Moving on, the Cabinet commended achievements of Bahraini medical professionals and their contributions to serving the Kingdom, highlighting HM King Hamad Al Khalifa's high praise for the sector.

HM King during a reception of medical professionals had commended their efforts in advancing the Kingdom's medical sector and contributing to the wider field of healthcare.

Minister further commended the Kingdom's successful hosting of the 26th Arab Men's Basketball Championship, held under the patronage of His Highness Shaikh Khalid bin

Hamad Al Khalifa, First Deputy Chairman of the Supreme Council for Youth and Sports (SCYS), Chairman of the General Sports Authority (GSA), and President of the Bahrain Olympic Committee (BOC). The event was also attended by His Highness

Iran seizes foreign tanker over fuel smuggling
Tehran, Iran

Iranian authorities have seized a foreign tanker accused of smuggling fuel in the Gulf waters and arrested its 17 crew members, local media reported Monday.

"Police border guards in Hormozgan province seized a tanker named Phoenix, flying the flag of a third country, in Iranian territorial waters," ISNA news agency reported, without elaborating.

It added that forces arrested "17 foreign suspects" aboard the vessel which was found to be carrying "more than two million litres of smuggled fuel."

Trump deploys National Guard in Washington crime crackdown

Washington, United States

Donald Trump yesterday deployed military and federal law enforcement to curb violent crime in Washington, as he seeks to make good on his campaign pledge to be a "law and order" president.

The Republican leader said he would place the city's Metropolitan Police under federal government control while also sending the National Guard onto the streets of the US capital.

The global movement to recognise a Palestinian state received yesterday a big push with Australia declaring it will recognise it at the UN General Assembly in September.

International concern is growing about the plight of the more than two million Palestinians in the Gaza Strip, where the fighting has triggered a dire humanitarian crisis and warnings of mass starvation.

"The humanitarian catastrophe in Gaza is rightly at the forefront of the global agenda," Prime Minister Anthony Albanese said Monday.

to the conflict, suffering and starvation in Gaza," he told reporters in Canberra.

"Until Israeli and Palestinian statehood is permanent, peace can only be temporary.

"Australia will recognise the right of the Palestinian people to a state of their own. We will work with the international community to make this right a reality."

"There is a moment of opportunity here, and Australia will work with the international community to seize it," Albanese said.

He said that Australia's decision was predicated on reassurances from the Palestinian Authority that there would be "no role for Hamas in any future Palestinian state".

The Palestinian Authority, however, does not have a presence in Gaza, which has been governed by Hamas for nearly two decades.

France announced on 24 July 2025 that it will recognize Palestine in September 2025 at the United Nations General Assembly. Malta is also slated to formally recognize Palestine around the same period in September 2025.

The Israel-Hamas war, raging in Gaza since the Palestinian group's attack on October 7, 2023, has revived a global push for Palestinians to be given a state of their own. At least 145 of the 193 UN members now recognise or plan to recognise a Palestinian state, including France, Canada and Britain.

Meanwhile, New Zealand's Foreign Minister Winston Peters said his country would carefully consider whether to do the same over the next month. He added that New Zealand's recognition of a Palestinian state was a "matter of when, not if".

Israel's offensive has killed at least 61,430 Palestinians, according to Gaza's health ministry.

Greta Thunberg activists plan new aid flotilla to Gaza
Stockholm, Sweden

Greta Thunberg said she and a Palestinian activist group plan to sail a new flotilla loaded with humanitarian aid to Gaza to break the "illegal Israeli siege".

Two other attempts by activists to deliver aid by ship to Gaza, in June and July, were blocked by Israel. Troops boarded their vessels and detained the activists before expelling them.

"On August 31st we are launching the biggest attempt ever to break the illegal Israeli siege over Gaza with dozens of boats sailing from Spain," the Swedish campaigner wrote on Instagram late Sunday.

UN slams Israel's killing of Gaza journalists

Geneva, Switzerland

The UN human rights agency on Monday condemned Israel's targeted killing of six journalists in Gaza as a "grave breach of international humanitarian law". The office of UN High Commissioner for Human Rights Volker Turk said on X that the Israeli military had targeted a tent housing five staff from Qatari broadcaster Al Jazeera.

A freelance journalist was also killed in Sunday's strike, which Israel has acknowledged was a planned operation.

Shared vision, strong future

Bahrain’s Human Capital Will Define Its Next Five Years

Ashen Tharaka
TDT | Manama

Outgoing U.S. Ambassador Steven C. Bondy has underscored that despite ongoing regional challenges, Bahrain’s future will be defined by the strength and quality of its people, particularly its youth and the country’s commitment to peace, stability, and prosperity.

Addressing his final press conference before the end of his tenure in September, the Ambassador acknowledged the complex geopolitical environment, pointing to instability in Gaza, Iranian influence, and heightened global competition. However, he stressed that the United States and Bahrain remain aligned in their objectives.

Ambassador Bondy expressed confidence that Bahrain will stand out in the Gulf over the next five years because of its highly educated, ambitious, and adaptable workforce. He credited the leadership’s long-term vision and investment in people as key drivers of future success.

“When I look at Bahrain’s next five years, I see a country that will distinguish itself in the Gulf by the quality of its human capital,” he said. “The leadership here is pursuing wise policies, and the youth are ready to seize the opportunities ahead.”

The ambassador highlighted initiatives such as the HRH Crown Prince’s International Scholarship Program, collaborations between Bahrain and American universities, and internship schemes that prepare young Bahrainis to compete on a global stage. He also praised the growing role of women in leadership, entrepreneurship, and STEM fields.

New Horizons

Ambassador Bondy identified technology as a central pillar for Bahrain’s economic future. He noted that U.S. companies, including CitiBank and Amazon Web Services, are investing heavily in Bahrain due to the quality of local talent, especially in programming, data science, and artificial intelligence.

