Man cleared over 35 months of alleged unpaid wages

TDT | Manama

A man has been acquitted of allegedly withholding a domestic worker's wages after a lower criminal court said the case lacked proof.

Prosecutors said she went unpaid for 35 months, totalling BD5,250. The verdict was delivered in public session.

Payroll

The defence, led by lawyer Jassim Al Esa, challenged the claim and asked the court to summon the worker and obtain payroll and remittance records, along with telecoms and regulatory data.

Prosecutors said the worker's monthly wage was BD150 and alleged non-payment from June 2022 until this year.

Al Esa said the worker moved to the ex-wife's household after a divorce and that the complaint arose from a Jassim Al Esa, lawyer maintenance dispute.

Bank transfers

He added that bank transfers show the worker sent money to her family in the Philippines and argued that doubt should favour the accused.

The court said the case rested mainly on a statement submitted on the worker's behalf and was not backed by other material in the file.

As it was not satisfied the charge was proven, it returned an acquittal.

A Bahraini father has accused a popular indoor play area at a mall in Manama of failing to ensure children's safety after his young daughter suffered two fractures while playing there on Thursday.

According to the father, who spoke to The Daily Tribune, the child was taken first to the emergency unit at Salmaniya Medical Complex and later to a private hospital, where doctors confirmed two fractures.

No staff present

The father alleged that when his family entered the play area, “nobody” was on duty. “Only one lady came later. She is the cashier, she is the security, she’s watching - everything,” he said, adding that she appeared untrained to respond to emergencies.

The father claimed the staff offered no assistance during

Unsafe equipment

He further alleged that the playground’s design posed hazards to children. “There is a steel bar, two meters plus... they cover it by leather. Kids think this is soft, but the accident is on steel,” he said. He also pointed to a slide that ends abruptly, which he believes increases the risk of injuries.

The father added that he had signed an agreement before allowing his daughter to play, but only realised its implications afterwards. “I signed before I read,” he said, alleging that police later told him such waivers were “unfair.”

Calls for accountability

The father stressed that child safety should come before business, and urged authorities to simplify complaint procedures so parents are not discouraged from reporting unsafe practices. “If they can’t do right, whatever they need to do, they should write,” he said, describing the waiver and current system as “unfair.” He also said the operator did not brief families on safety equipment such as helmets, gloves, or knee supports. Complaints regarding the incident have been filed with the police and with the Consumer Protection Directorate of the Ministry of Industry and Commerce.

A 33-year-old Asian woman who came to Bahrain believing she had secured a cleaning job was instead forced into prostitution, according to court documents.

The First High Criminal Court has set October 14 to issue its verdict in the case.

Forgery scandal rocks beauty salon partnership

TDT | Manama

A business partnership between two women to establish a beauty salon has escalated into a forgery case now before the Bahraini courts.

According to case files, one partner allegedly exploited the electronic signature system without the knowledge of her co-partner, appointing herself as manager of the commercial register and granting her Asian husband full signing authority.

The matter came to light in 2024 when the victim discovered her access to the “Sijilat” commercial registry platform had been blocked.

Upon inquiry with the relevant ministry, she found a forged authorization bearing her falsified signature, which added the husband as an authorised signatory.

Fabricated document

A second fabricated document also appointed the accused wife as manager of the register.

Investigations revealed that the wife had used her electronic key to upload the forged documents.

The husband admitted during questioning that his wife was behind the submissions.

Collusion

The Public Prosecution charged the couple with forgery and the use of forged documents during 2023–2024, alleging collusion with an unidentified individual to fabricate meeting minutes that falsely appointed the wife as manager and the husband as signatory.

The High Commercial Appeals Court has rejected an insurance company's claim seeking nearly BD2,500 from a Bahraini citizen, nine years after a traffic accident, according to lawyer Abduladheem Hubail.

Court documents show the case dates back to 2015, when a vehicle insured by the plaintiff company was damaged in an accident caused by the defendant, Hubail's client.

A traffic report confirmed the defendant was at fault, and the insurer later paid BD2,481 in repair costs.

