His Excellency Dr. Abdullatif bin Rashid Al Zayani, Minister of Foreign Affairs, held a telephone call with Yermek Kosherbayev, Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

Dr. Al Zayani congratulated Minister Kosherbayev on his appointment and wished him success in his duties.

He expressed his aspiration to further strengthen relations between the two countries.

Minister Kosherbayev emphasised his keenness to expand cooperation between the two countries.

Bahrain supports US efforts for peace in Gaza

TDT | Manama

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs has affirmed that the Kingdom of Bahrain is closely following the latest developments in the Gaza Strip.

The Ministry expressed the Kingdom's appreciation for the efforts of US President Donald Trump and reiterated Bahrain's support for his initiatives aimed at achieving lasting peace in the Middle East.

Bahrain urged all parties to work swiftly toward a permanent ceasefire in Gaza, ensure the immediate and safe release of all hostages and detainees, and facilitate the entry of humanitarian aid.

Hundreds of thousands turn out at pro-Palestinian marches in Europe

AFP | Rome, Italy

Huge numbers turned out at pro-Palestinian rallies in Europe yesterday, calling for an immediate end to the war in Gaza and the release of activists on board a flotilla carrying humanitarian aid to the territory.

Organisers of the protest in Rome said hundreds of thousands of people had turned out for a fourth day running, after Israel intercepted the 45-strong flotilla seeking to reach Gaza earlier this week.

Some 70,000 people, according to police, took to the streets in Barcelona, in one of several pro-Palestinian protests to take place across Spain.

Genocide

Elsewhere, several thousand people marched through the centre of the Irish capital, Dublin, to mark what organisers said was "two years of genocide" in Gaza.

With Ireland, Spain is one of the fiercest European critics of Israel's military offensive in Gaza, which was sparked by Hamas' October 7, 2023, attack on Israeli communities near the Gaza Strip.

But in Italy, Prime Minister Giorgia Meloni's hard-right government has been criticised for its inaction on the siege of the Palestinian territory.

Protesters in the Italian capital, including families with children, shouted, "We are all Palestinians", "Free Palestine" and "Stop the genocide", with many carrying Palestinian flags and wearing black-and-white chequered keffiyehs.

Streets

In Barcelona, Marta Carranza,

a 65-year-old pensioner demonstrating with a Palestinian flag on her back, said Israel's policy "has been wrong for many years and we have to take to the streets".

The Global Sumud flotilla, which was intercepted on Wednesday, left Barcelona in early September and had been seeking to break the Israeli blockade of Gaza, where the United Nations says famine has taken hold.

Around 50 Spaniards on the flotilla have been detained by Israel, Spanish Foreign Minister Jose Manuel Albares told public television in an interview aired yesterday.

Illegal

The flotilla organisers say Israel's actions were "illegal" since they intercepted the vessels while they were traversing international waters.

In Paris, where some 10,000 people gathered, a spokesperson for the French contingent of Global Sumud, Helene Coron, told the crowd: "We'll never stop.

"This flotilla didn't get to Gaza. But we'll send another, then another until Palestine and Gaza are free."

Bahrain, UK explore future collaboration on cutting-edge policing techniques and AI-driven security

London

His Excellency General Shaikh Rashid bin Abdullah Al Khalifa, Minister of Interior, praised the strong strategic partnership between the Kingdom of Bahrain and the United Kingdom during a visit to Durham Constabulary, saying the two sides are committed to deepening cooperation to bolster security and international peace.

He stressed that future collaboration will prioritise advanced training on the latest policing techniques to strengthen the efficiency and capabilities of Bahraini police across all areas of law enforcement.

Shared commitment

“Our partnership with the United Kingdom rests on a shared commitment to security and international peace. We will continue to deepen cooperation to protect our citizens and contribute to regional stability,” General Shaikh Rashid said, underlining the Ministry’s strategy to raise professional standards within Bahrain’s security services.

The minister, accompanied by H.E. Shaikh Fawaz bin Mohammed Al Khalifa, Bahrain’s Ambassador to the UK, and senior Ministry officials, was received at Durham Police Headquarters by Chief Constable Rachel Bacon.

She welcomed the delegation and highlighted the visit’s role in supporting the launch of advanced training programmes and workshops across policing and law-enforcement domains.

Appreciation

General Shaikh Rashid expressed appreciation for the existing training collaboration, noting that Bahraini personnel have benefited from Durham’s expertise.

“We value Durham Constabulary’s expertise in forensics, investigations and leadership training; Bahraini officers have already benefited from this collaboration, and we are determined to build on those gains,” he said.

Both sides agreed to explore proposed future areas of cooperation aligned with Bahrain’s policing strategy.

Subjects

Planned subjects under consideration include combating transnational organised crime and harnessing artificial intelligence in policing – initiatives the minister described as essential to enhancing operational readiness.

“Looking ahead, we agreed to explore cooperation on the latest policing techniques – from tackling transnational organised crime to applying artificial intelligence – in line with our strategy to enhance operational capability,” he added.

During the session, Durham Constabulary provided briefings on police leadership, community policing initiatives, engagement with schools and road-safety programmes.

Discussions

The presentations formed part of broader discussions on how best to transfer knowledge and adapt best practices to Bahraini operational contexts.

General Shaikh Rashid also showcased Bahrain’s work in rehabilitation and community integration, citing the alternative sentencing and open-prisons programmes and the “Together” (Ma’an) anti-violence and addiction awareness initiative run by the Community Police Directorate in cooperation with the Ministry of Education.

Bahrain Youth Ambassadors selected

TDI | Manama

Her Excellency Rawan bint Najeeb Tawfiqi, Minister of Youth Affairs, has announced the winners of the third edition of the Bahrain Youth Ambassadors initiative.

Ahmed Al Awadhi, Saud Shuraida, and Alghala Al Mahzaa were selected as Bahrain Youth Ambassadors following a comprehensive evaluation process.