He also cited the recent Gulf Air direct flight to New York City as a milestone that will expand trade, tourism, and cultural exchange, and the Munther satellite launch as a sign of Bahrain’s readiness to engage in cutting-edge scientific exploration alongside the United States.

Global Challenges

The Ambassador’s remarks also reflected optimism in the face of adversity. While regional instability remains a concern, he said that Bahrain’s diplomatic maturity, collaborative foreign policy, and adaptability make it well-positioned to turn challenges into opportunities.

“The strategic relationship between Bahrain and the United States is built on mutual respect, shared values, and a clear understanding of what we want to achieve,” he said. “That’s why I’m confident Bahrain will navigate the next five years successfully, advancing both its own interests and regional stability.”

“We share the same goals: peace, stability, and prosperity,” the Ambassador said. “Strong partnerships and bold decisions, such as Bahrain’s signing of the Abraham Accords, will continue to shape a secure and prosperous future for this region.”

He described the Abraham Accords as a “brave and strategic decision” by His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa that altered the regional landscape, paving the way for new opportunities in diplomacy, trade, and security cooperation.

Closing his remarks, the Ambassador reflected on the warmth and openness he experienced from the Bahraini people, recalling moments such as walking the historic Pearling Path, attending Ramadan majlis, and celebrating cultural festivals with the community.

“The friendships, trust, and collaboration we’ve built will continue to thrive long after my departure,” he said. “Bahrain’s future is in good hands, in the hands of its people.”

Rawan bint Najeeb Tawfiqi, Minister of Youth Affairs

- Youth City hosts 100+ programmes
- Leaders affirm youth as key asset
- Vision ties to sustainable development

Mahir Haneef
TDT | Manama

Bahrain marks International Youth Day today with a united show of support for Youth City 2030, the flagship programme hailed as a model for preparing future leaders and powering the nation's sustainable growth.

His Highness Shaikh Nasser bin Hamad Al Khalifa, His Majesty's Representative for Humanitarian Work and Youth Affairs, said the royal patronage of His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa has laid the foundation for youth empowerment, reflecting His Majesty's belief in their vital role in shaping Bahrain's present and future. HH noted the backing of His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister, in bringing youth into decision-making and preparing them to drive national development.

National vision

Bahrain, HH Shaikh Nasser said, has turned empowerment into reality by building trust with youth, developing their capabilities, and instilling responsibility and belonging. This, HH added, has made them a model of creativity and a pillar of development. Every opportunity, he stressed, is a building block in shaping a successful nation.

Youth City as model

His Highness Shaikh Khalid bin Hamad Al Khalifa, First Deputy Chairman of the Supreme Council for Youth and Sports, President of the General Sports Authority, and President of the Bahrain Olympic Committee, described youth as the nation's real asset. HH expressed pride in their achievements, attributing them to the leadership's support and the guidance of Shaikh Nasser.

HH singled out Youth City 2030 for its more than 100 diverse training programmes, calling it a distinguished global model that empowers youth to contribute to sustainable development. HH added that the GSA and BOC place youth at the heart of their strategies, aiming to raise champions and leaders to represent Bahrain internationally.

Ministry's commitment

Minister of Youth Affairs Rawan bint Najeeb Tawfiqi said the vision of His Majesty and the directives of the Crown Prince and Prime Minister had firmly established youth as a national force. She cited Shaikh Nasser's belief in youth potential as a driver of quality opportunities and national pride.

She confirmed the ministry's plans to expand programmes and initiatives, investing in youth energies and nurturing ambitions through innovation and sustainability. This year's International Youth Day celebration at Youth City will feature initiatives reflecting youth's high status and contribution to development.

Legislative backing

Shura Council Chairman Ali bin Saleh Al Saleh hailed the role of youth in achieving national and global aspirations, crediting His Majesty's leadership for empowering them. He praised the government's initiatives and pledged the council's commitment to strengthen legislation that supports youth and boosts their role in development.

Council of Representatives Speaker Ahmed bin Salman Al Musallam noted that the King Hamad Award for Youth Empowerment to achieve the Sustainable Development Goals reflects confidence in youth leadership. He highlighted initiatives including Youth City 2030, the Nasser Bin Hamad International Youth Creativity Award, and the Hope Fund as proof of Bahrain's

Strategic roadmap

Supreme Council for Youth and Sport Secretary-General Aymen bin Tawfiq Al Moayed said His Majesty's trust has guided youth to build the nation's present and future. He credited the Crown Prince and Prime Minister's directives and Shaikh Nasser's strategic roadmap for enabling youth to advance confidently and achieve success.

Al Moayed pledged to continue developing advanced strategies to expand youth opportunities, ensuring they remain the driving force behind Bahrain's prosperity.

Bahrain's leaders agreed that Youth City 2030 is more than a celebration—it is a platform preparing a generation to meet future challenges with creativity, ambition, and national pride.

Customs foil bid to smuggle 230kg of tombak

Customs officers have foiled an attempt to smuggle 230 kilograms of tombak into the Kingdom via the King Fahad Causeway.

Acting on a tip-off, officers stopped a vehicle at the land border and discovered the banned tobacco substitute concealed in 29 packets hidden in the car's boot. The driver was arrested, and both the vehicle and the substance were seized.

The Tax Evasion Crimes Unit took over the investigation, sending the confiscated material for laboratory test-

The Public Prosecution has ordered the man to stand trial before the Criminal Court. He remains in custody pending proceedings.

1,076 shops inspected in a single week

Joint teams sweep all governorates

- Over 1,000 shops checked
- 130 workers deported
- Four governorates covered

Mahir Haneef
TDT | Manama

The Labour Market Regulatory Authority (LMRA) has intensified its oversight of retail and business premises, carrying out 1,076 inspections of shops across Bahrain between August 3 and 9. The campaign, part of a total 1,089 inspections and visits conducted that week, led to the detention of 10 irregular workers and the deportation of 130 labour law violators.

