Dutch dominate, Poland stumbles

Netherlands maintains perfect start; Poland loses to Finland in World Cup qualifier

- Netherlands crushed Malta 8-0
- Depay scored two goals
- Poland lost to Finland 2-1

AFP | Paris

Netherlands maintained their winning start to European 2026 World Cup qualifying by dismissing Malta 8-0 on Tuesday, while their group rivals Poland lost to Finland in a match interrupted due to a medical emergency in the crowd.

The results leave Finland top of Group G on seven points, one ahead of the Dutch who have played two matches less. Poland sit third on six points after three played.

In Groningen, the Dutch raced into a three-goal lead against their overawed opponents inside the opening 20 minutes.

Memphis Depay converted from the spot on nine minutes, before doubling the lead with a rifled finish from the edge of the box seven minutes later.

Depay's brace brought the 31-year-old to 50 international goals -- level with former Manchester United and Arsenal striker Robin van Persie as the Netherlands' all-time leading goalscorer.

Captain Virgil van Dijk killed the match off as a tie when he stepped onto the ball and arrowed a right-footed finish into the bottom corner from 20 yards.

The Oranje then turned on the afterburners inside the final half-hour as Xavi Simons, Donyell Malen, who got two, Noa Lang and Micky van de Ven all netted.

Poland began life without leading goalscorer Robert Lewandowski in miserable fashion as they went down 2-1 in Helsinki.

The 36-year-old played 158 times for Poland, scoring 85 goals, but announced Sunday he was no longer available for selection so long as coach Michal Probierz remained in charge.

The Poles fell behind to Joel Pohjanpalo's 31st-minute penalty, before Benjamin Kallman added a second nine minutes after the break.

Jakub Kiwior pulled one back in the 69th minute, shortly before the match was interrupted when a spectator fell ill.

After a lengthy stoppage, the final 10 minutes of play resumed but Poland were unable to find an equaliser despite applying relentless pressure on the hosts' goal.

Elsewhere, Serbia eased past Andorra 3-0 to move to third in Group K on four points courtesy of an Aleksandar Mitrovic hat-trick.

They trail Albania in second by one point and sit level with Latvia after those sides played out a 1-1 draw in Riga.

Austria beat San Marino 4-0 to go second in Group H, three points behind leaders Bosnia and Hercegovina who have played an extra match.

Marko Arnautovic scored a brace inside the opening quarter-hour, as Michael Gregoritsch and Christoph Baumgartner completed the scoring in Seravalle.

Romania defeated Cyprus 2-0, but dropped to third in the group after Austria's second win from two outings.

Novice Pisacane named new Cagliari coach

Fabio Pisacane

AFP | Rome

Cagliari announced yesterday that novice Fabio Pisacane had been picked as the Serie A club's new coach following the sacking of Davide Nicola.

Pisacane, who spent six seasons with Cagliari as a player, has signed a one-year contract which will be automatically renewed should unspecified "sporting criteria" be satisfied.

The 39-year-old has been promoted from Cagliari's youth team which in April won the youth Italian Cup by beating AC Milan 3-0.

Cagliari finished 15th in Serie A under Nicola last season, five points above the relegation zone.

The close season in Italy has already brought numerous coaching changes, including at some of the country's biggest clubs like AC Milan, Inter Milan, Roma and Atalanta.

Separately, Inter Milan have chosen Cristian Chivu to lead the Serie A club into a new era, confirming the former Romania defender as Simone Inzaghi's replacement ahead of the upcoming Club World Cup.

Australia through, Palestine out

- Oman progress with stoppage penalty

TDT | Manama

Australia confirmed their place at the 2026 FIFA World Cup with a 2-1 comeback win over Saudi Arabia on Tuesday, capping off a dramatic final round of Asian qualifying that also saw Palestine heartbreakingly eliminated by a stoppage-time Oman penalty in Group B.

Needing only to avoid a five-goal defeat in Jeddah to progress, Australia went one better, turning around a first-half deficit to take all three points and finish second in Group C behind Japan.

Abdulrahman Al Obud opened the scoring for Saudi Arabia in the 19th minute, but Connor Metcalfe levelled shortly before the break with a composed finish after a sustained spell of Australian pressure.

Just three minutes into the second half, Mitch Duke's glancing header from Martin Boyle's delivery gave the Socceroos the lead.

Goalkeeper Mat Ryan, on his 100th international appearance, underlined his milestone with a decisive penalty save late on, denying Salem Al Dawsari and ensuring the Australians left with the win and momentum ahead of their World Cup campaign.

Popovic Era Begins to Deliver

Tony Popovic, who took over from Graham Arnold last September after a turbulent start to qualifying, expressed pride but also caution in his post-match remarks. "It probably hasn't sunk in yet," he admitted. "We've built a good foundation, but now we want to kick on

Oman Steal Fourth, End Palestine's Dream

While Australia celebrated, Palestine were left to rue missed opportunity in Amman. A 49th-minute header by Oday Kharoub looked set to send them through to the next phase as they led 1-0 and held numerical advantage after Harib Al Saadi was dismissed.

But deep into stoppage time, Muhsen Al Ghassani was brought down inside the box, and Issam Al Sabhi calmly slotted home the resulting penalty, sending Oman into October's fourth qualifying round and crushing Palestinian hopes.

Oman's draw was enough to secure fourth place in Group B, joining Indonesia, Qatar, UAE, Iraq, and Saudi Arabia in the next round of qualifiers.
