Bahrain advances strategic global partnerships

TDT | Manama

The Deputy King, His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister, highlighted the progress witnessed in cooperation between international organisations and the Kingdom of Bahrain across various fields.

HE noted Bahrain’s unwavering support for the private sector, aimed at further enhancing the Kingdom’s investment position and contributing to its comprehensive development, led by His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa.

(UNIDO), at Riffa Palace.

Shura blocks plan to extend Court Appeal deadlines in Environment Law

Mohammed Darwish
TDT | Manama

The Shura Council voted yesterday to block a bid to extend court appeal deadlines under Environment Law, backing its Public Utilities and Environment Committee’s call to keep the limit at 30 days.

Before taking that decision, members voted down a request to postpone the vote for two more weeks for further study.

Twenty members opposed postponement, four abstained and nine supported it.

Vote

The Council then voted in favour of the committee’s recommendation to reject the draft law in principle and returned it to the lower chamber.

The proposal would have amended paragraph (a) of Article 113 of Law No. 7 of 2022 on the Environment, giving a person whose grievance is refused 60 days to appeal to the competent court from the date they are notified, instead of 30.

A shorter window is meant to “speed up the settlement of decisions and rulings

H.E. NAWAF AL MAAWDA, JUSTICE MINISTER

It was prepared on the basis of a proposed law submitted by Parliament.

Justice Minister, His Excellency Nawaf Al Maawda, supported the committee’s view, telling members that the timetable already follows “30/30/30”.

He said “the last thirty does not mean delaying”, adding: “During the thirty days, the person concerned can file the appeal,” and then use the court process “to complete all documents and prepare the required papers in a way that achieves the court’s full satisfaction”.

He warned that longer time limits can cause problems once a decision has already been put into effect.

“Extending the period may have practical effects, especially if the decision has been activated or implemented, and then it becomes necessary to revert to the previous situation,” he said, adding that a shorter window is meant to “speed up the settlement of decisions and rulings”.

Committee rapporteur Ali Al Shehabi said the aim was “to grant concerned persons sufficient time to examine the decision carefully” before going to court, but told the chamber that “this objective is already achieved” under the current text.

Three ‘forces’ camp together

Fil-Am Bahrain gathers nearly 200 attendees for a memorable celebration at Hamala Camp Al Sakhir

TDT | Manama

Nearly 200 members, families, and friends attended a memorable desert camping activity organized by the Filipino American Association of Bahrain (Fil-Am Bahrain) on 6 February 2020 at Hamala Camp Al Sakhir.

The event was held in partnership with the Travelers Tribe Masonic Club Bahrain (T2) and Tri-Step Lodge No. 99.

The theme of the camp, “Three Forces. One Direction,” symbolized the unity and collaboration among the three distinct groups or “forces” coming together to move toward a common goal.

According to Madz Y. Despi, Vice President for External Affairs of Fil-Am Bahrain, “Each ‘force’ represents a team, tribe, or community participating in the camp, and the theme emphasizes teamwork, partnership, and shared purpose.”

Theme

“The theme was reflected throughout the program, from shared activities to cooperative

Three organizations demonstrate unity through teamwork, friendship, and shared experiences games and group performances,” she further explained.

Set against the serene desert landscape and accompanied by cool, breezy winds, the gathering showcased the strong bond of friendship, unity, and cooperation that these organizations continue to nurture among their members.

A warm bonfire was lit during the evening, perfectly complementing the cold weather and providing a cozy setting where participants gathered to share stories, laughter, and fellowship.

The event was facilitated by Joselito Sarmiento, Vice President for Internal Affairs of Fil-Am Bahrain, who served as the emcee while participating alongside his family, with the program formally commencing with a solemn prayer led by Ms. Despi.

In his message, Fil-Am Bahrain President Orlando O. Fontanilla expressed his heartfelt gratitude to all the participants, organizers, and partner organizations for their active involvement and continued support, emphasizing the importance of unity and volunteerism in sustaining meaningful community activities.

Both young participants and adults took pleasure in a range of enjoyable and interactive games, which were carefully assisted by Mark Ferido, treasurer of the Travelers Tribe Masonic Club Bahrain (T2).

Marlon Arlanza, Vice President of T2, who actively participated in the coordination of the activities also delivered a message of thanks and solidarity, acknowledging the collective efforts of the officers, partner organizations, and members in making the event successful.

He was joined by Rogin Folante, president of Tri Step Lodge No. 99 who likewise conveyed a message emphasizing unity, cooperation, and continued support among the organizations.