The insurance company argued it was entitled to recover the amount by substituting itself in the rights of the insured and subsequently filed a lawsuit.

Nepali Army chief General Ashok Raj Sigdel held “consultations with related stakeholders and held a meeting with rep-representatives of Gen Z,” Rajaram Basnet said, referring to the loose umbrella title of the young protesters, but without giving further details. Shushila Karki, 73, a former Supreme Court chief justice who many see as a potential interim leader, said the dialogue between parties was critical. “Experts need to come together to figure out the way forward”, Karki told AFP. “The parliament still stands.” Demonstrations began Monday in the capital against the government’s ban on social media and over corruption, driv-en by angry young protesters who dubbed themselves the “Gen Z” movement. But they escalated into an outpouring of rage nationwide with government buildings set on fire after at least 19 people were killed in a deadly crack-down. The rapid descent into chaos shocked many, and Nepal’s military warned against “activities that could lead the country into unrest and instability”. Two policemen were killed on Tuesday, as well as the mass jailbreak, police spokesman Binod Ghimire said.

Israel vows to hunt Hamas leaders worldwide after Qatar strike draws US rebuke

Israel yesterday warned its enemies they were not safe anywhere, a day after strikes targeting Hamas leaders in Qatar -- a US ally -- drew a rare rebuke from President Donald Trump. Defence Minister Israel Katz vowed that “Israel’s long arm will act against its enemies anywhere”, following Tuesday’s deadly attack on the Gulf state, which hosts a large US military base and has spearheaded repeated rounds of Gaza truce efforts. “There is no place where they can hide,” Katz wrote on X, adding: “Everyone who took part in the October 7 massacre will be held fully accountable,” referring to Hamas’s October 2023 attack on Israel that sparked the nearly two-year Gaza war. Palestinian armed group Hamas said six people were killed in the strikes, including an aide and an adult son of its top negotiator Khalil al-Hayya, as well as three bodyguards and a Qatari security officer. But the group said its senior leaders had survived, affirming “the enemy’s failure to assassinate our brothers in the negotiating delegation”. The White House said Trump did not agree with Israel’s decision to take military action and had warned Qatar in advance of the incoming strikes. But Doha said it had not received the warning from Washington until the attack was already under way. Israel’s ambassador to the United Nations, Danny Danon, sought to justify the decision, telling an Israeli radio station: “We don’t always act in the interests of the United States.” “It was not an attack on Qatar; it was an attack on Hamas,” Danon told 103FM, adding: “It is too early to comment on the outcome, but the decision is the right one.” According to sources close to Hamas, six Hamas leaders including Hayya and former top leader Khaled Meshaal were in the targeted building at the time. AFP has been unable to reach any of them since then. ‘Shaken conscience of world’ Along with the United States and Egypt, Qatar has led multiple attempts to end the Israel-Hamas war and secure the release of the remaining hostages. In Gaza City yesterday, the Israeli military destroyed another high-rise building as it intensifies its assault on the territory’s largest urban centre despite mounting calls to end its campaign. The military’s Arabic-language spokesman, Avichay Adraee, had earlier issued an evacuation warning to those living in and around the Tiba 2 tower. The military said later it had lifeless babies. These images are simply catastrophic,” she said. Israel’s foreign minister, Gideon Saar, hit back, writing on X that Europe was sending “the wrong message that strengthens Hamas and the radical axis in the Middle East”. ‘Not thrilled’ Following Israel’s targeting of Hamas leaders in the Gulf, Qatar’s prime minister said it reserved the right to respond to the attack, which it said constituted a “pivotal moment” for region. Trump said he was not notified in advance of the Israeli strikes and was “not thrilled about the whole situation”. In a post on social media, he insisted that “this was a decision made by Prime Minister (Benjamin) Netanyahu, it was not a decision made by me”. “I view Qatar as a strong Ally and friend of the U.S., and feel very badly about the location of the attack,” he said, adding Hamas’s elimination was still a “worthy goal”. Russia and China joined an international chorus of condemnation, with Moscow saying the operation undermined peace efforts in the Middle East. Hamas’s October 7, 2023 attack resulted in the deaths of 1,219 people, mostly civilians, according to an AFP tally based on Israeli figures. Of the 251 hostages seized during the assault, 47 remain in Gaza, including 25 the Israeli military says are dead. Israel’s retaliatory offensive has killed at least 64,656 Palestinians, most of them civilians, according to figures from the health ministry in Hamas-run Gaza that the UN considers reliable.

