After storming Sao Paulo podium, Verstappen aims to keep fighting

The Red Bull driver produced a remarkable recovery drive to finish third in Sao Paulo

● Verstappen started the race from the pit lane

● Overcame an early race puncture

● Lando Norris extends championship lead

● Verstappen realistic about title hopes

Max Verstappen was “realistic” about his slim title chance after producing one of his greatest drives to go from a pit-lane start to the podium at the Sao Paulo Grand Prix on Sunday.

Twenty-four hours after dismissing his hopes and saying he could “forget about” any late bid for a fifth drivers world title, the Red Bull driver stormed through the field, responded boldly after having a puncture and finished third.

Series leader Lando Norris won for McLaren, his second successive triumph from pole position, to extend his lead over team-mate Oscar Piastri to 24 points and to 49 points over Verstappen with three races and a sprint remaining.

“The race was quite full on and had a lot of action,” said an understated Verstappen. “I had to overtake some cars, coming from the pit lane.

“I think our pace was quite strong over all the stints because sometimes it’s difficult to know fully with traffic and stuff.

“So, to be on the podium from the pit lane, I didn’t expect that at all, even with a puncture at the beginning of the race.

“That is why we had to box again so it’s an incredible result for us and I’m very happy with that. I’m very proud of everyone within the team as well.

“Yesterday was very tough for us, but we never give up and we always try and improve and find more lap time -- and luckily we found that again today.”

Verstappen became the first driver since Lewis Hamilton in 2014 to secure a podium finish after starting a Grand Prix from the pit lane

MAX VERSTAPPEN

He was reluctant to write off his hopes of mounting a title challenge in the final three Grands Prix, but added: “We’ve got to be realistic. Over the whole season, we’ve not been good enough, but we will keep on trying to win races and see what happens.”

Verstappen, who won at Interlagos from 17th on the grid last year, became the eighth driver to claim a podium finish after starting from the pit-lane and the first since seven-time champion Lewis Hamilton in Hungary in 2014.

Piastri rues Sao Paulo penalty

McLaren’s Australian driver Oscar Piastri races during the Sao Paulo Formula One Grand Prix

Oscar Piastri remained stoical about his title bid on Sunday after being handed a controversial 10-second penalty that wrecked his hopes of at least a podium finish at the Sao Paulo Grand Prix.

The 24-year-old Australian finished fifth for McLaren and is now 24 points adrift of team-mate Lando Norris, who claimed his second consecutive pole to flag victory, in the drivers’ title race.

He was given his penalty after he locked up at Turn One as he attacked second-placed Kimi Antonelli of Mercedes after a Safety Car re-start on lap six.

Piastri made contact with Antonelli’s car which in turn banged across Charles Leclerc’s Ferrari, causing him to lose his front wing and retire from the race.

He emerged in second place close behind Norris, but was unable – despite nine laps in the lead during the pit-stops – to challenge for a top spot because of his penalty.

“I had a very clear opportunity and I went for it,” said Piastri, who had widespread sympathy and support from fellow-drivers including Leclerc.

“The other two drivers on the outside braked quite late. There was obviously a bit of a lock-up into the corner, but that’s because I could see Kimi was not going to give me any space.

“I can’t disappear, but the decision is what it is.”

Ferrari boss tells Hamilton, Leclerc to drive, not talk

AFP | Sao Paulo

Ferrari president John Elkann issued a plea yesterday to the misfiring team’s two drivers, Lewis Hamilton and Charles Leclerc, calling on them to focus on driving, not talking.

Elkann’s intervention follows a disastrous weekend for the Formula One giants when both cars failed to finish the Sao Paulo Grand Prix.

The wretched double DNF prompted seven-time world champion Hamilton to reflect on “a nightmare” first season at the Scuderia.

Hamilton was retired by the team after battling for 40 laps in a damaged car following several incidents in the opening laps and a penalty, while Leclerc’s race ended on lap six following a collision in which he was an innocent victim.

“I’ve been living it now for a while and the flip between living the dream of driving for this amazing team and then the nightmare of the results that we’ve had,” added the former Mercedes driver.

Elkann said he wanted Hamilton and Leclerc to concentrate on the three race weekends remaining of an underwhelming 2025 season.

“It is certainly important that our drivers focus on their driving and talk less,” Elkann said.

FERRARI PRESIDENT JOHN ELKANN

“There are still important races left, and it is not impossible to achieve second place (in the constructors’ standings),” he added in comments reported by the AGI Agency at a sponsorship event for the 2026 Milan-Cortina Winter Olympics.

He pointed to Ferrari’s success in claiming the world endurance championship crown, saying “it is the demonstration that when Ferrari is a team, we win”.

“We need drivers who do not think about themselves, but who think about Ferrari,” he added pointedly.

Ferrari left Brazil after slipping from second to fourth in the constructors’ title race, and will be looking for a change of luck in the next race in Las Vegas.
