US sets up new Mideast naval task force

Vice Admiral Brad Cooper

Reuters | Dubai

The US Navy said yesterday it was establishing a new multinational task force that would target arms smuggling in the waters around Yemen, the latest American military response to Houthi attacks on Saudi Arabia and the UAE.

The effort follows a series of Houthi missile and drone attacks this year on the two Gulf countries, which have since received additional American military assistance but see the United States as weakening its commitment to the region.

US Fifth Fleet Commander Vice Admiral Brad Cooper said the task force would, from Sunday, operate in the Red Sea, Bab al-Mandab and Gulf of Aden and would also target human trafficking and the smuggling of drugs and other illicit goods.

HM the King welcomed the audience during this blessed month of mercy and forgiveness, wishing the Kingdom of Bahrain and its loyal people many happy returns.

The well-wishers greeted HM the King and congratulated him on the Holy Month, wishing him good health and happiness and Bahrain and its loyal people further progress and prosperity under his wise leadership.

Cooperation and friendship

Bahrain's message to the world: 'Dialogue and coexistence'

TDT | Manama

Bahrain is keen to build bridges of cooperation and friendship with its regional and international partners, Foreign Affairs Minister Dr Abdullatif bin Rashid Al Zayani said.

Spreading the values of peace, dialogue and coexistence among all cultures, civilisations, races and religions is its message to the world as part of His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa's diplomatic vision, he added.

Dr Al Zayani was speaking during the Ramadan Ghabga organised by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs last night.

Present were senior officials, in honour of the ambassadors and heads of diplomatic missions accredited to the Kingdom, led by the Ambassador of Jordan to Bahrain, Rami Saleh Wreikat Al Adwan.

Dr Al Zayani expressed Bahrain's pride in the leadership of HM the King and the government headed by His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister.

He voiced the Kingdom's appreciation for the efforts of the ambassadors in strengthening the close and growing friendly relations of cooperation and partnership between Bahrain and other countries.

The minister also stressed

Bahrain's constant keenness to provide the necessary capabilities and facilities to enable the diplomatic missions to perform their duties in a manner that serves the interests of citizens and residents and contributes to strengthening the bonds of friendship and cooperation between countries.

13,558 licensed nurses ‘employed’ in Kingdom

National Health Regulatory Authority releases annual report highlighting increased efforts to combat Covid-19

Staff Reporter
TDT | Manama

The Kingdom has already licensed 25,000 health professionals including 13,558 nurses in its attempt to provide the best of healthcare services, according to a top health regulatory official.

National Health Regulatory Authority Chief Executive Officer Dr Mariam Al Jalahma said the Kingdom's health sector also licensed 4,727 doctors, 1,145 dentists, 1,702 pharmacists along with 3,944 health professionals specialised in various areas.

This information was revealed as the authority launched its annual report. She hailed the services of these licensed professionals in the fight against Covid-19.

The official confirmed that the authority has been consistently supervising and regulating the health sector in line with the government's goal of providing safe health services through public and private sectors.

She said the authority contributed towards the national efforts to contain the spread of virus while ensuring that the supply of vaccines and medicines remained intact.

Dr Mariam expressed thanks and appreciation to His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa and His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister, for the unlimited support towards the health sector.

She said the authority was

More nursing professionals were licensed during the pandemic period quick to approve seven vaccines against Covid-19 with Bahrain becoming the first country in the world to approve all seven vaccines instantly.

The authority also successfully implemented the setting up of two special isolation facilities for positive cases and 77 facilities for suspected cases along with 42 PCR laboratories.

“It supervised all inspection campaigns to ensure the implementation of health precautions issued by national teams to confront the virus.”

The CEO explained that the authority launched a new electronic licensing service to speed up the licensing process.

The Health Professions Regulatory Division completed 3,478 new licensing applications, 10,783 renewals while a total of 1,889 specialists took the licensing exam, with an overall success rate of 69 per cent.

The CEO indicated that the authority supported the health system by licensing health care facilities and pharmacies.

By the end of 2021, the Health Institutions Regulation Department had authorised a total of 118 new applications to open health care facilities in various specialties, ranging from hospitals to health centers, and had issued 80 licenses for new health care facilities.

The department succeeded in licensing 28 governmental primary health care centers and renewing the licenses of 689 health facilities.

The Pharmaceutical Regulatory Division licensed a total of 78 new pharmacies in 2021, of which eight were opened within healthcare facilities and 70 independent ones.