Also in attendance was Mitch de Guzman, President of T2, whose presence further strengthened the partnership and solidarity among the participating organizations.

Rising domestic worker hiring costs ‘strain’ families ahead of Ramadan

Hasan Barakat
TDT | Manama

A notable rise in the cost of domestic worker services has been observed across Bahrain, whether workers are hired on an hourly basis or under monthly live-in arrangements.

Industry observers expect prices to continue climbing as Ramadan approaches, driven by increasing demand for household support during the holy month.

Informed sources said a growing number of households are turning to hourly or monthly arrangements as an alternative to direct sponsorship, following a sharp increase in recruitment costs that now reach around BD2,000 per worker.

These costs are further compounded by lengthy administrative procedures and related expenses, placing additional strain on family budgets.

Concerns

Beyond rising costs, families have expressed mounting anxiety over repeated cases of workers leaving their sponsors.

Sources pointed to the role of illegal networks that encourage workers to abandon regulated employment and take up informal work elsewhere in Bahrain, often influenced by acquaintances already operating outside the system.

Such cases leave families exposed to sudden financial losses and emotional stress.

Hourly

For hourly services, sources told The Daily Tribune that the long standing rate of BD2 per hour with a BD1 transport fee is being revised.

Several offices have informed clients of increases to BD3 per hour, with transport fees rising to BD2 depending on distance, triggering frustration among many middle income households.

Live in arrangements have followed a similar upward trend. Monthly rates that once ranged between BD150 and BD250 have risen to between BD250 and BD300 without cooking duties. Costs climb to BD350 and, in some cases, exceed BD400 when cooking skills are required.

Pressure

With Ramadan expected to drive further demand amid limited availability, families are renewing calls for tighter oversight of recruitment offices and the introduction of a unified pricing mechanism to curb unchecked increases and protect households.

Shura backs raising witness testimony limit to BD1,000

raised the same limit from 200 dinars to 500 dinars.

Framework

The Shura Council on Sunday gave its final approval, under an urgent procedure, to a draft law amending Bahrain’s Law of Evidence in Civil and Commercial Matters, raising the value limit for proving a legal act, or proving that it has ended, through witness testimony from BD500 to BD1,000.

The Council decided to send the draft to the Speaker of the Council of Representatives for referral to His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister, ahead of submission to His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa.

The amendment updates Decree-Law No. 14 of 1996, based on a proposal submitted by the Shura Council, and follows the approach taken in Law No. 17 of 2009, which Legislative and Legal Affairs Committee rapporteur Sabeeka Al Fadhala told the chamber the change is meant to update the legal framework in line with economic and social change, and follows the approach taken in Law No. 17 of 2009, which lifted the same limit from 200 dinars to 500 dinars.

Al Fadhala said the aim is to make court steps easier by easing evidence rules to match the way civil transactions now work, so people can prove rights worth up to 1,000 dinars through the recognised routes of proof, including witness testimony.

She said the proposal fits the right to litigation under Article 20 of the Constitution.

Waste bag proposal revived

Hasan Barakat
TDT | Manama

The Northern Area Municipal Council has renewed calls to involve major commercial supermarkets in distributing household waste bags, as councillors press for urgent solutions to recurring service disruptions affecting residents.

The proposal, submitted by Sixth District municipal council member Abdulla Abdulhameed Ashoor, was placed on the agenda for the council’s tenth ordinary meeting.

It urges coordination between the Ministry of Municipalities Affairs and Agriculture and large retail chains to help residents access waste bags more easily.

According to the memorandum, the current reliance on automated dispensing machines has exposed several operational weaknesses.

These include frequent technical failures, sudden service stoppages linked to regulatory and contractual issues, and an insufficient number of machines relative to the population size.

Praise for Ministry cooperation

Hasan Barakat
TDT | Manama

Abdullah Mubarak Bilal Al Qubaisi, the Northern Municipal Council member for the Ninth District, commended the Ministry of Justice, Islamic Affairs and Endowments for its cooperation through the Sunni and Jaafari Endowments.

He credited this partnership with delivering projects that directly benefited residents during the sixth municipal session.

Al Qubaisi said the constructive coordination with the ministry resulted in tangible outcomes that support the community and strengthen mosque infrastructure across the district.

The Councilor described the cooperation as a practical example of effective institutional partnership serving community needs.

He noted that achievements under the Sunni Endowments included the completion of maintenance works at Fatima bint Al Rasool Mosque in Hamad Town, Block 1210.

