

Fakhreddine aims double-champ status against Said Maalem

Mohammed Fakhreddine, who currently holds the BRAVE CF Middleweight world title, is set to fight for his second belt at BRAVE CF 50

● Fakhreddine will face Mohammed Said Maalem for the Light Heavyweight title

TDT | Manama

A historic figure in Middle Eastern MMA, Mohammed "The Latest" Fakhreddine will have the chance to make history and extend his legacy at BRAVE Combat Federation by becoming the promotion's first double champion ever.

Fakhreddine, who currently holds the BRAVE CF Middleweight world title, is set to fight for his second belt at BRAVE CF 50. He will face Mohammed Said Maalem in a five-round Light Heavyweight title match-up scheduled for the historical event.

With a professional record of 14 wins and 4 losses, Fakhreddine has been one of the most pivotal names in the history of BRAVE Combat Federation, having been the very first star to sign with the truly global promotion, even before its debut event, which he was supposed to headline.

Since then, Fakhreddine fought in three different weight classes and took part in the prestigious KHK World Title, the one-night open weight tournament held in Kombat Kingdom back in 2019.

Fakhreddine achieved his long-time dream of capturing the world title in September, 2020, when he knocked out the former Middleweight champion Daniel Pereira. He's now in prime position to do what no one else has done in BRAVE CF, holding two belts at the same time, and, once and for all, writing his name in the history of the promotion.

Mohamed Said Malem boasts a professional record of 11 wins and 3 losses, and is currently on a 6-win streak, which includes two BRAVE CF wins. Since he beat Zvonimir Kralj, Said Malem has engaged in a war of words with Fakhreddine through social media, which they are now set to settle inside the cage.

Fakhreddine fought in three different weight classes and took part in the prestigious KHK World Title, the one-night open weight tournament held in Kombat Kingdom back in 2019

BRAVE CF 50 will be a historical fight night celebrating the emblematic milestone for the truly global MMA promotion. In this meantime, BRAVE CF has visited 21 countries in only exactly 1651 days of operations, an unparalleled achievement in the industry.

The landmark event will feature in total three title fights with Arab icon Jarrah Al-Silawi defending his Super Welterweight crown against Ismail Naurdiev, while Lightweight king Amin Ayoub looks to maintain his throne when he faces top contender Ahmed Amir.

BRAVE CF welcomes hospitality partner Nordic Palace & Spa for 21 days of MMA mayhem

TDT | Manama

BRAVE Combat Federation welcomes Nordic Palace & Spa abroad for the Return of Kombat Kingdom taking place March 11th till April 1st with fight cards showcasing the best talents around the globe with four special fight cards.

Nordic Palace & Spa prides itself for being a place to relax, indulge, unwind away from home, and experience hospitality at its finest. The oasis of escape from the busy city has become a beloved destination for families, tourists, and business travellers to create unforgettable memories in the heart of a fast-paced city.

"Being a luxurious hotel in the heart of the bustling Al Seef District of Manama, we value providing high quality and elevated experiences for tourists and business travellers alike," says Christelle Van Ende- Director of Hospitality, Nordic Palace & Spa.

The largest sports media property in the Middle East

BRAVE CF shares Nordic Palace & Spa's mission to provide comfort for all international visitors. As the promotion gears towards having 4 events with over 70 fighters from various international destinations, it is looking forward to showing its hospitality alongside a noteworthy business.

"We are honoured to be Hospitality Partner of BRAVE Combat Federation's upcoming series of events, The Return of Kombat Kingdom and be part of providing fighters with an unforgettable yet elegant experience visiting the Kingdom of Bahrain."

BRAVE CF is hosting 4 events at the Kingdom of Bahrain started with BRAVE CF 47: Asian Domination on March 11th, BRAVE CF 48: Arabian Night on March 18th, BRAVE CF 49: Super Fights on March 25, and BRAVE CF 50 on April 1st to celebrate the historic moment of reaching 50 events and visiting 21 countries faster than any other promotion in the world.

12 countries to be represented at BRAVE CF 47

TDT | Manama

BRAVE CF 47: Asian Domination will be the first of four huge events taking place at Kombat Kingdom, the Kingdom of Bahrain. And the fastest-growing MMA organization has released the full fight card for the event, which will showcase the top Asian fighters with the best match-ups in the continent. The show will take place one week from today, on March 11th.