Wide coverage

The LMRA said the inspections, conducted in all four governorates, aimed to detect breaches of labour and residency laws and take swift legal measures. Thirteen joint campaigns were held in addition to the shop visits, including one in the Capital Governorate, three in Muharraq, four in the Northern Governorate and five in the Southern Governorate.

Team effort

The operations were carried out in coordination with the Ministry of Interior's Nationality, Passports and Residence Affairs, the governorates' police directorates and the Social Insurance Organisation. Officials said such cooperation is vital to protecting the stability and competitiveness of the labour market and safeguarding Bahrain's economic and social security.

Call for public support

The LMRA urged members of the public to assist in tackling illegal labour practices by reporting suspected violations through its website, call centre on 17506055, or the government's Tawasul platform.

The authority confirmed that inspections will continue in all governorates as part of ongoing efforts to ensure compliance with labour and residency laws.

Bahrain's LMRA carries out regular inspections every two weeks, but the scale and shop focus of this week's campaign was among the largest in recent months.

al Youth Day. He urged sustained investment in their ideas and energy, describing it as the surest means to secure Bahrain's future.

He pointed to the Royal patronage of His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa, which he said provides the solid ground for all efforts to empower the younger generation and shows His Majesty's deep trust in their role as the country's beating heart. This, he added, is carried through by the close involvement of His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister, whose national programmes create a supportive environment, open the way for active participation in decision-making, develop skills and strengthen a sense of belonging. This year's theme, 'Empowering Youth for a Sustainable Future', is, he said, being translated into practical steps. These include building trust with young people, sharpening their abilities and instilling responsibility and creativity, producing a generation that is making its mark in the fields of innovation and service, and driving the country's development. MP Ebrahim urged all bodies to keep backing young people and widen their opportunities, adding that building a country begins with building its people and broadening their thinking, so they can continue to write Bahrain's success story with determination and imagination.

TDT | Manama

The Indian Community Relief Fund (ICRF) Bahrain yesterday held the eighth week of its Thirst Quenchers 2025 summer awareness campaign at a work site in Sitra, distributing water, juice, laban, fruit and other refreshments to around 500 workers.

The initiative, aligned with the Ministry of Labour's drive to ensure safe working conditions during the peak summer months, is supported by the Ministry of Interior, Ministry of Labour, Labour Market Regulatory Authority (LMRA) and the workers took part in the event. Mr Hasan Al Aradi - Head of Occupational Safety & Health Inspection and Eng. Hussain

International Organization for Migration (IOM). Around 500

Al Husaini - Head of Workers, Residence Inspection from the Ministry of Labour, and Mr Fahaad AlBinali - Director of Partnership & Outreach from LMRA have joined the distribution and spoke about the support extended to the workers by each organisations.

Special guest was His Excellency Mr. Tirtha Raj Wagle, Ambassador of Embassy of Nepal. His Excellency appreciated the efforts taken by LMRA and Ministry of Labour for workers' safety.

ICRF Advisor Dr Babu Ramachandran, Vice Chairman Pankaj Nallur, Joint Secretaries

Suresh Babu and Javad Pasha, Treasurer Uday Shanbhagh, Thirst Quenchers Coordinators Siraj, Faizal and Sivakumar, Rakesh Sharma, Muralikrishnan, Chemban Jalal, Kalpana Patil, Sandra Palanna, Althea D'Souza, Linson Lazar - HSE Manager, Chengwu - Deputy Project Manager, along with enthusiastic volunteers and students have joined the distribution.

Manav Dharam Sena and Science of Spirituality supported yesterday's event.

As in previous years, the Bohra community and generous volunteers have shown strong support for this project.

Diversification Drives Q1 Growth

● Non-oil sectors dominate GDP

Mahir Haneef
TDT | Manama

Bahrain's economy strengthened in the first quarter of 2025 as non-oil sectors took centre stage, contributing 84.8 percent to real GDP and reinforcing the Kingdom's diversification drive, according to the Ministry of Finance and National Economy's latest quarterly report.

Non-oil momentum

Preliminary national accounts data from the Information and eGovernment Authority showed GDP expanding 2.7 percent year-on-year in real terms, driven by a 2.2 percent rise in non-oil activity and a 5.3 percent increase in oil activity. In nominal terms, GDP was up 3.0 percent, with non-oil output climbing 2.8 percent and oil activity advancing 4.6 percent.

Accommodation and Food Services led the growth tables with a 10.3 percent jump, reflecting strong performance in tourism and hospitality. Financial and Insurance Activities, the single largest contributor to GDP, posted a 7.5 percent gain in real terms. Construction grew by 5.4 percent, followed by Education at 2.5 percent, while Professional, Scientific and Technical Activities rose 2.2 percent. Wholesale and Retail Trade and Real Estate Activities each expanded 2.0 percent, Transportation and Storage grew by 1.9 percent, and Information and Communication Activities edged up 1.4 percent. Manufacturing was the only sector to contract, dipping 0.4 percent.

The report also highlighted a 3.5 percent year-on-year increase in Inward Foreign Direct Investment stock, which reached BHD 17.1 billion in Q1 2025.

Strategic progress

Officials noted that Bahrain continues to advance in several international economic and development benchmarks, citing the adoption of ambitious strategies and initiatives aimed at strengthening economic diversification, aligning with global standards, and enhancing the business environment.

The Q1 results signal that Bahrain's non-oil sectors are sustaining growth while shaping the country's long-term economic trajectory.

Chery Hosts 1st Chery International Skills Contest in Bahrain, Elevating Technical Excellence in New Energy Vehicles

Manama

Chery successfully hosted the 1st Chery International Skills Contest in Bahrain, bringing together some of the Middle East’s most talented technicians for a landmark event held at the Ebrahim Khalil Kanoo Training Center, highlighting over 20 years of partnership between Chery and Motorcity. This milestone reflects Chery’s ongoing commitment to advancing technical expertise and marks an important step toward the Chery Global Skills Contest in China later this year.

