Bahrain, Kuwait
sign loan deal
on electricity
TDT | Manama

A loan agreement has been signed to finance the 220 and 66 kV electricity transmission network development project between the Government of Bahrain and the Kuwait Fund for Arab Economic Development.

This came as His Excellency Shaikh Salman bin Khalifa Al Khalifa, Minister of Finance and National Economy, met with Waleed Shaml n Al Bahar, Acting Director General of the Kuwait Fund for Arab Economic Development, during his visit to the Kingdom.

The meeting was attended by H.E. Kamal bin Ahmed Mohammed, President of the Electricity and Water Authority (EWA).

Shaikh Salman emphasised the longstanding relations between the Kingdom and Kuwait, which continue to develop in various domains under the leadership of His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa and His Highness Sheikh Mishal Al Ahmad Al Jaber Al Sabah, Amir of Kuwait.

He also highlighted the commitment of His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister, to enhancing comprehensive development and advancing infrastructure in line with urban and economic growth, supporting national aspirations and benefiting all.

Commitment

The Finance Minister commended Kuwait's commitment, through the Kuwait Fund, to enhancing cooperation in economic and social development.

Mandatory DNA tests proposed for children of unknown parentage

Mohammed Darwish
TDT | Manama

Mandatory DNA tests for children of unknown parentage are before Parliament, with a central DNA database proposed to help match children to their biological parents and restore access to basic documents and services.

The measure would require testing as soon as a child is found, under the supervision of state bodies, and the results would be compared with records of missing persons and related cases.

The plan has been filed as a recommendatory proposal by MP Hassan Ebrahim and has been sent to the specialised committee.

Views

Relevant ministries are expected to submit their views before the Council considers the matter for a vote.

Under the text, the Ministries of Interior, Social Development and Health would design and run a mandatory DNA-testing system for all cases involving children of unknown parentage and establish a central registry to store results.

The proposal states that this may, in some instances, confirm identity and family ties and, in turn, unlock legal, social and human rights linked to name and status.

Ebrahim said the move draws on constitutional guarantees that speak to justice, social care, health and equal opportunity.

He said many children of unknown parentage spend their early years in care without learning who their parents are and later face hurdles when applying for essential documents such as a smart ID card or passport, which can block routes into university, work and independent life.

He added that the Ministry of Social Development provides housing and support but said those services do not by themselves resolve the issue of identity and belonging raised by these cases.

The text frames DNA testing and a central database as a lawful method, built with privacy safeguards and in line with Sharia-based rules, to help establish identity in some cases.

Identity

According to the submission, the aim is to move from care alone to a wider justice-based approach that recognises identity so that rights can be granted in full, eases psychological and social strain, and clears the way to official documents and ordinary daily life.

Procedurally, the file remains with the competent committee for study.

Once the ministries provide their assessments, the Council will decide on next steps.

Bahrain embodies ‘justice and reform’

H.E. General Shaikh Rashid bin Abdullah Al Khalifa at the event
Kuwait City

His Excellency General Shaikh Rashid bin Abdullah Al Khalifa, Minister of Interior, has emphasised that the wise reformist approach of His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa, Supreme Commander of the Armed Forces, “embodies the values of justice, fairness, and the preservation of human dignity.”

He made the statement while attending the 42nd Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) Interior Ministers’ Meeting in Kuwait yesterday.

Heading Bahrain’s delegation, Shaikh Rashid conveyed the Kingdom’s appreciation to Kuwait for hosting the event, noting the “excellent organisation and continued commitment of the GCC Secretariat and Sheikh Fahad Al Yusuf Al Sabah, Chairman of the meeting, in ensuring effective preparation and follow-up.”

The Interior Minister highlighted Bahrain’s transformative initiatives in criminal justice, explaining that the Alternative Sentencing and Measures Law launched by HM the King represents “a qualitative shift from deterrence to reform and reintegration,” contributing to enhanced community security, lower recidivism rates, and greater opportunities for beneficiaries to reintegrate positively into national development.

called for strengthened Gulf security cooperation to tackle emerging challenges such as artificial intelligence-related crimes.

The meeting brought together Interior Ministers from GCC countries to discuss joint security strategies, including the Anti-Drugs Strategy, measures to combat money laundering, development of traffic systems, electronic exchange of fingerprints and deportee data, and the establishment of a unified Gulf rescue team.

Ministers also approved the next joint tactical exercise for security agencies and the Gulf Security Conference under the GCC Secretariat and decided to refer the issue of a unified GCC tourist visa to the Foreign Ministers.

Meeting

Bahrain was recognised during the meeting for the “Maan” Centre for Research and Training team winning first place in the Prince Nayef Award for Arab Security (First Class) for their study on “The Negative Effects of Social Media on the Gulf Family and Its Security Implications.”

Concluding his address, Shaikh Rashid affirmed Bahrain’s continued commitment to enhancing joint Gulf security cooperation and expressed the Kingdom’s aspiration to host the next GCC Interior Ministers’ Meeting.

“Our shared efforts strengthen regional security and contribute to the safety and well-being of our peoples,” he said.

