One-month fishing ban begins today for key species

TDT | Manama

The Supreme Council for Environment (SCE) has announced a fishing ban on spangled Emperor (Shari), rabbitfish (Safi) and seabream (Andag), from May 1-31.

This initiative is based on Edict (2) of 2024, issued by His Highness Shaikh Abdullah bin Hamad Al Khalifa, Personal Representative of His Majesty the King and President of the SCE.

The SCE announced that the decision is part of Bahrain's efforts to protect marine resources and to promote environmental balance and ecosystem rehabilitation.

Article 1 of the decision prohibits fishing in Bahrain's territorial waters for Shaari, Safi, and Andag fish during April and May each year.

Bangladeshi man ends up in jail for illegal shrimping

TDT | Manama

The Sixth Minor Criminal Court yesterday sentenced a Bangladeshi individual to 10 days in prison and permanent deportation from Bahrain for violating shrimp catching regulations.

The court also mandated the confiscation of his fishing boat and the value of the seized shrimp.

The case unfolded after the Coast Guard Command reported the arrest of a vehicle driver in Ras Hayyan, transporting sailors caught with 101 kilograms of prohibited shrimp. The sailors attempted to transfer the shrimp to another vehicle.

'Accept truce deal'

Blinken tells Hamas to agree on peace proposal as Israel warns of Rafah offensive

AFP | Jerusalem

Top US diplomat Antony Blinken yesterday urged Hamas to accept a truce in Gaza, as Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu vowed to launch a military offensive on Rafah "with or without" a deal. The hawkish premier issued the warning despite strong concerns raised by top ally Washington and hours before Secretary of State Blinken arrived in Israel on his latest Middle East crisis tour.

Netanyahu, who has vowed to destroy Hamas over its October 7 attack, said stopping the war "before achieving all of its goals is out of the question".

"We will enter Rafah and we will eliminate the Hamas battalions there with or without a deal," he told families of some of the hostages still being held in Gaza, his office said.

Netanyahu's comments came as Hamas was weighing the latest plan for a truce proposed in Cairo talks with US, Egyptian and Qatari mediators.

The Palestinian group said it was considering a plan for a 40-day ceasefire and the exchange of scores of hostages for larger numbers of Palestinian prisoners.

Hamas, whose envoys returned from Cairo talks to their base in Qatar, would "discuss the ideas and the proposal", said a Hamas source, adding that "we are keen to respond as quickly as possible". Al-Qahera News, a site linked to Egyptian intelligence services, earlier reported that Hamas negotiators were due to "return with a written response".

An Israeli official told AFP the government "will wait for answers until Wednesday night", and then "make a decision" whether to send envoys to Cairo.

Pressure

Washington has heightened pressure on all sides to reach a ceasefire - a message pushed by Blinken, who was on his seventh regional tour since the war broke out.

"Now it's on Hamas," Blinken told reporters in Jordan. "No more delays, no more excuses... We want to see in the coming days this agreement coming together."

Blinken, who arrived in Israel ahead of talks with Netanyahu and other officials yesterday following visits to Jordan and Saudi Arabia, also called for the redoubling of aid efforts.

A truce is "the most effective way to relieve the suffering" of civilians in the besieged Gaza Strip, he told reporters near Amman.

Jordan sends Gaza aid through new crossing

AFP | Tel Aviv

US Secretary of State Antony Blinken yesterday saw off a first convoy of Jordanian aid trucks to famished Gaza through a crossing newly opened by Israel, as he pointed to progress but called for more.

Blinken toured a loading zone for the relief goods on the dusty outskirts of Amman before flying to Israel, where he said he would insist on further humanitarian access in talks yesterday.

Israel, under pressure from President Joe Biden, said in early April that it would allow aid deliveries through the Erez crossing into northern Gaza and allow docking at the Ashdod port just north of the blockaded territory.

But Israel called the moves temporary and did not give a timeframe, with Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu facing

Blinken said the first convoy of trucks from Jordan, which includes supplies from US charities, was leaving for Erez crossing later yesterday.

Pressing global crisis

'Balanced approach' key for sustainable energy future

Zahra Ayaz
TDT | Manama

The Minister of Oil and Environment and the Special Envoy for Climate Affairs, His Excellency Dr. Mohammed bin Mubarak Bin Daina, highlighted the pressing issue of the energy crisis and the lack of investments in new opportunities within the energy sector.

Dr. Bin Daina was speaking during a recent business networking luncheon held at the Crowne Plaza and organised by the American Chamber of Commerce Bahrain.

As the world focuses on combating climate change, the pressure on finding alternative energy sources mounts, leaving Bahrain and other nations grappling with the imminent shortage.

Addressing the audience, Dr. Bin Daina stressed the long-standing relationship between Bahrain and the United States, spanning over 80 years.

He emphasised that Bahrain's collaboration with the US extended beyond military bases, extending to the Free Trade Agreement (FTA), with a significant focus on environmental concerns.

Drawing attention to the energy security challenge, Dr. Bin Daina highlighted recent climate-related incidents at Bahrain Petroleum Company (Bapco), attributing them to the effects of climate change.

H.E. Dr. Mohammed bin Mubarak Bin Daina speaking at the event

Unprecedented heavy rainfall, reaching 90mm, caused these incidents, underscoring the undeniable impact of climate change on the region.

He stated, "There's no way anyone can question climate change when faced with such extreme weather conditions."

Regarding alternative energy sources, Dr. Bin Daina acknowledged the potential role of hydrogen but expressed concerns about its high cost.

Balanced approach

He stressed the need for a balanced approach, combining multiple energy sources such as renewables and hydrogen to address the energy shortage effectively.

Examining the global energy consumption and the challenges faced by developing nations due to limited financing options, Dr.

Bin Daina expressed his genuine concern about the heavy reliance on certain energy sources.

He warned that such reliance could lead to a shortage of energy sources that cannot be easily replaced, exacerbating the energy crisis.

Dr. Bin Daina pointed out Bahrain's dedication to combat climate change, stating, "We are committed to achieving carbon neutrality by 2060, aiming for a substantial 30 per cent reduction in emissions by 2035, and taking significant steps to double our mangrove size."

However, he raised a valid concern about the effectiveness of these measures, questioning, "Will these initiatives alone be sufficient?"