The competition focused on the diagnosis and maintenance of Plug-in Hybrid Electric Vehicles (PHEV) and Range-Extended Electric Vehicles (REEV), showcasing Chery’s leadership in new energy technologies and its dedication to delivering high-quality aftersales service. Participants were evaluated through a series of real-world tasks that tested their problem-solving capabilities, efficiency, and technical knowledge. Key areas included diagnostic precision, high-voltage safety practices, maintenance accuracy, and overall service professionalism.

The event provided an opportunity to celebrate the practical skills and professional dedication of Chery technicians. The opening ceremony featured remarks from Mr. Talal Kanoo,

Managing Director at Ebrahim Khalil Kanoo, and Chery Regional General Manager Mr. Tim Zhang, who applauded participants and emphasized the importance of continuous learning in the rapidly evolving automotive sector.

In the final results, Ra’fat Al-Doghmi from Chery Jordan was crowned champion, followed by Marjoe Manatad from Chery Qatar as first runner-up, and Ahmed Zaki from Chery Bahrain as second runner-up. The overall champion will represent the Middle East region at the Chery Global Skills Contest in China this October.

Hosting this contest in Bahrain highlights the Kingdom’s growing role as a hub for innovation and technical development within the regional automotive landscape. The event not only recognized outstanding talent but also reaffirmed Chery’s commitment to investing in human capital, strengthening aftersales capabilities, and delivering

Colombia presidential hopeful dies after June rally shooting

AFP | London

Colombian presidential candidate Miguel Uribe has died two months after being shot at a campaign rally, his family said yesterday, as the attack rekindled fears of a return to the nation's violent past. The 39-year-old conservative senator, a grandson of former president Julio Cesar Turbay (1978-1982), was shot in the head and leg on June 7 at a rally in the capital Bogota. Despite signs of progress in recent weeks, his doctors on Saturday announced he had suffered a new brain hemorrhage. “Rest in peace, love of my life,” his wife Maria Claudia Tarazona wrote yesterday morning in a post on Instagram. “Thank you for a life full of love.” Authorities have arrested six suspects linked to the attack, including the alleged shooter, a 15-year-old boy captured at the scene by Uribe's bodyguards. Following a nationwide manhunt, police announced the arrest of an alleged mastermind behind the attack, Elder Jose Arteaga Hernandez, alias “El Costeno.” Police have also pointed to a dissident group of the defunct FARC guerrilla group as being behind the assassination. The attack on Uribe, a leading candidate ahead of the 2026 presidential election, has reopened old wounds in a country wracked by violence. His own mother, journalist Diana Turbay, was killed in a botched 1991 police operation to free her from cocaine kingpin Pablo Escobar's Medellin cartel. Four presidential candidates were assassinated during the worst phase of violence in the 1980s and 1990s under Escobar, who terrorized citizens of Bogota, Medellin and elsewhere with a campaign of bombings.

Gaza mourns journalists killed in Israeli strike

Al Jazeera condemns “targeted silencing”

Nearly 200 journalists killed in war

AFP | Washington

Gazans gathered yesterday for the funeral of five Al Jazeera staff members and a sixth reporter killed in an Israeli strike, with Israel calling one of them a “terrorist” affiliated with Hamas.

Dozens stood amid bombed-out buildings in the courtyard of Al-Shifa hospital to pay their respects to Anas al-Sharif, a prominent Al Jazeera correspondent aged 28, and four of his colleagues, killed on Sunday. A sixth journalist, Mohammed Al-Khaldi who worked as a freelance reporter, was also killed in the strike that targeted the Al Jazeera team, according to the director of Al-Shifa Hospital, Dr Mohammed Abu Salmiya.

Their bodies, wrapped in white shrouds with their faces exposed, were carried through narrow alleys to their graves by mourners including men wearing blue journalists' flak jackets. Israel confirmed it had targeted Sharif, whom it labelled a “terrorist” affiliated with Hamas, saying he “posed as a journalist”.

Al Jazeera said its employees were hit in a tent set up for journalists outside the main gate of a hospital in Gaza City. The four other staff members killed were Mohammed Qreiqeh, also a correspondent, and cameramen Ibrahim Zaher, Mohammed Noufal and Moamen Aliwa.

“Anas Al-Sharif served as the head of a terrorist cell in the Hamas terrorist organisation and was responsible for advancing rocket attacks against Israeli civilians and IDF (Israeli) troops,” the military said in a statement. “The IDF had previously disclosed intelligence information and many documents found in the Gaza Strip, confirming his military affiliation to Hamas,” it said.

It published a graphic showing what it said was a list of Hamas operatives in northern Gaza, including Sharif's name, as well as an image of him emblazoned with the word: “Eliminated”.

It also published a list it said showed Sharif had been paid $200 by Hamas after an injury, as well as a list it said was a Hamas battalion's phone directory that included Sharif's number.

Sharif was one of the channel's most recognisable faces working on the ground in Gaza, providing daily reports on the now 22-month-old war.

“One of the bravest”

A posthumous message, written in April in case of his death, was published on his account yesterday morning saying he had been silenced and urging people “not to forget Gaza”.

According to local journalists who knew him, Sharif had worked at the start of his career with a Hamas communication office, where his role was to publicise events organised by the militant group that has exercised total control over Gaza since 2006.

Following online posts by Israel's Arabic-language military spokesman Avichay Adraee on Sharif, the Committee to Protect Journalists (CPJ) called in July for his protection, accusing Israel of a “pattern” of labelling journalists militants “without providing credible evidence”.

It said the Israeli military had levelled similar accusations against other journalists in Gaza earlier in the war, including other Al Jazeera staff.

