Building Bridges: MKF Welcomes Turkish Delegation

The Al Mabarrah Al Khalifia Foundation (MKF) recently hosted a Turkish delegation participating in the "Youth Without Borders" Cultural Exchange Forum. The forum is organized by the Good Word Society in collaboration with the Denizli Youth Center and the Turkish Ministry of Youth and Sports. Ms. Saba Yousef Sayadi, MKF Executive Director, welcomed the group, presenting the Foundation's goals and programs. The delegation then participated in interactive activities and workshops focusing on motivation, creativity, and cultural exchange. Ms. Sayadi expressed delight in hosting the delegation, aiming to exchange experiences and cultures for a rich educational experience for youth from both nations. The visit aligns with the vision of His Highness Sheikh Nasser bin Hamad Al Khalifa to empower Bahraini youth and enhance their role in cultural dialogue. MKF, established in 2011, continues to empower youth through various skill-building workshops.

A NOSTALGIC HOMECOMING: INDIAN SCHOOL BAHRAIN CLASS OF 2000 REUNION

The Indian School in Bahrain hosted an extraordinary reunion as its Class of 2000 returned after 25 years. More than 150 alumni traveled from around the world, including Bahrain and India, for a gathering filled with warmth, nostalgia, and pride. The reunion highlighted the school's inclusive spirit, where Bahraini students received the same strong curriculum and opportunities as their Indian peers. For many, the Indian School was more than an institution; it was a space for growth, dreams, and a deep sense of belonging. The moving occasion reaffirmed that the friendships and foundations built within the school's walls are enduring, regardless of distance or time. The Indian School continues its mission today, welcoming new generations of Bahraini and Indian students with the same committed spirit.