The Bahraini delegation included the Ambassador to Kuwait, the Undersecretary of the Interior Ministry, and several ministry officials.

Guide

Shaikh Rashid also presented Bahrain’s guide for implementing alternative sentencing and open prisons, expressing hope that it “would help advance rehabilitative criminal justice across the GCC,” and

Woman acquitted in elevator assault case

Court finds medical evidence insufficient

Rehab Mohammad
TDT | Manama

The Third Minor Criminal Court acquitted a woman in her fifties who was accused of assaulting her neighbour inside an elevator, after the court found the evidence insufficient and doubted the credibility of the incident.

In its reasoning, the court held that medical reports alone do not conclusively prove that an injury was caused by the accused, explaining that such reports can only serve as supporting evidence when corroborated by witness statements or other proof.

If a conviction relies solely on a medical report, the court noted, the judgment is flawed both in reasoning and in legal justification.

According to the case file, the Public Prosecution had charged the defendant with assaulting the victim and causing minor injuries, as detailed in the medical report, though the injuries did not result in illness or prevent the victim from performing her daily activities for more than twenty days.

During trial, lawyer Reem Al-Mahari, who represented the defendant, denied the accusations on behalf of her client and called for her acquittal, citing lack of intent.

LMRA receives US Congress delegation

The delegation also heard a detailed presentation on Bahrain’s efforts to combat trafficking in persons and the role of the Expat Protection Centre in providing comprehensive services, including preventive support, legal counselling, and shelter for victims or those at risk of exploitation or human trafficking.

Driver held for dangerous stunt

In response to a video circulating on social media, the General Directorate of Traffic confirmed that it had apprehended a driver after he performed stunts and collided with another car, putting his life and the safety of others at risk. million reported for the same period in 2024. Total profit for the three-month period ended 30 September 2025 was BD3.75 million, compared to a net profit of BD3.64 million for the same period in 2024.

The results also show a net profit attributable to equity holders for the nine-month period ended 30 September 2025 of BD3.95 million, compared to a net profit attributable to equity holders of BD8.92 million for the same period in 2024. The decrease is mainly due to reduced spreads in their overseas business resulting from the decreasing profit rate environment. Total profit for the nine-month period ended 30

September 2025 was BD10.85 million, compared to a net profit of BD17.17 million for the same period in 2024.

“On behalf of Ithmaar Bank Board of Directors, I am pleased to announce that the Bank continued to report profit for the period,” said HRH Prince Amr. “This is due to the Bank's continuous efforts and focus to achieve further growth in its core Islamic banking business in Bahrain and Pakistan and further enhancing the value of its strategic investments,” he said.

Ithmaar Bank's Chief Executive Officer, Maysan Al Maskati stated that “the financial results show that the Bank's efforts to continuously grow its core business and enhance its corporate customers Islamic banking experience are paying off”.

“As a result of the Bank's continued efforts, the deposit mobilisation efforts have yielded positive results as the quasi-equity liabilities has crossed BD1 billion mark, reaching BD1.12 billion at 30 September 2025 compared to BD0.96 billion at 31 December 2024,” said Al Maskati.

Total equity attributable to shareholders of the Bank increased to BD54.49 million as at 30 September 2025, a 7.8 percent increase from BD50.54 million as at 31 December 2024.

Renewables outpace fossil fuels despite US policy shift: IEA

AFP | Paris, France

Renewable energy is still expanding faster than fossil fuels around the world despite policy changes in the United States, with oil demand possibly peaking “around 2030”, the International Energy Agency said yesterday. The Paris-based IEA presented different scenarios for the future of energy in its annual World Energy Outlook -- the first since coming under fire from the government of US President Donald Trump over its oil forecasts.

“The pace varies, but renewables grow faster than any other major energy source in all scenarios, led by solar photovoltaics,” the agency, which advises mostly developed nations, said in its 518-page report.

In one scenario, “policy changes mean that the United States has 30 percent less renewables capacity installed in 2035 than in last year's Outlook, but at the global level renewables continue their rapid expansion”. The report comes as world leaders meet at the UN's COP30 climate conference in Belem, Brazil, which Trump and his government have shunned.

◆ The UN nuclear watchdog yesterday called on Iran to allow it to verify its inventories of enriched uranium, especially its sensitive stockpile of highly enriched uranium, according to two confidential reports seen by AFP. Tensions between Iran and the UN nuclear watchdog have repeatedly flared in recent years, with relations being further strained in the wake of a 12-day war in June that saw Israeli and US strikes on key Iranian nuclear facilities. In its latest report, the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) said it “has lost continuity of knowledge in relation to previously declared inventories of nuclear material in Iran at the affected facilities”, including its stockpile of near-weapons-grade uranium. According to the IAEA, Iran had an estimated 440.9 kilograms enriched to up to 60 percent as of June 13 but has been unable to verify it.

◆ The United Nations said yesterday that 42 migrants were missing and presumed dead after a boat capsized off the Libyan coast last week. It was the latest in a series of similar disasters in a stretch of the Mediterranean Sea that have claimed the lives of more than a thousand people so far this year. Seven survivors were rescued after six days adrift, the UN's International Organization for Migration said in a statement. “According to survivors, some individuals were wearing life jackets while others held onto the overturned boat,” an IOM spokesman told AFP. The vessel, carrying 47 men and two women, left Zuwara, west of Tripoli, on November 3 before high waves caused the engine to fail around six hours later, the IOM said. The boat capsized, throwing all passengers overboard, the statement added.