Modi touched down in Malaysia on Saturday, his first visit in more than a decade, where he inked a number of agreements with Malaysian counterpart Anwar Ibrahim, including deals on renewable energy, health care and artificial intelligence.

“Along with AI and digital technologies, we will advance our partnership in semiconductors, health, and food security,” Modi said.

India's Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Malaysian Prime Minister Anwar Ibrahim hold hands during a press conference in Putrajaya

“This meeting and these exchanges are very vital, very strategic and critical to advance and enhance relations between India and Malaysia,” Anwar added.

India's foreign ministry said the Southeast Asian nation had a “very strong semiconductor ecosystem”.

“They have almost 30 to 40 years of experience in those areas,” the ministry added in a statement ahead of Modi's arrival.

“Our companies are... interested in collaborating with Malaysia,” it said, including in research and development and building manufacturing and testing plants.

For instance, Tata Electronics was in talks last June with global semiconductor companies to buy a fabrication or outsourced semiconductor assembly or test plant in Malaysia, Indian and Malaysian news reports said at the time.

Malaysia ranks sixth in worldwide exports of semiconductors, while the sector contributes around 25 percent of gross domestic product, according to Malaysian government figures.

◆ Embattled British Prime

Minister Keir Starmer's chief of staff resigned yesterday over the appointment of Peter Mandelson as ambassador to Washington despite links to US convicted sex offender Jeffrey Epstein. "After careful reflection, I have decided to resign from the government. The decision to appoint Peter Mandelson was wrong. He has damaged our party, our country and trust in politics itself," Morgan McSweeney, Downing Street's chief of staff, said in a statement. "I advised the Prime Minister to make that appointment and I take full responsibility for that advice," he added. The resignation came as the foreign ministry said it was reviewing an exit payment to Mandelson, who was sacked by the Labour premier last September over his friendship with the late Epstein. Mandelson, a pivotal figure in British politics and the Labour Party for decades, received an estimated pay-out of between £38,750 and £55,000 ($52,000 to $74,000) after only seven months in the job, according to a report in the Sunday Times.

Takaichi on course for landslide win in Japan election

◆ Japanese Prime Minister Sanae Takaichi was on course for a thumping victory in snap elections yesterday, a result that could however rile China and worry financial markets. Capitalising on her honeymoon start as Japan's first woman premier, Takaichi's ruling bloc looked to have secured a two-thirds majority in the lower house, according to media estimates. If confirmed, it would be the best result for the Liberal Democratic Party (LDP) since elections in 2017 under Takaichi's mentor, assassinated former prime minister Shinzo Abe. The LDP alone was seen winning about 300 of the 465 seats up for grabs, up from 198, and regaining a majority -- and potentially a super-majority on its own without its junior partner, the Japan Innovation Party (JIP).

◆ Romanian President Nicusor Dan

said yesterday he had received an invitation to attend the inaugural meeting of US President Donald Trump's "Board of Peace" in Washington on February 19. Dan, writing on his Facebook page, said Romania had not yet made a decision as to whether it would participate. That would depend, he said, "on discussions with our US partners on the format of the meeting for countries like Romania, which are not currently members of the Board but which wish to be part of it on condition its charter is revised". On Saturday, Hungarian Prime Minister Viktor Orban said that he, too, had received an invitation to attend the meeting, and that he intended to go. Trump launched his "Board of Peace" at the World Economic Forum in Davos in January and some 19 countries have signed its founding charter.

Iran sentences Nobel peace laureate Mohammadi to six years in prison: lawyer

AFP | Tehran, Iran

An Iranian court sentenced Nobel Peace Prize winner Narges Mohammadi to a six-year prison term, her lawyer said yesterday.

"She has been sentenced to six years in prison for gathering and collusion to commit crimes," lawyer Mostafa Nili said, adding that she had also received a two-year ban on leaving the country.

Mohammadi was also handed a one-and-a-half-year prison sentence for propaganda activities and is to be exiled for two years to the city of Khosf in the eastern province of South Khorasan, the lawyer stated.

Under Iranian law, jail sentences run concurrently.

Nili expressed hope that due to Mohammadi's health issues, she could be temporarily "released on bail to receive treatment".

He added that the verdict issued was not final and could be appealed.

Over the past quarter-century, Mohammadi, 53, has been repeatedly tried and jailed for her vocal campaigning against Iran's use of capital punishment and the mandatory dress code for women.

