metaphysical, spiritual, or artistic matters could have your mind buzzing.

(Feb 20th - Mar 20th)

Friends or groups you're involved with could well make a lot of demands on your time and energy today. Because you believe in what they stand for, you're very likely to commit to more than you can logically handle, neither physically nor emotionally. This is OK, but be sure to get help. Whatever tasks come your way today, don't try to do it all yourself.
