HM King Hamad receives annual Shura and Representatives Councils' reports

TDT | Manama

His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa received the annual reports on the work of the Shura and Representatives Councils for the third session of the sixth legislative term, during a ceremony held at Al-Safriya Palace. HM the King received the reports from His Excellency Ahmed bin Salman Al-Musallam, Speaker of the Council of Representatives, and H.E. Ali bin Saleh Al-Saleh, Speaker of the Shura Council, in the presence of the vice-presidents of both councils. HM King Hamad lauded the legislative authority's achievements over the past three sessions, describing them as "significant contributions to the good of the nation and its citizens."

He commended the councils' "continued efforts to support Bahrain's march of civilised progress and development," and their dedication to fulfilling their legislative and oversight roles.

"The constructive cooperation between the executive and legislative branches is a cornerstone of Bahrain's progress," HM the King said. "It ensures that our development process remains strong, inclusive, and sustainable." His Majesty expressed pride in the Kingdom's accomplishments, highlighting the role of Bahrain's people in shaping the nation's success. "The citizens of Bahrain have always been the driving force behind our renaissance," he affirmed. "Their sincere efforts have strengthened our nation's leadership, status, and prestigious reputation in all fields."

Royal support for growing Bahrain-Qatar ties

His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister, emphasised the enduring support for Bahrain-Qatar relations from His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa and His Highness Sheikh Tamim bin Hamad Al-Thani, Amir of the State of Qatar. HRH Prince Salman was speaking as he received yesterday His Excellency Sultan Ali Yousef Mohammed Al-Khater, the outgoing Ambassador of Qatar to Bahrain, at Gudaibiya Palace. His Royal Highness expressed his appreciation to HE Al-Khater for his efforts in further bolstering bilateral relations. During the meeting, issues of common interest and regional and global developments were reviewed. Ambassador Al-Khater expressed his thanks to HRH the Crown Prince and Prime Minister for his ongoing commitment to continue strengthening bilateral relations between the two countries, wishing the Kingdom of Bahrain continued progress and prosperity. His Highness Shaikh Isa bin Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, Minister of the Prime Minister's Court, and HH Shaikh Mohammed bin Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, also attended the meeting.

Bridging Bonds

As Germany celebrates the 35th anniversary of its National Unity, His Excellency Henning Simon, the newly-appointed Ambassador of the Federal Republic of Germany to the Kingdom of Bahrain, hosted senior Bahraini media representatives for a luncheon at his residence in Saar, reaffirming his commitment to deepening dialogue and friendship between the two nations.