◆ The United Nations said yesterday that around 13,500 square kilometres (5,000 square miles) of Ukraine's lakes, rivers and coastlines are potentially contaminated with mines and explosives after the nearly four-year Russian invasion. Even as the war is mostly fought on the ground, both sides have mined large areas near coastlines, and some undetonated projectiles from Russia's daily aerial barrages end up in bodies of water. “An estimated 13,500 square kilometres of Ukraine's aquatic areas -- including the Dnipro River, lakes, and Black Sea coastlines -- are potentially contaminated with explosive remnants of war,” the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) in Ukraine said in a statement. Only 1.4 percent of the contaminated waters -- roughly equivalent to the size of Puerto Rico -- has been de-mined, with the removal of around 2,800 explosive devices.

Astronomers spot storm on another star for first time

Paris, France

Astronomers revealed yesterday they have detected a storm on a star other than our Sun for the first time, discovering an explosion so violent it could have stripped away the atmosphere of any planets unlucky enough to be nearby. Solar storms on the Sun sometimes shoot out huge eruptions known as coronal mass ejections, which can disrupt satellites when they arrive at Earth -- and create colourful auroras that dance across the sky. In fact, a particularly powerful solar storm caused auroras as far south as the US city of Tennessee on Wednesday, according to the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration.

violent events in the universe -- such as black holes -- which emit relatively stable radio signals over time.

“We always have stars in the telescope's field of view but generally we're not interested in them,” Cyril Tasse, a Paris Observatory astronomer and the study's co-author, told AFP.

However, the researchers have set up a data processing system that also records what is going on with the stars behind the behemoths they are chasing.

In 2022, the team decided to find out “what had been caught in this net”, Tasse said.

They found that there was a huge explosion which only lasted a minute on May 16, 2016. It came from a red dwarf star called StKM 1-1262 more than 133 light years away.

The team then determined it was a coronal mass ejection -- a stellar storm.

“It's the first time we have detected one” on a star other than our own, Tasse said.

But this coronal mass ejection was “at least 10,000 times more violent than known solar storms” on the Sun, he added.

Auroras were also visible in the skies above New Zealand, AFP images showed, with more expected into Wednesday night.

However, observing such a storm on a distant star had proven difficult for astronomers. New research, published in the journal Nature on Wednesday, revealed that an international team of researchers has finally achieved the feat.

The discovery used data from a European network of telescopes called LOFAR. The team of astronomers has been using LOFAR since 2016 to detect the most extreme and

UK minister denies plotting against PM Starmer as rumours swirl

Rumours say some ministers are plotting to challenge Starmer

AFP | London, United Kingdom

UK Prime Minister Keir Starmer insisted yesterday he runs a “united team” after a senior minister was forced to repeatedly deny that he planned to oust the embattled premier.

Starmer's comments came after Downing Street sources said Britain's leader would fight off any leadership challenge, as a briefing war exposed tensions at the heart of the beleaguered government.

Rumours are swirling in the UK parliament that some ministers are plotting to challenge Starmer following a budget due later this month, in which Labour is expected to break manifesto promises.

“This is a united team,” he told parliament, adding that he was focused on “rebuilding the country”.

Earlier, health minister Wes Streeting told Sky News that he was “not going” to demand Starmer's resignation, adding: “I support the prime minister. I have done since he was elected leader of the Labour Party.”

The 42-year-old is considered one of Labour's better performers and has long been touted as a potential replacement for Starmer, among others including interior minister Shabana Mahmood.

denial, repeated to other broadcasters, followed anonymous briefings by Starmer allies who told journalists he would fight any bid to replace him, in what appeared to be an attempt to warn them off.

Starmer told parliament that attacks on any of his cabinet members were “completely unacceptable” and said Streeting was doing a “great job”.

“The government has descended into civil war,” said opposition Conservative leader Kemi Badenoch.

Ukraine ministers resign in outcry over major graft scandal

AFP | Kyiv, Ukraine

Ukraine's energy and justice ministers offered their resignations yesterday, shortly after President Volodymyr Zelensky said both should go over their alleged involvement in a sweeping corruption scandal in the country's energy sector.

Investigators earlier alleged a key Zelensky ally orchestrated a $100-million kickback scheme to siphon funds, triggering public anger at a time of widespread power outages caused by Russian attacks.

Ukraine has long been plagued by corruption and cracking down on graft is seen as a key requirement of its bid to join the European Union.

Zelensky said his Justice Minister German Galushchenko, whom investigators allege was involved in the scheme and received “personal benefits”, as well as Energy Minister Svitlana Grynchuk, should tender their resignations.

Neither is known to have been charged and Grynchuk has not been mentioned as having profited from the scheme.

“The minister of justice and the minister of energy cannot remain in their positions,” Zelensky said in a video posted on social media.