Mohammadi has spent much of the past decade behind bars and has not seen her twin children, who live in Paris, since 2015.

In December 2024, she was released for three weeks on medical grounds related to "her physical condition after the removal of a tumour and a bone graft", according to her lawyer.

Even behind bars, the Nobel laureate has not been silent, staging protests in the prison yard and going on hunger strikes.

Mohammadi won the peace prize in 2023, primarily for her campaigning against the death penalty in Iran. Her children collected the award on her behalf, as she was in prison at the time.

Human rights groups, including Amnesty International, say Iran carries out more executions each year than any other country except China, for which no reliable figures are available.

Iran defies US threats to insist on right to enrich uranium

The United States and Iran reopened negotiations on Friday in Oman

● The US and Israel additionally want the negotiations to go beyond the nuclear issue

● Iran had little trust in Washington and doubted that the US side was taking renewed negotiations seriously

AFP | Paris, France

Iranian Foreign Minister Abbas Araghchi yesterday ruled out Tehran ever giving up uranium enrichment in its negotiations with Washington, insisting it will not be intimidated by the threat of war with the United States.

Araghchi told a forum in Tehran attended by AFP that Iran had little trust in Washington and doubted that the US side was taking renewed negotiations seriously.

He later said Iran was consulting with its "strategic partners" China and Russia about the talks.

"Why do we insist so much on enrichment and refuse to give it up, even if a war is imposed on us? Because no one has the right to dictate our behaviour," Araghchi said at the forum.

"Their military deployment in the region does not scare us," he added, referring to the arrival of an aircraft carrier, the USS Abraham Lincoln, in the Arabian Sea.

The United States and Iran reopened negotiations on Friday in Oman for the first time since Israel's 12-day war with the Islamic republic in June of last year, which the US briefly joined.

Iran is seeking to have US economic sanctions on the country lifted, in exchange for what Araghchi said at the forum could be "a series of confidence-building measures concerning the nuclear programme".

Western countries and Israel, thought to be the Middle East's only country with nuclear weapons, say Iran is seeking to acquire an atomic bomb, which the Islamic republic denies.

"They fear our atomic bomb, while we are not looking for one. Our atomic bomb is the power to say 'no' to the great powers," Araghchi said.

Israeli Foreign Minister Gideon Saar on Sunday denounced "the attempt by the most extreme regime in the world to obtain the most dangerous weapon in the world", calling it "a clear danger to peace".

The US and Israel additionally want the negotiations to go beyond the nuclear issue and include Iran's ballistic missiles and support for armed groups in the region, issues Iran refuses to include in the talks.

Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu -- who is scheduled to meet US President Donald Trump in Washington on Wednesday -- insists these two components be included in any negotiation, his office said Saturday.

'Peace through strength'

Araghchi's comments came after US lead negotiators Steve Witkoff and Jared Kushner visited the nuclear-powered USS Abraham Lincoln on Saturday, the US military's Central Command (CENTCOM) said.

In a social media post, Witkoff said the aircraft carrier and its strike group was "keeping us safe and upholding President Trump's message of peace through strength".

Around 180 Gazans have left via Rafah crossing since reopening

AFP | Rafah, Palestinian Territories

Around 180 Palestinians have left the Gaza Strip since the limited reopening of the Rafah crossing with Egypt a week ago, according to officials in the territory.

The Rafah crossing, the only gateway for Gazans to the outside world that does not pass through Israel, reopened for the movement of people on February 2, nearly two years after Israeli forces seized control of it during the war with Hamas.

Between Monday and Thursday, 135 people crossed into Egypt from Gaza through the crossing, mostly patients and their companions, according to Ismail al-Thawabteh, head of the Hamas-run media office in the Palestinian territory.

"Official statistics on the movement at the Rafah crossing from

Palestinians, coming from the Rafah crossing with Egypt, arrive at Nasser Hospital in Khan Yunis in the southern Gaza Strip Monday, February 2, 2026, until Thursday, February 5, 2026, show a severe restriction on travel," Thawabteh said.

He said the crossing was also closed on Friday and Saturday.

The Palestinian Red Crescent Society confirmed that 135

Gazans had left through the crossing between February 2 and 5.

On Sunday, another 44 people left the Gaza Strip through the crossing to Egypt, Mohammed Abu Salmiya, director of the territory's main Al-Shifa Hospital, told AFP.

They included 19 patients, while the rest were their companions, he added.

A source at the border on the Egyptian side also confirmed the figure for travellers passing through the gateway on Sunday.

