TDT | Manama

Several Ambassadors to the Kingdom of Bahrain have visited the Reformation and Rehabilitation Centre after receiving invitation from the Interior Ministry.

The Ambassadors were from Oman, China, Germany, Britain, France, Italy, and the US, as well as the US Embassy charge d'affaires, the Official of Consular Affairs at the Russian Embassy, Head of the European Union delegation residing in Riyadh, Head of Mission of the International Organisation for Migration and Acting Resident Coordinator of United Nations activities.

They were briefed on the Centre's procedures and services to inmates, especially round-the-clock healthcare, including precautionary measures against COVID-19. The envoys visited various facilities of the centre, including the clinics, buildings, and visitations areas. They were informed of call services provided to inmates with their families and other services.

Interior Ministry Undersecretary Shaikh Nasser with the diplomats

Interior Ministry Undersecretary Shaikh Nasser bin Abdulrahman Al Khalifa informed the envoys of the precautionary measures and services provided for the inmates based on the Reformation and Rehabilitation Law and its rules.

He highlighted the Centre's daily operations and the efficiency in providing services within the current exceptional situation.

He said that the Interior Ministry continues to enforce the law and human rights by moving beyond its obligations by reinforcing the human rights culture in police work.

The Interior Ministry Undersecretary discussed preventative measures, including the free and optional COVID-19 vaccination, in which all registered inmates were vaccinated.

He highlighted that the call services for inmates with their families continue and were not stopped.

He confirmed that the Centre is opened for human rights organisations, including the National Institute for Human Rights, the Ombudsman and the Prisoner and Detainee Rights Commission that are involved in announced and unannounced visits to ensure that inmates receive the stated services.

Chinese Ambassador satisfied with prison conditions

Chinese Ambassador Anwar Habibullah

Chinese Ambassador Anwar Habibullah expressed satisfaction with overall conditions at the Reformation and Rehabilitation Centre in Jaw.

"I am very happy to make a field visit to Jaw prison where I witnessed firsthand the actual conditions there such as the management system professionalism, excellent facilities and meticulous treatment," said Ambassador Habibullah, one of the diplomats who visited the Jaw prison and toured its facilities.

"This is the strongest evidence that the Bahraini government has made unremitting efforts to improve prison conditions and ensure the protection of the inmates' human rights."