Poland holds NATO talks after Russian drone intrusion

Warsaw calls urgent alliance talks as drone strikes edge Europe closer to conflict

- 19 Polish airspace violations by drones
- NATO Article 4 invoked
- House damaged in eastern Poland
- Moscow denies targeting Polish territory

AFP | Warsaw

Poland gathered its NATO allies for urgent talks yesterday after Russian drones flew into Polish airspace during an attack on Ukraine, Prime Minister Donald Tusk said, warning that the situation was inching closer to "open conflict".

Poland's airspace was violated 19 times, Tusk said, and at least three drones were shot down after Warsaw and its allies scrambled jets -- but authorities said nobody was harmed.

Footage posted by local media showed firefighters and police in the village of Wyrki, eastern Poland, inspecting a house with its roof ripped open and debris littered nearby following an impact from a drone.

Russian drones and missiles have entered the airspace of NATO members including Poland several times during Russia's three-and-a-half-year war, but a NATO country has never attempted to shoot them down.

Tusk said he had invoked NA-

TO's Article 4 under which any member can call urgent talks when it feels its "territorial integrity, political independence or security" are at risk -- only the eighth time the measure has ever been used.

"This situation... brings us closer than ever to open conflict since World War II," Tusk told parliament, but added there was "no reason today to claim that we are in a state of war".

The incident came as Russia unleashed a barrage of strikes across Ukraine including in the western city of Lviv, less than two hours' drive from the Polish border.

violation was a "dangerous precedent" for Europe and "no accident", and urged a strong response from Kyiv's Western allies.

Poland's interior ministry said a house and a car had been damaged overnight, adding that seven drones and debris from an unknown projectile had so far been located.

The North Atlantic Council, NATO's main political decision-making body, changed the format of its weekly meeting yesterday to hold it under Article 4 of the treaty.

A cornerstone of the Western military alliance is the principle that an attack on any member is deemed an attack on all.

NATO chief Mark Rutte hailed his organisation's "very successful reaction", telling journalists the alliance's air defences had done their job.

He slammed Moscow's "reckless behaviour" and called on Putin to halt a war that he said was now being waged on civilians.

they were ready to talk with Warsaw.

"There were no intentions to engage any targets on the territory of Poland," the ministry said in a statement in English, without confirming or denying that its drones had entered Polish airspace.

'Act of aggression'

Russia's top diplomat in Poland, Andrei Ordash, told RIA Novosti earlier yesterday he had been summoned to the foreign ministry for a meeting.

The operational command of Poland's military said the airspace violations were "unprecedented" and called it "an act of aggression".

As European capitals rushed out condemnations, several portrayed the incident as Russia testing Ukraine's allies.

"What he wants to do is to test us," said EU top diplomat Kaja Kallas. "And every time he's bolder, because he's able to be bolder because our response hasn't been strong enough."

Trump jeered at Washington restaurant, called 'Hitler of our time'

Viral videos on social media portray the moment protesters began jeering US President Donald Trump at a Washington restaurant Tuesday, shouting "Free DC! Free Palestine! Trump is the Hitler of our time!"

The 79-year-old Republican approached the shouting protesters in the restaurant, pausing a few feet away from them for a few moments, nodding and smiling placidly without offering a response.

Seconds later, Trump gestured for the area to be cleared out, saying "come on, let's go."

Secret Service agents then moved the protesters, who waved banners of the Palestinian flag.

New French PM vows 'profound break' with past to exit crisis

AFP | Paris

France's new Prime Minister Sebastian Lecornu promised a "profound break" with the past yesterday as he faced the thorny task of trying to build a government with enough parliamentary support to avoid an early demise.

Lecornu's first day on the job coincided with street protests across France in a show of grassroots opposition to President Emmanuel Macron, which resulted in clashes with police and dozens of arrests, as well as some disruption to transport, schools and other services.