It brought the total number to 179 people entering the Gaza Strip.

"My son was injured during the war and a metal plate was inserted in his leg for a year and a half," Rajaa Abu al-Jadian told AFP as she prepared to leave through the crossing earlier on Sunday.

Dalai Lama's office says the spiritual leader has never met Epstein

AFP | New Delhi, India

The office of the Dalai Lama said on Sunday that he had never met convicted sex offender Jeffrey Epstein, after Chinese media reported the Tibetan Buddhist leader's name was mentioned in a cache of files released by the US government.

The US Justice Department published last month the latest tranche of the Epstein files -- more than three million documents, photos and videos related to its investigation into the disgraced financier.

An AFP search of the files found the Dalai Lama's name was mentioned more than 150 times with no mention of him meeting or interacting with Epstein. The mere mention of someone's name in the Epstein files does not in itself imply any wrongdoing by that person.

"Some recent media reports and social media posts concerning the 'Epstein files' are attempting to link His Holiness the Dalai Lama with Jeffrey Epstein," the leader's office said in a statement posted on X.

"We can unequivocally con-

Tibetan spiritual leader the Dalai Lama attends a long-life prayer offering ceremony at the Main Tibetan Temple in McLeod Ganj, near Dharamsala firm that His Holiness has never met Jeffrey Epstein or authorised any meeting or interaction with him by anyone on His Holiness's behalf," it added.

On Thursday, state-run broadcaster the China Global Television Network (CGTN) reported that 'Dalai Lama' appeared at least 169 times in the Epstein files and mentioned an email in which an unknown sender told Epstein he was considering going to an event the Dalai Lama was set to attend.

A search into the Epstein files, released by the US DOJ and accessed by AFP produced 154 results about the Dalai Lama.

AFP did not identify any mention or suggestion of a meeting between the Dalai Lama and Epstein.

The email mentioned by CGTN and seen by AFP was sent by a person whose name is redacted in which they write to Epstein: "About the event I told u almost a month ago on island that dalai lama is coming and I want to go there to see him. But I can skip this event if u need my help today."

The person writes in a later email: "...go in now to the event w dalai lama".

There is no mention in the emails that the person actually met or saw the Dalai Lama, who over the years has made numerous public appearances across the world.

Epstein was convicted in 2008 for soliciting a minor for prostitution. He died by suicide in 2019 while in prison facing sex trafficking charges. Several high-profile public figures have been caught up in the latest US release of the documents linked to the financier, with some resigning from their jobs, facing official inquiries and public questioning.

Suspect in shooting of Russian general arrested: FSB

● The man in his 60s was "arrested and handed over to Russia" after fleeing to the United Arab Emirates

AFP | Moscow, Russia

A Russian man suspected of shooting and wounding senior Russian military intelligence officer Vladimir Alekseyev in Moscow has been arrested in Dubai, the Russian FSB security service said yesterday.

The man in his 60s was "arrested and handed over to Russia" after fleeing to the United Arab Emirates, while a suspected accomplice was arrested in

Russian Lieutenant General Vladimir Alekseyev

Moscow and another escaped to Ukraine, Russian media quoted the FSB as saying.

Several high-ranking military officials have been assassinated in Russia and in Moscow-controlled Ukrainian territory since Russia launched its full-scale military offensive against its neighbour in February 2022.

Alekseyev, the deputy head of Russia's GRU military intelligence service, was shot in a Moscow apartment on Friday and admitted to hospital.

He is under Western sanctions for his alleged role in cyberattacks and the organisation of a nerve agent attack on Russian defector Sergei Skripal in Britain in 2018.

Russian Foreign Minister Sergei Lavrov has accused Ukraine of masterminding the shooting.

Kyiv, which has claimed responsibility for the killing of several high-ranking Russian military officials since the start of the war, has not commented in this case.

Bangladesh seeks UN help to probe killing of uprising leader

AFP | Dhaka, Bangladesh

Bangladesh has requested assistance from the United Nations human rights office for an investigation into the killing of Sharif Osman Hadi, a popular leader in the country's 2024 youth-led uprising, the government said Sunday.

The Bangladeshi mission in Geneva had sent a diplomatic note requesting the Office of the UN High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) to support a "fair, impartial and expeditious" probe into the killing, the interim government's press wing said.

"The note requests technical and institutional assistance from the UN human rights office to support the investigation," it added.

Hadi, 32, was shot by masked assailants in Dhaka last December and later died of his injuries at a hospital in Singapore. His death set off a wave of violent protests.