The Minister noted that the selection process was conducted according to clear and precise criteria, including the review of CVs, academic and professional achievements, community and volunteer contributions, and leadership and communication skills.

She said the ministry was keen to involve a wide range of young participants while ensuring equal opportunities and highlighting outstanding talent.

Tawfiqi emphasised that the Bahrain Youth Ambassadors initiative serves as a leading platform empowering young people to convey the Kingdom of Bahrain’s positive image to the world.

She said the initiative reflects the Kingdom’s firm belief in youth as its true wealth and future makers.

BICAS to hold Rangoli Contest, Dandiya Night

Pradeep Puravankara
TDT | Manama

The Bahrain India Cultural Arts Services (BICAS), in collaboration with Convex Media, is organizing a grand, full-day Diwali celebration on October 10th at the Gulf Air Club in Salmabad.

The festivities, which blend cultural traditions with entertainment, are set to begin with the Rangoli contest, an integral part of Diwali tradition, scheduled from 9 AM to 12 PM.

Teams consisting of two to four members are eligible to participate in the competition, which offers free registration.

Organizers noted that participants are requested to bring their own materials for the competition.

The evening will feature a variety of cultural performances, including numerous dance and music programs, running from 5 PM to 10 PM.

Public meeting

A public meeting in connection with the celebration will be inaugurated by the Indian Ambassador to Bahrain, H.E. Vinod K. Jacob.

The full-day Diwali celebration is set for October 10th at the Gulf Air Club in Salmabad.

Following the formal session, the highlight of the night will be a vibrant Dandiya Night led by famous DJ Nirmal.

The event offers free entry to all, and organizers anticipate a turnout of approximately 1,500 people for the Dandiya celebration.

Officials explained the details of the event at a recent press conference.

Jail term upheld for motorist in fatal red-light crash

Appeal Court issues six-month sentence

TDT | Manama

An appeal court has upheld a six-month jail term and a one-year driving licence suspension for a motorist who ran a red light and hit a pedestrian who was walking while pulling his bicycle, leading to the man's death.

The High Criminal Court of Appeal confirmed the sentence on the basis that the appellant failed to take due care and entered a junction against a red signal.

Property

The Public Prosecution recorded damage to third-party property as part of the case.

Court papers say the crash happened at 5.56pm on 25 July 2025 on Shaikh Salman Highway.

The appellant was driving west in the left lane as he reached the traffic lights.

He went through the red and into the intersection.

The appellant failed to take due care and entered a junction against a red signal.

At that moment the victim stepped off the kerb, crossed the first lane on foot with his bicycle, and moved into the second.

The car struck him with the right side of its front.

Injuries

The impact threw the victim onto the windscreen and forwards. He suffered severe injuries and died in hospital.

The defendant admitted the sequence of events. Damage was recorded to the vehicle and the bicycle, along with other property.

Al Dhaen only female candidate in committee chairmanship elections

14 MPs vying for five parliamentary chairmanship seats

Mohammed Darwish
TDT | Manama

Fourteen MPs will contest five committee chairs next week, with only one woman, Maryam Al Dhaen, in the running.

All five standing committees plan internal elections as incumbents seek another term and rivals move to unseat them.

Women are seen as having better chances for vice-chair posts, which would broaden their role in the chamber's work. Further names may enter before opening day.

Attention first falls on the Legislative and Legal Affairs Committee. Current chair Mahmood Fardan wants another year.

Colleague

Abdulahakim Al Sheno had earlier said he would run; he has since stepped aside, saying he is not ready to chair in the coming period and would rather back a colleague in this final session.

"There was an initial wish, and colleagues showed support for it, but personally I do not see myself ready in the coming period to chair the committee, not for technical reasons. I prefer to support another colleague in the final session," he said.

Council of Representatives in session

The Financial and Economic Affairs Committee points to a two-man race between chair Ahmed Al Salloom and vice-chair Mohammed Al Maarifi, with talk of a mutual arrangement to avoid a split.

Expectations

Al Maarifi said he will stand, noting he followed many carry-over files last session and wants them finished to meet public expectations.

He called for accord among members to deliver outcomes that serve people directly, adding that the last session will carry weighty projects and needs firm understandings among MPs.

The Services Committee is set for a busy vote.

Bids

MP Maryam Al Dhaen

Dr Mahdi Al Shuwikh, Mohammed Al Olaiwi and Munir Seroor are preparing bids, with other entrants not ruled out.

Seroor said he has a 'serious desire' to run and spoke of early understandings that are not yet settled.

The positions of current chair Jaleela Al Sayed and her colleague Lulwa Al Rumaihi are likely to matter.

In Public Utilities and Environment, some members favour keeping Bader Al Tamimi to draw on past experience.

Interest

Khalid Buanaq has signalled interest subject to talks, and Mohammed Janahi said he will run, arguing it may be time to bring forward new faces and that he is ready to carry the role in the interests of the chamber and the public.

Foreign Affairs, Defence and National Security is calmer, with signs of support to keep Hassan Bukhamas as chair.

Even so, MP Al Dhaen says she is weighing a bid, and there is talk that Hassan Ebrahim is considering one, though he has yet to give a final view.

BSA takes part in Artemis leadership meeting

TDT | Manama

The Bahrain Space Agency (BSA) participated in the fourth meeting of the heads of space agencies of the Artemis Accords member states, held on the sidelines of the 76th International Astronautical Congress in Sydney, Australia.

This year's meeting included extensive discussions on the key directions of the Artemis partnership, as well as a wide ranging workshop reviewing the work of the main task forces since the third meeting.

Participants also reviewed the outcomes and recommendations of the workshop held in Dubai earlier this year and discussed means to further strengthen cooperation among member countries.

The agency was represented at the high level meeting by Dr. Mohammed Ibrahim Al Aseeri, Chief Executive Officer; Rasha Al Amad, Head of Strategic Planning; and space engineer Yaqoob Al Qassab.

Dr. Al Aseeri said that Bahrain's participation in the fourth Artemis leadership meeting focused on several aspects, including following up on the implementation of organisational mechanisms among member states to achieve optimal results, re-

Exhibitions Authority (BTEA).

