

Bahrain and Egypt Enhance Bilateral Ties

Minister of Transportation and Telecommunications, H.E. Dr. Shaikh Abdullah bin Ahmed Al Khalifa, received the Egyptian Ambassador to Bahrain, H.E. Reham Abdel Hamid Mahmoud Khalil, to discuss strengthening bilateral cooperation. During the meeting, the Minister highlighted the deep-rooted historical and fraternal relations between the two nations. He praised the steady growth of their partnership, specifically noting significant progress within the transportation and telecommunications sectors. Both officials emphasized a shared commitment to expanding these ties to serve mutual interests. Ambassador Reham Khalil expressed her pride in the flourishing Bahraini-Egyptian relations.

Bahrain and Morocco Strengthen Parliamentary Cooperation

Shura Council Chairman, H.E. Ali bin Saleh Al Saleh, received the Chairman of the Moroccan House of Councillors, H.E. Mohamed Ould Rachid, on Monday evening. The official visit aims to bolster the historical and fraternal ties between the two kingdoms. Al Saleh welcomed the delegation, noting that the strong bilateral relationship continues to flourish under the leadership of His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa and His Majesty King Mohammed VI. He emphasized that such visits reflect the solidity of the bonds uniting the two nations. In response, Mohamed Ould Rachid expressed his appreciation for the invitation and his commitment to advancing parliamentary relations. He highlighted the importance of exploring new avenues for legislative cooperation to serve mutual interests. The reception included senior Shura Council officials and the Moroccan Ambassador to Bahrain.

Indian Embassy in Bahrain Celebrates World Hindi Day

The Embassy of India in Bahrain celebrated World Hindi Day with a vibrant event chaired by Acting Ambassador Mr. Rajiv Kumar Mishra. The function was attended by teachers, embassy officials, and members of the Indian community. In his keynote address delivered in Hindi, Mr. Mishra emphasized the language's global importance and its role in preserving cultural identity among the diaspora. The event also featured the prize distribution for the Inter-School Hindi Competition, recognizing the linguistic talents of young students. Highlighting the celebration, students from various Indian schools delivered impressive presentations, including poetry recitations, storytelling, role-plays, and musical performances.

Al Noor Charity Hosts Desert Trip for Orphans

Al Noor Charity Association organized a recreational desert camp excursion for its sponsored orphans, aimed at enhancing their psychological and social well-being. The program was carefully designed to balance entertainment with guidance, featuring interactive workshops, artistic activities, and educational competitions. The day began with a warm reception and breakfast, followed by organized games and religious segments that encouraged values of cooperation and belonging. Hanan Saif, Head of the Media and Public Relations Committee, stated that the initiative fulfills the association's vision of prioritizing orphans' emotional growth. She credited the event's success to the collaborative efforts of the Orphans Committee, led by Rehab Hamza, and the direct support of Sheikha Lamia bint Mohammed bin Khalifa Al Khalifa, President of the Association.

Chiranjeevi's Film Premiere Sparks "Mega Frenzy" in Bahrain

The global release of Megastar Chiranjeevi's latest family entertainer, Mana Shankara Vara Prasad Garu, triggered massive celebrations across Bahrain. Organized by Team JanaSena GulfSena, the grand premieres turned the Sankranthi season release into a vibrant cultural festival for the Indian expatriate community. Coordinated by prominent members including Srinivasa Rao Doddipati, Hemanth, and Nageswara Rao Gedala, the screenings drew a significant turnout of film enthusiasts and supporters. The enthusiastic response reaffirmed Chiranjeevi's enduring influence in Indian cinema. Beyond the silver screen, the gathering served as a vital platform for JanaSena supporters abroad to celebrate their shared heritage and camaraderie.

Bahrain Celebrates P. Bhaskaran's Birth Centenary

The expatriate community in Bahrain honored the legendary Malayalam poet, lyricist, and filmmaker P. Bhaskaran Master with a grand birth centenary celebration. The musical evening, titled 'Okkukka Vallappozhumi', was organized by the cultural forum 'Bhoomika' in association with the Bahrain Kerala Samajam. Renowned playback singer and author V.T. Murali was the chief guest. Under the theme 'A Century Scented with Flowers,' Murali and local artists performed Bhaskaran Master's immortal classics, reviving the golden era of Malayalam film music. The program also highlighted Master's collaborations with various iconic music directors. Presided over by P.V. Radhakrishna Pillai, the event saw a special appearance by world-renowned magician Gopinath Muthukad. V.T. Murali was formally honored during the ceremony. Hundreds of families attended the Diamond Jubilee Hall to witness the tribute. E.A. Salim welcomed the gathering, while S.V. Basheer and Varghese Karakkal offered felicitations. Rajitha T.K. delivered the vote of thanks.