But the protests, called by a collective without a clear leader, had an uneven impact across the country.

The president appointed Lecornu -- a close Macron ally and defence minister for the past three years -- late on Tuesday, only 24 hours after his predecessor Francois Bayrou lost a confidence vote in parliament over his attempt to implement austerity measures to reduce France's debt.

Taking over from 74-year-old Bayrou, Lecornu, who is 39, promised to find "more creative" ways than before to work with opposition parties as he tries to build a stable government.

"We will get there," he said during a handover ceremony.

Lecornu is the seventh prime minister since Macron took office in 2017 -- and the third within the space of the year.

Sabrina Carpenter: My new album is not for pearl clutchers

Bang Showbiz | Los Angeles

Sabrina Carpenter's new album is "not for any pearl clutchers".

The 26-year-old pop star has defended her approach to songwriting, insisting that "even pearl clutchers" can listen to Man's Best Friend and "find something that makes them smirk and chuckle".

During an appearance on CBS Mornings, Sabrina explains: "The album is not for any pearl clutchers."

"No, but I, I also think that even pearl clutchers can listen to an album like that in their own solitude and find something that makes them smirk and chuckle to themselves..."

Sabrina acknowledges that her lyrics can be "bold". However, she also insists that her music is "just fun".

She said: "I think that's the thing, is sometimes people hear the lyrics that are really bold or they go, 'I don't want to sing this in front of other people.' It's like it's almost too it, it, it's TMI [too much information]."

"But I think about being at a concert with, you know, however many young women I see in the front row that are screaming at the top of their lungs with their best friends. And you can go like, 'Oh, we can all, like, sigh of relief like, 'This is just fun.' And, and that's all it has to be."

Sabrina released her last album, Short n' Sweet, in 2024, and she previously described the record as "a more emphasized version" of her real-life self.

The blonde beauty told Vogue magazine: "Short n' Sweet is absolutely me."

There's no, like, alter ego. But it's definitely a more emphasized version of me.

Ariel Winter reveals she's 'open' to Modern Family revival

Bang Showbiz | Los Angeles

Ariel Winter is "open" to the idea of a Modern Family reunion.

The 27-year-old actress played Alex Dunphy in the ABC sitcom between 2009 and 2020, and Ariel has revealed that she's now open to the possibility of reviving the role.

She told E! News: "I'd definitely be open to it. But that's not up to me. That's up to the powers that be. If they want to hit me up, they can hit me up."

Ariel also revealed what she hopes to see from Alex if she does return.

The actress shared: "Alex had so many different interests. They were all extremely educational, smart and amazing interests. But I would hope that she has expanded her life in so many ways that I know she could have.

"I hope now that she's found herself totally in the way that she would want to, and put some effort into finding her heart and what she loves personally, because she's already achieved so much professionally."

Despite this, Ariel has enjoyed the challenge of starring in her new movie Pools, as it's so different from anything she's previously done.

The film tells the story of Kennedy, whose life falls apart following the unexpected death of her dad.

She said: "I was just looking to do something new and different and play a completely different character from what I had been doing. This was really that. It got sent to me and I was like, 'Alright, I think if this is done right, this could be really, really fun.'"

Meanwhile, Ariel previously admitted that she found it "hard to say goodbye to Modern Family.

The actress explained that the show's cast - which included Julie Bowen, Sarah Hyland and Sofia Vergara - "were like a real family".

She told People: "It was hard.

"We were like a real family. It was weird knowing it would just be over, and I wouldn't get to see everybody all the time anymore. It was like, wait, yeah, wait, we're not going to be together on Monday? So on the one hand, I didn't want it to end, but at the same time, I was ready to start something new as an adult."

Sophie Turner fears for child stars due to social media pressures

Bang Showbiz | Los Angeles

Sophie Turner fears for young stars due to the toxicity of social media.

The 29-year-old actress was just 13 when she was cast in the HBO fantasy series Game of Thrones and admits that she is concerned about performers who are thrust into the spotlight at an early age because of the cruel nature of the online sites.