According to Dr Mariam, this is an increase of 16 per cent compared to the number of licensed pharmacies in the year 2020.

As of now, the total number of licensed pharmacies in the Kingdom stands at 396, of which 317 operate as independent public pharmacies and 79 operate within healthcare facilities.

Twenty licence applications for alternative medical facilities were approved by the authority.

The number of health professionals licensed in various fields of alternative medicine reached 95.

Dr Mariam highlighted the cooperation with the Indian Embassy in organising licensing exams for alternative medicine specialists.

Owing to increased interest in investing in the growing healthcare industry in the Kingdom, Dr Mariam explained that the authority, through the Investors Office of the National Human Resources Regulatory Authority, was keen to provide guidance and assistance to investors in addition to providing advice and facilitating procedures.

The office received 31 inquiries about various healthcare investments from the GCC, Europe and Asia markets. “Ten per cent of inquiries were about opening hospitals, 58pc about opening medical centers, and 32pc about pharmaceutical and medical device companies.

“The office is closely linked with the Economic Development Board, the Labour Market Regulatory Authority and the Labour Fund (Tamkeen) to provide support to new investors.”

BTEA organises Gergaon Event and fashion show

TDT | Manama

The Bahrain Tourism and Exhibitions Authority (BTEA) will organise today the Gergaon Event, as well as a traditional fashion show showcasing Bahraini gold with distinctive heritage designs.

These are part of the busy programme of events organised by BTEA coinciding with Ramadan, which contributes to enhancing the tourism and commercial movement witnessed in this holy month.

The Gergaon Event will be held at Bab Al Bahrain Mall today and tomorrow from 9pm to 11pm, which includes Henna, Traditional Cooking, Traditional Band and Kids Storytelling.

The next day, April 16, the authority organises a fashion show, sponsored by Al Zain Jewelers and Mohamed Saleh Al Zari, at 9:15pm also at Bab Al Bahrain Mall.

COURT STORIES

Two brothers jailed for stealing doctor's wallet

TDT | Manama

The High Criminal Court sentenced two brothers to three years in jail each for stealing a doctor's wallet.

The first defendant, 40, is said to have gone to a hospital because he felt sick and was asked to undertake several tests. He was with his 35-year-old brother.

When they arrived inside the laboratory, they saw a handbag with a wallet inside. They opened the bag and took the wallet before fleeing.

“When I got to work, I left my bag in the laboratory and went to a meeting. I returned after one hour and 45 minutes only to find out that my wallet was missing. There was BD25, a driver's license, my ID card, and several ATM cards,” the victim told prosecutors.

The two were identified through the hospital's CCTV cameras. They also attempted to withdraw money using the stolen ATM cards but were unable to do so as they didn't know the pin code.

Suspended jail term for man convicted of ‘forgery’

Defendant falsified vaccination certificate

TDT | Manama

A man accused of falsifying a vaccination certificate was sentenced to one year in jail, which would be postponed for three years if he does not commit another similar offence.

The defendant is accused of forging the vaccination certificate in order to enter the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.

He allegedly changed the type of vaccination he received to align it with the Saudi rules to be allowed to enter.

The defendant was arrested and jailed by Saudi authorities, who informed their Bahraini counterparts about the incident.

“I decided to travel to Saudi Arabia and took a vaccination that wasn't valid there. I forged the vaccination certificate,” the defendant said during questioning.

During his final hearing, the defendant begged for compassion, noting the coming of Ramadan and claiming to be the breadwinner for his mother and two other family members. His lawyer submitted a closing argument, demanding that his client be acquitted.

Police officers' community service role emphasised

Staff Reporter
TDT | Manama

A leading police official within the Interior Ministry has emphasised the increasing role of police officers working under the community service umbrella.

The Director of Community Policing, Colonel Abdulla Rashed Burashed Alaznzi said the idea of establishing a community police was in line with the concept of true citizenship as envisaged by the reform project of His Majesty King Hamad.

"The police system in the Kingdom is a role model and a source of pride at the global level and in line with the basic pillars of the National Action Charter and within the great humanitarian values and principles.

"The relationship between the police and the individual is not limited to fighting crime within its traditional role known as inference, arrest and inspection, but it is a pivotal relationship necessary to build confidence in the law enforcement authority and to face challenges and risks at all levels through close co-operation to prevent crime and avoid crises."