“International law is clear that active combatants are the only justified targets in a war setting, so unless the IDF can demonstrate that Anas al-Sharif was still an active combatant, then there is no justification for his killing,” Jodie Ginsberg, CPJ's chief executive, said.

Western Wall in Jerusalem vandalized with anti-war message

AFP | Jerusalem

The Western Wall in Jerusalem yesterday was vandalized with graffiti condemning Israel's ongoing war in Gaza, triggering widespread condemnation from religious leaders and politicians.

“There is a holocaust in Gaza,” was graffitied in Hebrew on the southern portion of the wall, the holiest site where Jews are allowed to pray.

A similar message was also scrawled on the wall of the Great Synagogue, elsewhere in the city.

Israeli police said a 27-year-old suspect had been arrested and would appear in court later yesterday, with the police requesting that his detention be extended.

The incident sparked immediate outrage in Israel, with the Western Wall's Rabbi Shmuel Rabinovitch calling it a “desecration.”

“A holy place is not a place to express protests... The police must investigate this action, track down the criminals responsible for the desecration and bring them to justice,” Rabinovitch said in a statement.

National Security Minister Itamar Ben Gvir — who oversees the country's law enforcement agencies — said he was shocked and vowed that the police would act “with lightning speed.”

Far-right Finance Minister Bezalel Smotrich also weighed in, saying the perpetrators “forgot what it means to be Jewish.”

Sharp condemnation also came from the opposition.

Former defense minister Benny Gantz, now an opposition leader, called it “a crime against the entire Jewish people.”

The Western Wall lies in the heart of the Old City of Jerusalem, which Israeli forces captured during the 1967 Arab-Israeli war.

Merz convenes urgent virtual talks to ensure Ukraine remains central in peace process

● EU opposes US-Russia solo peace talks

● Merz hosts urgent video conference Wednesday

● Europe fears territorial concessions

AFP | Berlin

European leaders plan talks with Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky and US President Donald Trump on Wednesday, two days before Trump is set to meet Russia's Vladimir Putin in Alaska to discuss the Ukraine war, Berlin said.

German Chancellor Friedrich Merz has invited the French, British and other European leaders and the EU and NATO chiefs to the virtual talks, his spokesman said, amid fears across Europe that any deal made without Ukraine could force unacceptable compromises.

Merz's office said yesterday the video conference in various rounds of talks would discuss "further options to exert pressure on Russia" and "preparation of possible peace negotiations and related issues of territorial claims and security".

French President Emmanuel Macron's office said he and UK Prime Minister Keir Starmer were also involved in planning Wednesday's meeting of the "coalition of the willing".

Trump and Putin will meet in the US state of Alaska on Friday to try to resolve the three-year war but the European Union has

Campaigners with placards and flags take part in a rally to raise awareness to the fate of Ukrainian prisoners of war from the Azov Brigade and other military units, in Kyiv insisted that Kyiv and European powers should be part of any deal to end the conflict.

Trump said yesterday he expected the meeting with Putin to be "constructive" and expressed unhappiness with Zelensky for ruling out territorial concessions to Russia.

"I'm going to speak to Vladimir Putin and I'm going to be telling him 'you've got to end this war,'" Trump said at a White House press conference.

As EU foreign ministers began an emergency meeting on Ukraine yesterday, Merz announced the initiative to keep Europe at the table.

Merz's office said he would on Wednesday talk to leaders from "Finland, France, the UK, Italy, Poland, Ukraine, the heads of the European Commission and Council, the secretary general of NATO, as well as the US president and his deputy".

According to Germany's Bild daily, a first conference call will include the European leaders, Zelensky, EU chief Ursula von der Leyen and NATO Secretary General Mark Rutte.

This would be followed by a joint call with Trump and Vice President JD Vance, the newspaper said.

The idea of a US-Russia meeting without Zelensky has raised concerns that a deal could require Ukraine to cede swathes of territory, which the EU has rejected.

Over the weekend, several European leaders pushed Trump to exert more pressure on Russia in a joint statement and warned that "the path to peace in Ukraine cannot be decided without Ukraine".

'Testing Putin'

Ahead of yesterday's EU talks, Zelensky warned against capitulating to Putin's demands.

"Russia refuses to stop the killings, and therefore must not receive any rewards or benefits. And this is not just a moral position -- it is a rational one,"

Vance says US working to 'schedule' Trump-Putin-Zelensky meeting

AFP | Washington

The United States was working to "schedule" a meeting between Donald Trump and his Russian and Ukrainian counterparts, Vice President JD Vance said in comments broadcast Sunday, as Ukraine's European allies pushed for Kyiv's presence at the US-Russia summit in Alaska this week.

"One of the most important logjams is that Vladimir Putin said that he would never sit down with (Volodymyr) Zelensky, the head of Ukraine, and the president has now got that to change," Vance said during an interview on Fox News program "Sunday Morning Futures."

"We're at a point now where we're trying to figure out, frankly, scheduling and things like that around when these three leaders could sit down and discuss an end to this conflict," Vance said when asked about his expectations for the Alaska summit on August 15.

terview conducted ahead of last week's announcement that the US and Russian presidents would meet this Friday, said the United States was going to "try to find some negotiated settlement that the Ukrainians and Russians can live with."

Vance added: "It's not going to make anybody super happy, both the Russians and the Ukrainians probably at the end of the day are going to be unhappy with it."

Indian Prime Minister Narendra Modi yesterday said he was committed to an "early and peaceful" end to the Ukraine war after a telephone call with President Volodymyr Zelensky.

The conversation came after Modi spoke to Russian President Vladimir Putin last week, during which he urged a "peaceful resolution" to the conflict.

"I conveyed India's consistent position on the need for an early and peaceful resolution of the conflict," Modi said after speaking to Zelensky.

"India remains committed to making every possible contribution in this regard, as well as to further strengthening bilateral ties with Ukraine," he added in a social media post.

