Fereej Courts project signed to boost community sport

TDT | Manama

Bahrain's efforts to expand community sports infrastructure received a boost when a new neighbourhood sports initiative was signed in the presence of a senior royal sports official.

HH Shaikh Khalid bin Hamad Al Khalifa, First Deputy Chairman of the Supreme Council for Youth and Sports, President of the General Sports Authority and President of the Bahrain Olympic Committee, witnessed the signing of an agreement for the "Neighbourhood Courts" initiative between the General Sports Authority and Bin Higris Real Estate Development and Investment.

The agreement was signed by Dr. Abdulrahman Askar, Chief Executive of the General Sports Authority, and Eng. Aref Higris, Chairman of Bin Higris Real Estate Development and Investment.

HH Shaikh Khalid said the initiative reflects Bahrain's leadership vision to strengthen sport as a community practice and continues earlier national efforts aimed at embedding sport in daily life, particularly among young people.

He said providing accessible sports courts within residential areas would help channel youth energy, strengthen social cohesion, and support the discovery of sporting talent for clubs and national teams.

He also highlighted the importance of public-private partnerships, noting that cooperation with the private sector is essential to advancing sustainable development in the sports sector.

Arsenal held in controversial draw at Atletico

Manama

Arsenal were left frustrated with refereeing decisions following their 1-1 draw against Atletico Madrid in the first leg of their Champions League semi-final.

The match at the Metropolitano was defined by three penalty incidents that ultimately shaped the outcome. Viktor Gyokeres gave Arsenal the lead from the spot before half-time after being brought down in the box, but Julian Alvarez equalised for the hosts with a penalty of his own following a handball decision against Ben White.

The biggest talking point came late in the game when Arsenal were awarded a second penalty after Eberechi Eze went down under a challenge from David Hanzek. Referee Danny Makkelie initially pointed to the spot, but the decision was overturned after a VAR review.

The call sparked anger from Arsenal manager Mikel Arteta, who questioned why the original decision was changed. Arteta insisted there was no "clear and obvious error," arguing that overturning the call had a major impact on the game.

Debate has since centred on whether VAR should have intervened. While the contact on Eze was minimal, similar incidents in recent matches have not been overturned, raising questions over consistency in officiating.

Mainoo signs new Manchester United deal until 2031

Manama

Kobbie Mainoo has signed a new long-term contract with Manchester United, committing his future to the club until 2031 and ending months of uncertainty surrounding his situation.

The 21-year-old midfielder, a product of United's academy, had been linked with a potential move earlier this season after limited opportunities under former manager Ruben Amorim. A proposed January loan switch to Napoli was ultimately blocked by the club, who made clear their desire to keep him.

Since the departure of Amorim, Mainoo has re-established himself as a key figure under interim boss Michael Carrick, starting almost every league match and showing consistent form in midfield.

Speaking after signing the deal, Mainoo described United as his "home" and expressed his ambition to help the club compete for major honours in the coming years. "This special club means everything to my family," he said. "I am determined to step up and play my role."

IPL fines Rajasthan's Parag for vaping in dressing room

AFP | Mumbai, India

Rajasthan Royals captain Riyan Parag has been fined a quarter of his match fee for vaping in the dressing room during a game, the Indian Premier League said yesterday.

Images of Parag, 24, using an e-cigarette during Tuesday's match against Punjab Kings were broadcast live on television and quickly went viral on social media.

E-cigarettes are banned in India under a 2019 law that prohibits their manufacture, import, sale and storage, regardless of nicotine content.

"Riyan admitted to the offence and accepted the sanction imposed," a statement posted on the league's website said, adding that the team skipper would also be hit with one demerit point.

The IPL added that India's cricket board was also exploring options to initiate "stringent action" against the Rajasthan Royals, its officials and players to ensure that the reputation of the league "remains intact".

Violations of India's e-cigarette law can attract fines of up to 500,000 rupees ($6,000) and jail terms.

Personal possession and vaping in public is also banned.

Rajasthan, winners of the inaugural IPL in 2008 under late Australian great Shane Warne, recently had their team manager Ravinder Singh Bhinder fined 100,000 rupees for using a mobile phone in the dugout during a match.
