tion of it that we filmed outside a while, probably," the actor

The sitcom's reunion was first announced in February 2020 by HBO Max and was scheduled to premiere that May, but was delayed due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic.

"Unfortunately it's very sad that we had to move it again. It was, 'How do we do this with live audiences?' This is not a safe time. Period. That's the bottom line. It's not a safe time to do it," Aniston told Deadline in August.

She added, "It's going to be super. I choose to see it as the glass is half-full that it got postponed. Look, we're not going anywhere. You're never going to get rid of Friends, sorry. You're stuck with us for life, guys."

Kudrow, who played the eclectic Phoebe Buffay in the series, revealed in January that she and her costars have already shot some scenes for the reunion.

"There's different facets to it, and we already shot packages of things. I pre-shot something already so we're definitely doing it, because I already shot a little something," she said on the Literally! With Rob Lowe podcast.

Billie Piper has 'abandonment issues'

British actress Billie Piper is not sure if she can be healthy around love. Piper has been in a relationship with Tribes frontman Johnny Lloyd since 2016.

The actress began her career when she was just 15 and she love. says that spending so much time on her own has had an impact on her relationships, including her her marriages to Chris Evans and Laurence Fox.

"I think a lot of my issues romantically have come from being on my own a lot when I was very young," Piper told Red magazine, reports femalefirst.co.uk. Billie Piper

She added it is an extreme desire to feel loved and safe.

"I guess on some level it's like abandonment issues -- even though I wasn't particularly abandoned; I lead myself largely -- but I think that has affected relationships," said Piper.

She doesn't think she can ever be "fully practical and healthy" in her ideas about

"I think on some level I'm always going to be interested in love in a way that throws logic to the floor. Part of me doesn't ever just want to see it as this rational thing where I'm making sure I have date night on a Wednesday; although I think there are merits in doing that," she said.

Piper added: "But the thought immediately makes me feel a bit heavy-hearted and bored. I don't know if I can ever really be fully practical and healthy around love."