Selena Gomez helps Jennifer Aniston ‘lean into social media’

Selena Gomez and Jennifer Aniston
Bang Showbiz | Los Angeles

Jennifer Aniston has revealed Selena Gomez has helped her to “lean into social media”.

The 56-year-old actress joined Instagram in late 2019 to launch her hair conditioner LolaVie Glossing Detangler, and Jennifer has shared that the Only Murders in the Building star, 33, has been an “angel” when it comes to teaching her about her online presence.

Speaking with People magazine, the former Friends star said: “Selena helps me lean into social media. She’s so effortless when it comes to that.

“And she’s just an angel who I love spending time with.”

Jennifer added her Friends co-star Courteney Cox - who also has her own body and home range called Homecourt - had given her a helping hand when it comes to product design.

She continued: “What haven’t I learned from Courteney?”

“We usually talk interviews or design. It kind of bores people to tears when we get into a room together. But it’s what we love. It’s our love language.”

Although she uses social media to promote her beauty range, The Morning Show actress is determined not to fall into the trap of “doomscrolling”.

She explained: “I’ve been trying not to doomscroll. I try to stay away from the noise as much as possible. “Thankfully, my algorithm is animals, architecture, hair and spiritual affirmations. So it’s not that doomy.”

Away from work, Jennifer revealed the routine she has to unwind when she gets home.

She shared: “I come home, I’m with my dogs. I’ll put on music. I’ll talk to some friends on the phone, like people used to do.

“I like to just zone out to a great documentary, find something that’s going to be light on my heart and make me laugh. Maybe have friends over for dinner.”

Jennifer added she wants to “focus on the beautiful things” in life and where she can make a difference.

Justin Timberlake was ill for ‘months’ before Lyme disease diagnosis

Bang Showbiz | Los Angeles

Justin Timberlake was ill for “months” before being diagnosed with Lyme disease.

The 44-year-old singer revealed last week he had contracted the tick-borne condition - which can cause symptoms ranging from nerve pain and fatigue to cognitive difficulties and chronic illness - and insiders have told how he initially thought the exhaustion and pain he had been experiencing were part of getting older and the demands of his two-year Forget Tomorrow world tour.

The source told People magazine: “He’s not 20 anymore. But when his symptoms worsened, he realised something deeper was going on.

“He pushed through for months before finally getting answers. The Lyme disease diagnosis brought clarity to a series of unexplained issues that he’s been quietly dealing with.”

The SexyBack singer’s wife, Jessica Biel “felt like something was off” with Justin’s health and “encouraged him to get checked out.

The source added: “She could tell that he wasn’t himself. She’s incredibly supportive.”

Now his tour is over, Justin - who has sons Silas, 10, and four-year-old Phineas with Jessica - is planning to focus on his health and take time to rest and recover.

The insider said: “He’s taking it seriously. The plan is to rest, spend time with Jess and the kids and do everything he can to heal.

“He loved touring and being back onstage, but he’s also relieved it’s over. Now he can focus on his health.”

Justin’s *NSYNC bandmate Chris Kirkpatrick, 53, recently praised his “little bro” for battling through his illness to keep his tour goin’.

He wrote on Instagram: “Watching him battle Lyme disease day in and day out, while still getting on that stage night after night, was something I’ll never forget.

I feared ruining The Studio, says Dave Franco

Bang Showbiz | Los Angeles

Dave Franco feared he would “ruin” The Studio.

The 40-year-old actor made a cameo appearance in the hit comedy series, and he’s admitted to being shocked by his Emmy nomination.

The Hollywood star - who has been nominated for the Best Guest Actor in a Comedy Series gong - told People: “I always saw that coming. No, it’s insane.

“And the truth of it all is I truly did not think this nomination was even a possibility. I remember when they first sent me all of the episodes [of the show after filming], I started watching through it, and I was like, ‘Oh no. This is my favorite show, and I’m about to come in and ruin it.’”

Dave - who is married to actress Alison Brie - actually double-checked his nomination online.

The actor shared: “[Allison and I] also didn’t know when the nominations were being announced, and so we were in our kitchen, and I got a text from my publicist, and it just said ‘EMMY NOMINATION.’ And I go, ‘Oh my God. [...] I think I just got nominated for an Emmy.’

“I had to Google it. I didn’t believe it.”

Meanwhile, Alison - who has worked with Dave on movies like 2023’s Somebody I Used to Know - recently revealed that the couple’s “shorthand has gotten shorter and shorter” in their professional relationship.

The actress and Dave love working together, but they’re still “very selective” about the projects they commit to.

Kelly Clarkson ‘will return to her talk show this autumn’

Bang Showbiz | Los Angeles

Kelly Clarkson will reportedly return to her talk show this autumn.

Following the death of her ex-husband, Brandon Blackstock, speculation has been rife over whether the 43-year-old singer and television host will resume new episodes of her The Kelly Clarkson Show.

But sources have now told TMZ she will be at work in September.

Kelly’s return comes after months of uncertainty about the future of the eponymous NBC talk show, which she stepped away from earlier this year to care for Brandon, who died on Thursday (07.08.25) at the age of 48.

The talent manager passed away after a private, years-long battle with melanoma.

A family representative said he died “peacefully... surrounded by family” and asked for privacy during their difficult time.

Sources told Page Six Kelly’s absence from her show was marked by exhaustion and grief.

They added: “Kelly

has been working so hard, as well as looking after Brandon.

“Despite their difficult divorce, he’s still the man she loved and still her kids’ father.”

Kelly and Brandon divorced in 2022 after a protracted and contentious legal battle.

During Kelly’s absence from her show between February and March, guest hosts including Simu Liu, Roy Woods Jr. and Brooke Shields stepped in.

Many questioned whether she would return at the time.

Meanwhile, Kelly canceled the remainder of her Studio Sessions Las Vegas residency dates through August.