Modern living, timeless charm

Under the patronage of His Excellency Shaikh Mohammed bin Khalifa bin Abdullah Al Khalifa, CEO of RERA, Al Areen officially launches its residential project 'Tilal'

● Including villas and townhouses designed according to the highest standards characterised by high-quality finishes

● "Tilal" is one of the main elements of the Al Areen masterplan, which will be an important tourist and residential destination

● The project includes facilities to serve the Tilal residential neighbourhood

● Areen Holding Company received reservations for the first phase of the project at a platform in City Centre Bahrain from May 1 to 11, 2024

TDT | Manama

Under the patronage of His Excellency Shaikh Mohammed bin Khalifa Al Khalifa, CEO of the Real Estate Regulatory Authority (RERA), Al Areen Holding Company, a prominent player in the real estate industry, inaugurated the Tilal project in the presence of a number of officials, guests and media personnel.

In conjunction, the company launched a special platform at City Centre Bahrain from May 1 to 11, 2024, to promote the project and receive reservations for the first phase.

Tilal residential project is located within the master plan of Areen. It consists of villas and townhouses featuring modern designs in line with modern trends in construction, considering the unique lifestyle of the Bahraini family and its requirements. Each unit also features high-quality finishes, taking into account environmental sustainability.

On the occasion, H.E. Shaikh Mohammed bin Khalifa praised the comprehensive attention

He pointed out that Tilal uniquely embodies the cultural advancement witnessed by the Kingdom of Bahrain and the development of its architectural scene.

Furthermore, His Excellency noted the high quality and standards that characterise the residential units, stressing that the new project will constitute a notable addition to residential communities in the Kingdom, due to its facilities that reflect modern trends in construction and design to create sustainable cities.

On his part, Shaikh Mohammed bin Daij Al Khalifa, Managing Director of Al Areen Holding Company, expressed his sincere gratitude and appreciation to H.E. Shaikh Mohammed bin Khalifa for his support and assistance to the company.

At the same time, he expressed gratitude to all the official and private bodies, especially RERA, for their unlimited support for the Al Areen masterplan, which will be a landmark in the Kingdom's economic and tourism landscape.

He commented, "We are proud to launch this project through which the exceptional features of the modern Areen masterplan are evident. This project will be a prominent residential destination with a distinguished location near the five-star Raffles

Al Areen Palace Hotel."

The Managing Director also called on interested parties to book reservations at the platform launched by the company at City Centre Bahrain from May 1 to 11, 2024.

Al Areen masterplan

It is worth noting that the Al Areen masterplan is a leading upscale destination for residence, hospitality, entertainment and business. It will include a new city with an area of two million square metres of which 1.5 million square metres are built area, accommodating about 25,000 people, in addition to housing commercial offices, retail units, restaurants, hotels, health and educational facilities, and a range of residential communities.

The project is situated near Al Areen Wildlife Park in the southern region of the Kingdom of Bahrain and close to the Bahrain International Circuit and Al Dana Amphitheatre.

Council Rejects Accounts

MPs demand action for NAO-affiliated entities to rectify issues highlighted on audit report

TDT | Manama

The Council of Representatives voted down the government's Consolidated Final Account for 2022 after extensive deliberation.

This resolution, in concordance with the recommendations by the Committee on Financial and Economic Affairs, saw 20 members vote in favour of rejecting the account, with 8 voting against the committee recommendation and 2 abstentions.

This outcome follows a directive from the committee, which called for the government and National Audit Office (NAO)-affiliated entities to rectify issues highlighted in the NAO report.

The committee emphasised the need for correcting past mistakes, adopting investigative auditing, reducing public debt, and enhancing employment for Bahraini citizens.

Dr. Isa Naser Alnoaimi, representing the NAO, informed the council that the office completed 106 oversight missions, issued 160 reports, made 1127 recommendations, and produced 109 follow-up reports over the past year.

MP Hasan Ebrahim expressed concerns about the livelihoods of 300 individuals stemming from the NAO report on the Khatwa programme, which indicated lapses and neglect in the responsibilities of officials and staff within the Ministry of Social Development. This includes the endorsement of unqualified statements and suspicions of document signature forgery.

Misdeeds

Assuaging these concerns, H.E. Ghanim Al Buainain, Minister for Shura Council and Council of Representatives Affairs, assured the council that "no individual shall bear the onus of others' misdeeds" while emphatically stressing that "the results of the ongoing investigation must not be pre-empted."

On behalf of the Ministry of Finance and National Economy, Mr. Mubarak Matar stated, "Facing a deficit necessitates borrowing. The public debt is estimated at 16.7 billion. Key strategies for debt reduction included curbing the growth of public debt, fostering economic growth, and ensuring sustainability."

He added that "a recovery plan is in place to achieve fiscal equilibrium."

- H.E. GHANIM AL BUAINAIN, MINISTER FOR SHURA COUNCIL AND COUNCIL OF REPRESENTATIVES AFFAIRS

Minister of Cabinet Affairs, affirmed that updates were made with regard to the government's actions in response to the NAO's report.

Novel approach

The government has embraced a novel approach and set up model standards to boost the rate of recommendation implementation. A digital system has been developed to facilitate the monitoring process.

MP Dr. Mahdi Alshowaikh levelled scathing criticism of negligence at the Ministry of Health, referencing the NAO report's findings on government hospitals, which indicate a lack of adherence to required procedures in Jidhafs Hospital and Salmaniya Medical Complex, confirming the spread of antibiotic-resistant bacteria.

Reasons cited include a shortage of isolation rooms, inadequate patient-to-staff ratios, internal infections, poor sterilisation quality, and infection control adherence rates below 50%.

Initiative

In retort, Dr. Maryam Aljalalima, CEO of the National Health Regulatory Authority, stated, "Service enhancements are evident, including a definitive strategy with monitored performance metrics, and a strategic blueprint is in development. It is crucial to recognise that no infection outbreak is present and that the infection control department is fully functional. For emergencies, we employ the Canadian triage system, and patient wait times have been curtailed, with no one exceeding a 24-hour wait. An initiative to

On behalf of the Financial and Economic Affairs Committee, MP Mohammed Salman Al Ahmed remarked, "In our budgetary deliberations, the Finance Committee endeavours to preserve the allocations for the Ministry of Health, given their paramount importance, while overlooking minor expenditure infractions."

Reforms

The NAO's recommendations have precipitated case referrals to the Public Prosecution and enhanced the performance of the Future Generation Reserve. The establishment of audit and oversight committees, along

The report also acknowledges progress in customs affairs and the operations of the Information and e-Government Authority. The Financial and Administrative Control Office has implemented a substantial number of the NAO's recommendations, with aspirations to expand the qualification listing.

