

Chikex Bahrain Partners with Manama Club to Support Youth Basketball and “Golden Generation” Goals

In a significant boost to local sports development, Manama Club has officially signed Chikex Bahrain as the primary sponsor for its youth and junior basketball teams. This strategic partnership directly supports the national “Golden Generation” initiative, a program led by His Highness Sheikh Khalid bin Hamad Al Khalifa dedicated to cultivating young athletic talent across the Kingdom. The collaboration marks a milestone in Manama Club’s long-term strategy to enhance its youth infrastructure. Hassan Nowrooz, Board Member and Head of Media & PR at Manama Club, highlighted the importance of this synergy, noting that the partnership aligns perfectly with the national vision for sports excellence. He stated that investing in young talent today is the key to preparing future players who will represent both the club and Bahrain with distinction. Under the terms of the sponsorship, Chikex will provide essential operational support for the club’s youth and junior basketball programs. Mr. Arshad Hashim, Director of Chikex Bahrain, expressed pride in the initiative, emphasizing that the company’s involvement stems from a core belief in youth empowerment.