Amy Schumer undergoes back surgery

Amy Schumer
Bang Showbiz | Los Angeles

Amy Schumer has undergone back surgery.

The Life and Beth actress - who has six-year-old son Gene with husband Chris Fischer - has revealed she recently had an operation on her spine following a surfing accident.

She revealed she had undergone a procedure when she shared a joke she had heard from another patient alongside a photo of herself recovering in bed.

She wrote on her Instagram Story: “Overheard post back surgery ‘pickleball keeps this place in business.’”

Amy later shared a picture of her standing with the aid of a walking frame.

She wrote: “Since my surfing injury back in the day my L5 has been killing me. Today I got a laminectomy! It’s a short recovery and when I’m feeling better I will buy a bra!”

Amy has previously been candid about her health issues, including her struggles with endometriosis, and last year she revealed she had been diagnosed with Cushing syndrome, a hormone disorder caused by prolonged exposure to steroids.

Alcaraz battles as Shelton, Zverev race into Cincinnati third round

Top seeds Alcaraz and Gauff advance despite early struggles in Cincinnati

● Alcaraz wins 6-1, 2-6, 6-3 vs. Dzumhur

● Zverev eases past Basavareddy 6-3, 6-3

● Shelton advances via Carabelli retirement

● Gauff defeats Wang Xinyu in straight sets

● Medvedev upset by Aussie qualifier Walton

● De Minaur falls to Opelka in opener

Carlos Alcaraz of Spain plays a forehand during the match against Damir Džumhur of Bosnia and Herzegovina

YOU

KNOW WHAT

Alcaraz hit 44 unforced errors but still extended his Masters 1000 winning streak to 12 matches after titles in Monte Carlo and Rome earlier this season

Carlos Alcaraz fought through a second-set slump to post a “rollercoaster” 6-1, 2-6, 6-3 victory over Damir Dzumhur in his opening match Sunday at the ATP-WTA Cincinnati Open.

The Spaniard, playing his first tournament since losing to Jan-nik Sinner in the Wimbledon final, raced through the first set but completely lost his way in the second, dropping his serve twice against the 33-year-old Bosnian.

Alcaraz regained his intensity and cut down his errors in the third as a seventh ace took him to a match point that was converted when Dzumhur fired wide.

“It was just a rollercoaster,” said the second seed, who was winning his 12th straight match at the Masters 1000 level after taking the titles in Monte Carlo and Rome.

“Lots of good feelings, bad feelings, back to the good ones. I am happy to get the win at the end. I know that I have chances to do better.”

Alcaraz committed 44 unforced errors and said conditions in Cincinnati, where he was runner-up in 2023, were always tricky.

“The ball flies a lot, goes super fast,” he said. “You have to be ready to be in a good position for each shot and that is really difficult to do.”

Third seed Alexander Zverev found things more straightforward, winning 6-3, 6-3 against US wild card Nishesh Basavareddy in the night session.

Zverev needed just 66 minutes to get past Basavareddy, a 20-year-old ranked 109th in the world.

The German put 41 of his 50 first serves in play and didn’t face a break point. Basavareddy saved one match point with a blistering service return but Zverev secured the win with his 12th ace.

American Ben Shelton, coming off his first Masters 1000 title in Toronto, eased through 6-3, 3-1 when Camilo Ugo Carabelli retired with a knee injury.

Shelton’s early night was a boon after a draining Toronto tournament which only ended on Thursday night.

“I t’s not easy to play a couple of days after winning any title,” Shelton said.

“I feel for Camilo and it’s obviously not the way that you want to go through. I hope that he has a quick recovery.”

Asked about the tape

Coco Gauff

on his own right thigh, Shelton said he has “a few muscle things” going on.

“The legs take a lot of force,” he said.

Sixth seed Alex de Minaur of Australia, the Washington champion, lost to American Reilly Opelka 7-6 (8/6), 6-4.

But another Australian, Adam Walton, secured a first top-50 win of his career with a 6-7 (0/7), 6-4, 6-1 upset of former world number one and 2019 Cincy champion Daniil Medvedev of Russia.

Gauff battles through

In the women’s draw, French Open champion Coco Gauff battled through a tough first set to beat China’s Wang Xinyu 6-3, 6-2.

Gauff, who lifted the trophy in Cincinnati in 2023 and went on to claim her first Grand Slam title at the US Open that year, had to grind her way through the first set.

But the number two seed steadied in the second to run out the winner in 71 minutes.

“It was a rough start,” Gauff said. “But it was about just trusting myself and the work we’ve done in practice.”

Third seed Jessica Pegula, runner-up last year to Aryna Sabalenka, defeated Kimberly Birrell 6-4, 6-3.

Seventh seed Jasmine Paolini, finalist last season at Roland Garros and Wimbledon, also advanced, beating Maria Sakkari of Greece 7-6 (7/2), 7-6 (7/5).

Spain’s Alex Palou wins third consecutive IndyCar season title

AFP | Los Angeles

Spain’s Alex Palou captured his third consecutive IndyCar season title and fourth in five campaigns by finishing third in Sunday’s Portland Grand Prix, which was won by Australian Will Power.

Palou became only the fourth driver in IndyCar history to win three consecutive season crowns after American Ted Horn, France’s Sebastien Bourdais and Scotland’s Dario Franchitti.

Alex Palou

“It’s unbelievable. It’s crazy. I couldn’t be happier right now,” Palou said. “This has been an amazing season, an amazing five years with CGR (Chip Ganassi Racing).

Bahrain break away to sink Algeria

Blistering second-half seals Bahrain's second win in Arab Basketball Championship

- 2 wins out of 2 for Bahrain
- Kuwait clash could decide group leadership

Hussain Almaskati
TDT | Manama

Bahrain's U16 national basketball team thrashed Algeria 80-54 in Cairo to keep their perfect start at the Arab Championship intact. What began as a tense, low-scoring battle turned into a dominant display, with the young Red Tide shifting gears in the second half to leave their opponents trailing.

