Man City sign Gonzalez, Tel joins Spurs on deadline day

Man City secure Nico Gonzalez for £50m to bolster midfield amid Rodri's injury

● Tottenham secures Mathys Tel on loan after initial rejection

● Arsenal fails to land Ollie Watkins; Villa rejects £70 million bid

● Aston Villa adds Marco Asensio and Axel Disasi to strengthen squad

Manchester City signed Nico Gonzalez from Porto in the biggest move from Premier League clubs on Monday's transfer deadline day, while Bayern Munich's Mathys Tel headed to Tottenham on loan.

City's midfield frailties without Ballon d'Or winner Rodri, who is out for the season due to a serious knee injury, were exposed in a 5-1 thrashing at Arsenal on Sunday.

Pep Guardiola's men find themselves in a battle just to qualify for next season's Champions League, with the defending champions sitting fifth in the Premier League, 15 points behind leaders Liverpool.

City were also in need of reinforcements for a blockbuster Champions League play-off round tie against holders Real Madrid later this month.

Former Barcelona midfielder Gonzalez, 23, arrives for a reported fee of 60 million euros (£50 million, $62 million).

"This is the perfect opportunity for me at this stage of my career," said Gonzalez.

"I know the reputation Pep has and I cannot wait to work with him. In fact, I am honoured he wants me to play in his team."

City have already splashed out more than £120 million in January on Egypt forward Omar Marmoush and young defenders Vitor Reis and Abdulkodir Khusanov.

Tel's U-turn

Tottenham were busy in the final hours of the window as they bolstered Ange Postecoglou's injury-ravaged squad.

Tel reportedly turned down the opportunity to join Spurs earlier in the window after a £50 million deal was agreed with the German giants.

But the French under-21 international has now moved to north London until the end of the season with an option to make the move permanent in the summer.

Spurs, though, were frustrated in their bid to add more defensive recruits on deadline day.

The BBC reported Crystal Palace rejected a £70 million bid for captain Marc Guehi, who has just 18 months left to run of his contract at Selhurst Park.

Chelsea's Axel Disasi had been linked with a move across London, but instead joined Aston Villa, with the move only confirmed two hours after the window shut.

Villa also added more firepower with the signing of Marco Asensio on loan from Paris

Saint-Germain.

The Spaniard, who won three Champions League titles with Real Madrid, joins Marcus Rashford as new options for Unai Emery's forward line after the departure of Jhon Duran to Saudi side Al Nassr.

However, there were no deadline day deals for Premier League title contenders Liverpool and Arsenal or struggling Manchester United.

Arsenal's bid to strengthen their forward line appears to have been frustrated after Villa rebuffed an offer for England international Ollie Watkins last week.

United

boss Ruben Amorim said the club were "trying everything to improve the team without doing mistakes of the past" following Sunday's 2-0 defeat to Crystal Palace.

The Red Devils are wary of breaching profit and sustainability rules and were reportedly put off a move for Tel due to Bayern's demand for a loan fee.

Wolverhampton Wanderers signed Zimbabwe international midfielder Marshall Munetsi and Burkina Faso central defender Nasser Djiga late on deadline day.

The 28-year-old Munetsi, who can play in a variety of midfield roles, joins from French club Reims on a three-and-a-half-year deal.

The 22-year-old Djiga arrived from Serbia's Red Star Belgrade on a five-and-a-half-year contract for a fee around £10 million (12 million euros, $12.5 million).

Everton signed the former Southampton midfielder Carlos Alcaraz from Flamengo on loan.

The 22-year-old Argentine is the first David Moyes signing during his second stint as Goodison manager.

Everton have an option to buy at the end of the season.

REHC CEO Yusuf Osama Buheji and Bareeq Al Retaj Real Estate Company CEO Yousif Bucheeri, with Spanish golfer Sergio Garcia sign the agreement to strengthen Bahrain's standing in international sport.

Buheji highlighted the project's strategic importance, noting its alignment with the goals of the REHC High Committee, led by His Highness Shaikh Isa bin Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa. He added that the golf course will diversify REHC's sporting offerings and contribute to the Kingdom's economy by attracting sports tourism and investment.

Bucheeri called the collaboration a major step forward for Bahrain's sports infrastructure, building on the REHC's success in hosting elite horseracing events. Expanding into golf marks an exciting new chapter in the club's commitment to sporting excellence.

The new course promises to enhance Bahrain's reputation on the global golf stage, drawing top-tier tournaments and professional players to the region. As Bahrain continues to develop as a sporting hub, this project is set to play a key role in shaping the Kingdom's future as a destination for world-class events.