MP Maryam Al Saegh commented on the observed violations within the Ministry of Social Development, with particular emphasis on disability requests and the delays in compensation for individuals with disabilities.

Unresponsiveness

She highlighted the years of unresponsiveness and the incomplete compensation despite committee approval some 21 months prior. She also drew attention to the inadequate support for individuals with autism, including the absence of care homes and vocational rehabilitation facilities tailored to their needs.

Addressing the council, the Minister of Education, H.E. Mohammed bin Mubarak Juma, stated that "the level of spending on Ministry of Education projects in 2022 differs from the levels of spending in 2023 with regard to projects. It reached 97% in 2023, and when the government sets a budget for a specific project, the spending continues until its completion."

H.E. Nawaf Al Maawda, Minister of Justice and Islamic Affairs, provided assurances to the council that there were no notes of criminal suspicion within the report. He clarified that the cases under scrutiny by the Public Prosecution were independent of the report, and he stated that the Ministry of Justice had implemented 90% of the recommendations mentioned therein.

Court of Appeal overturns acquittal rulings and imposes fines for tax evasion

TDT | Manama

The Chief Appeals Prosecutor of the Public Prosecution announced that the Third Great Court of Appeal had upheld the Public Prosecution's appeal in three cases involving four defendants and their companies.

The court overturned the acquittal rulings issued by the lower court and reinstated convictions for tax evasion based on the evidence presented.

In the first case, the court fined the accused an amount equivalent to the unpaid taxes, totaling BD901,077,750. The accused was ordered to settle the outstanding taxes owed. Furthermore, the company associated with the accused received a fine of BD1,802,155,500.

In the second case, both defendants were fined the sum of BD185,597,500 each, reflecting their outstanding tax liabilities. They were also mandated to clear the dues owed. One defendant's company was fined BD371,195,000.

In the third case, the accused was fined BD6,194,500, corresponding to the tax owed, and was directed to fulfill the outstanding tax obligation.

Human traffickers jailed, fined and face deportation

TDT | Manama

The High Criminal Court has issued verdicts in three separate cases involving human trafficking, with the defendants found guilty of exploiting victims for forced labour and sexual exploitation.

In the first case, the court sentenced the defendant, an African national, to five years in prison and fined her BD5,000. In the second case, two Asian defendants were each sentenced to five years in prison and fined BD2,000. In the third case, two other Asian defendants were sentenced to five years in prison and fined BD1,000 each.

All three verdicts also include orders for the defendants to cover the costs of repatriating the victims to their home countries.

Landmark legislation enhances prisoner rehabilitation

Upgrading policies in managing detainees

TDT | Manama

In a landmark decision reflecting His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa's spirit of clemency, the Council of Representatives yesterday unanimously passed legislation that significantly improves the operations of the General Directorate of Reformation and Rehabilitation.

In line with recommendations from the Legislation and Legal Opinion Commission, the amendments strengthen existing measures, ensuring the implementation of best practices and policies in managing detainees and prisoners.

The ambition of this legislative endeavour is dual yet singularly focused: to elevate the standard of services afforded to those within the walls of detention and to cast a benevolent influence upon their kin on a psychological level. This progressive step solidifies Bahrain's steadfast commitment to advancing its reformation plan.

The legislation ushers in a suite of enhancements, chief among them the broadening of visitation rights and the assurance of complimentary healthcare for inmates and those awaiting trial.

Visitation

The scope of visitation now extends its embrace beyond the confines of immediate family to include individuals authorised by the directorate's management. This creates a more inclusive environment, enabling prisoners to maintain essential connections with their loved ones and supportive individuals, which is crucial for their well-being and rehabilitation.

Furthermore, the amendments guarantee free healthcare access for inmates and pre-trial detainees. This will be facilitated through collaboration between the institutions, the Supreme Council of Health, and the Minister, who will issue a decision outlining the regulatory provisions.

The provision of free healthcare services is a notable enhancement that prioritises the well-being of individuals in custody and highlights Bahrain's dedication to their rehabilitation and reintegration into society.

Reforms

These reforms have been met with acclaim from members of parliament, albeit with minor reservations.

MP Alhossaini commented, "A broader consultation with political and humanitarian bodies, as well as the Supreme Council of Health, would have been prudent prior to the legislative rush."

In response, H.E. Ghanim Al Buainain, Minister for Shura Council and House of Representatives Affairs, justified the expedited process by stating that waiting for such entities would only serve to stall the proceedings, especially as we are nearing the end of the legislative term.

Safeguarding workplace

MP proposes expanding labour inspector powers to combat violations and protect workers' rights

TDT | Manama

MP Jalal Kadhem has proposed a new law that would grant Labour Market Regulatory Authority (LMRA) inspectors broader access to workplaces across both the public and private sectors.

The proposed legislation, titled "Empowering Labour Inspectors," aims to address the growing concern of labour violations, particularly among foreign workers, and ensure a more stable and equitable labour market for all.

"The increasing number of foreign workers in Bahrain necessitates stricter enforcement of labour laws," MP Kadhem stated. "This proposed law will empower LMRA inspectors to access all workplaces, including those with security guards, government buildings, and private companies, regardless of their nature or industry."

The proposed law emphasizes the importance of verifying the data and records of foreign workers, including their employment contracts, to ensure they have valid work permits and are not in violation of any regulations.

"It is crucial to ensure that foreign workers are employed legally and ethically," MP Kadhem stressed. "This will not only protect their rights but also create a fairer and more competitive environment for all businesses operating in Bahrain." The proposed law also aims to expedite the process of rectifying labour violations and taking legal action against violators. By granting inspectors the authority to take immediate action, the LMRA will be able to address violations more effectively and deter future offenses.

"This proposed legislation is a crucial step towards ensuring a stable and prosperous labour market in Bahrain," MP Kadhem concluded. "By protecting the rights of both employers and employees, we can create a more just and equitable society for all."

The proposed law is expected to be debated in the Parliament in the coming weeks.

Key witnesses set to testify in case of killing infant

TDT | Manama

A prosecution witness and a forensic doctor will take the stand on May 5, 2024 to testify in the case of a GCC national in addition to three Asian women, including the victim's mother, all of whom were implicated in the case of killing a six-month infant.

According to details, the first defendant, a 22-year-old Gulf national residing in Bahrain, was present in the house along with the fourth defendant, a 29-year-old Asian woman who worked as the child's nanny.