Tickets for the concert sold out in less than 24 hours following the announcement — an unprecedented response for a local cultural event.

The strong public demand underscores the enduring popularity of the late artist Ali Bahar and his band, whose music continues to resonate deeply with audiences in Bahrain and beyond.

Interest

Amid the overwhelming interest, fans have called on festival organisers to consider adding an additional performance night to accommodate more attendees eager to experience this special musical tribute.

The concert will feature orchestral renditions of some of the most celebrated works by the late Ali Bahar and the Bahraini Brothers Band.

The new arrangements, crafted under the supervision of Maestro Dr. Mubarak Najem, aim to merge the authenticity of Bahraini music with the grandeur of orchestral performance—offering a moving homage to an artist whose legacy remains deeply rooted in the cultural and musical memory of Bahrain and the Gulf region.

Zain Group’s MSCI rating for ESG upgraded to ‘A’

● Bader Al-Kharafi, “Zain’s transformative ‘4WARD-Progress with Purpose’ strategy is driving the company’s sustainability, corporate governance and ethical leadership agenda to new heights”

● Upgrade reaffirms the success of the company’s focus on innovation and responsibility, powered by a resilient, sustainable and data-powered ecosystem

● In the environmental pillar Zain scored 10/10 – a best-in-class recognition reflecting progress on its region-wide 2050 Net Zero Emissions targets

Manama

Zain Group, a leading provider of innovative ICT and digital lifestyle communications operating in eight markets across the Middle East and Africa, has attained a significant improvement in its Morgan Stanley Capital International (MSCI) rating in ESG (Environmental, Social, and Governance), which was upgraded from ‘BBB’ to ‘A’ as of September 2025.

This milestone underscores Zain’s unwavering commitment to strengthening corporate governance frameworks, upholding the highest standards of transparency, proactively complying with regulatory requirements, and adopting global best practices in disclosure and risk management. This commitment helps Zain mitigate risks and facilitates an effective Board oversight over the company’s executive management by promoting strong internal controls to improve integrity of financials and establishing a culture of compliance.

The Group recently intensified its efforts to build a flexible and sustainable operating model, reinforcing its leadership in guiding the region toward a future where technological advancement and corporate responsibility are closely aligned. Zain’s focus on accountability, transparency, and ethical practices further cements its standing as a leading force in the ICT sector, known for generating sustainable value.

Zain’s latest ESG rating highlights its ongoing advancement in data privacy and security initiatives. The Group has launched several oversight mechanisms and initiatives to safeguard data and manage risks, demonstrated by recent ISO certifications across multiple business units. The Group continues to enhance data security to mitigate risks while handling sensitive data—particularly in markets with tightening privacy laws, such as Kuwait.

Furthermore, the Group has enhanced its corporate governance structure by clarifying responsibilities and refining board oversight mechanisms. The MSCI upgrade also reflects Zain’s commitment to ethical conduct, responsible corporate behavior, and the adoption of best-in-class labor management practices, such as executive training programs and employee engagement initiatives.

Notably, Zain achieved a perfect 10/10 in the environmental category reflecting its progress on its region-wide 2050 Net Zero Emissions targets.

Zain Vice Chairman & Group CEO, Bader Al-Kharafi stated: “Zain’s transformative ‘4WARD-Progress with Purpose’ strategy is driving the company’s sustainability, corporate governance and ethical leadership agenda to new heights. Integrating ESG principles at the core of our business strategy is essential for achieving true industry leadership.”

He added; “This upgrade on the MSCI ESG Index reaffirms the success of the company’s focus on innovation and responsibility, powered by a resilient, sustainable and data powered ecosystem built on transparency and adherence to the highest global standards. By reinforcing our oversight and control frameworks, we have fostered a supportive work environment that drives sustainable growth and long-term value for all stakeholders”

“ESG is not just about risk management—it offers strategic vision that empowers us to meet future challenges with confidence and resilience. We are building a collaborative culture that champions innovation and expands strategic partnerships for greater synergy and shared success. Responsible governance is essential to address the challenges emerging from rapid technological advancement and artificial intelligence.”

Al-Kharafi emphasized Zain’s commitment to leading regional transformation through the development of advanced digital infrastructure, the ethical and sustainable application of AI and technology, and the launch of breakthrough initiatives supporting responsible innovation, all while ensuring business continuity and community well-being.

Zain’s sustained progress on the MSCI ESG Index reinforces its status as a catalyst for sustainability and responsible governance. The recent upgrade reflects Zain’s alignment with evolving ESG regulations across its operational markets and its dedication to world-class transparency in reporting.

The Group’s leadership in climate action, governance reforms, effective environmental policies, and major strides in data privacy remain evident, even amid geopolitical challenges. Zain’s innovative responses and continuous improvement reinforce its position as a driver of long-term sustainable prosperity for the communities it serves.

As the business landscape evolves, Zain continues to set the benchmark for governance and sustainability. Its latest climb on the global MSCI ESG Index, particularly for data privacy and protection, underscores its commitment to a data-driven corporate culture grounded in precision and informed decision-making.

ZAIN DATA OFFICE

Recognizing that robust data governance is now a regulatory necessity, Zain established the “ZAIN DATA OFFICE” as a foundational pillar for high-quality information, enabling compliance with data protection and cloud computing laws. This office enhances Zain’s resilience against data threats and regulatory constraints, strengthening its adaptability to global information management requirements.

Reinforcing its environmental objectives, Zain remains at the forefront of global efforts to combat climate change, consistently adopting nature-based, sustainable solutions that position it as a regional leader in environmental transformation.

On the labor rights front, Zain’s policies embed human rights principles across human resources and codes of conduct, with special emphasis on anti-discrimination and employee treatments.

Zain’s sustainability policies reflect a comprehensive vision for a more equitable and prosperous future, founded on strategic partnerships that drive economic growth and community well-being.