In the main event, a Lightweight clash of epic proportions will take place as Abdisalam Kubanychbek, from Kyrgyzstan, meets Rolando Dy, from the Philippines. The winner will be hailed as the best in Asia in their weight-class as well as becoming the next in line to fight for the world title - which is currently held by Amin Ayoub.

In the co-main event, two of the brightest stars in the Featherweight division will collide. Husein Kadimagomaev will face off against Tae Kyun Kim, from South Korea, with the winner moving forward in the hunt for a Featherweight world title shot of their own. Both young men are undefeated as professional fighters, with 7-0 records to their names.

Also set for Asia's biggest event is an India vs Pakistan match-up between Mohammad Farhad and Uloomi Karim, in the Bantamweight division.

BRAVE CF 47: Asian Domination is also set to have the debut of top fighters in the region, such as Kazakhstan's Asu Almabayev, who takes on Ryskulbek Ibraimov - another debutant, from Kyrgyzstan -, as well as a Super Welterweight match-up between Nursulton Ruziboev, from Uzbekistan, who meets Andreas Stahl.

BRAVE CF 47: Asian Domination will have 12 nations represented and will take place in Bahrain, on March 11th, The show kicks off 21 days of MMA Mayhem, with three more events taking place in the next three weeks, culminating in a historic BRAVE CF 50.

BRAVE CF 47 Fight Card

Lightweight: Abdisalam Kubanychbek vs Rolando Dy

Featherweight: Tae Kyun Kim vs Husein Kadimagomaev

Super Welterweight: Nursulton Ruziboev vs Andreas Stahl

Bantamweight: Mohammad Farhad vs Uloomi Karim

Flyweight: Asu Almabayev vs Ryskulbek Ibraimov

Featherweight: Agshin Babayev vs Abdul Azim Badakhshi

Catchweight (68 kg): Nemat Abdrashitov vs Anzor Abdulkhozhaev

Catchweight (63 kg): Rahmatullah Yousufzai vs Jenel Lausa

Flyweight: Rahmatullah Yousufzai vs Jenel Lausa

Hassan Fakhreddine following footsteps of his world champion older brother at BRAVE CF

TDT | Manama

The Lebanese Assassin Hassan Fakhreddine is making his comeback to mixed martial arts at BRAVE CF 48: Arabian Night on March 18th for a chance to raise the Lebanese flag within the BRAVE arena and make his family proud.

Growing up in a family of combat sports practitioners, Hassan's main goal had always been to build a legacy and make history in combat sports. He dedicated his life towards pursuing one goal: to become a world champion.

Hassan has been practicing combat sports since he was 14 years old, indulging himself in the boxing scene since a young age in San Diego, CA. By the time he turned 23, he entered the world of mixed martial arts and started a journey towards greatness.

As a middleweight contender, fighting in the same division as his older brother, the current Middleweight BRAVE CF Champion Mohammed Fakhreddine, Hassan is committed to making his family proud and coming out on top.

"Mohammad is a role model for many Lebanese fighters and I'm one of them. I look up to him for what he has done in the sport, despite all the hardships he went through he still came up on top with an unbreakable will and heart made of steel," says Hassan.

Hassan has immense footsteps to follow being the brother of the most famous Arab fighter ever. He will be going against Eslam Mostafa Abdel Menem from Egypt who holds a 2-0 record on a fight card dedicated to showcasing the best rising talent in the middle east.

"I don't know much about my opponent but I know he's undefeated and is walking into the cage thinking he will remain undefeated," says Hassan. "To him I would like to say, not under my watch. I'm walking over anybody that will stand in my way." March 18 makes an important night for plenty Arab fighters who lacked the opportunity to prove themselves in mixed martial arts and demonstrate their abilities on a global scale.

"BRAVE CF gave many fighters the opportunity to fight and represent their countries. It gives them the right exposure to change their fighting careers, not just in the MENA region but around the world," says Hassan. "BRAVE CF will continue to grow at a fast pace consistently and I'm proud and honoured to fight under this promotion."