The scope of community policing encompasses the knowledge of people's requirements, protecting families from disintegration, combating wrong behaviours, proper traffic management, tightening control over

Philippine Embassy issues Holy Week advisory

TDT | Manama

The Philippine Embassy in Mahooz will be closed today until 17 April in observance of Maundy Thursday and Easter Sunday.

However, it will be open to conduct overseas voting for the Philippine national elections, including the weekends.

The Embassy resumes its regular operations on 18 April.

The month-long overseas

voting procedure started on 10 April, ahead of the actual May 9 national elections back home.

The Embassy invites all Filipino registered overseas voters to exercise their right of suffrage. It is open for voting everyday, including weekends and holidays, from 8am to 4pm until 9 May, 8am to 2pm.

Filipinos at home and around the world will select the successor of current President Rodrigo Duterte, as well as the next vice-president. Those abroad are given one month to cast their votes.

Nine candidates will contest this year's presidential elections, with Ferdinand Marcos Jr., the son and namesake of the late Philippine dictator, being a favourite to win. Trailing him in pre-election surveys is Vice President Leni Robredo and Manila Mayor Isko Moreno.

Bahrain's Q1 economic growth "impressive"

Ministry of Finance releases performance of quarterly economic indicators

● Most of the indicators performed better than pre-pandemic 2019 benchmarks

● Positive economic signs had arisen following the launch of the Economic Recovery Plan, as well as following several initiatives and strategies to develop the economy and create quality job opportunities for citizens.

TDI | Manama

The Ministry of Finance and National Economy yesterday released a summary of the performance of quarterly economic indicators, according to which "most of the indicators performed better than pre-pandemic 2019 benchmarks."

The report said positive economic signs had arisen following the launch of the Economic Recovery Plan, as well as following several initiatives and strategies to develop the economy and create quality job opportunities for citizens.

"Impressive economic growth was achieved during the first quarter of 2022," the ministry said.

In the tourism and hospitality sector, the average hotel occupancy rate in 4 and 5-stars hotels increased by 55%, and the number of mall visitors increased by 26.9%.

In the commercial sector, the new commercial licences grew by 35.4%, and the value of sales for Bahrain ATM cards rose by 4.2%. In international trade, the total value of exports reached 64.7%.

In the financial services sector, Bahrain achieved remarkable growth in February. Fawri+ transactions grew by 55.1%, and Fawri transactions increased by 22.1%. Similarly, total non-bank deposits grew by 12.7%, and the Bahrain Bourse index witnessed a 33.3% increase.

In the real estate sector, transactions registered with the Survey and Land Registration Bureau increased by 19.6%, while the number of building permits increased by 15.8%. Additionally, total fuel sales increased by 12.2%.

Adeeb Ahamed of LuLu Financial Holdings nominated to Emirates board for overseas investors

Adeeb Ahamed, Managing Director of Abu Dhabi based LuLu Financial Holdings

TDI | Abu Dhabi

As part of its efforts to bring a new perspective to its economic vision for the UAE, the UAE International Investors Council (IIC) has announced the nomination of Adeeb Ahamed, Managing Director of Abu Dhabi based LuLu Financial Holdings (LFH), as an Independent Member of the Emirates Board of Directors for Overseas Investors.

Founded in 2009, the IIC comes under the ambit of the Ministry of Economy, with Abdullah Bin Touq Al Marri, UAE Minister of Economy, as its Chairman. The Council was formed with a vision to act as a link between UAE international investors and the government to enhance the competitiveness of UAE international investments and overcome all types of challenges.

Speaking about his nomination, Ahamed said, "I am honoured to be chosen to play a key role in the UAE's economic development. The UAE has shown amazing resilience and innovative governance during the time of the pandemic and new perspectives will help to reinforce the country's foreign investment outlook. As a proud resident of the UAE, it is my privilege to contribute to the development of this nation, and I look forward to working with fellow members of the IIC."

Ahamed, who also helms the hospitality investment company Twenty14 Holdings, brings to his appointment considerable global and regional advisory experience. He is a member of the Advisory Boards of the Al Maryah Community Bank UAE, the Regional Strategy Group of the World Economic Forum and the World Tourism Forum, Lucerne.

His financial services company operates a network of over 245 physical branches across 11 countries, including 83 branches of LuLu Exchange in the UAE and the digital payments product LuLu Money.