On the day of the incident, the second defendant, a 32-year-old Asian woman and mother of the child, left her six-month-old baby with them. It was during this time that the first defendant allegedly struck several blows to the child's face, causing injuries because he was crying profusely.

When the fourth defendant, the child's nanny, witnessed the assault and questioned the first defendant about it, he reportedly showed no concern. Shortly after, the child tragically passed away.

Lack of remorse

The first defendant informed others about the child's death, but he displayed a lack of remorse, referring to the child as illegitimate. Following the child's death, the fourth defendant contacted the second defendant, the child's mother, and falsely informed her that her son had died due to falling off the bed while he was asleep.

Subsequently, the second defendant reported the incident to the authorities.

After investigations, forensic analysis confirmed that the human cells collected from the crime scene belonged to the deceased child and the defendants involved. As a result, the Public Prosecution immediately initiated an investigation upon receiving the report. The crime scene was examined, witnesses were questioned, and the defendant was interrogated.

Appeal verdict set for man sentenced for arson

TDT | Manama

The High Appeals Court is poised to deliver its verdict on June 25, 2024 in the case of a Bahraini man sentenced to five years in prison for setting two cars on fire.

The man, who was under the influence of a mind-altering substance at the time of the incident, is appealing the initial conviction.

The incident occurred when a security guard at a company noticed the smell of smoke coming from the security camera control room. Through the camera feed, he witnessed a man on a bicycle approaching a parked car near the company.

The man opened the fuel tank, set the fuel on fire, and fled the scene. The guard rushed to the scene and found two cars engulfed in flames near the fuel tank. He managed to extinguish the fire using a bucket of water.

Police officers arrived at the scene and reviewed the company's security cameras. The footage showed the suspect riding a bicycle with black and red colors. Based on this information, the officers conducted investigations and identified the suspect through confidential sources.

Image used for illustrative purposes only

The following day, the security team received information about the suspect's whereabouts in Isa Town. Upon arriving near Khalifa Sports City, they spotted the suspect riding the same bicycle used in the crime. Despite his attempt to escape, the suspect was apprehended.

Confession

During questioning by the Public Prosecution, the suspect confessed to committing the crime. The security camera footage confirmed that the suspect was the same person seen in the video, and the bicycle seized from him matched the one used in the arson.

The High Criminal Court found the suspect guilty of arson and sentenced him to five years in prison. The suspect has appealed the verdict, and the Appeals Court will deliver its verdict on June 25, 2024.

Husband jailed for refusing to hand over two daughters

● Bahraini mother wins battle for custody

TDT | Manama

The High Sharia Court has sentenced an Asian man to one year in prison for refusing to hand over his two daughters to his wife, despite a court order granting her custody.

The man claimed the children were staying with his mother in their home country with his wife's consent, but the court found his argument baseless.

The couple, who married and had their children in Bahrain, traveled to the husband's home country for a vacation.

The wife returned to Bahrain first due to work commitments, expecting her husband and daughters to follow. However, upon their arrival date, the husband returned alone, leaving the children with his family.

The wife, distraught and unable to contact her daughters, filed for custody in the Sharia Court. The court ruled in her favor, granting her custody and ordering the husband to hand over the children. The ruling was upheld by the Court of Appeals.

Despite the court orders, the husband continued to deny his wife access to their daughters. The wife, represented, pursued legal action against her husband for his non-compliance.

False

The claimant's lawyer argued that the husband's claims of an agreement to leave the children with his mother were false, as evidenced by the repeated court rulings granting custody to the wife.

The lawyer emphasised that the husband's actions were causing unnecessary hardship for the mother and depriving her of her right to be with her daughters.

The court, convinced by the evidence and arguments presented, found the husband guilty of violating the custody order and sentenced him to one year in prison. The court also imposed a fine and set bail at BD500 for the suspension of the sentence.

Member of the Board of Directors of the Bahrain Chamber of Commerce and Industry, Sonia Janahi, emphasized the importance of cooperation between the International Labour Organization (ILO) and the Arab Labor Organization to achieve social justice worldwide.

This came during her participation in the events of the 50th session of the Arab Labor Conference in the Iraqi capital, Baghdad, organized by the Arab Labor Organization.

Janahi stressed that social justice can only be achieved through fair and lasting peace, which highlights the importance of coordination between the international organization and regional organizations. She underlined the necessity of taking into account the regional orientations of member states in the International Labour Organization when making decisions, especially regarding sensitive issues such as the project on the right to strike. She explained that it is wise and prudent not to transfer the proposal's approval to the International Court of Justice, and it is necessary to discuss and vote on it in the General Assembly of the ILO.

In another context, Janahi expressed her deep concern about the humanitarian situation in Gaza and called on the international community to make more efforts to stop the violence and provide assistance to the Palestinian people. She also emphasized the importance of rehabilitating the Palestinian workforce and supporting Palestinian entrepreneurs.

Concluding her address, Janahi called for a reconsideration of traditional funding patterns for entrepreneurial projects and suggested benefiting from the experiences of other countries in this field, such as the "orange economy" that relies on knowledge and creativity.

Local Impact Investments Manager at Mumtalakat Dr. Marwa Al-Sabbagh; and Director of Entrepreneurship, Technology and Strategic Initiatives at Tamkeen Marwa Aleskafi.

Shaikh Abdulla bin Khalifa Al Khalifa, Mumtalakat CEO, commended the initiative on its resounding success and lauded the collaborative efforts of Mumtalakat and Tamkeen in nurturing the next generation of Bahraini entrepreneurs and investing in their groundbreaking projects.

"The competition epitomizes our commitment to local investment and partnerships with the private sector, with the aim of fostering economic growth in the Kingdom through innovation," he said.

Tamkeen Chief Executive, Maha Abdulhameed Mofeez congratulated the winners and underscored the significance of such initiatives in nurturing national talent and amplifying the growth potential of the startup ecosystem.

"Our partnership with Mumtalakat aims to promote promising ventures and provide them with essential support, thereby contributing to the success of the entrepreneurial landscape and broader private sector recovery," she said.

A 14-year-old boy died yesterday after a man wielding a sword stabbed the youth, two police officers and two other people, in a street attack in east London, police said. The man used what appeared to be a Samurai-type sword in the Hainault district shortly before 7:00 am (0600 GMT).