Hadi had planned to run as an independent candidate in polls taking place on Thursday to determine the country's first elected government since the overthrow of former prime minister Sheikh Hasina.

The interim government, which is led by Nobel laureate Muhammad Yunus, also reiterated its commitment to ensuring "the highest standards of transparency and accountability" in the case and pledged to identify and prosecute those responsible.

Hadi was an outspoken critic of India, where Hasina has taken refuge since fleeing Dhaka in the wake of the July 2024 uprising that overthrew her government.

North China factory explosion kills 8

Beijing, China

An explosion at a biotech factory in northern China has killed eight people, Chinese state media reported yesterday, increasing the total number of fatalities by one.

State news agency Xinhua had previously reported that seven people died and one person was missing after the Saturday morning explosion at the Jiapeng biotech company in Shanxi province, citing local authorities.

Later, Xinhua said eight were dead, adding that the firm's legal representative had been taken into custody.

The company is located in Shanyin County, about 400 kilometres west of Beijing.

Conservative Thai PM claims election victory

AFP | Bangkok, Thailand

Thailand's conservative prime minister claimed victory in the country's general election yesterday, after television stations projected his party would be by far the largest in parliament after riding a wave of nationalism.

"We are likely to take first place in the election," Anutin Charnvirakul told reporters at his party headquarters in Bangkok.

"The victory today belongs to all Thais, no matter whether you voted for us or not."

His Bhumjaithai party was forecast to win nearly 200 seats by Channel 3 on the basis of results from the parties. The progressive People's Party trailed far behind, just above 100 seats, ahead of jailed former prime minister Thaksin Shinawatra's Pheu Thai party in third.

Thailand's Prime Minister and Bhumjaithai Party leader Anutin Charnvirakul speaks to journalists

It would be a stunning turnaround for Anutin, whose party came third at the last election and who was only installed as prime minister by parliament in September, after two predecessors from Pheu Thai were ousted by the courts.

Conceding defeat, People's Party leader Natthaphong Ruengpanyawut told reporters in Bangkok that "we stand by our principle of respecting the party that finishes first and its right to form the government".

Foremost on many voters' minds was a longstanding border dispute with Cambodia that erupted into deadly fighting twice last year.

"We need a strong leader who can protect our sovereignty," said Yuernyong Loonboot, 64, the first voter to cast his ballot at a polling station in Buriram, Anutin's hometown.

Sitra prepare to host Al Ain

Bahrain's sole representatives aim to get off the mark in Gulf Club Champions League

Hussain Almaskati
TDT | Manama

Sitra are set to welcome Al Ain to Khalifa Sports City tomorrow evening in a Matchday 5 of the 2025-26 AGCFF Gulf Club Champions League, as the hosts look to secure their first win of the tournament. The Emiratis arrived in the Kingdom yesterday, ready to continue their strong start in the competition. With only one more group match to follow after this fixture, Sitra know a positive result is vital to keep their campaign alive.

The Bahraini side currently sit at the bottom of Group

A with two points from four matches. Their campaign so far includes two goalless draws against Al Qadsia and Zakho, and a 4-1 defeat to Al Ain in their opening fixture. In their most recent outing, Sitra were narrowly beaten 2-1 by Al Qadsia in Kuwait, with a late header from captain Othman Al Hajj keeping them competitive until the final whistle.

Al Ain are second in the group with six points, behind leaders Zakho of Iraq on 10, with Kuwait's Al Qadsia in third on four points.

Coached by Ali Abdulmajeed, Sitra will rely on goalkeeper Youssef Habib, forward Vin-

Othman Al Hajj races to restart play after scoring in Sitra's last match cent Emmanuel, and captain Al Hajj to convert opportunities and push for a first win. A strong performance on home soil would not only boost morale, but also keep alive their fighting chance of qualifying for the next stage.

Arteta backs confident Gyokeres to hit 'highest level'

AFP | London

Mikel Arteta said Viktor Gyokeres has raised his game to the "highest level" after the much-criticised striker scored twice in a 3-0 win over Sunderland on Saturday.

Victory took the Gunners nine points clear at the top of the Premier League as they chase a first English title in 22 years.

Martin Zubimendi's fine strike broke the deadlock just before half-time at the Emirates before Gyokeres sealed victory in the second half.

The Sweden international lashed home a shot from Kai Havertz's pass before Gabriel Martinelli teed him up to slot into an empty net in stoppage time.