Ukrainian minister of energy German Galushchenko (L) and Chief State Inspector for Nuclear and Radiation Safety of Ukraine Oleh Korikov speak during the IAEA's Board of Governors meeting at the agency's headquarters in Vienna, Austria

Shortly after, both submitted letters of resignation, Ukraine's Prime Minister Yulia Svyrydenko said.

The scandal has triggered outcry among Ukrainians, who are suffering frequent heating and electricity outages from the Russian bombings.

“It's disgusting,” Davyd, a

24-year-old content creator, told AFP, declining to give his surname. “They're destroying us, our reputation, and our future. We won't have a future if we have crooks like that,” he said, expressing concern over how the scandal would play among Kyiv's crucial backers in the EU.

People “raise as much money as possible to help the (army), and they are just hiding the money in their basements”, he added.

Turkey probes cause of military plane crash that killed 20

AFP | Istanbul, Turkey

Investigators have found the black box from the Turkish military plane that crashed in Georgia, killing all 20 onboard, but have yet to analyse it, officials said yesterday, warning against hasty conclusions about what caused the incident.

Turkey said the military cargo plane crashed while returning home from Azerbaijan and investigators had so far recovered 19 bodies and were looking for the last one.

The plane took off from Ganja airport in western Azerbaijan on Tuesday afternoon but crashed shortly after crossing the border into eastern Georgia, the ministry said after the incident.

“Our heroic comrades-in-arms were martyred on 11 November 2025 due to the crash of our C-130 military cargo aircraft, which had taken off from Azerbaijan to return to Turkey,” Defence Minister Yasar Guler said on X alongside 20 photographs of those who died.

Turkey has not said what caused the accident but dramatic footage taken by eyewitnesses and published by Azerbaijani media appeared to show the plane spinning horizontally alongside several bits of debris as it fell.

India capital car blast death toll rises to 12

AFP | New Delhi, India

India's anti-terrorism agency spearheaded yesterday the third day of investigations into a car blast in the capital, as a hospital official said the death toll had increased to 12.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi has called the explosion on Monday evening a “conspiracy”, and has vowed that those responsible will face justice.

Police are yet to give exact details of what caused the intense explosion near the historic Red Fort in the crowded Old Delhi quarter of the city, one of India's most well-known landmarks, and the site of the annual prime minister's Independence Day speech.

It was the most significant security incident since April 22, when 26 mainly Hindu civilians were killed at the tourist site of Pahalgam in Indian-administered Kashmir, triggering clashes with Pakistan.

“Twelve people have died and more than 30 are injured,” Ritu Saxena, the chief medical officer of Delhi's LNJP hospital, told AFP.

Trump writes to Israel's Herzog asking him to pardon Netanyahu

Netanyahu has repeatedly denied any wrongdoing

● Trump says he is writing to Herzog at a "historic time"

● Netanyahu and his wife Sara are accused in one case of accepting more than $260,000 worth of luxury goods

AFP | Jerusalem, Undefined

Israeli President Isaac Herzog said he received a letter from US President Donald Trump yesterday asking him to pardon Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, who is on trial in three separate corruption cases.

Netanyahu has repeatedly denied any wrongdoing in the ongoing court cases, with no ruling yet delivered, and his supporters have dismissed the trials as politically motivated.

In a speech to the Israeli parliament in October, Trump suggested to Herzog that he pardon Netanyahu.

"This morning, President Isaac Herzog received the attached letter from US President Donald Trump, calling on him to consider granting a pardon to Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu," Herzog's office said in a statement.

In the letter, Trump says he is writing to Herzog at a "historic time, as we have, together, just secured peace that has been sought for at least 3,000 years."

"I hereby call on you to fully pardon Benjamin Netanyahu, who has been a formidable and decisive War Time Prime Minister," it adds.

"While I absolutely respect the independence of the Israeli Justice System... I believe that this 'case' against Bibi... is political, unjustified prosecution," the letter says.

Netanyahu and his wife Sara are accused in one case of accepting more than $260,000 worth of luxury goods such as cigars, jewellery and champagne from billionaires in exchange for political favours.

He is also accused of attempting to negotiate more favourable coverage from two Israeli media outlets in two other cases.

The statement from Herzog's office said the Israeli president holds Trump "in the highest regard and continues to express his deep appreciations for President Trump's unwavering support for Israel".

"Alongside and not withstanding this... anyone seeking a Presidential pardon must submit a formal request in accordance with the established procedures," it added.

During his current term, which started in late 2022, Netanyahu proposed far-reaching judicial reforms that critics say sought to weaken the courts.

Those prompted massive protests that were only curtailed after the onset of the Gaza war in October 2023.

Trump himself has long accused his political opponents of using the Justice Department to target him during his time out of office.

UK PM says BBC should 'correct errors' as Trump mulls lawsuit

AFP | London, United Kingdom

British Prime Minister Keir Starmer yesterday warned that the BBC should "get their house in order" after US President Donald Trump said he had an "obligation" to sue the corporation for $1 billion over a misleading speech edit.

Speaking in parliament, Starmer said that while he supports a "strong and independent BBC", he also believed it should "uphold the highest standards to be accountable and correct errors quickly".