The renowned MSCI ESG Ratings methodology evaluates companies on their management of material ESG risks and opportunities including climate change, human capital, and corporate governance, with a focus on policies, performance metrics, and controversies. Ratings are industry-relative and range from ‘AAA’ to ‘CCC,’ with scores determined by a company’s exposure to ESG risks and the effectiveness of its management strategies.

Trump’s tech visa fee challenged in court

AFP | San Francisco, United States

A coalition of workers in a variety of fields filed a lawsuit Friday to halt the new $100,000 H-1B visa fee introduced by the Trump administration.

The group, representing health care workers, university professors and religious groups, among others, argued in federal court in San Francisco that the new fee is illegal and will thwart a key conduit for innovation and economic growth in the United States.

“Without relief, hospitals will lose medical staff, churches will lose pastors, classrooms will lose teachers, and industries across the country risk losing key innovators,” the coalition said in a statement.

“The suit asks the court to immediately block the order and restore predictability for employers and workers,” it added.

The $100,000 fee announced last month gave companies just 36 hours notice before it went into effect, triggering chaos and confusion over how it would work and who would be hit.

The H-1B fee is part of a larger crackdown by President Donald Trump, who has unleashed a massive push against immigration since returning to the White House -- though until now it had not targeted the visa on which Silicon Valley relies heavily.

Trump argued that the H-1B visa system was being abused to replace American workers with people willing to work for less money.

The United States awards 85,000 H-1B visas per year on a lottery system. India accounts for around three-quarters of the recipients.

Tech entrepreneurs -- including Trump’s former ally Elon Musk -- have warned against targeting H-1B visas, saying that the United States does not have enough home-grown talent to fill important tech sector job vacancies.

Iraqi farmers protest cultivation ban amid drought

AFP | Diwaniyah, Iraq

Hundreds of Iraqi farmers protested yesterday against the government’s policy of curbing land cultivation to preserve dwindling water supplies, an AFP correspondent said.

Year-on-year droughts and declining rainfall have brought agriculture to its knees in a country still recovering from decades of war and chaos, and where rice and bread are diet staples.

Water scarcity has forced many farmers to abandon their plots, and authorities have drastically reduced farm activity to ensure sufficient drinking water for Iraq’s 46 million people.

In the Ghammas area in the southern province of Diwaniyah, hundreds of farmers, including from neighbouring provinces, gathered to urge the government to allow them to farm their lands.

They called on the authorities to compensate them for their losses and distribute water for agriculture.

“We have come from four provinces to demand the rights and compensation owed to farmers,” one of the protesters, Mahmoud Saleh, said.

“The farmer has been wronged. They will not let us cultivate the wheat crop next year, and they have cut off water supplies,” he added.

Mohammed Amoush, who used to cultivate 100 dunum (25 hectares) of farms, said “our land has become fallow.”

“There is no agriculture, only financial loss. We are devastated,” he added.

Iraq’s historically fertile plains stretched along the once-mighty Tigris and Euphrates, but water levels have plummeted drastically over the past decades.

In addition to the drought, authorities also blame upstream dams in neighbouring countries for reducing the rivers’ flow.

In recent weeks, the Euphrates has seen its lowest levels in decades, especially in the southern provinces, and water reserves in artificial lakes are at their lowest in the country’s recent history.

Iraq currently receives less than 35 percent of its share of the river water allocated ac-

Iraq has experienced a dramatic decline in rainfall over the past two decades, with average annual precipitation dropping by nearly 30% compared to historical levels. This prolonged drought has severely reduced water levels in the Tigris and Euphrates rivers, threatening agriculture and leaving millions at risk of water scarcity.

CAPTAIN'S CORNER

Electric Scooters: A Call for Regulation Before the Problem Grows

CAPTAIN MAHMOOD AL MAHMOOD

In recent years, the Kingdom of Bahrain has witnessed a noticeable rise in the use of electric scooters—devices that initially appeared as children’s toys, ridden occasionally in neighborhood streets and causing little disruption due to their limited presence.

That quiet beginning has gradually transformed into a much larger phenomenon. Adults have increasingly adopted these scooters as a practical means of transportation, first as a convenient tool for shop and grocery workers delivering nearby orders, and now as a common sight on main roads and highways.

Yet this swift shift from “toy” to “transport” has not been matched by a clear regulatory or legislative framework. As a result, many riders now operate these scooters in ways that endanger themselves and others—travelling along main roads without license plates or even basic safety gear such as helmets. These practices pose a direct risk to both scooter riders and other road users.

The General Directorate of Traffic at the Ministry of Interior has been quick to recognize this growing danger. It has launched organized campaigns to monitor and control the use of electric scooters and to ensure compliance with traffic rules. In official statements, the Directorate has emphasized that the primary aim is to protect lives and public safety before imposing penalties. This balanced approach reflects the Ministry’s long-standing commitment to combining firm law enforcement with a human touch in public service.

Bahrain’s traffic officers are widely known for embodying this blend of firmness and humanity. One friend recounted to me how his car suffered a tire blowout on the road. Within minutes, a patrol car stopped, and the officers insisted on changing the tire for him, saying: “You’re like my father—don’t tire yourself out.” Such stories exemplify the spirit of community security and compassionate service that defines the Ministry’s work, even in high-sensitivity tasks.

There is no doubt that the future of transportation is electric and environmentally friendly. But that future demands urgent legislative action in Bahrain: to regulate the import and use of these scooters, require licensing, and enforce safety standards. Early regulation will prevent these devices from becoming unsafe or unregulated alternatives to traditional transport—much like the “tuk-tuk” phenomenon that spread chaotically in other countries.

Egypt opens one of Valley of the Kings’ largest tombs to public

AFP | Luxor, Egypt

The tomb of Pharaoh Amenhotep III, one of the largest in southern Egypt’s Valley of the Kings and Queens, was officially opened to the public Saturday after years of restoration.

Egypt’s tourism and antiquities minister, Sherif Fathy, unveiled to reporters the newly refurbished site, which dates back more than 3,000 years.

