Al Ahli open WAVA campaign with straight-sets win

TDT | Manama

Bahrain's Al Ahli began their fourth WAVA Men's Clubs Volleyball Championship campaign with a 3-0 victory over Qatar's Al Wakrah SC in Kuwait City. The match, played at the Kuwaiti Volleyball Federation Hall, ended 25-20, 25-22, 25-19 in favour of the Kingdom's representatives.

Drawn in Group B alongside Al Wakrah, Lebanon's Club Jeunesse Sportif (CJS) Batroun, and hosts Kuwait SC, Al Ahli dominated all three sets in their opener.

Experienced players Mohammed Anan, Sayed Mohammed Al Abbar, and Mahmood Abdulkhassan led the team, which controlled play despite a brief stoppage at 22-20 in the second set following a disputed point.

Brazilian coach Renato Castro praised the team's performance: "Everyone contributed. We showed confidence and composure across all sets."

Al Ahli, competing for the third consecutive edition of WAVA's premier men's clubs tournament, narrowly missed the podium in 2024, finishing fourth. Their squad includes several current and former Bahrain senior national team players, including Ali Ebrahim, Hani Alawi, Hasan Haider, Ayman Harwana, Hussain Mansoor, and Hussain Sultan.

Dar Kulaib, Bahrain's other representatives, will start their campaign today against Oman's Al Seeb at 2pm, after yesterday's preparatory practice in Kuwait City. Kenyan professional Enock Mogeni said: "We train every day as if it's game day. Everyone is coming for one mission – just to win."

The top two teams from each pool, plus the two best third-placed sides, advance to the quarter-finals on 10 February. Semifinals are scheduled for 12 February, with finals on 14 February. Al Ahli's next matches are against CJS Batroun tomorrow at 2pm and Kuwait SC on Sunday at 6pm, Bahrain time.

France's Kante joins Fenerbahce after Erdogan 'support'

Ngolo Kante

AFP | Istanbul

France midfielder Ngolo Kante has signed for Fenerbahce from Saudi side Al-Ittihad thanks to "support" from president Recep Tayyip Erdogan, the Turkish club said yesterday.

World Cup winner Kante, who turns 35 next month, had been set to move to Istanbul earlier but the transfer seemed to have failed due to an administrative error.

The length of Kante's contract has not been revealed but it offers the two-time Premier League winning midfielder a chance to further his claim for a place in France's World Cup finals squad.

Erdogan was in Saudi Arabia on Tuesday, making his first visit to the country in more than two years.

"Our club has successfully completed the transfer of N'Golo Kante, a prominent figure in world football," Fenerbahce president Saittun Sarhan said.

"On behalf of myself and our club, I would like to express my gratitude to our President Recep Tayyip Erdogan for his significant support in ensuring the positive conclusion of this process, which will contribute to the development of both Fenerbahce and Turkish football," he added.

Going in the opposite direction is Fenerbahce's experienced Moroccan international striker Youssef En-Nesyri.

The 28-year-old, who was part of the Morocco side that reached the 2022 World Cup semi-finals and last month's Africa Cup of Nations final, replaces Karim Benzema, who left Al-Ittihad for Saudi rivals Al-Hilal on Monday.

Arsenal sink Chelsea to reach League Cup final

Arsenal reach their first final in six years and end a run of semi-final defeats

● Arsenal beat Chelsea 1-0, advance 4-2 on aggregate

● Havertz scores late winner at the Emirates

AFP | London

Arsenal reached the League Cup final for the first time in eight years as Kai Havertz sealed a 1-0 win against Chelsea in the semi-final second leg on Tuesday.

Mikel Arteta's side had put themselves in pole position in the first leg and Havertz came off the bench to finish the 4-2 aggregate victory in the closing moments at the Emirates Stadium.

It was a cathartic triumph for the Gunners, who had lost their previous four semi-finals in the 2025 Champions League and League Cup, the 2022 League Cup and the 2021 Europa League.

In their first final for six years, Arsenal will face Manchester City or Newcastle at Wembley on March 22.

City held a 2-0 lead over Newcastle ahead of yesterday's second leg at the Etihad Stadium.

Arsenal haven't won the League Cup since 1993, losing in their last three final appearances.