WhatsApp wins approval to expand Indian payments service to 100 million users

Reuters | New Delhi

Meta Platforms Inc's (FB.O) WhatsApp has won regulatory approval to more double the number of users of its payments service in India to 100 million, two sources familiar with the matter told Reuters yesterday.

WhatsApp has over the years told National Payments Corporation of India (NPCI) that there should be no cap on users of its payments service in India. Instead, the NPCI said it can increase the number of users to 100 m from 40 m currently, the sources said.

BisB partners with INJAZ Bahrain for "World of Innovation"

TDI | Manama

Three executives from Bahrain Islamic Bank (BisB) recently participated as judges in a virtual Innovation Camp Tournament entitled "World of Innovation" organised by INJAZ Bahrain under the slogan "Discovering the Spirit of Leadership".

The tournament aimed to find innovative solutions to real-life challenges in the business world by utilizing innovation, creative thinking and teamwork, which tested the leadership, critical thinking, and presentation skills of the participating students, where they learned how to start a business in an inspiring environment.

From the 6th of March to the 10th of March, the workshop tested the students' skills, challenging them to come up with innovative ideas for an assigned problem in less than two hours. The participants were given two minutes to pitch their ideas to the judging panel, wherein one team was selected every day and qualified to compete amongst the finalists on the last day of the workshop.

During the first phase of the workshop, Jawad Abdulhadi Humaidan, Acting Head of Corporate Banking at BisB, and Ahmad Fakhro, Marketing Manager at BisB, participated in the judging panel which evaluated the ability of the participating students to either digitize a traditional product or service or upgrade an existing digital product or service through the use of technology.

The team from Al Taawon Secondary Boys School were selected as the winners of the challenge. For the other stage of the workshop, Dalal Al Rayes, Head of Human Resources at BisB, joined the judging panel, which challenged female students to develop an action plan for an idea or service that would contribute to simplifying the lives of women in the workforce. The winning team selected was Al Muharraq Secondary Girls School for their idea 'Musaned'.

Afnan Saleh, Chief of Human Resources at BisB, said, "We are proud to partner with INJAZ Bahrain in favour of the bank's initiatives as part of our CSR program, Jood, which focuses on innovation through education, and equipping students with the right skillset and innovative mindset to qualify them to enter the workforce and become future leaders."

Hana Sarwani, Executive Director at INJAZ Bahrain commented, "The Innovation Camp targeting all public secondary school students, saw the participation of approximately 220 students, which reflects on how keen Bahrain's youth is to join the Kingdom's ever-growing and thriving financial sector."

News in brief

◆ A German court yesterday sentenced a Russian researcher to a one-year suspended prison sentence for spying on Europe’s Ariane space launcher project. The man, identified by the court only as Ilmur N., handed over information on research projects, including the Ariane Next launcher, to a handler from Russia’s Foreign Intelligence Service (SVR) on several occasions between 2019 and 2021, according to the court verdict. N. had worked as a research associate at the University of Augsburg, a centre for aerospace research, when the SVR handler approached him. Augsburg is also home to large parts of the manufacturing for the next-generation Ariane 6 launch vehicle. ◆ Italy reported 62,037 COVID-19 related cases yesterday, against 83,643 the day before, the health ministry said, while the number of deaths fell to 155 from 169. Italy has registered 161,187 deaths linked to COVID-19 since its outbreak emerged in February 2020, the second-highest toll in Europe after Britain and the eighth highest in the world. The country has reported 15.5 million cases to date. Patients in hospital with COVID-19 - not including those in intensive care - stood at 10,166 on Wednesday, down from 10,207 a day earlier. There were 42 new admissions to intensive care units, down from 53 on Tuesday. The total number of intensive care patients fell to 449 from a previous 463.

More than 1,000 Ukrainian marines have surrendered in the port of Mariupol, Russia’s defence ministry said yesterday, signalling that it had moved closer to capturing the ruined city, its main strategic target in eastern Ukraine.

Mariupol would be the first major city to fall since Russia invaded Ukraine on Feb. 24.

Russia’s defence ministry said 162 officers were among the marines who had surrendered to Russian and pro-Russian separatist forces.

“In the town of Mariupol, near the Ilyich Iron and Steel Works, as a result of successful offensives by Russian armed forces and Donetsk People’s Republic militia units, 1,026 Ukrainian soldiers of the 36th Marine Brigade voluntarily laid down arms and surrendered,” the ministry said in a statement.