Mohamed Ismail Khaled, head of Egypt’s Supreme Council of Antiquities, said restoration involved more than two decades of “incredibly delicate work, because the tomb was suffering severe deterioration”.

Authorities led reporters on Saturday through the colossal space, which boasts floor-to-ceiling wall paintings, the bright blue of the frescoes shining even in the dim light.

Gazans hail Trump ceasefire call as

A Palestinian boy carries a piece of wood as he walks on a coastal path northwest of Nuseirat refugee camp as they are displaced southward following an Israeli announcement of closing Al-Rashid road towards the north of the besieged Gaza Strip

Hamas agrees to free hostages

AFP | Khan Yunis, Palestinian Territories

Smoke billowed over Gaza City yesterday, yet for the first time in months, residents felt a ceasefire was within reach as they welcomed US President Donald Trump’s call for Israel to stop bombing.

“Trump’s announcement was very surprising to me, as he has always been biased toward Israel,” said 24-year-old Jamila al-Sayyid, from Gaza City’s Zeitun neighbourhood.

Despite Trump’s appeal, she said “the planes did not stop” bombing, but still felt good about her decision not to flee from the territory’s largest urban centre.

“The most important thing is that the ceasefire will take effect and the Israeli prisoners will be released, as they are a pretext for Israel to continue its occupation”, she added, referring to the 47 hostages still held in Gaza, including 25 the military says are dead.

Hamas said Friday night it was ready to release the hostages under Trump’s ceasefire plan, prompting the US president to urge Israel to immediately stop its strikes.

“I believe they are ready for a lasting PEACE. Israel must immediately stop the bombing of Gaza, so that we can get the Hostages out safely and quickly!” Trump posted on Truth Social after Hamas gave its agreement.

But Israel’s military yesterday warned northern Gaza remained “a dangerous combat zone” and warned residents not to return.

Gaza Strip: Trump’s plan for the withdrawal of Israeli troops

According to the map presented by the White House on September 29

For Sami Adas of Gaza City, however, it was a “day of joy, a great day”.

The 50-year-old, who has been living in a tent with his family in the west of Gaza City, the focus area of Israeli military’s operations in recent weeks, said any ceasefire would improve his lot.

“The best thing is that President Trump himself announced a ceasefire, and Netanyahu will not be able to escape this time,” Adas said, referring to Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu.

He said the US president “is the only one who can force Israel to comply and stop the war”.

Apprehensions remain

Further south, Mahmud Abu Shamala, a 49-year-old living in displacement in the so-called humanitarian area of Al-Mawasi, said that “this ceasefire is a dream I have wished to achieve for two years”.

He feared, however, that Israel would not abide by it once Hamas releases the hostages.

Although Trump presented his ceasefire proposal Monday, several sticking points remain.

In talks with Trump, Netanyahu all but rejected the idea of Gaza being governed by the Ramallah-based Palestinian Authority.

Hamas, for its part, did not address the issue of its own disarmament and the exile of its members, and said more talks were needed to work out the details.

Still, Palestinians felt hope for the first time in months, after ceasefire talks had stalled and Israel attempted to strike Hamas leaders even in Qatar, a key mediator.

“It’s enough... the situation is very bad,” said Abu Hussein Labad, a displaced man from Jabalia refugee camp.

“I’m injured, and to this day I can’t move. The situation is unbearable. God willing, the war will end and we can return to our destroyed homes.”

In the West Bank city of Ramallah, Palestinians said Hamas played its hand well under an American ultimatum to respond by Sunday.

“Hamas’ stance yesterday was very good,” Iyad Safi told AFP.

“God willing, it will be for the good of the people -- the most important thing is the people’s interest, that the war stops and things come to an end.”

Adnan Naeem, said that “Hamas addressed the urgent issues”, in its response.

“The other issues can be discussed later”, he said.

Trump envoys Witkoff, Kushner head to Egypt to discuss hostage releases: White House

Washington, United States

President Donald Trump's son-in-law Jared Kushner and a senior US envoy are heading to Egypt yesterday to finalize hostage release details, a White House official said after Hamas reacted positively to a peace plan to end two years of war.

A White House official confirmed that Kushner and Trump's envoy Steve Witkoff are heading to the Middle East to address the finalization of details on the release of hostages and to discuss the deal pushed by Trump to bring an end to the conflict between Israel and the Palestinian militant group.

After Hamas said it was ready to release all hostages and discuss details on the peace plan, Trump urged an immediate halt to the fighting in Gaza

Gaza civil defence says heavy strikes despite Trump appeal

Jerusalem, Undefined

Gaza's civil defence agency said yesterday that Israel carried out dozens of attacks on Gaza City despite US President Donald Trump's appeal to end bombardments after Hamas accepted a ceasefire deal.

"It was a very violent night, during which the (Israeli army) carried out dozens of air strikes and artillery shelling on Gaza City and other areas in the Strip, despite President Trump's call to halt the bombing," civil defence spokesman Mahmud Bassal told AFP.

Bassal, whose agency is a rescue force which operates under Hamas authority, added that 20 homes were destroyed in the overnight bombardments.

"The situation is very serious in Gaza City," Bassal said, adding that his teams were not able to reach all the casualties due to the "presence of tanks and the ongoing bombardment".

Contacted by AFP, the Israeli military said it was "checking" reports of overnight bombardments on Gaza City.

Guns to fall silent in Gaza

International reactions have been pouring in following Hamas's positive response on Friday to US President Donald Trump's plan to free Israeli hostages in Gaza and end the nearly two-year conflict. Here are some of the main reactions from around the world:

Trump

Guterres

Macron

Merz

Starmer

United States

"Based on the Statement just issued by Hamas, I believe they are ready for a lasting PEACE. Israel must immediately stop the bombing of Gaza, so that we can get the Hostages out safely and quickly!" Trump posted on Truth Social.

The US leader also said in a brief video message that "everybody will be treated fairly" in talks on the future of Gaza.