"Where mistakes are made, they do need to get their house in order," he said in response to a question calling for him to urge Trump to abandon his legal threat.

Trump's lawyers threatened the British broadcaster with a billion-dollar lawsuit on Monday, according to a letter seen by AFP, as the BBC apologised for giving the impression the president had urged "violent action" ahead of the 2021 assault on the US Capitol.

People are pictured outside the entrance to the BBC in London

Later, in a Fox News interview, which was recorded Monday, Trump was asked if he planned to sue the BBC.

"I guess I have to, why not?" said the president in his first public comments on the potential for legal action.

"I think I have an obligation to do it because you can't allow people to do that," Trump said, without confirming whether he had officially begun proceedings to file a defamation lawsuit.

Bahrain on the Move

P. UNNIKRISHNAN

Being in the media, one develops a sense for the rhythm of a nation — and right now, Bahrain is beating with unmistakable energy. The Kingdom feels alive, evolving rapidly into a stronger and more confident economy under focused leadership and a clear national vision.

Just as we were stepping out of the excitement of the Asian Games, the momentum continued seamlessly. The World Endurance Championship, BAPCO Energy 8 Hours and BRAVE 100th edition added to an extraordinary season of activity. The Manama Dialogue and the Gateway Gulf Investment Forum attracted delegations from around the world. At the same time, the Arab Cybersecurity Conference and the Royal Bahrain Concours added to an already vibrant national calendar.

Amid these milestones came another exciting development — the launch of the new Bahrain-Qatar ferry service. This long-awaited link between Saadah Marina in Bahrain and Al Ruwais Port in Qatar, with a travel time of just over an hour, marks the first international passenger sea route between two Gulf nations. For many expatriates and residents alike, it is not just another travel update — it is a moment of joy, nostalgia, and renewed connection.

Having travelled on ferries in places like Macau, Malaysia, and the Maldives, I have found that each journey carries its own charm. Yet one of my most memorable experiences was in Turkey, where live entertainment, friendly chatter, and the joy of the open sea made the voyage unforgettable. That experience taught me that ferry services can be far more than mere transportation — they can be journeys filled with character, culture, and a sense of community spirit.

Bahrain's new ferry service holds a similar promise. It can serve not only as a convenient link complementing air travel to Qatar but also as a leisure route for families and weekend travellers seeking a short and affordable getaway. The addition of thoughtful features — a small duty-free outlet, a scenic deck for sunset photos, and a children's corner with light entertainment — could transform it into a truly memorable experience.

This ferry is more than just a vessel carrying passengers, vehicles, and cargo between two ports — it is a bridge of friendship, a voyage of joy, and a symbol of regional unity. It reflects Bahrain's growing prominence as a hub of connectivity and innovation, guided by the visionary leadership of His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister.

And this is just the beginning. In the near future, we may see more such ferries setting sail from Bahrain to other GCC destinations — turning the blue waters of the Gulf into dynamic routes of travel, trade, and togetherness. The sea, once seen as a boundary, may soon become the most beautiful bridge connecting nations and people across the region.

AUB Students Win Arab Innovation Award for 'LYNQ'

Students from the American University of Bahrain (AUB), founders of the "LYNQ" project, won the "Innovative Project of the Year" award at the INJAZ Al-Arab Youth Entrepreneurship Competition in Egypt. LYNQ is a groundbreaking water cooler that converts air moisture into potable water—a sustainable response to plastic pollution in the Gulf. This regional win follows their local success in June, where they secured "Company of the Year" and "Excellence in Technology" awards from INJAZ Bahrain. Dr. Amal Al-Awadhi, Dean of Student Affairs, praised the students, noting this victory validates AUB's vision to empower youth and foster innovation that contributes added value to society and the economy. The team expressed gratitude to AUB and INJAZ for their support.

AUBH Students Win “Innovative Project of the Year” at INJAZ Al Arab Youth Entrepreneurship Celebration 2025 in Egypt

Manama

Students from the American University of Bahrain (AUBH), founders of the innovative project “LYNQ”, have been awarded “Innovative Venture of the Year” in the University Track of the INJAZ Al Arab Youth Entrepreneurship Celebration (YEC) 2025 held in Egypt, which brought together students and entrepreneurs from 13 countries across the MENA Region. This achievement follows the project’s remarkable success in Bahrain, where it earned two major awards at the 17th edition of INJAZ Bahrain’s Young Entrepreneurs Competition – “University Company of the Year” and “Best Technology Award,” the latter sponsored by the National Bank of Bahrain

(NBB).

The “LYNQ” project represents an advanced environmental innovation that extracts moisture from the air, purifies it, and converts it into clean, drinkable water. The concept was developed in response to the growing environmental and health challenges resulting from the excessive use of plastic across the Gulf region. Recognizing the proven risks that plastic poses to human health and the environment, the team sought to develop a sustainable alternative that harnesses modern technology and natural resources to offer a cleaner, more responsible solution.