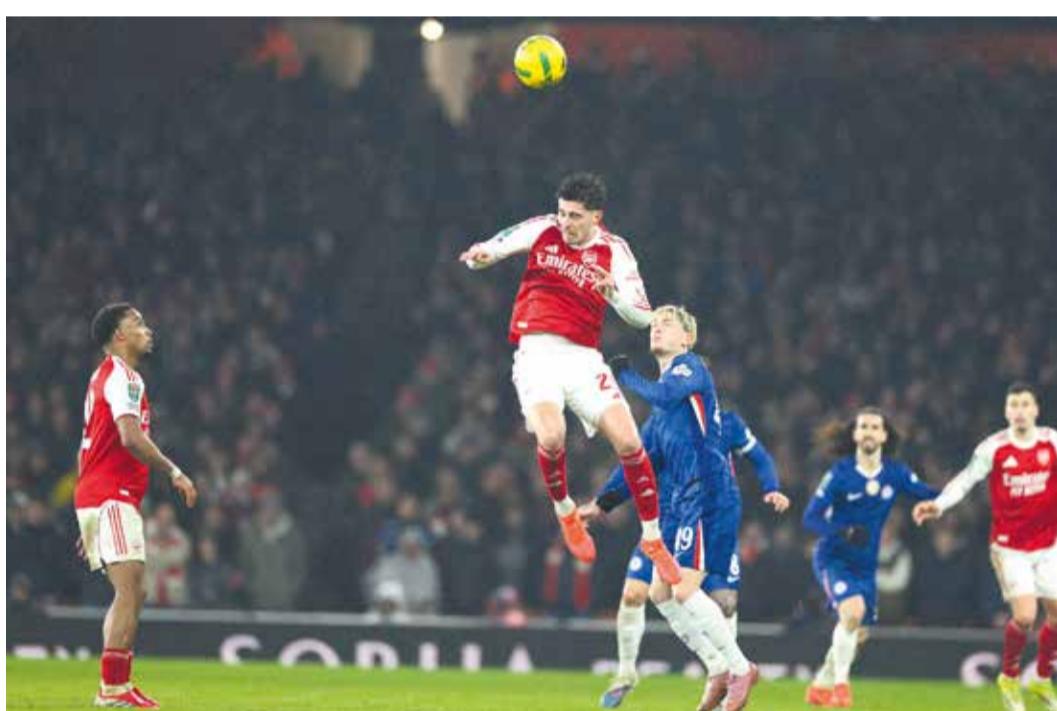

Now they have the chance to end that drought by winning the club's first trophy since the 2020 FA Cup.

That remains the sole silverware won by Arteta since he was hired in December 2019.

"We knew it was going to be a real battle out there. That resilience, that clarity to understand what kind of game we had to play, we did so well," Arteta said.

"There was a special atmosphere inside our stadium. It makes such a difference. We've been waiting a few years to get into this position and we're certainly going to enjoy it."

It is shaping up to be a memorable season for Arsenal, who are six points clear at the top of the Premier League and reached the Champions League last 16 by winning all eight of their group matches.

Despite their success, Arsenal have attracted criticism for their reliance on goals from corners and set-pieces.

Arteta launched a passionate defence of Arsenal's style of play this week, revealing he has a "massive book of people" who feel his side are the "most exciting in Europe".

Tuesday's war of attrition will hardly silence Arsenal's critics, but Arteta won't care about that after leading his team to Wembley.

Chelsea boss Liam Rosenior had won six of his seven matches in all competitions since arriving from Strasbourg to replace Enzo Maresca.

But Rosenior was unable to solve his Arsenal conundrum, with the Gunners handing him the only two defeats of his brief reign.

"Arsenal know they were in a game, over both ties. We dominated the areas we wanted to in the second half, but we didn't find that quality moment," Rosenior said.

"It's painful to lose. We just need to keep making improvements, which I'm seeing from the first leg to the second."

Knockout blow

Without captain Martin Odegaard, sidelined by a muscle problem, and winger Bukayo Saka, who was injured in the pre-match warm-up at Leeds on Saturday, Arsenal weren't at their best but still ground out the win.

Rosenior's switch to a three-man central defence allowed Chelsea to stifle Arsenal in a scrappy first half.

The Gunners briefly shook off their shackles as Piero Hincapie's curler from just inside the area was palmed away by Robert Sanchez.

It rained so heavily in the first half that Rosenior had to take off his soaked glasses to see what was happening.

Squinting through the squall offered Rosenior an alarming view as Malo Gusto's misjudgement let in Gabriel Martinelli before the Chelsea defender scrambled back to block the shot.

It took 43 minutes for Chelsea to muster a shot on target when Enzo Fernandez's long-range blast was punched clear by Kepa Arrizabalaga.

Chelsea needed to push for a goal and Rosenior sent on Cole Palmer and Estevao Willian after an hour, ditching his back three.

Estevao immediately set up Fernandez for a curler that flashed over, but Chelsea's threat petered out.

Havertz delivered the knockout blow in the final seconds of stoppage-time, rounding Sanchez to slot into the empty net after Chelsea were caught on the counter.