Ecuador embassy raid crossed line, top UN court told Ecuador's early April raid on Mexico's embassy to seize a former top Ecuadorian official crossed a line and set a dangerous precedent for global diplomatic relations, the UN's top court heard yesterday. Ecuadorian security forces stormed the Mexican embassy in a late night raid on April 5 to arrest former vice president Jorge Glas, who is wanted on corruption charges and had been granted asylum by Mexico.

Little joy for Zimbabweans as new currency starts circulating

The so-called ZiG, or Zimbabwe Gold, replaced the Zimbabwean dollar, whose value against its US counterpart had collapsed over the past year, pushing up inflation. The new currency officially started trading earlier this month, but the central bank only released the first two denominations -- a 10 ZiG note ($0.70) and a 5 ZiG coin -- yesterday. Despite hopes this would solve a shortage of small change, Zimbabweans were left disappointed.

Judge threatens Trump with jail over gag order violations

New York judge fines Trump $1,000 each for nine instances of defying gag order

Judge warns of incarceration for further violations

AFP | New York

The New York judge presiding over Donald Trump's hush money trial fined the former president yesterday for defying a gag order and warned that further violations could see him thrown in jail. Trump, 77, is accused of falsifying business records to reimburse his lawyer, Michael Cohen, for a $130,000 payment made to porn star Stormy Daniels just days ahead of the 2016 election against Hillary Clinton.

Gunman kills six in attack on Afghan mosque: govt spokesman

Taliban security personnel stand guard atop a Humevee vehicle AFP | Kabul

A gunman stormed a mosque in western Afghanistan and killed six people, a government spokesman said yesterday. Interior ministry spokesman Abdul Mateen Qani said that on Monday around 9:00 pm (1630 GMT) "an unknown armed person shot at civilian worshippers in a mosque" in Herat province's Guzara district. "Six civilians were martyred and one civilian was injured," he wrote on social media platform X early yesterday morning. The state-run Bakhtar News Agency gave the same death toll for the attack, which took place in a district just south of the provincial capital of Herat city. Citing local sources, domestic media channel Tolo reported the mosque belonged to Afghanistan's minority Shiite community. While no group has yet claimed the attack, the regional chapter of Islamic State (IS) is the largest security threat in Afghanistan and has frequently targeted Shiite communities. The Taliban government has pledged to protect religious and ethnic minorities since returning to power in August 2021, but rights monitors say they've done little to make good on that promise. The most notorious attack linked to IS since the Taliban takeover was in 2022, when at least 53 people -- including 46 girls and young women -- were slain in the suicide bombing of an education centre. Taliban officials blamed IS for the attack, which was staged in a Shiite neighbourhood of Kabul. Kabul's new rulers claim to have ousted IS from Afghanistan and are highly sensitive to suggestions the group has found safe haven in the country since the withdrawal of foreign forces.

Four killed in two Paris apartment fires

Paris fire brigade (BSP) operate after a fire in an apartment AFP | Paris

At least four people were killed that broke out in two separate Paris neighbourhoods, police sources and prosecutors said yesterday. Three bodies were found soon after 8:00 am (0600 GMT) in a seventh-floor flat near the Opera Garnier in the centre of the French capital. The blaze on the Boulevard des Italiens is believed to have started between 4:00 to 5:00 am. Those killed "couldn't get out of the window because of bars installed to prevent burglars getting in via the roof," said Ariel Weil, mayor of the city's four central districts. "Around 10 people living on the same floor were rescued by firefighters who got in through the roof," he added. Weil and a police source said investigators were looking into whether the fire could have started with a gas leak. Several firefighting vehicles were still on the scene by late morning, an AFP journalist saw, while central Paris prosecutors have opened an investigation.

Ben Stiller reveals 'Zoolander 2' flop left him 'blindsided' for 'a long time'

Ben Stiller

Celebretainment | Los Angeles

Ben Stiller was left "blindsided" for "a long time" by his 'Zoolander' sequel being a turkey.

The 58-year-old actor, who wrote, produced, directed and starred in the 2016 follow-up to his 2001 male modelling farce, said he thought he had messed up his career and lost the ability to do comedy when it was a commercial and critical flop.

He told 'The X Files' actor David Duchovny, 63, on his upcoming podcast 'Fail Better' about the devastating impact the failure of 'Zoolander 2' had on his life and mental state: "I thought everybody wanted this.

"And then it's like, 'Wow, I must have really (messed) this up.

"Everybody didn't go to it. And it's gotten these horrible reviews.

"It really freaked me out because I was like, 'I didn't know was that bad?'

"What scared me the most on that one was I'm losing what I think what's funny, the questioning yourself... on 'Zoolander 2', it was definitely blindsiding to me.

"And it definitely affected me for a long time."

'Zoolander 2', which saw Owen Wilson, 55, and Will Ferrell, 56, return from the first film, made only $29 million against its $50 million budget.

The sequel also featured cameos from celebrities including Justin Bieber, 30, and 39-year-old Katy Perry.

Ben said the failure gave him the "space" to "kind of sit with myself and have to deal with it and other projects that I had been working on".

Anne Hathaway is a 'guest' of fashion

Celebretainment | Los Angeles

Anne Hathaway views herself as a "guest" of fashion. The 41-year-old star is a regular fixture at runway shows and takes an interest in clothes but thinks it would be an "insult" to genuine style experts who make a living from the industry to describe herself as a "fashion person".

Explaining why she doesn't think she is a fashion person, she told V magazine: "I really don't. I view myself more as a guest.

"I think it'd be an insult to someone whose education revolved around it, whose life revolves around it, who has done a full fashion cycle in multiple cities as opposed to just, like, getting invited to a show and an after-party.

"I think there's a degree of stamina and schlepping involved in being a proper fashion person. I'm very grateful to be a guest.

"I mean, I've studied it, but it's informal.

"I'm aware of the history. I love fashion photography.

And I've been welcomed for a long time and been shown great kindness and generosity by people whose lives it is. But I'm an actress first."

actress may not be a "fashion person" but she recently spoke of how "thrilled" she is to be one of the faces of Versace after shooting a new 'Icons' campaign alongside 'Oppenheimer' actor Cillian Murphy.

She said: "I have met so many Versace women who are powerful, emotionally available, ambitious, substantive, funny, fierce, loving, singular, sexy, smart, talented, generous, very much like Donatella [Versace].

"I have observed that a Versace Woman is herself. I am so thrilled and honoured to be considered a Versace Woman and am overjoyed to reunite with the Versace family for another Icons campaign."

Zendaya calls out double standard over her intimate scenes

Celebretainment | Los Angeles

Zendaya has called out a double standard over her kissing scenes on screen.

