Vatel Bahrain Showcases Global Hospitality Careers to St. Christopher's Students

Vatel Bahrain Hospitality College, in partnership with Mövenpick Hotel Bahrain, recently hosted a specialized workshop for St. Christopher's School BTEC students. The session aimed to introduce those specializing in travel and tourism to the diverse academic and professional pathways available within the global hospitality sector. The workshop highlighted Vatel's Bachelor of Science in International Hotel Management, showcasing its "international education in Bahrain" model. Students learned about the program's extensive practical training in 4-star and 5-star hotels, which provides the global experience necessary for the modern job market. His Excellency Sheikh Khalid bin Khalifa Al Khalifa, General Manager of Vatel Bahrain, emphasized the college's commitment to preparing a new generation of talent.

Bahrain's Youth Lead the Charge at Malkiya Beach Eco-Cleanup

Over 200 volunteers gathered at Malkiya Beach for a youth-led Eco Awareness & Action Beach Cleanup. The initiative, a brainchild of WMC Toastmasters and the Gavel Club, was organized in partnership with OneHeartBahrain, Urbaser, Al Mahd School, and supported by The Path Bahrain. The event transformed the beach into an outdoor classroom where Gavel Club members led by example, delivering eco-awareness speeches and mentoring younger children. Urbaser's interactive Eco Bus provided practical lessons on waste management, while Al Mahd School students and staff reinforced the importance of environmental education. WMC Toastmasters President Mr. Roy Skaria, alongside representatives from OneHeartBahrain, emphasized that the day was about more than just collecting litter. By fostering teamwork and leadership, the initiative successfully spread a vital message of ecological preservation. The event concluded with a shared commitment to work together toward a cleaner, greener future for Bahrain's coastal environment.
