Jordan Reaffirms Solidarity with Bahrain

Closer Cooperation on Regional Stability and Diplomacy

TDT | Manama

HM King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa reaffirmed the "deep-rooted" ties with Jordan during talks with the head of Jordan's upper house of parliament.

The king made the remarks while receiving Faisal Akef Al-Fayez, president of the Jordanian Senate, who is visiting Manama on an official trip.

HM King Hamad conveyed greetings to King Abdullah II of Jordan and wished further progress and prosperity for the Jordanian people. Al-Fayez, in turn, conveyed the greetings and best wishes of the Jordanian monarch to the Bahraini king and people.

He highlighted the "historic and close fraternal relations" between the two kingdoms, saying they continue to develop through mutual commitment at the leadership level.

He also stressed the importance of such visits in strengthening parliamentary cooperation, enhancing coordination on regional issues, and exchanging legislative expertise between the two sides.

HM King Hamad praised Jordan's role in supporting Arab cooperation and efforts to promote peace, security and stability in the region, as well as Amman's positions supporting Bahrain.

During the meeting, the two sides also discussed regional and international developments of mutual concern, particularly the situation in the Middle East.

Al-Fayez expressed gratitude for the warm reception, and underscored Jordan's commitment to further advancing bilateral relations across various fields.

He also reiterated Jordan's solidarity with Bahrain and condemned what he described as "hostile Iranian attacks," voicing support for measures taken by Manama to safeguard its sovereignty, security and territorial integrity.

His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa
The King of the Kingdom of Bahrain, may God protect and preserve him.

And

His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa,

We pledge to God and then to our leadership to continue working sincerely to consolidate Bahrain's security and stability, asking God Almighty to protect the Kingdom and perpetuate its blessings of security and prosperity.