The 27-year-old actress appears in new romance movie 'Challengers' as a tennis coach caught in a love triangle with two athletes played by Mike Faist and Josh O'Connor, and she insisted it's "odd" how much attention to be paid to her intimate on camera moments.

Appearing on 'Jake's Takes', she told host Jake Hamilton: "I know, it's very odd."

Asked if other people simply forget it's sometimes simply just part of her job to kiss other actors or if it's a way to get her to discuss certain topics, she suggested other performers don't get grilled in the same way.

She added: "I have no idea. I don't know if it's because they want it to be, like, a viral thing, I don't know.

"But I have noticed that, with me specifically, I feel like other actors don't... if it was somebody else here, you probably wouldn't [have] asked that question.

"But yeah, it is a part of my job and it is a completely normal part of the job despite, I think, maybe other people's perception of our job. But yeah, it is odd."

Zendaya - who is in a relationship with fellow Hollywood star Tom Holland - admitted it is something that has been playing on her mind as she promotes the new movie.

She said: "Thank you for bringing that up, because I thought the same thing. I'm like, this is weird! This is weird!"

'I'll always want to do more': Tom Holland sets sights on Spider-Man return

Celebretainment | Los Angeles

Tom Holland is desperate to make more 'Spider-Man' films.

The 27-year-old actor has played the web-slinger in the Marvel Cinematic Universe (MCU) trilogy that concluded with 2021's 'Spider-Man: No Way Home' and revealed that he is hopeful of portraying the legendary superhero for some time to come.

Speaking to Deadline at the Sands International Film Festival in Scotland, Tom said: "The simple answer is that I'll always want to do more 'Spider-Man' films.

"I owe my life and career to 'Spider-Man'. So the simple answer is yes. I'll always want to do more."

However, Tom admits that there is a caveat as a story for a potential fourth movie simply has to be right because there is "a legacy to protect" following the success of the trilogy that he led.

The 'Uncharted' star said: "We have the best in the business working toward whatever the story might be. But until we've cracked it, we have a legacy to protect. The third movie was so special in so many ways that we need to make sure we do the right thing."

Holland continued: "This is the first time in this process that I've been part of the creative so early. It's just a process where I'm watching and learning. It's just a really fun stage for me. Like I said, everyone wants it to happen. But we want to make sure we're not overdoing the same things."

Paris Hilton wants her children to be best friends

Celebretainment | Los Angeles

Paris Hilton hopes her children will be "best friends".

The 43-year-old socialite and her husband Carter Reum have son Phoenix, 15 months, and five-month-old daughter London - who were both born via surrogate - together and while they are currently "like twins" due to their small age gap, the 'Stars Are Blind' hitmaker is looking forward to seeing them get even closer as they grow old.

Speaking on her 'I Am Paris' podcast, she said: "[London] loves her big brother. It's so cute just to see them together. He is just so sweet and gentle with her ...

"And sometimes she'll be in her little rocker and he'll stand there and kinda like rock it back and forth. And she'll just look up at him with the biggest smile. And you can just tell that she just completely adores her big brother.

"I'm just so excited to watch them grow up together and be best friends."

London is "not sitting up yet" but "is laughing" and sleeps through the night, and her proud mother can already see her personality shining through.

She said: "Well, she's only five months old, but I can already tell that she is very serious and so sweet."

Paris thinks she and Phoenix are very alike, while she can see a lot of her sister Nicky Hilton Rothschild in her daughter.

She gushed: "[London] reminds me so much of my sister Nicky.

"She actually looks fairly similar to Nicky.

Like when I look at my baby pictures, Phoenix is my twin and then little London looks like Nikki. So it's so cute just to, compare all those photos together."

The former 'Simple Life' star recently admitted she had never known love like what she has experienced since having her children.

She gushed on Instagram: "I've dreamed of having a daughter named London for as long as I can remember I'm so grateful she is here I truly cherish every moment I spend with her.

"Together with Phoenix, my angel babies have shown me a love that I never even knew could run so deep before I became their mother."

Kolkata's Rana handed one-match IPL ban for code of conduct breach

Harshit Rana
AFP | Kolkata

Kolkata Knight Riders fast bowler Harshit Rana has been suspended for one match and had his entire game fee docked over a code of conduct breach in the IPL, a tournament statement said yesterday.

Rana, an up and coming Indian quick, helped Kolkata to a big victory over Delhi Capitals by taking two wickets at his team's home Eden Gardens on Monday.

The IPL did not specify the reason for the harsh penalty, but said: "Rana committed a Level 1 offence under Article 2.5 of the IPL's Code of Conduct. He admitted to the offence and accepted the Match Referee's sanction."

It's likely Rana was handed the fine for his send-off gesture after he bowled Delhi's Abishek Porel in a key moment, with the batsman attempting a scoop only for the ball to crash onto the stumps.

Rana, who was hit by the batsman for two fours and a six in his first over, started to blow Porel a kiss after the dismissal but stopped short, and instead signalled the way to the dugout.

Alcaraz holds off Struff to reach Madrid quarter-finals

Carlos Alcaraz extends Madrid Open winning streak to 14 matches

● Sinner battles hip issue to secure spot in quarter-finals

● Swiatek overcomes first-set loss to advance to the semi-finals

AFP | Madrid

Second seed Carlos Alcaraz extended his Madrid Open winning streak to a record-equalling 14 with a hard-fought victory over familiar foe Jan-Lennard Struff to move into the quarter-finals yesterday.

In a rematch of last year's final at the Caja Magica, Alcaraz snapped Struff's six-match winning streak with a 6-3, 6-7 (5/7), 7-6 (7/4) result to squeeze through to a last-eight clash with seventh seed Andrey Rublev.

Top-seeded Jannik Sinner has been dealing with a hip problem but managed to overcome Karen Khachanov 5-7, 6-3, 6-3 to reach his fourth Masters 1000 quarter-final in as many events this season.

Alcaraz, who missed Monte Carlo and Barcelona with a forearm injury, saved eight out of 10 break points and saw four match points come and go before he completed the two-hour 52-minute win.

"How much I've missed this!

Quarters next," wrote the former world number one on the camera lens after the match.

Alcaraz, who is now 24-0 on Spanish clay since the start of the 2022 season, is bidding to become the first player to win three consecutive Madrid titles.

After blowing a 2-0 lead in the second set, Alcaraz opened up a 3-1 advantage in the tiebreak, only to lose the next five points and go on to surrender the set to Struff, who came into the tournament on the back of a maiden ATP title run in Munich.