Sophie told Flaunt magazine: "I look at the kids who are about to be in the new Harry Potter and I just want to give them a hug and say, 'Look, it's going to be okay but don't go anywhere near (social media).'

"Stay friends with your home friends, keep living at home with your family, make sure your parents are your chaperones - it's so important to have that grounding adjacent to the big, crazy stuff that you do."

Sophie recalled how her confidence dropped as social media became increasingly prominent after Game of Thrones started airing in 2011.

She said: "I think social media was just really becoming a big thing after I started on Game of Thrones, so I got a couple of years of peace and quiet and then I had to adjust. It had such a profound impact on my mental health, like more than I could tell you."

"It almost destroyed me on numerous occasions."

Sophie even stated that she will refuse to allow her own children - daughters Willa, five, and Delphine, three, from her marriage to former husband Joe Jonas - to act until they have grown up.

The Trust star said: "Oh God, they're not acting! Not until they're at least 25!"

Turner appears alongside Game of Thrones co-star Kit Harington in her upcoming movie The Dreadful and is determined to work on projects that generate discussion.

She explained: "I do like to make things that people can walk away from and they feel able to change something about themselves or feel inspired to do something."

Zoe Kravitz not returned to Taylor Swift's home since snake incident

Bang Showbiz | Los Angeles

Zoe Kravitz hasn't been back to Taylor Swift's house since she destroyed her bathroom.

The Caught Stealing actress revealed last week that she and her mom Lisa Bonet stayed at her friend's home during the Los Angeles wildfires, only to cause chaos when the 59-year-old model's pet snake got stuck in a "little hole" and she admitted she's not returned to the property since, though she insisted she hasn't been banned by the Karma hitmaker.

Asked if she's been back to Taylor's house since the incident with the snake, she laughed to E! News: "Have I? No. But not because I wasn't invited. Just because I haven't been in LA."

Her Caught Stealing co-star Austin Butler then added: "Yeah, that's important to clarify."

Zoe quipped: "No, I'm not allowed there anymore."

The 36-year-old actress told last week how her mom's snake Orpheus had caused a major problem in Taylor's house.

Appearing on Late Night with Seth Meyers, Zoe said: "I'm going around cleaning up. I'm downstairs and she's upstairs and my phone rings and it was my mom. I'm like, 'That's weird, we're in the same house.'"

"She goes 'Hi' and I'm like, 'Your voice is super high'. And she goes, 'I'm in a bit of a pickle. Can you come upstairs?'"

"I go upstairs, the bathroom door is closed, so I open [it] and she's crouched in the corner in this weird way. She says, 'So I was washing my face and I had Orpheus, and I just put her down for a second, closed the door, and she found this little hole in the corner.'"

"There was a little hole, that you wouldn't even know was there, right in the corner of the bathroom. The hole is next to a banquette that is built into the wall,"

"My mom is holding the snake's tail. Snake's tail, they're all muscle and very, very strong. I'm like 'Maybe this hole goes into the drawers [underneath]'. I get down on the ground, take the drawers out, no."

Zoe began "freaking out" as the snake got further and further into the hole and called for help from the house manager, who began "tearing apart" the banquette.

England thrash Serbia, Haaland stars in World Cup qualifying

Tuchel's side responds to criticism with emphatic win as Haaland scores five for Norway

● England hammer Serbia 5-0 in Belgrade

● Norway thrash Moldova 11-1 at home

● France edge Iceland 2-1 in Paris

● Portugal beat Hungary 3-2 late

AFP | Paris

England sent out a warning to their World Cup rivals with a brilliant 5-0 thrashing of Serbia in qualifying on Tuesday, while Erling Haaland scored five as Norway emphatically maintained their 100-percent record.

Elsewhere in Europe, Portugal and France overturned deficits to make it back-to-back wins to open their bids to reach next year's tournament in the United States, Mexico and Canada.

The quality of Thomas Tuchel's England was questioned after a laborious 2-0 win over Andorra at Villa Park on Saturday, but they produced a resounding answer.

"The players did excellent. The credit goes to them, they did amazing. That's the bar," manager Tuchel told ITV Sport.

