Muharraq meet Qatar SC tonight

Arab Volleyball Championship reaches knockout stage

Bahraini volleyball champions Muharraq Club are back in action tonight in the knockout stage of the 44th Arab Clubs Volleyball Championship after a rest day yesterday. The Red Wolves take on Qatar SC, one of two Qatari teams in the tournament, at 7 PM in El Menzah Sports Palace, with a place in the next round at stake.

Yaseen Al Meel's men booked their spot with a balanced group-stage campaign in Group B, finishing third in the group. They began with a 3-0 win over Oman's Majees SC, then endured 3-1 losses to Libya's Al Ittihad and hosts Tunisia's Etoile Sportive du Sahel.

The team recovered strongly, securing 3-0 victories against Qatar's Police Club and the Palestinian Forces Club, enough to advance to the knockout stage.

Qatar SC, meanwhile, emerged from Group A in a solid form of their own. Their preliminaries included a 3-2 win over Oman's Al Seeb, a 3-0 victory against Libya's Al So-waihili, a 3-2 loss to Tunisia's Esperance Sportive de Tunis, and a 3-0 win over Algeria's Tadjenanet. Their tournament run makes them a stern challenge for the local champions tonight.

Adding to Muharraq's optimism is the return of Nasser Anan, who has recovered from injury and is expected to start. Captain Mahmoud Al Afia will lead the squad, aiming to turn the team's group-stage resilience into success in this high-stakes encounter.

The Red Wolves will be hoping to surpass the ninth-place finish achieved by fellow Bahraini side Dar Kulaib in last year's edition in Doha, as they aim to cement their status at the pinnacle of Arab club volleyball.

Asian Handball stage awaits Bahrain's warriors

Hussain Almaskati
TDT | Manama

Bahrain's national handball team is set to begin its campaign in the 22nd Asian Men's Handball Championship in Kuwait City this weekend, with head coach Robert Hedin and assistant coach Amin Al Qallafl confirming the team's readiness both technically and physically. The continental tournament also serves as the Asian qualifier for the 2027 IHF Men's World Championship in Germany, adding extra significance to every match.

Reflecting on the team's preparations, Al Qallafl highlighted the challenges faced in the lead-up to the tournament: "The biggest challenges were managing player rotation, keeping everyone injury-free, and reaching the championship in peak physical condition. Thankfully, we believe we've succeeded in this regard." He added that the squad blends experienced players with promising young talent, even if some of the younger players have limited exposure at the Asian level.

Earlier this week, as part of their preparations, the team played two tough friendly matches against Portugal, ranked fourth in the world. They then competed in the 52nd Yellow Cup in Switzerland, finishing fourth overall and gaining valuable international experience ahead of the Asian Championship.

Drawing on years of Asian success, the "Warriors" enter the tournament with a proud history in Asian handball.

The Kingdom's team has finished as runners-up five times (2010, 2014, 2016, 2018, 2022) and recently claimed gold at the sixth Islamic Solidarity Games in Riyadh last November. Al Qallafl emphasized the team's cautious optimism heading into the championship: "We enter the championship with cautious optimism, focusing on taking each step carefully, relying on solid preparation, and trusting in God to achieve positive results."

Bahrain will face a challenging group stage in Group B, competing against Jordan, China, and Iraq. Their campaign opens against Jordan on Friday, January 16, followed by a match with China on Sunday, January 18, and concludes the preliminary round against Iraq on Tuesday, January 20. Every match will be crucial as the team aims to secure a strong position for the next stage.

The squad is led by captain Hussain Al Sayyad and also includes the likes of: Hassan Al Samaheji, Mohammed Abdulkhassan, Mohammed Habib Ahmed, Mohammed Habib Nasser, Hussain Mahfoodh, Jaffar Abdulshaheed, Mohammed Hameed, Hesham Ahmed, Salman Al Shawaikh, Qassim Qamber, Ahmed Redha, Sayed Ali Bassem, Hassan Madan, Ahmed Almaqabi, Ali Mahmood, Jassim Khamis, Ali Redha, and Ali Alasheeri.

These players will be looking to carry Bahrain's proud Asian pedigree into the tournament as they depart for Kuwait today, ready to take on the continent's best.

Try to be Mourinho and I'll fail: new Real Madrid coach Arbeloa

AFP | Madrid

New Real Madrid coach Alvaro Arbeloa insisted Tuesday he would be himself at the helm of the Spanish giants rather than trying to imitate Jose Mourinho.

Arbeloa, who in his playing days at Madrid was an ally of his then coach Mourinho, has drawn comparisons to the Portuguese veteran for his approach to management.

The 42-year-old former defender was appointed to replace Xabi Alonso on Monday after Real Madrid lost the Spanish Super Cup final against rivals Barcelona on Sunday.

"I have not spoken to Jose yet. For me it was a privilege and an honour to be coached by Jose Mourinho," Arbeloa told a news conference.

"I have a great relationship with him... and obviously he was someone who influenced me a lot, I carry him within me.

"(However) I am going to be

Alvaro Arbeloa, because while it's true I am not afraid of failing, and have never been, I'm sure that if I tried to be Jose Mourinho, I would fail spectacularly."

Mourinho, currently coaching Benfica, led Real Madrid between 2010 and 2013, winning one La Liga title.

During that era he battled against Pep Guardiola's dominant Barcelona when the fierce rivalry between the Catalans and Real Madrid was at its most bitter.

Barca currently lead Madrid by four points at the top of La Liga and Arbeloa's job is to revert the situation, although his first match in charge is at Albacete in the Copa del Rey last 16 on Wednesday.

Arbeloa, who was coaching Madrid's reserve side and previously working with the club's youth teams before he was promoted, said success is the most important thing for the record 15-time European champions.

"This club is winning, winning, and winning again. That demand on ourselves, showing the DNA of what brought us here, that has filled our trophy cabinets (is what I want)," continued Arbeloa.

"When I was a player I received those values from the players in the dressing room, and for me that is the most important thing... to be able to excite the fans we have all over the world and try to leave those cabinets even more full."

"That is my work, that is my obsession and what I will be living every day."

Madrid did not announce how long Arbeloa's contract as first-team coach would be.

"What I can tell you is that I've been here for 20 years, at home, and I will be at Real Madrid as long as they want me here," added Arbeloa.

"This is my home, that's how I feel and that's how it will always be."