A break of serve in the fourth game of the decider gave Alcaraz the score cushion he needed but the two-time Grand Slam champion was broken while serving for the victory from 40-0 up at 5-3.

Struff saved four match points and the contest fittingly went to a deciding tiebreak. Alcaraz let a 3-0 lead slip, but he got his hands on more match points by landing an inch-perfect lob and he closed on his fifth opportunity of the match.

"This match reminds me of last year's. It was a great fight," said Alcaraz after matching Rafael Nadal's record winning streak in Madrid.

"It was difficult for me to deal with my emotions, to handle difficult moments. Serving for the match, it was really difficult for me to get broken after being 40-0 up, but I'm really happy that at the end it didn't affect me and my mentality and I kept fighting."

Sinner won 80 percent of points behind his first serve against Khachanov, hitting 35

Alcaraz, now tied with Nadal for longest winning streak in Madrid, aims to become the first player to win three consecutive Madrid Open titles winners to 29 unforced errors in the two-hour nine-minute battle.

The reigning Australian Open champion will face Casper Ruud or Felix Auger-Aliassime for a place in the semi-finals.

"For sure I'm not physically at 100 percent today. Tomorrow I have one day off, which can help me to get through," said the Italian.

Swiatek fights back

Meanwhile, third seed Daniil Medvedev completed his full set of Masters 1000 quarter-finals reached by defeating Alexander Bublik 7-6(7/3), 6-4 to book a meeting with Rafael Nadal or Jiri Lehecka.

After grabbing the opening set tiebreak, Medvedev cruised to a 5-1 lead before Bublik halted his momentum and narrowed his deficit to just one game.

But Medvedev had a second chance to serve for the victory and this time he comfortably converted his first match point to make it to the last-eight stage or better at each of the nine Masters 1000 events.

On the women's side, Iga Swiatek was made to sweat in her 4-6, 6-0, 6-2 victory over Brazilian lefty Beatriz Haddad Maia, as she dropped her first set of the tournament and needed two and a half hours to reach a second consecutive Madrid semi-final.

Swiatek squandered a 4-1 lead to lose the first set but the world number one struck back with a vengeance, cutting down on her errors to sweep the next eight games.

Haddad Maia stopped the rot to break Swiatek in the third game of the decider, but the Brazilian's comeback attempt was short-lived.

Swiatek, 22, took four of the last five games to set up a last-four showdown with 2022 champion Ons Jabeur or American Madison Keys.

"I needed to stick to the tactics, because in the first set I started making too many mistakes. I started playing too fast," said Swiatek.

"I just needed to really get back to basics and what I wanted to play today. It took me a while, longer than usual, but I'm glad that it happened after the set anyway."

Paceman Archer recalled to England squad for T20 World Cup

AFP | London

Paceman Jofra Archer was yesterday recalled to England's squad for the defence of their T20 World Cup crown after a year out of action.

The 29-year-old, who has endured a string of injuries since his international breakthrough in 2019, has not played competitive cricket for a year but has recovered from a right elbow injury.

He takes his place in a 15-man provisional squad captained by Jos Buttler for the tournament that starts on June 1 in the West Indies and the United States.

The same group will play take on Pakistan in a four-match T20 series beginning at Headingley on May 22.

All the players who are currently featuring in the Indian Premier League will return in time for the series against Babar Azam's men.

Archer has managed just 15 T20 appearances for England since making his international debut five years ago but is still considered a potential game-changer.

Another factor in England's favour is that he grew up in Barbados so is knowledgeable about Caribbean conditions.

Veteran seamer Chris Jordan, also born in Barbados, returns to the squad alongside uncapped spinner Tom Hartley but there is no place for Chris Woakes, a World Cup winner in both the 20-over and 50-over formats.

Test captain Ben Stokes, who was part of the England squad who surrendered their 50-over title meekly in India last year, ruled himself out of the T20 World Cup in an effort to regain full fitness to play as an all-rounder.

Nuggets oust Lakers, LeBron in thriller as Thunder seal sweep

AFP | Los Angeles

Jamal Murray nailed a last-gasp jump shot as the defending champion Denver Nuggets sent LeBron James and the Los Angeles Lakers crashing out of the NBA playoffs with a series-clinching 108-106 victory on Monday.

Murray's sublime go-ahead bucket with four seconds remaining settled another pulsating battle between the Western Conference rivals and wrapped up a 4-1 series win for Denver, who now face Minnesota in the next round.

Murray finished with 32 points while team-mate Nikola Jokic had 25 points, 20 re-

Jamal Murray celebrates his game-winning basket in Denver's series-clinching win over the Los Angeles Lakers bounds and nine assists as the Lakers' bid to overturn a 3-0 series deficit came up short in front of 19,861 fans at Denver's Ball Arena.

NBA icon James meanwhile finished with 30 points, 11 assists and nine rebounds to lead the Lakers scoring in what was the final act of his 21st season in the NBA.

Afterwards, James declined to be drawn on his future plans, saying he would now spend time with his family before preparing for this summer's Olympics.

Asked if Monday's defeat may have been his last game for the Lakers, James smiled and replied: "I'm not going to answer that."

Lakers defensive stalwart Anthony Davis, who appeared troubled by a shoulder injury for much of the game, had 17 points with 15 rebounds and four assists.

"They're a hell of a team," Lakers coach Darvin Ham said of Denver after the defeat.

"They're defending champs for a reason, I've been saying it the entire year, and the entire series, they know how to gut out wins, they've been there before."

Nuggets coach Michael Malone meanwhile lavished praise on game-winner Murray, who had also nailed a buzzer-beater in game two of the series.

"For Jamal to add to his playoff lore by having two game-winners in a series is just incredible," Malone said.

"The kid's a warrior man. I can't say enough good things about Jamal Murray. The bigger the moment, the kid just continues to shine."

South Africa back Nortje for T20 World Cup

AFP | Johannesburg

Anrich Nortje's raw pace and proven quality earned him a place in South Africa's squad for the T20 World Cup, head coach Rob Walter said when he announced a 15-man squad yesterday.

The tournament will be played in the United States and West Indies from June 1 to 29.

Nortje, 30, has not played an international match since suffering a back injury during a one-day series against Australia in September 2023 and has struggled for form in the current Indian Premier League.

His seven wickets have cost 42 runs each and he has conceded 13.86 runs an over.

But Walter said he backed the quality of the player who was South Africa's leading bowler at the 2022 T20 World Cup in Australia.