Israel

"In light of Hamas's response, Israel is preparing for the immediate implementation of the first stage of the Trump plan for the release of all the hostages," Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's office said.

"We will continue to work in full cooperation with the President and his team to end the war in accordance with the principles set out by Israel, which align with President Trump's vision," the statement added.

Mediators

Qatar "welcomes the announcement by Hamas of its agreement to President Trump's plan", said foreign ministry spokesman Majed al-Ansari, also expressing support for Trump's call for an immediate ceasefire.

Egypt said it hoped "this positive development will lead all parties to rise to the level of responsibility by committing to implementing President Trump's plan on the ground and end the war".

United Nations

UN Secretary-General Antonio Guterres "welcomes" Hamas's response and "urges all parties to seize the opportunity to bring the tragic conflict in Gaza to an end", spokesman Stephane Dujarric said.

UN rights chief Volker Turk said he hoped the plan would "pave the way for a permanent cessation of hostilities...

in line with international human rights and humanitarian laws".

It was, he said, a "vital opportunity for all parties and influential states to pursue in good faith and stop -- once and for all -- the carnage and the suffering in Gaza, to flood the strip with humanitarian aid, and to ensure the release of the hostages and numerous detained Palestinians".

Europe

"The release of all hostages and a ceasefire in Gaza are within reach!" French President Emmanuel Macron wrote on X, joining a chorus of hopeful European reactions to Hamas's response.

German Chancellor Friedrich Merz said the plan represented "the best chance for peace" in the conflict and that Germany "fully supports" Trump's "call upon both sides".

Britain's Keir Starmer called Hamas's acceptance "a significant step forwards" and urged all sides "to implement the agreement without delay".

Turkey

Erdogan

Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan said he believed Hamas was showing "as it has done many times before, that it is ready for peace".

The foreign ministry said the Palestinian group's response "provides an opportunity for the immediate establishment of a ceasefire in Gaza".

Jordan

Jordan's foreign ministry welcomed Hamas's response.

It "stressed the need to immediately halt the Israeli aggression on Gaza, open the border crossings to allow the immediate, adequate and sustainable delivery of humanitarian aid to all parts of the strip, and launch a genuine effort to achieve a just peace".

Trump says 'will not tolerate delay' from Hamas on peace deal

Washington, United States

US President Donald Trump yesterday warned Palestinian group Hamas to "move quickly" and agree to a peace deal with Israel or risk further devastation in Gaza.

"Hamas must move quickly, or else all bets will be off. I will not tolerate delay, which many think will happen, or any outcome where

He also expressed appreciation that "Israel has temporarily stopped the bombing in order to give the Hostage release and Peace Deal a chance to be completed," although the enclave's civil defense agency said Israel carried out dozens of attacks on Gaza City overnight.

Israel confirms 137 more activists from Gaza-bound flotilla deported to Turkey

Jerusalem, Undefined

Israel said yesterday that it had deported 137 more activists who were detained while taking part in an aid flotilla bound for Gaza.

The Israeli foreign ministry said those deported were citizens of the United States, Italy, the United Kingdom, Switzerland, Jordan and several other countries.

The ministry said in a post on X that "137 more provocateurs of the Hamas-Sumud flotilla were deported today to Turkey".

"Israel seeks to expedite the deportation of all provocateurs," it added.

On Friday, Israel deported four Italian activists, the first of hundreds detained from the flotilla.

The Global Sumud Flotilla set sail last month, ferrying politicians and activists including Swedish campaigner Greta Thunberg towards Gaza, where the United Nations says famine is taking hold. The Israeli navy began intercepting the boats on Wednesday, and an Israeli official said the following day that boats with more than 400 people on board had been prevented from reaching the Palestinian territory.

Young learners shine in festive Colours

Special Dussehra Assembly Presentation at BIS

Manama

Bhavans-Bahrain Indian School's Kindergarten section celebrated the festival of Dussehra with great enthusiasm through a Special Assembly Presentation, showcasing the rich cultural heritage of India in a vibrant and engaging manner.

The young students, dressed in beautiful traditional attire, opened the event with a joyful Dandiya performance that filled the atmosphere with rhythm and colour. This was followed by a thoughtful skit depicting the epic tale of Lord Ram and Ravana, reinforcing the universal values of truth, courage, and the triumph of good over evil.

The assembly also featured captivating dance performances by the children, which were met with applause and admiration. To nurture creativity and festive spirit, the celebration concluded with hands-on craft activities, allowing students to design colourful artwork inspired by Dussehra traditions.

Principal Mr Saji Jacob remarked, "This celebration highlighted more than a cultural showcase; it paved the way for our students to learn life values while experiencing joy and teamwork." BIS Directors Mr Himanshu Verma and Mrs Ritu Verma expressed their delight, stating, "Watching the little ones embrace tradition with such passion and confidence was truly heart-warming. The celebration beautifully reflected the values of unity, creativity, and cultural pride that BIS stands for."

The event was a memorable occasion that blended festivity, learning, and cultural pride, leaving both students and teachers enriched by the spirit of Dussehra celebration.

New Millennium School Bahrain hosts 'Viksit Bharat Run'

Manama

In a spirited display of unity, patriotism, and commitment to nation-building, New Millennium School Bahrain, proudly hosted the 'Viksit Bharat Run' in association with the Embassy of India, Kingdom of Bahrain, on Thursday.

The event, which was an initiative aligned with the vision of a developed India - Viksit Bharat@2047, was graced by the esteemed presence of H.E. Mr. Vinod K Jacob, the Ambassador of India to the Kingdom of Bahrain, along with a full delegation of Embassy officials, school leadership, faculty and students.

The event commenced with a ceremonial welcome for the Honourable Ambassador, followed by a brief address highlighting the importance of youth participation in shaping the future of India. The Ambassador applauded the school's efforts in promoting the spirit of Viksit Bharat through such community-driven initiatives and emphasized the role of the Indian diaspora in this national movement.