Turning Point in Third

Trailing 35-34 at halftime, Bahrain flipped the contest in the third quarter with an emphatic 24-7 run. Defensive intensity set the tone, while sharp shooting from beyond the arc punished Algeria's attempts to close down the paint. The shift was decisive, as Algeria never recovered.

Bahrain's Abdelqader during yesterday's match

Action from the match

Scorers Step Up

Hassan Abdelqader and Hassan Fouad led all scorers with 22 points each, while Yousif Yaqoob added 17. The first half had seen Ali Fardosi and Yaqoob keep Bahrain in touch with time-

Bahrain have now won both of their opening games by margins exceeding 25 points

ly three-pointers, but after the break it was the Hassan's who tore the game open.

Momentum Building

This second successive win gives Bahrain four points from two games, strengthening their position in the standings. Algeria drop to three points after one win and one loss. Bahrain now turn their attention to today's 1:00pm meeting with Kuwait, with a chance to tighten their grip on first place and reinforce their title credentials.

Bahrain outgun USA in high-scoring clash

Bahrain open President's Cup bracket with statement win over the USA in Cairo

- Bahrain edge USA, Tunisia next
- Eid flawless with six from six

Hussain Almaskati
TDT | Manama

Bahrain's youth handball team, competing in the President's Cup after missing out on the main knockout stage, began Group IV play at the IHF Men's Youth World Championship with a 39-33 win over the USA. Their route here came via a narrow 32-30 loss to Japan, a 36-28 defeat to hosts Egypt, and a morale-boosting 36-33 win over South Korea in their final group fixture.

A blistering first half against the Americans saw them lead 23-13 at the break, a margin that proved decisive despite a late rally.

Attack in Full Flow

Bahrain converted 68% of

Mahmood Jalil being awarded the Man of the Match award yesterday their 57 shots, punishing the USA's defence from all areas. They went 11/13 from the six-metre line, 7/15 from nine metres, and scored on 6 of 8 fast breaks. The balance of their attack kept the Americans guessing — five players finished with four goals or more.

Standout Performers

Ahmed Eid led with a perfect

6/6 shooting, while Abbas Ali (6/7), Mahmood Yusuf (5/10), and Sayed Ahmed Alfalahi (5/5) all made major contributions. Mohamed Aadam's 80% shooting and Fadhel Ebrahim's flawless 3/3 added depth to Bahrain's scoring spread. In goal, Haidar Salman made 8 saves from 29 shots, while Mohamed Abdulhusan chipped in with three stops.

USA's Late Push

The Americans, led by Simon Neumaier's 7 goals and Kaeden Kuhlmeier's 6, outscored Bahrain 20-16 in the second half. They found particular joy in breakthrough plays (7/10) and wings (6/10), but were undone by missed opportunities at nine metres and a leaky first-half defence.

Next Steps

With two points secured, Bahrain will look to build on this momentum in their last President's Cup match. They face Tunisia today at 5:15pm, aiming to secure the highest possible ranking in the classification stage.

Atletico sign Italy forward Raspadori from Napoli

AFP | Madrid

Atletico Madrid have signed Italy forward Giacomo Raspadori from Serie A champions Napoli on a five-year contract, the La Liga club announced yesterday.

Raspadori, who also won the Scudetto with Napoli in 2023, has joined for 20 million euros ($23.2 million), according to Spanish media reports.

The 25-year-old scored six goals for Napoli last term in his third season with the club after signing from Sassuolo in 2022.

Man City's Grealish to join Everton on loan: reports

AFP | London

Manchester City winger Jack Grealish has agreed to join Everton on loan for the 2025-26 season, according to reports yesterday.

Grealish fell out of favour with City boss Pep Guardiola last season and made just seven starts in the Premier League.

The 29-year-old was left out of City's squad for the Club World Cup in the United States amid speculation that he was set to leave the Etihad Stadium.

Everton have now agreed a deal for Grealish, who earns a reported £300,000 ($402,000) per week, ahead of the new Premier League campaign, which starts for the Toffees at Leeds on August 18.

The England international joined City from Aston Villa in 2021 for a then British record fee of £100 million.

Grealish has won three Premier League titles, the Champions League and the FA Cup with City, but his form had dipped significantly since he played a key role in the 2022-23 treble-winning campaign.

He was left out of England's Euro 2024 squad, an omission that left him "heartbroken".

Guardiola rarely picked Grealish last season despite City's struggles and he was left on the bench for the shock FA Cup final defeat against Crystal Palace.

If Grealish passes a medical and completes his move to Everton, the winger will have a chance to revive his spluttering career and potentially earn a recall to the England squad ahead of next year's World Cup.

West Indies level ODI series with Pakistan as Chase stars

AFP | London

The West Indies beat Pakistan by five wickets on Sunday as Roston Chase and Justin Greaves led the charge with the bat to level the one-day series between the sides.

Chase had 49 runs and Greaves was not out for 26 with a thrilling selection of fours and sixes in a game shortened by rain delays in Tarouba.

Scorecard

West Indies 184 for 5 (Chase 49*, Rutherford 45, Hope 32, Mohammad Nawaz 2-17, Hasan Ali 2-35) beat Pakistan 171 for 7 (Hasan Nawaz 36*, Talat 31, Seales 3-23) by five wickets (DLS method)

Earlier, West Indies' poor start was steadied by Sherfane Rutherford's 33-ball 45 to put the home side back in the driving seat. Chase sealed the deal by steering a delivery from Hasan Ali through cover for four and he punched the air in celebration.

"I'm happy with the win. We had to come in and level the series, so very pleased," Chase, who was named man of the match, said.

The decisive third match of the series takes place at the same venue on Tuesday.

West Indies' Justin Greaves and Roston Chase celebrates at the end of the match