"He has another month before the World Cup and I have no doubt he will hit his straps," said Walter.

"It's good to see that his speed is up. The one thing that Anrich has that separates him from others is raw pace, not many guys can bowl at 150 (kilometres an hour)."

All-rounder Marcus Stoinis smashed 62 after he took a wicket yesterday to guide Lucknow Super Giants to an IPL win on the eve of Australia's T20 World Cup team announcement.

Stoinis top-scored in Lucknow's modest chase of 145 against Mumbai Indians as the home team achieved their target with four wickets and four balls to spare.

Lucknow moved to third spot in the 10-team table led by Rajasthan Royals. Five-time winners Mumbai remained ninth above wooden spooners Royal Challengers Bengaluru.

Lucknow skipper KL Rahul fell for 28, hours after being snubbed by India's selectors, who yesterday afternoon named the team for the T20 World Cup in June.

Mumbai skipper Hardik Pandya was named deputy to India captain Rohit Sharma for the World Cup in the West Indies and the U.S., but the star all-rounder fell for a duck and his team to their seventh loss in 10 matches.

Mumbai managed 144-7 courtesy Nehal Wadhwa's 46 and an unbeaten 18-ball 35 by Tim David after being invited to bat first.

Pandya said Wadhwa will "play a lot of IPL and (represent) India eventually".

Lucknow left-arm quick Mohsin Khan took two wickets after he struck first with the wicket of Rohit, who was caught out for four by Stoinis at extra cover. Stoinis got the key wicket of

But Pandya returned to take two wickets with his pace bowling.

Stoinis turned up with the bat to raise his second fifty -- he has also hit a century -- of the season with hours left for the Australian selectors to announce the T20 team on Wednesday.

He fell to Afghanistan spinner Mohammad Nabi after his 45-ball knock laced with seven fours and two sixes.

Lucknow lost two more wickets to raise Mumbai's hopes of a turnaround, but Nicholas Pooran steered the team home in the final over.

Pant to make India return at T20 World Cup after car crash

AFP | New Delhi

Rishabh Pant was named yesterday in India's squad for the T20 World Cup in June, his first return to international cricket after a horror car crash 16 months ago.

The 26-year-old wicketkeeper-batsman has impressed with his return to elite cricket this year, scoring 398 runs from 11 games in the ongoing Indian Premier League.

He will be among a 15-member squad headed to the United States and West Indies for the tournament starting June 1.

Rohit Sharma will lead the side with under-fire vice-captain Hardik Pandya, with veteran wicketkeeper K.L. Rahul making way for Pant's return.

Pant had termed his comeback to the game as "nothing short of a miracle" after a road crash in December 2022, when his Mercedes rammed into a barrier, flipped and caught fire near New Delhi.

"The kind of accident I had, I'm lucky to be alive," he said in December.

"I think it was very challenging, especially the first part I would say more from a physical point of view... there was a lot of pain to be endured."

The crash left him with a damaged ligament in his right knee, a hurt wrist and ankle, and abrasions to his back.

He fought back after an intensive rehabilitation programme and time on crutches at the National Cricket Academy in Bengaluru.

Pant was reinstated as captain of Delhi Capitals for the ongoing season after Australia opener David Warner led the team in his absence last year.

crowd after a 51 off 32 balls.

Pant has played for India a total of 129 times in all three formats since 2017.

Batting mainstay Virat Kohli and Suryakumar Yadav and have also been named to the squad, while Shubman Gill was among four reserves.

Star all-rounder Pandya is coming back into the T20 team after an ankle injury sustained during last year's ODI World Cup at home forced him to sit out the Afghanistan series in January.

Pandya has struggled with consistency in a tough IPL so far after he replaced veteran Rohit Sharma as captain of Mumbai Indians.

'We're here to enjoy it', says PSG boss Luis Enrique

Paris Saint-Germain manager Luis Enrique yesterday dismissed talk his side were feeling the heat before their midweek Champions League semi-final, first leg game against Borussia Dortmund, saying "we're here to enjoy it".

Dortmund coach Edin Terzic said PSG were "built to win the Champions League" but Enrique, who won the elite European competition as Barcelona manager in 2015, said his side should focus on relishing the experience.

"What's great about being here is that we can enjoy a really special game at a unique stadium in Europe," said the Spaniard.

"We have a chance to make our fans really happy by reaching the final. That's what we've earned the right to do. We'll try to enjoy that."

"We will try to win both legs. It's not in our handbook to leave things to chance. It will be a wonderful spectacle for everyone who loves football."

1-1 draw in the return leg.

Dortmund have gone 10 games unbeaten at home in the Champions League in their 80,000-seat strong Westfalenstadion fortress.

PSG were crowned Ligue 1 champions on Sunday, their 10th league title in the past 12 seasons.

The domestic dominance has however not been translated into European silverware. PSG lost the final in 2020 to Bayern Munich.

"When you come to stadiums like this one it's a pleasure. You have to enjoy where you are and where you are as footballers as well," continued the former Spain coach.

"We'll experience it all tomorrow. We are ready and prepared to play two great games and want to win both of them."

New Zealand to go ahead with Afghanistan cricket Test

AFP | Wellington

New Zealand Cricket said yesterday it will go ahead with a Test match against Afghanistan in September, a month after Australia scrapped a Twenty20 series against the same opponents.

Cricket Australia postponed a three-match series due to take place in August at a neutral venue, saying the situation for women in the Taliban-ruled country was deteriorating.

It was the third time since 2021 that Australia have refused to play Afghanistan outside of international tournaments.

New Zealand said they will play a one-off Test against Afghanistan at a venue yet to be decided.

They also face Afghanistan in their opening T20 World Cup match in the West Indies in June.

New Zealand Cricket said the decision to go ahead had been taken after discussions at board level and with the players' association.

"The consensus view was that a boycott in isolation would change nothing in Afghanistan," said New Zealand Cricket spokesman Richard Boock.

"It would be more constructive to keep dialogue and participation channels open, while continuing to advocate strongly for change."

Cricket has surged in popularity inside Afghanistan in recent years, fuelled by triumphs over bigger nations on the international stage.

But under the Taliban's brand of Islamic rule, women are effectively barred from the game.

Afghanistan also usually play their "home" fixtures at neutral venues, mainly in the UAE.

"NZC strongly believes that cricket is a game for everyone and would like to see far greater support for the women's game in Afghanistan in the short to medium term," Boock said.