The run saw enthusiastic participation from students, teachers, and embassy members. The route, set within and around the school's sports arena, resonated with slogans and chants celebrating India's journey towards a prosperous and inclusive future.

Principal Dr. Arun Kumar Sharma expressed his gratitude to the Ambassador and the Embassy officials, for supporting the school in initiating the run, which added immense value and motivation for the students and staff.

School Chairman Dr Ravi Pillai and Managing Director Mrs Geetha Pillai congratulated the school for the successful conduct of the run which was a reaffirmation of the school's commitment to contribute towards the development of the nation's goals.

Manama bow out of Arab Clubs championship

Quarterfinal heartbreak for Manama in UAE clash

● Manama exit Arab Clubs Championship

● Kazma seizes late quarterfinal lead

● Jaber, Hassan, Buallay lead scoring

Manama's basketball team exited the Arab Clubs Championship in Dubai yesterday losing 81-75 to Kuwaiti side Kazma in the quarterfinals at Al Nasr Club Hall.

The Bahraini side controlled much of the game, but Kazma seized the lead in the closing seconds to end Manama's run.

Action from the quarters

Ali Jaber led the scoring for Manama with 17 points, supported by Imran Hassan with 14 and Mohammed Buallay contributing 13.

Group Stage Recap
Manama finished fourth in Group B with three points, having lost all three preliminary matches: 79-73 to Lebanon's Antonine, 103-78 to Libya's Al Ahly Tripoli, and 76-65 to Kuwait SC.

Despite the group-stage defeats, the tournament structure allowed all teams to progress to the round of 16. Manama rebounded with a 75-70 victory over Qadsia of Kuwait, booking their place in the quarterfinals before their narrow loss to Kazma.

Russell takes pole position for Singapore Grand Prix as McLaren struggle

AFP | Singapore, Singapore

George Russell claimed pole position for the Singapore Grand Prix in his Mercedes with a lap of 1min 29.158sec, finishing 0.182sec ahead of Red Bull's Max Verstappen. Championship leader Oscar Piastri was third for McLaren, while teammate Lando Norris could only manage fifth.

Russell, who described the weekend as "challenging," said he knew there was "potential in the car" and praised teammate

Kimi Antonelli, who qualified fourth to split the McLarens. Ferrari's Lewis Hamilton and Charles Leclerc followed in sixth and seventh, with Isack Hadjar (RB), Oliver Bearman (Haas) and Fernando Alonso (Aston Martin) rounding out the top ten.

Verstappen, winner in Monza and Baku, has closed to within 69 points of Piastri and 44 of Norris as he pursues a fifth straight world title. A maiden Singapore victory would further dent McLaren's dominance. McLaren, however, could still seal the constructors' crown this weekend with a podium finish. Else-

26th AMH Island Classic Charity Golf Tournament

October 30th to November 1st 2025

Manama

American Mission Hospital has announced the much-anticipated 26th Annual Island Classic Charity Golf Tournament, scheduled from October 30th to November 1st, 2025. This event will commence on October 30th at 12:00 pm, inaugurating three days filled with thrill, companionship, and spirited competition.

Under the patronage of His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa, this signature event will unfold at His Majesty's Private golf course in Saffriya, offering a unique opportunity for golf enthusiasts to showcase their skills on this renowned course.

Dr. George Cheriyan, the Corporate CEO/Chief Medical Officer of AMH, expressed his gratitude, stating, "First and Foremost, I would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to His Majesty, for graciously allowing us once again to host the tournament. Golfers all-around eagerly anticipate the opportunity to test their skills on this challenging course every year."

The tournament follows a Florida scramble format, where all players take their shot from the position identified as the best ball. Each member team comprising of four golfers has an equal chance to impact the team's collective score and overall performance.

Teams will be divided into two flights - Championship and Premier Flight and at the end of the three days of play; three winners from each category will be awarded. Several side contests including Closest to the Pin, Longest Putt and the Most accurate drive will also be conducted side by side.

ducted side by side.

As sponsors continue to show unwavering support for the event, funds raised will be directed towards the noble cause of Community Outreach Programs, furthering AMH's mission of promoting health education and providing essential medical services to the community.

Arsenal go top of Premier League as Man Utd ease pressure on Amorim

Arsenal's English midfielder #41 Declan Rice
London, United Kingdom

Declan Rice struck against his former club as Arsenal moved top of the Premier League with a 2-0 win over West Ham yesterday. In Mikel Arteta's 300th match in charge, the Gunners proved too strong, though captain Martin Odegaard was forced off injured before half-time.

Rice, signed from West Ham for £105 million in 2023, smashed home after Alphonse Areola parried Eberechi Eze's shot. Bukayo Saka then sealed victory from the penalty spot on his 200th Arsenal appearance after Jurrien Timber was fouled. Arteta praised his side's response to injuries, saying Arsenal "dominated and fully deserved to win." The Gunners sit one point above Liverpool, who play later at Chelsea. Defeat left West Ham in the relegation zone.

At Old Trafford, Manchester United eased pressure on Ruben Amorim with a 2-0 victory over Sunderland. Mason Mount scored early from Bryan Mbeumo's cross before Benjamin Sesko netted his first home goal since a £74m move from RB Leipzig. Amorim hailed his side as "competitive and adult," as United moved into calmer waters heading into the international break.

Elsewhere, Tottenham ended Leeds' year-long unbeaten league run at Elland Road with a 2-1 win, lifting Thomas Frank's side to third.

Sinner breezes launch Shanghai title defence
Shanghai, China

World number two Jan-nik Sinner opened his Shanghai Masters title defence with a 6-3, 6-3 win over Germany's Daniel Altmaier on Saturday. The Italian, fresh from winning the China Open, broke early in both sets and saved two break points in the first. He next faces Tallon Griekspoor, with his path eased by Carlos Alcaraz's withdrawal.

Elsewhere, Alexander Zverev battled past France's Valentin Royer 6-4, 6-4 despite a foot issue, while world number seven Alex de Minaur beat Camilo Ugo Carabelli 6-4, 6-2. Daniil Medvedev cruised through, but Andrey Rublev was upset by Yoshihito Nishioka. Novak Djokovic plays Sunday.