Gyokeres has struggled to match his prolific form at Sporting Lisbon, which earned him a £64 million ($87 million) move to Arsenal.

Arsenal's Swedish striker #14 Viktor Gyokeres (C) scores their second goal

But he is Arteta's top scorer with 13 goals in all competitions, including six in his last eight appearances.

"Confidence is the magic word. When you feel confident, when you feel important, when you feel at your best, that's when you can really take your game to the highest level," said Arteta.

"We are really behind him in every moment to try to help him, to try to support him. He is delivering, and he's in a really good moment now.

"Obviously, when you put that shirt on, there is a lot of responsibility and huge expectation, and you need to live with that."

Arteta insisted Arsenal still have plenty of work to do to deliver a long-awaited title.

"We still have to win so many games to achieve what we want," added the Spaniard.

"I'm going to have a beautiful dinner tonight. Tomorrow I start to prepare for Brentford (on Thursday), because it's going to be a really tough one.

"And in the meantime, I will be watching a big, big game."

Real Madrid can wait - Siraj's dream night after late T20 call-up

AFP | Mumbai

India's wicket-taking hero Mohammed Siraj said "it felt like a dream" after a whirlwind 24 hours that saw him called into the T20 World Cup squad and force him to change holiday plans to watch Real Madrid.

Siraj took a wicket with his fourth ball of his first T20 international for 19 months against the USA on Saturday night.

He finished as India's leading bowler with 3-29 as they completed a 29-run win at Mumbai's Wankhede stadium after restricting the Americans to 132-8 in reply to 161-9.

The experienced quick bowler was only added to the squad 24 hours earlier as a replacement for the injured Harshit Rana.

He then was parachuted straight into the team for the opening match against the United States after space spearhead Jasprit Bumrah was unable to play because of a fever.

"First of all, in the last 24 hours, when I was sitting on the flight, it felt like a dream," an beaming Siraj told reporters.

"God changed my destiny. I was spending time with my family ... suddenly, Surya bhai (captain Suryakumar Yadav) called me.

"He said, 'get ready, pack your bag, and come'."

The 31-year-old Siraj has been a regular performer for the Test team with 139 wickets in 45 matches but had not played a T20 international since July 2024.

After being initially left out of India's T20 World Cup squad, the Hyderabad-born Siraj had planned to go to Spain and watch his favourite football team, Real Madrid, in action.

"My plan was that on the 15th (of February), there was a Real Madrid match, and I was going to watch it," said Siraj.

First of all, in the last 24 hours, when I was sitting on the flight, it felt like a dream. God changed my destiny. I was spending time with my family ... suddenly, Surya bhai (captain Suryakumar Yadav) called me. He said, 'get ready, pack your bag, and come

Almansoori extends dominance at BIC

Almansoori stars with BTCC double as National Race Day brings high-octane thrills to BIC

● Saeed Al Sulaiti and Marcos Ludena claim victories in class in BMC round

Manama

Bahrain International Circuit (BIC), ‘The Home of Motorsport in the Middle East’, hosted over the weekend the fifth round of National Race Day this 2025/2026 season, featuring the Bahrain Touring Car Challenge (BTCC) and Bahrain Motorcycle Championship (BMC). Ali Almansoori continued his incredible dominance this BTCC campaign, winning both races for yet another meeting to extend his perfect record. Saeed Al Sulaiti and Marcos Ludena also had reason to celebrate, as they emerged victorious in their respective classes in the BMC.

The weekend’s events were organised by BIC in cooperation with the Bahrain Motor Federation, the Circuit Racing Commission, and the Bahrain Motorcycle Commission. Action was held along BIC’s 2.554-kilometre Inner Track with competitors going bumper-to-bumper and wheel-to-wheel for plenty of heated, high-octane battles. Having won all eight of the BTCC’s races heading into the weekend, Almansoori was the heavy favourite, and he lived up to his billing. Behind the wheel of his Honda Civic, Almansoori set the pace in free practice and then captured pole position in qualifying. He then charged to the chequered flag in the BTCC’s first 15-lap race with a total winning time of 19mins 52.375secs, finishing 2.250s ahead of runner-up Moaaz Elzahrawi. Ahmed Baajnaid was a distant third 16.039s adrift to complete the podium placers. Both Elzahrawi and Bajnaid were also driving Honda Civics. In race two, also held across 15 laps, Almansoori started from the back of the grid in fifth position with James Taylor driving an Acura RSX DC5 on pole. That mattered little as Almansoori powered to the front and triumphed in a time of 20:06.406 with an even bigger gap of 4.308s from Elzahrawi. Taylor joined them on the podium in third 1:02.005 from the victor.