Russia says US, NATO weapon transports in Ukraine are legitimate targets

Russia will view US and NATO vehicles transporting weapons on Ukrainian territory as legitimate military targets, Deputy Foreign Minister Sergei Ryabkov told the TASS news agency in an interview on Wednesday.

Any attempts by the West to inflict significant damage on Russia’s military or its separatist allies in Ukraine will be “harshly suppressed,” he added.

attacks on Azovstal and the port, but a defence ministry spokesman said he had no information about any surrender.

Reuters journalists accompanying Russian-backed separatists saw flames billowing from the Azovstal area on Tuesday.

On Monday, Ukraine’s 36th Marine Brigade said it was preparing for a final battle in Mariupol that would end in death or capture as its troops had run out of ammunition.

Tens of thousands of people are believed to have been killed in Mariupol and Russia has been massing thousands of troops in the area for a new assault, Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy said.

“We have destroyed more Russian weapons and military equipment than some armies in Europe currently possess. But this is not enough,” he said in a social media video, reiterating calls for tanks, fighter jets, and missile systems.

CHEMICAL WEAPONS WARNING

Chechen leader Ramzan Kadyrov, an ardent supporter of Russian President Vladimir Putin, urged remaining Ukrainians holed up in Azovstal to surrender.

“Within Azovstal at the moment there are about 200 wounded who cannot receive any medical assistance,” Kadyrov said in a sidered by us as legal military targets,” TASS quoted Ryabkov as saying.

“We are making the Americans and other Westerners understand that attempts to slow down our special operation, to inflict maximum damage on Russian contingents and formations of the DPR and LPR (Donetsk and Luhansk People’s republics) will be harshly suppressed,” he said.

Ukraine official denies Zelenskiy rejected visit offer from Germany’s Steinmeier

Reuters

An adviser to Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy’s chief of staff, Serhiy Leshchenko, denied in an interview with CNN that Zelenskyy had rejected a visit offer from German President Frank-Walter Steinmeier, as reported by the Bild newspaper.

Steinmeier said on Tuesday that he had planned to visit Kyiv with his Polish counterpart and the presidents of Estonia, Lithuania and Latvia “to send a strong signal of European solidarity with Ukraine ... (but) that was not wanted in Kyiv”.

Bild reported that Zelenskyy had rejected Steinmeier’s plans

Russian television showed pictures of what it said were marines giving themselves up at Illich Iron and Steel Works in Mariupol on Tuesday, many of them wounded.

Ukrainian Deputy Defence Minister Hanna Malyar has said

there was a high risk of Russia using chemical weapons in their assault on the country, echoing earlier warnings by Zelenskyy that Russia was using phosphorus bombs to terrorise civilians.

He did not provide evidence and Reuters has not been able to independently verify his assertion.

Mariupol, home to more than 400,000 people before the war, is the biggest Ukrainian city on the Sea of Azov and the main port serving the industries and agriculture of eastern Ukraine. It is also the site of some of Ukraine’s biggest metals plants.

Yellen urges China to help stop Russia's war in Ukraine, or lose standing in the world

Reuters | Washington

US Treasury Secretary Janet Yellen yesterday appealed to China and other countries to help end Russia's "heinous war" in Ukraine.

Speaking at the Atlantic Council in Washington, Yellen said she "fervently" hoped that China would make something positive out of its "special relationship" with Russia and said Beijing's standing in the world would suffer if it fails to do so.

China cannot expect the global community to respect any future appeals on sovereignty and territorial integrity if it fails to respect these principles in Ukraine "now when it counts," she said.

"The world's attitude towards China and its willingness to embrace further economic integration may well be affected by China's reaction to our call for resolute action on Russia," Yellen said.

Yellen said the war between Russia and Ukraine had redrawn the world economic outlook and the Biden administration was resolute in its commitment to hold Russia accountable for its "horrific conduct" and its violations of international law.

FOUR PRESIDENTS IN KYIV

The presidents of Poland, Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia arrived in Kyiv to meet Zelenskyy, the Polish leader's office said, joining a growing number of European politicians to visit since Russian forces were driven away from the country's north.

US President Joe Biden said for the first time that Moscow's invasion of Ukraine amounted to genocide, a term denounced by Kremlin spokesman Dmitry Peskov.

"This is hardly acceptable from a president of the United States, a country that has committed well-known crimes in recent times," Peskov told reporters.

Russia has denied targeting civilians and has said Ukrainian and Western allegations of war crimes are fabricated.

