

CELEBS

ASHTON IRWIN @Ashton5SOS
 Someone asked me what the best part of being in a band is. I answered with, "the best part is feeling welcomed & at home everywhere we go"

Colin Farrell joins Tim Burton's 'Dumbo'

Actor Colin Farrell is in negotiations to join Eva Green and Danny DeVito in Tim Burton's 'Dumbo'.

The 'Fantastic Beasts and Where to Find Them' actor is expected to play the role of Holt, the widowed father of two kids from Kentucky, in the upcoming Disney live-action movie.

Eva Green is tapped as Colette, a French trapeze artist who works for the evil Vandemere, and DeVito who will play Medici, the man who runs a smaller circus acquired by the villain who is yet to be cast.

'Dumbo' centres on a big-eared circus elephant mocked for his large ears, but he learns to use them as wings to fly.

The project will reunite Eva Green with Tim Burton who directed her in his previous two movies 'Miss Peregrine's Home for Peculiar Children' and 'Dark Shadows'. (TOI)

'Happiness makes person beautiful'

Los Angeles

Actress Kristen Bell thinks being a good person is the "quickest" and easiest way to feel beautiful about yourself.

The "Frozen" star believes beauty comes from within and feels self-esteem is the most important part when it comes to feeling good about yourself.

"The beauty lesson that is paramount, is your beauty comes from inside, not out. You can make yourself look however you want to look but you will not feel beautiful until you have self-esteem, and you will not get self-esteem until you participate in estimable acts," Bell told people.com. (IANS)

Keira Knightley presumed 'Pirates...' would be a 'disaster'

Los Angeles

Filmmaker Richard Curtis has revealed that while filming for 2003 film "Love Actually", actress Keira Knightley presumed that the popular fantasy series "Pirates of the Caribbean" would be a disaster.

Knightley played the role of Elizabeth Swann in the film franchise.

In an op-ed written for The Radio Times, Curtis said it has been a "particular delight" for him to see how "brilliantly" the cast of "Love Actually", including Hugh Grant, Liam Neeson, Colin Firth and Alan Rickman has blossomed over the years, reports variety.com.

Later on, he recalled a funny incident when he asked Knightley what else she is working on and she replied that her another project is "some pirate thing - probably a disaster," referring to the "Pirates of the Caribbean" franchise that eventually made the actress a big star. (IANS)

STARRY Birthday
 Leslie Mann

March 26, 1972

Longtime comedy actress whose credits include Knocked Up, 17 Again, Funny People, Vacation, The Other Woman and The 40-Year-Old Virgin. She married Judd Apatow.

Gyllenhaal to fight ISIS in upcoming movie

Jake Gyllenhaal is all set to star in a drama about an American who joins the fight against Islamic state in Syria.

Gyllenhaal will be reteaming with 'Life' director Daniel Espinosa for this project, which is an adaptation of the Rolling Stone article, 'The Anarchist vs. ISIS'. Espinosa is set to direct the film adaptation and will produce under his newly formed production banner BOZI alongside Ninestories' producers Gyllenhaal and Riva Marker. (TOI)