England dominated the early stages in Belgrade and took the lead in the 33rd minute when Harry Kane headed home his 74th international goal from a Declan Rice corner.

The visitors doubled their advantage two minutes later, as

Noni Madueke raced onto an excellent flick-on from Morgan Rogers, kept his composure and dinked the ball beyond Serbia goalkeeper Djordje Petrovic.

Seven minutes into the second half, Ezri Konsa pounced on a loose ball after a free-kick to score his first international goal. Another Rice set-piece provided England's fourth, as Marc Guehi slid to meet his free-kick, given for the foul on Kane by Nikola Milenkovic which earned the Nottingham Forest centre-back a straight red card.

Substitute Marcus Rashford rounded off a perfect night for his team with a late spot-kick.

England could qualify for an eighth-successive World Cup in their next Group K game when they visit Latvia next month.

The other match in the group saw Albania leapfrog Serbia into second place, edging out Latvia 1-0 in Tirana.

Norway score 11

Norway produced the perfect response to second-placed Italy's dramatic 5-4 victory over Israel on Monday with a 11-1 thumping of Moldova to make it five wins from five in Group I.

Haaland was the star of the show, scoring a first-half hat-trick before nodding in his fourth goal not long after the restart.

Martin Odegaard grabbed a goal and two assists. Felix Myhre found the net early on after being picked out by Haaland.

Rangers midfielder Thelo Aasgaard came off the bench to add a seventh, although Moldova did grab themselves a consolation with a Leo Ostigard own goal, only for Aasgaard to score again.

Haaland stepped aside when Norway were awarded a penalty shortly afterwards, allowing the 23-year-old Aasgaard to complete an 11-minute hat-trick.

There were further goals for Haaland and Aasgaard as Moldova crumbled.

Norway, who downed four-time world champions Italy earlier in qualifying and are bidding to qualify for a first World Cup since 1998, moved six points clear of the Azzurri having played a game more.

Iceland made a dream start

Erling Haaland scored five goals in Norway's 11-1 demolition of Moldova, but graciously stepped aside to let 23-year-old substitute Thelo Aasgaard complete a 11-minute hat-trick from the penalty spot

Today is a statement victory against a difficult opponent in a difficult environment. There was no negative attitude on the pitch. For me, it was teamwork in it's purest form. Then we played football to a high level. The players did excellent. The credit goes to them, they did amazing. That's the bar only mistake. We created lots of chances but we are capable of doing better," said Deschamps.

Portugal beat Hungary

Portugal clinched a 3-2 win over Hungary at the Puskas Arena, backing up their opening Group F victory, 5-0 against Armenia last week.

Barnabas Varga gave the home side the lead before Bernardo Silva's leveller for Portugal.

Cristiano Ronaldo netted a record-extending 141st international goal with a spot-kick just before the hour.

Varga thought he had grabbed a point for Hungary, only for Joao Cancelo to snatch all three for Portugal with four minutes left.

"I loved the attitude and focus -- we just needed to control the game and take it where we wanted," said Portugal coach Roberto Martinez.

Hungary slipped to third in the standings behind Armenia who beat Ireland 2-1.

De Minaur says Australia ready to snap Davis Cup title drought

AFP | Sydney

Alex de Minaur says his ultimate tennis goal is to win the Davis Cup, with the world number eight confident Australia have the goods to secure their first title since 2003.

Australia have lifted the trophy 28 times, second only to the United States, but going the distance has long proved elusive.

They lost in the semi-finals last year to Jannik Sinner's Italy, having been runners-up in the two editions before that to Italy and Canada respectively.

Australia, captained once again by Lleyton Hewitt, host Belgium this weekend in a second-round qualifier at Sydney's

"These weeks are the funnest in my schedule, that's for sure, because it's a very lonely sport throughout the year," said De Minaur, who lost in the US Open quarter-finals last week.

"For me, the ultimate goal is to lift the title. That's been a priority of mine for my whole career. That's why I prioritise these weeks, no matter when it was in the schedule."