Dr. Amal Alawadhi, Dean of Students at the American University of Bahrain, commented: “We extend our sincere congratulations to our talented students on winning this distinguished award, which stands as a true source of pride for AUBH. This accomplishment reflects our commitment to nurturing youth potential and empowering students to apply knowledge in service of their communities. It underscores the capability of Bahraini youth to create meaningful impact and represent the Kingdom with excellence in regional and international arenas. This milestone also embodies our vision to foster a culture of innovation among students by providing an advanced academic environment that inspires them to transform their ideas into projects of real social and economic value, further solidifying AUBH’s position as a leading institution in supporting impactful, student-driven initiatives.”

Bhavans-Bahrain Indian School Hosts Criio Cricket Matches for Girls

Manama

Bhavans-Bahrain Indian School (BIS) successfully organised the Criio Cricket Matches for Girls, involving students from Grades 6 to 12, as part of the Bahrain Cricket Federation’s Cricket Week, reaffirming its commitment to inclusivity, empowerment, and the holistic development of students through sports.

The event witnessed the participation of five spirited teams, Green, Red, Yellow, Pink, and Blue, whose enthusiasm and determination turned the field into a celebration of energy, teamwork, and passion. Each six-member team displayed exceptional coordination, discipline, and a deep love for the game, reflecting the school’s emphasis on experiential learning and character building through athletics.

Played with a soft ball to ensure safety and fun, the matches combined the thrill of competition with the joy of camaraderie. After several exciting rounds, the Pink Team emerged as champions, while the Red Team secured the runner-up position following an impressive performance.

The initiative received high appreciation from the Directors of Bahrain Indian School, Mr Himanshu Verma and Mrs Ritu

Verma, who lauded the event for encouraging greater participation of girls in sports and for fostering values of teamwork, equality, and confidence.

“At BIS, we believe that every sporting event is an opportunity to build character, leadership, and lifelong confidence. The Criio Cricket initiative reflects our vision of empowering girls to break barriers and excel with passion and integrity,” said Mr. Himanshu Verma.

Sayed Hashim Ahmed wins silver in Tekken 8

Hussain Almaskati
TDT | Manama

Bahrain's Sayed Hashim Ahmed put in a standout performance at the sixth Islamic Solidarity Games yesterday, taking home silver in the Tekken 8 tournament after a tense final against Saudi Arabia's Raef Alturkistani.

Ahmed had looked strong throughout the tournament. He reached the final with a 2-1 win over Turkey's Emre Ozturk in the quarter-finals and a 2-1 victory against Alturkistani earlier in the bracket. But Alturkistani fought back through the repechage, defeating Morocco's Hamza Chafai 2-0 and then Ozturk 2-0, setting up a rematch for gold. In a closely contested final, Alturkistani edged Ahmed, leaving Bahrain with a hard-fought silver.

Reflecting on the match, Ahmed said, "I've faced this opponent many times, and we've traveled together to competitions in America and Europe. Today he read my strategy and deserved his win. It was close, but I'm grateful to the Bahrain Olympic Committee, the Bahrain Esports Federation, and HH Shaikh Khalid for their constant support. Ever since I was a kid, I've aspired to win medals like this. I wanted the gold, especially after performing well throughout the tournament, but we'll learn from our mistakes and come back stronger. I'm already looking forward to the Esports World Cup in Riyadh 2026."

HH Shaikh Isa attends Bahrain International Trophy draw

His Highness Shaikh Isa bin Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, Minister of the Prime Minister's Court and Chairman of the Rashid Equestrian and Horse Racing Club (REHC) High Committee, yesterday attended the draw for participating jockeys at the seventh edition of the Bahrain International Trophy, at the Four Seasons Hotel Bahrain Bay. HH Shaikh Isa affirmed that the numerous international championships and sporting events hosted by the Kingdom of Bahrain reflect the Kingdom's capabilities and competitive advantages, which strengthen its position on the global stage.

India bank on formidable home Test record in South Africa series

Shubman Gill's India takes on world Test champions South Africa in a two-match series

● Series starts Friday in Kolkata

● India seeks home win extension

● South Africa brings strong spin

AFP | Kolkata

Shubman Gill's India will look to extend their Test domination at home when a two-match series begins against world champions South Africa on Friday in Kolkata.

India's recent 2-0 sweep of West Indies took them past South Africa to be the third-most successful team at home in Test cricket.

They have 122 wins in the five-day format in India, behind only Australia, who have 262 home wins and England who have 241.

India's excellent home run suffered a setback last year when New Zealand achieved a rare 3-0 Test sweep on Indian soil.

The hosts bounced back in style against the West Indies last month with a 2-0 victory in Gill's first home assignment as Test captain.

That followed a 2-2 draw in the five-Test series in England, Gill's first in charge.

South Africa beat Australia to win the World Test Championship (WTC) final at Lord's in June and recently drew 1-1 in Pakistan.

They will be no pushovers under captain Temba Bavuma despite many of their players making their debuts in India.

South African head coach

India's captain Shubman Gill inspects the pitch as coach Gautam Gambhir watches during a practice session

Shukri Conrad said having quality spinners, including Keshav Maharaj, Senuran Muthusamy and Simon Harmer, gave the team a boost.

"Yes, I think it gives us a lot of confidence," Conrad told reporters at Eden Gardens yesterday.