In the BMC, Alsulaiti led the 1,000cc class in free practice riding his BMW 1000RR while Mohamad Alzaidan on a Kawasaki ZX6 set the pace amongst the 600cc competitors. They then maintained their strong form by taking pole in their respective categories in qualifying, setting the stage for an exciting 14-lap race. Al Sulaiti went on to claim the 1,000cc victory in 15:39.716, finishing 41.238s ahead of Fahaad Al Gharabally in a Suzuki GSXR and Hassan Al Awadhi on a Ducati V2 by more than a lap. Ludena stormed to the 600cc win in 16:08.954. Abdulrahman

Ahmed and Faisal Bader took the other podium places, both riding Honda CVR600RR bikes. BIC’s 2025/2026 racing calendar features seven rounds of National Race Day. The season’s sixth and penultimate meeting is scheduled to take place on 13 March. That will set the stage for the grand finale on 24 April. England avoid seismic shock by beating Nepal in last-ball thriller

AFP | Mumbai

England clung on to beat Nepal by four runs in a last-ball thriller in Mumbai yesterday and avoid one of the biggest upsets in the history of the T20 World Cup. Chasing an imposing 185 to win, Nepal’s Lokesh Bam, who had bludgeoned a brave 39 off 19 balls to give his side a sniff of a famous win, needed a six off the final delivery bowled by Sam Curran but could only manage a single. It was a breathless and agonising end to a valiant run chase by the cricketing minnows, who put England’s premier bowlers Jofra Archer and Adil Rashid to the sword. Jacob Bethell (55) and Harry Brook (53) scored quick fifties for England but it was a late cameo by Will Jacks that took them to 184-7 in the Group C match, a total that proved just enough. Jacks smashed three spectacular sixes off the final over from Karan KC to finish 39 not out off 18 balls. Nepal ended a whisker away at 180-6, to the disappointment of nearly all the spectators in a three-quarters full Wankhede stadium who had been roaring them on. Nepal’s players received a massive ovation as they did a lap of honour at the end. “Winning ugly is a good trait to have,” a relieved Jacks told reporters after England’s 11th win in their last 12 completed T20 internationals.

Seifert powers New Zealand to their record T20 World Cup chase

Opener Tim Seifert struck a blistering 65 off 42 balls to lead New Zealand’s highest-ever run in a T20 World Cup as they beat Afghanistan by five wickets yesterday. After Afghanistan made 182-6, New Zealand were driven by Seifert’s 42-ball knock and 42 by Glenn Phillips to achieve their target with 13 balls to spare in Chennai. New Zealand’s previous best chase in the T20 World Cup was their 167 against England in the 2021 semi-final. “It’s always nice to start the tournament with a few runs under your belt, but the main thing is we got the win,” player of the match Seifert said. “Tough conditions as well out there. Lost a couple of early wickets, so it’s nice to get the job done.” Afghanistan spinner Mujeeb Ur Rahman had New Zealand in early trouble when he struck on successive balls in the sec-

Reed continues Gulf romp with victory in Qatar

AFP | Doha

Patrick Reed continued his impressive crusade round the Gulf as he won Qatar Masters by two strokes yesterday.

The American, who won the European Tour event in Dubai two weeks ago and was tied for second after a three-way play-off in Bahrain last week, led from the first round in Doha.

"This little run I've had, two wins and a second, it's awesome," said Reed.

"It's special, to come out here especially to get two wins early on in the season."

Reed started the final round two shots ahead of Jacob Skov Olesen and the two were paired.

After the Dane birdied the first hole and Reed bogeyed the second the pair were tied at the top.

Finn Oliver Lindell caught and passed them after making six birdies and two bogeys in the first eight holes.

Lindell bogeyed 12 and 13 as Reed picked up shots on 10 and 11 to move two ahead again.

"It wasn't looking very good there on the front nine," said Reed. "To lose the lead like that and then to be able to kind of flip the switch there on the back nine obviously felt amazing.

Calum Hill, who finished in a tie for second with Reed a week earlier, claimed second again. He eagled the tenth and then made four straight birdies from 14 to shoot a 67 while Olesen was one under on the back nine.

"Golf feels good at the minute," said Hill. "I feel like I did a lot of things well and if you put me in that position again I feel like I could convert from there.
