His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister, commended the progress of Bahrain's sports sector, noting the significant achievements as well as the ongoing efforts to further strengthen the industry.

HRH Prince Salman was speaking as he met yesterday with His Highness Shaikh Khalid bin Hamad Al Khalifa, First Deputy Chairman of the Supreme Council for Youth and Sports, Chairman of the General

Sports Authority, and President of the Bahrain Olympic Committee, along with the members of the Supreme Organising Committee and the Executive Committee of the 3rd Asian Youth Games, at Gudaibiya Palace.

During the meeting, HRH the Crown Prince and Prime Minister highlighted the importance of strengthening the Kingdom's standing as a host for major regional and international events, supported by its advanced infrastructure, highly skilled national workforce, and strong organisational capabilities, which reflect the aspirations of His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa.

He highlighted the efforts of the Supreme Organising Committee, the Executive Committee, volunteers and organisers of the 3rd Asian Youth Games, for their dedication, which ensured the successful hosting of the event.

His Royal Highness also extended congratulations to the Bahraini athletes who won several medals during the Games.

HRH Prince Salman outlined that the success of these Games should be an example for the Kingdom to host larger events in the future, through continued cooperation between sporting associations and relevant government entities.

Her Excellency Shereen Shanika Dissanayake, Ambassador of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka to Bahrain, paid a courtesy visit to The Daily Tribune's office in Mahooz. The Ambassador held a meeting with Mr. P Unnikrishnan, Chairman and Managing Director, along with members of The Daily Tribune team.

The purpose of the visit was to strengthen relations between the Sri Lankan Embassy and The Daily Tribune highlighting the importance of media in enhancing bilateral ties and cultural exchange.

H.E. Ambassador Dissanayake's visit underscores the Embassy's commitment to engaging with key media platforms in the Kingdom. Mr. Unnikrishnan and the team expressed their appreciation for her visit and reaffirmed the newspaper's dedication to providing comprehensive coverage that reflects Bahrain's diverse community.