"Not saying that we didn't have good spinners in the past, but we certainly think we've got a better pack of spinners now in Keshav, Simon and Sen."

"We are quietly confident that we can make history of our own here at Eden Gardens and in India," he said.

Pant returns

Gill, 26, has led from the front after the retirements of Virat

Kohli, Rohit Sharma and Ravichandran Ashwin.

He scored 754 runs against England and an unbeaten 129 to set up victory in the second Test against the West Indies.

Gill has hinted he would like pitches prepared that provide a balance between bat and ball, rather than the sharply spinning surfaces that have been prevalent in the past.

The pitch at Kolkata's famous stadium is expected to aid reverse swing but become slower as the match progresses.

India have been boosted by the return of livewire wicket-keeper-batsman Rishabh Pant, who recently led India A against South Africa A in two four-day matches.

Pant, a flamboyant left-handed batsman and chattering presence behind the stumps, missed the West Indies series while he recovered from a foot fracture.

India's back-up wicketkeeper Dhruv Jurel hit twin centuries in the second match against South Africa A and is almost certain to play as a batter.

"I don't think you can leave him (Jurel) out for this Test is the short answer," India's assistant coach Ryan ten Doeschate said.

"But obviously, you can only pick 11 as well. So someone else will have to miss out. I think we've got a pretty good idea of the combination."

The visitors will feature several players, including Bavuma, who warmed up for the series by playing for South Africa A last week when they beat India A by five wickets.

Bavuma, who has captained South Africa in 10 Tests -- winning nine and drawing one -- missed the tour of Pakistan, where Aiden Markram stood in as captain.

Eight of South Africa's squad have never played a Test in India.

Bavuma, opening batsman Markram and pace spearhead Kagiso Rabada have the most experience of Indian conditions. Batsman Zubayr Hamza and left-arm spinner Muthusamy were on the 2019 tour and Harmer played in 2015.

South Africa have a poor recent record in India, having lost their previous two series 3-0. Their last series win came under Hansie Cronje in 2000.

The second Test is in Guwahati from November 22 and will be followed by three one-day internationals and five Twenty20 matches.

Al Bahrain Survives Isa Town Fightback in League Clash

TDT | Manama

The Zain Bahrain Basketball League continued yesterday as Al Bahrain claimed a hard-fought 89–82 victory over Isa Town at the Bahrain Basketball Association Arena. Following Ahli's opening-night win, the second game of the season maintained the league's intensity and offered plenty of end-to-end drama.

Al Bahrain set the tone early, combining disciplined defense with quick transition play to take the first quarter 21–14. Guard Mansoor Jaber sparked the offense with aggressive drives, while forward Talal Ali Saeed dominated the glass for second-chance points. Isa Town stayed close through Jehad Ahmed's inside scoring and at halftime. Ahmed orchestrated the offense with poise, while Sami punished defensive lapses. Al Bahrain regrouped during the break to plan a response.

The third quarter proved decisive. Re-energized, Al Bahrain surged with a 30–16 run. Jaber led with jumpers, Ali Husain Baqer added perimeter points, and center Hameed Faraj anchored the defense. By quarter's end, Al Bahrain had built a 66–53 cushion.

Isa Town pushed in the final quarter, but Al Bahrain's composure prevailed. Jaber hit a clutch jumper, Saeed hauled in crucial rebounds, and Faraj protected the rim to secure the win.

Jaber led Al Bahrain with 25 points, Baqer had 20, and Saeed 16. Sami finished with 15 and Ahmed 14 for Isa Town. Faraj and Saeed grabbed nine rebounds each.

Gor Minasyan Wins Snatch Gold for Bahrain

Hussain Almaskati
TDT | Manama

Bahrain continued its golden run in weightlifting at the sixth Islamic Solidarity Games yesterday as Gor Minasyan claimed gold in the men's +110kg snatch at Riyadh's Boulevard Arena.

Earlier in the tournament, Bahraini weightlifter Ingrid Grueso made history by winning gold in the 69kg category, earning the Kingdom's first-ever weightlifting medal at the Islamic Solidarity Games. Building on that momentum, Minasyan dominated his category from the first lift, successfully hoisting 205kg, then 211kg, and finally 213kg, finishing at the top of the leaderboard. Iraq's Ali Rubaia-wi secured silver with 212kg, while Uzbekistan's Sharofiddin Amriddinov took bronze at 188kg.

The remainder of the top six included Reza Hassanpour Feremi of Iran (182kg), Ali Shukurlu of Turkey (170kg), and Mohammad Zeitoun of Lebanon (120kg), while Muhammad Ripqy Ramadhan of Indonesia did not register a total.

Minasyan displayed elite consistency in the snatch, securing gold even before the clean and jerk segment. His victories in the snatch, clean and jerk, and overall total, combined with Grueso's golds in the women's 69kg snatch and clean and jerk, bring Bahrain's weightlifting haul to five gold medals at the Games.

Across all sports, Bahrain's medal tally now stands at 11, including five golds, four silvers, and two bronzes. The silvers came from Grueso's 69kg snatch, Sayed Hashim Ahmed in esports, and Israpil Sagaipov in men's 90kg judo. Bronze medals were won by Poltoras-kii Ruslan in men's 60kg judo and Askerii Gerbekov in men's 81kg judo.