With seven singles players and seven doubles players ranked inside the ATP top 100, Australia have the firepower to contend for a 29th crown and De Minaur believes they are well-equipped to challenge once again.

Columbus, Ohio.

Alex Zendejas and Folarin Balogun scored to give the United States a 2-0 victory over Japan while Mexico battled South Korea to a 2-2 draw in international football friendlies.

Zendejas scored in the 30th minute and Monaco striker Balogun added an insurance goal in the 64th minute as the Americans improved to 7-6 with one drawn this year with the triumph before 20,192 at Tennessee.

Jamaicans beat Trinidad and Tobago in World Cup qualifying

AFP | Miami

Jamaica's "Reggae Boyz" kept their group lead by blanking Trinidad and Tobago 2-0 in a 2026 World Cup qualifier on Tuesday while Curacao defeated Bermuda 3-2.

Jamaica's Bailey Cadamarteri opened the scoring in the 36th minute off a headed pass from Greg Leigh and Jon Russell added an insurance goal in the 57th minute at Kingston.

The "Reggae Boyz" had opened with a 4-0 win at Bermuda in CONCACAF (North American) World Cup final qualifying and lead Group B on six points.

With regional powers Canada, Mexico and the United States co-hosting the 2026 World Cup, CONCACAF qualifying was changed so the final round features three groups of four with the group winners advancing to the World Cup and two second-place teams reaching inter-confederation playoffs.

The Soca Warriors, who opened with a goal-less draw against Curacao, looked to have scored in the 29th and 63rd minutes but video review each time ruled no goal by Trinidad and Tobago's Levi Garcia.

Jamaica improved to 21-15 with 12 drawn in the all-time rivalry.

India crush UAE in Asia Cup opener

Kuldeep Yadav takes 4-7 as holders bowl out UAE for 57 in 13.1 overs

- Shivam Dube claims three early wickets
- India chase target in 4.3 overs
- Abhishek Sharma smashes 30 off 16 balls

AFP | Dubai

Kuldeep Yadav returned figures of 4-7 to lead holders India to a crushing nine-wicket win over hosts United Arab Emirates in their opening match of the Asia Cup yesterday.

Kuldeep struck three times in one over with his left-arm wrist spin as tournament favourites India skittled UAE for a paltry 57 in 13.1 overs after they elected to field first in the T20 in Dubai.

India romped home to victory in 4.3 overs after left-handed opener Abhishek Sharma hit 30 off 16 balls and vice-captain Shubman Gill stood unbeaten

India's players celebrate after the dismissal of UAE's Harshit Kaushik (3R)

Kuldeep's second over changed the game entirely – three wickets including UAE skipper Muhammad Waseem – collapsing the batting order and leaving India to complete one of their quickest T20I chases on 20.

But it was the bowlers who set up victory for the reigning T20 World Cup champions as medium-pacer Shivam Dube claimed three before Kuldeep wrapped up the innings.

Put in to bat, UAE opener Alishan Sharafu started briskly with boundaries before falling to pace bowler Jasprit Bumrah for 22 off 17 balls.

Skipper Muhammad Waseem struck 19 to be the only other batsman to make double figures in an otherwise shambolic show by the rest of the team.

Kuldeep's three wickets, including Waseem, in his second over rattled the opposition batting which soon fell apart.

In reply, Sharma came out attacking as he smashed left-arm spinner Haider Ali for a six and a four.

He hit two more sixes in his blitz before being caught out off pace bowler Junaid Siddique.

Gill finished off the chase with a boundary as skipper Suryakumar Yadav, unbeaten on seven, looked on from the other end.

India won the previous Asia Cup, which was played in a 50-over format in 2023, when they beat hosts Sri Lanka in the final in Colombo.

India will next face Pakistan on Sunday in the most highly-anticipated match of the T20 tournament, which serves as a build-up competition for next year's T20 World Cup in India and Sri Lanka.

Bolivia down Brazil to grab World Cup play-off spot

Bolivia's Miguel Terceros celebrates after scoring

AFP | El Alto

Bolivia kept their 2026 World Cup dream alive by snatching a play-off place with a 1-0 victory over Brazil in El Alto on Tuesday, taking advantage of Venezuela's home defeat to Colombia.