Open-air boxing returns ahead of Asian Youth Games

● Bahrain hosts regional boxing event

● National coach outlines youth development plans

● Next up: Asian Youth Games

Hussain Almaskati
TDT | Manama

The GCC Open Air Boxing Event returned to the Dilmun Club yesterday night, featuring nearly 30 fights. Boxers from Bahrain and across the Gulf competed in youth, junior, and elite divisions, with decisions and knockouts highlighting the night.

Approximately 160 participants entered, marking a record for the GCC Open Air programme and reinforcing Bahrain's position as a focal point for regional amateur boxing.

Davis on Progress

Bahrain's head coach, Tony Davis, told the Daily Tribune the event was "fantastic" and the closest realization of his Gulf Golden Gloves concept. Bahrain's role as host allows young fighters vital experience ahead of the Asian Youth Games later this month. "We've got Qatar's national team here, boxers from the UAE, and our youth using this as preparation," Davis said.

Reflecting on six years as coach, Davis noted Bahrain's transformation: "When I arrived, there wasn't much structure. With guidance from His Highness Shaikh Khalid, we've built something sustainable. It's unrecognizable from where it began."

Results Round-Up

The night opened with Mohammed Sohaib (Red F Boxing Club, Bahrain) claiming a unanimous decision over Turki Hussain Al Ihsan (AlQadsia Club, Saudi Arabia). Abdulrahman Mukhlej (Aldoy, Bahrain) followed with a points victory against Rayan AlTayyar (Kick-off, Saudi Arabia), while Morgan Barr (Britain Boxing Club, Dubai) forced a referee stoppage against Fahad Al Doseri (Qatar National Team) in the junior 63kg division.

Home fighters impressed throughout. James Inghan (BBF - Bahrain Boxing Federation) edged Saleem Al Jreemi (UFC Bahrain), and Muath Bin Ahmed Al Doseri (Qhot Gym, Saudi Arabia) narrowly defeated Said Abraham Younis (Qhot Gym, Bahrain) via split decision. Max Finch (DKR Boxing Club, Dubai) scored a knockout over Issa Hussain (Spartan Gym, Bahrain), while Ziyad Arnolov (Hashtag Gym, UAE) dominated with a unanimous points win.

In the women's 57kg elite division, Sara Alqasser (Alqadsia Club, Saudi Arabia) earned a unanimous decision over Suha Alsaud (Muhammad Alifar Gym, Bahrain), and Rawan Abdulrahman (UFC Bahrain) recorded a stoppage victory over Zoe Ella (Alqadsia Club, Saudi Arabia). Youth categories also shone, with Mohamad Mehdi Sahak (Bahrain National Team) defeating Mohamed Jifry (Qatar National Team) and Salman Rafique (Al Hussain School, Bahrain) overcoming Ali Hussain (Bahrain) at 38kg.

First-time competitive bouts added excitement. Selene Bastaki (Round One Boxing, Bahrain) defeated Layla Al Ali in the girls' 60kg category, and Noah Iyer (Round One Boxing, Bahrain) beat Dawood Alshammari (Saudi Arabia) in the boys' 60kg division.

Other highlights included Mohammed Attia (Bahrain Boxing Federation), earning Best Fighter of the Night for a polished win over Ali Halaik (Spartans, Dubai), and George Fletcher (On Boxing Club, UK) closing the night with a clear unanimous decision over Abraham Alyad (Bahrain).

Post-Fight Reflections

At the programme's conclusion, Davis thanked visiting teams and local clubs. He also announced, as reported by TDT last week, that he will step down after Bahrain's upcoming commitments, ending six years as national coach.

"It's seeing the kids come out, the look on their faces — that's what gets us in the gym every morning. You give them discipline, structure, and when they step in here, you see it all come together," he said.

He acknowledged Bahrain's growth: "97 years ago, there was no boxing here. Look at it now." The event now sets the stage for Bahrain's athletes, including Abdulrahman Mudahki and Mohammed Attia, as they prepare for the third Asian Youth Games, featuring over 4,300 athletes from 45 National Olympic Committees across Asia.

The event was originally coach Tony Davis' idea, launched as the Gulf Golden Gloves

Test skipper Gill replaces Rohit as India ODI captain

Ahmedabad, India

Test skipper Shubman Gill has replaced Rohit Sharma as India's ODI captain, the country's cricket board said Saturday, starting with the series in Australia.

The 38-year-old batsman Rohit and fellow stalwart Virat Kohli, 36, were both named in the squad for the three-match series beginning on October 19.

Top-order batsman Gill, 26, is now Test and one-day skipper, and vice-captain to Suryakumar Yadav with India's T20 side.

Chief selector Ajit Agarkar said Gill was chosen to lead the 50-over team with the 2027 World Cup in mind.

Agarkar is eager to see how Rohit and Kohli handle playing just one format of the international game.

They have both retired from T20Is and Tests.

Gill's vice-captain for the Australia series will be Shreyas Iyer.

Suryakumar will lead the T20 team in Australia.

India will play five T20 matches after the ODIs in Australia, seen as a preparation for the T20 World Cup in February-March in India and Sri Lanka.

India currently top both the ODI and T20

Jadeja stars as India crush West Indies in first Test

Ahmedabad, India

All-rounder Ravindra Jadeja starred with bat and ball as India hammered West Indies by an innings and 140 runs inside three days of the first Test on Saturday.

India declared on their overnight 448-5, a lead of 286, and then bundled the West Indies out for 146 in the second session at the world's biggest cricket stadium in Ahmedabad.

It was another heavy and demoralising defeat for West Indies, who are a pale shadow of the team that once ruled world cricket.

Left-handed Jadeja stood out for India with 4-54 from his spin bowling after he hit an unbeaten 104 for his sixth Test century and was named player of the match.

The second Test begins on October 10 in New Delhi.