As the sixth Islamic Solidarity Games continue in Riyadh, Bahrain's athletes aim to build on this strong start, competing for further podium finishes across multiple sports.

The second edition of the Manama Open Tennis Championship (M25) began its main round (Round of 32) on November 12 at the Public Security Officers Club, with international players dominating the opening singles matches. Russia's Ilya Simakin also advanced quickly, posting a 6-2, 6-2 win against his German opponent, Richard Anthony. Ukrainian player Nikita Piloztsev rounded out the straight-sets winners, beating India's Vivek Koloro 6-2, 6-1 to qualify for the next round.

Other winners included the Latvian/Taipei pair of Karlis Ozlins and Jeffrey Hsu, the Georgian/Bulgarian duo Alexander Bakshi and Pyotr Nesterov, and the team of India's Dave Javia and Poland's Olaf Piczkowski, all advancing to the next stage.

Bahrain finish round robin strong with win over Qatar

Josserand’s Men Rematch Qatar for Bronze at Islamic Solidarity Games

- Bahrain finishes round-robin with victory
- Team prepares for Arab Challenge Cup
- Bronze medal match versus Qatar

Hussain Almaskati
TDT | Manama

At the sixth Islamic Solidarity Games yesterday, Bahrain’s men’s volleyball team closed the round-robin stage with a 3-1 victory over Qatar in Riyadh. While the win didn’t affect the standings — Bahrain had already secured their place in the bronze medal match — it was a confident way to finish the preliminaries and build momentum ahead of today’s medal-deciding game.

Bahrain took the first two sets 25-21 and 25-20. Qatar fought back in the third, snatching it 26-24, but Bahrain regrouped to close the fourth 25-22, showing the poise and focus that can win medals, even in a dead-rubber match. Ali Ebrahim led the attack with 12 points, including two kills and four crucial blocks. Mahmood Abuldwahed added 11, while Sayed Hashem Isa contributed 12 points and five blocks. Abbas AlKhabbaz and Naser Anan also made key plays to maintain control.

Reflecting on the bronze medal match and the team’s packed schedule, Naser Anan said, “Now we go for the bronze, but this wasn’t our aspiration, so it doesn’t mean much to us. InshAllah we come away with the medal anyway. We’ve played several tournaments, so we’re putting in a lot of effort, but we forget these things by the time a match comes.”

Bahrain will also have to prepare for the Arab Challenge Cup in Jordan from November 28 to December 5, another test of their stamina and readiness.

The team’s tournament has been a rollercoaster: a 3-2 loss to Iran, a 3-1 win over hosts Saudi Arabia, a 3-0 defeat to Türkiye, a straight-sets win over Chad, and now a strong showing against Qatar. Across all matches, Bahrain has shown resilience and adaptability, which are traits they will need this afternoon.

The bronze medal match kicks off today at 12pm Bahrain time at Boulevard Arena, where Bahrain will face Qatar once again. After yesterday’s performance, the team will aim to turn that momentum into a podium finish at the sixth Islamic Solidarity Games.

Australia’s Hazlewood gets all-clear after Ashes scare but Abbott ruled out

Josh Hazlewood
AFP | Sydney

Pace spearhead Josh Hazlewood was cleared to continue his preparations for the first Ashes Test against England after sending a scare through the Australian camp yesterday when he went for a hamstring scan.

Hazlewood and reserve Test quick Sean Abbott both left the Sydney Cricket Ground during New South Wales’s Sheffield Shield clash with Victoria for assessments.

While Hazlewood was given the all-clear, Abbott, named in Australia’s 15-man squad, was ruled out of the opening Test in Perth starting on November 21.

BIC continues to bring the thrills with latest Open Track Night under lights today

Manama

The action never stops at Bahrain International Circuit (BIC), ‘The Home of Motorsport in the Middle East’.

Less than a week after the FIA World Endurance Championship (WEC) wrapped up its 2025 season in Sakhir, the circuit will be lit up once again with the latest edition of BIC’s widely popular Open Track Night, set to take place today.

Speed lovers will be able to enjoy a thrill like no other, taking their very own private vehicles on track along BIC’s 2.554-kilometre Inner Track — the same raced on in the kingdom’s national championships.

Thursday’s Open Track Night is scheduled to take place from 6pm to 10pm.

Those interested in being a part of the experience can book their slot in advance at a reduced rate. The discounted cost for the full night is BD99, while the half night is BD71.500, and a single session is BD33.

If booking on the evening itself, the cost is BD115.500 for the full night, BD82.500 for half the night, and BD44 for a single session.

Instructor sessions are also available, while additional drivers and passengers can participate, all for an additional fee.

In every Open Track activity, driver etiquette is of ultimate importance, and there is no close or aggressive overtaking permitted. Overtaking is by invitation between corners and driving is monitored, with poor or dangerous driving being dealt with swiftly.

For more information on Open Track Night or other events and activities at BIC, visit bahraingp.com, call the BIC Hotline on +973-17450000, or follow the circuit’s official social media channels.