Miguel Terceros's penalty on the stroke of half-time proved to be the difference for Bolivia against the five-time world champions, in a match played 4,150 metres above sea level.

The victory dragged Bolivia above Venezuela into seventh place in the final standings of South American qualifying, earning them a berth in next year's continental play-offs for the tournament in the United States, Mexico and Canada.

Venezuela, who were hoping to qualify for the World Cup for the first time, held a one-point lead over Bolivia heading into the last round of matches, but were beaten 6-3 at home by Colombia.

"We're very happy, but we need to keep our feet on the ground, knowing that we have to keep fighting," said Bolivian coach Oscar Villegas.

Two nations will qualify for the World Cup from the six-team play-off tournament to be held next March, reportedly in Mexico.

Bolivia are hoping to reach the World Cup finals for the first time since a group-stage exit from the 1994 edition in the USA.

Their victory on Tuesday sparked wild celebrations on the streets of the major city of La Paz, which neighbours El Alto.

Reigning champions Argentina, Ecuador, Colombia, Uruguay, Brazil and Paraguay had all already secured automatic tickets to the World Cup.

Elsewhere in the final round of games, Argentina lost 1-0 in Ecuador, Paraguay beat Peru 1-0 in Lima, while Chile and Uruguay played out a goalless draw.

Hjulmand has nothing to 'prove' at Leverkusen despite Mainz flop

AFP | Berlin

New Bayer Leverkusen coach Kasper Hjulmand yesterday said that he did not take the job to "prove anything" after an underwhelming experience when he last coached in German football.

Hjulmand returns to Germany after a less than successful spell in charge of Bundesliga club Mainz in 2014-15, where he was let go after a run of one win in 13 games.

And his last match as a coach was in charge of Denmark at Euro 2024, when his side lost 2-0 to hosts Germany in the last 16.

At his official unveiling, the 53-year-old Dane told reporters: "I don't go into this job, or any job, to prove anything.

"I do it because I love the game and the passion behind it. I love the Bundesliga."

The former Denmark coach was named Leverkusen manager on Monday, replacing the sacked Erik ten Hag, with the ex-Manchester United boss sensationally fired after just two Bundesliga matches.

Ten Hag took over from Xabi Alonso, who oversaw the most successful period in the club's history with a league and cup double in 2023-24, before moving to Real Madrid in the summer.

It has been a turbulent off-season and start to the current campaign in Leverkusen.

Several title-winners, including Florian Wirtz, Granit Xhaka, Jonathan Tah, Jeremie Frimpong, Victor Boniface, Piero Hincapie and Lukas Hradecky, followed Alonso out of the door.

Hjulmand acknowledged that taking over the club in such circumstances was "hectic", especially having not had a pre-season to work with his new players.

But Hjulmand said that his experience coaching a national team -- he took Denmark to the semi-finals of the Euros in 2021, where they lost narrowly to England, before stepping down in mid-2024 -- would stand him in good stead.

"With the national team you don't have many training sessions, you don't have a pre-season," he told reporters.

"You have to be very precise with your minutes on the pitch -- we'll learn from game to game."

Pellizzari takes Vuelta stage 17 honours

AFP | London

Italy's Giulio Pellizzari upstaged the big guns in yesterday's Vuelta a Espana 17th stage as Jonas Vingegaard retained the leader's red jersey.

The 21-year-old celebrated the biggest day of his career, crossing the Alto de El Morredero summit finish 16sec clear of Briton Tom Pidcock.

Pellizzari's Australian Red Bull Bora teammate Jai Hindley took third ahead of Vingegaard.

Danish race favourite Vingegaard goes into Thursday's time-trial with a 50sec

The leaders cancelled each other out on the scorched slopes of Alto de El Morredero after a gruelling 143.2km ride from El Barco de Valdeorras, with Pellizzari seizing his chance.

Thursday's 18th stage is a 27.2km individual time-trial around Valladolid with the race finishing on Sunday in Madrid amid heightened security after disruption to one of cycling's big three races by pro-Palestinian protests.
