Saudi Arabia Urges UN to Act Against Houthi Attacks

Saudi Arabia has urged the UN Security Council to take stronger action against the Houthis, warning that calls for de-escalation cannot succeed while the group continues to receive support enabling attacks.

Saudi Ambassador to the UN Abdulaziz Alwasil made the remarks during an emergency Security Council session following a series of Houthi attacks targeting Saudi cities. He described the strikes as part of a broader pattern of aggression that has also threatened commercial shipping and freedom of navigation in the Red Sea and Bab Al-Mandeb Strait.

Alwasil reaffirmed Riyadh's right to defend its territory, citizens and residents, saying Saudi Arabia would take necessary measures to deter further attacks.

He called on the council to fully enforce UN Security Council Resolutions 2216 and 2722, including the arms embargo on the Houthis and demands to halt attacks on commercial vessels.

Yemen's ambassador Abdullah Alsaadi expressed solidarity with Saudi Arabia and rejected the use of Yemeni territory to launch attacks against neighbouring countries. He also called for accountability for those financing and supplying the Houthi group.

Alsaadi warned that Saudi Arabia's restraint should "not be misconstrued as weakness."

Qatar Condemns Houthi Attacks on Southern Saudi Arabia

Qatar's Prime Minister and Foreign Minister Sheikh Mohammed bin Abdulrahman Al-Thani has condemned recent Houthi attacks targeting civilian and commercial sites in southern Saudi Arabia.

During a phone call with Saudi Foreign Minister Prince Faisal bin Farhan, the two officials discussed the latest regional developments and diplomatic efforts to de-escalate tensions and strengthen regional security and stability.

Saudi authorities said 73 civilians, including women and children, were injured in Houthi attacks this week targeting Abha, Khamis Mushait, Jazan and Najran. Some emergency facilities also temporarily halted operations following the strikes.

The Coalition to Restore Legitimacy in Yemen described the attacks as a "dangerous escalation", while Qatar reaffirmed its full solidarity with Saudi Arabia and support for measures to protect the Kingdom's sovereignty and territorial integrity.

firmed its full solidarity with Saudi Arabia and support for measures to protect the Kingdom's sovereignty and territorial integrity.

Doha also urged the international community to take firm action and ensure the implementation of relevant UN Security Council resolutions concerning Yemen and Red Sea navigation.

The escalation has raised renewed concerns over a wider conflict in Yemen following years of relative calm after the 2022 UN-brokered truce.