Interfax Ukraine news agency quoted the Kyiv district police chief saying 720 bodies had been found in the region around the capital, with more than 200 people missing.

Suspect named in New York subway shooting as manhunt enters day two

● At least 23 injured in Tuesday subway shooting incident

● Police say 'person of interest' is now a suspect

● Violence poses challenge for Mayor Eric Adams

Reuters | New York

Police searching for the gunman who set off smoke bombs and shot 10 passengers in a New York City subway car said yesterday that a man named as a "person of interest" was now considered a suspect -- and the mayor vowed he would be brought to justice. The attack occurred during Tuesday's morning commuter rush as a Manhattan-bound train pulled into an underground station in Brooklyn's Sunset Park neighborhood. In addition to the 10 people hit by gunfire, 13 others were injured amid a panicked crush for the smoke-filled train's exit.

It was the latest burst of violence that has plagued the United States' largest city transit system and posed a major challenge for Mayor Eric Adams, who has sought to halt declining

Frank James, a person of interest in the shooting that took place on the N train in Brooklyn, New York ridership during the COVID-19 pandemic.

The New York Police Department had initially identified Frank James, who it said had left keys to a rented U-Haul van at the crime scene, as a "person of interest." On Wednesday, the NYPD said James was now a suspect in the mass shooting.

Asked if James acted alone, Adams told Fox News that a preliminary investigation did not turn up an additional person.

"The NYPD, federal agencies and state agencies are all collaborating together," the mayor said. "I have confidence that we're going to bring this suspect to justice and we want to make sure that we do it as expeditiously as possible," Adams said.

Authorities say James rented the van in Philadelphia and parked it on a Brooklyn street near the 36th Street station where the incident unfolded. Police have offered rewards totaling $50,000 for information leading to his arrest.

Attempts by Reuters to reach any of the phone numbers associated with James were unsuccessful.

Five of the people shot Tuesday were in critical but stable condition. All of the victims were expected to survive.

NYPD Commissioner Keechant Sewell said on Tuesday the shooting was not immediately being treated as an act of terrorism. With the gunman still at large, New Yorkers commuting to work on Wednesday morning said the violence would not deter them.

"You can't let one person alter your life, gotta keep on, keep on going," Michael Torres, a FedEx worker, told local news website Gothamist as he boarded a train at the 36th Street station.

There was no known motive for the attack, but investigators found a number of social media posts linked to an individual named Frank James that mentioned homelessness and Mayor Adams, Sewell said.

The attack began in the train car as it was about to enter the station, she added. The gunman removed two canisters from his bag and opened them, sending smoke throughout the carriage.

Police said the man then fired 33 rounds from a Glock 9 mm semi-automatic handgun, which was later recovered along with three extended-ammunition magazines, a hatchet, some consumer-grade fireworks and a container of gasoline. He then fled the scene.

The gun apparently jammed in the middle of the shooting, potentially preventing a higher casualty toll, CNN and local media outlets reported, citing law enforcement sources.

New York has seen a sharp rise in violent crime during the pandemic, including a string of seemingly random attacks on the subway.

Russia 'using weapons smuggled by Iran from Iraq against Ukraine': the Guardian

(The headline of a report published by the Guardian on "Iran 'smuggling' weapons from Iraq to Russia" was erroneously used on Page 1 with a different story in the Tribune edition on the 13th of April 2022. Tribune regrets the error. The correct article is as printed below.)

The Guardian

Russia is receiving munitions and military hardware sourced from Iraq for its war effort in Ukraine with the help of Iranian weapons smuggling networks, according to members of Iranian-backed Iraqi militias and regional intelligence services with knowledge of the process.

RPGs and anti-tank missiles, as well as Brazilian-designed rocket launcher systems, have been dispatched to Russia from Iraq as Moscow's campaign has faltered in the last month, the Guardian has learned.

An Iranian-made Bavar 373 missile system, similar to the Russian S-300, has also been donated to Moscow by the authorities in Tehran, who also returned an S-300, according to a source who helped organise the transport.

Using the weapons-trafficking underworld would signal a dramatic shift in Russian strategy, as Moscow is forced to lean on Iran, its military ally in Syria, following new sanctions triggered by the invasion of Ukraine.

The developments also have huge implications for the direction and volume of trade in the international weapons trafficking business.

Iraq has hosted US and western troops since the 2003 overthrow of Saddam Hussein, and the US has trained and supplied various Iraqi army and special forces units to defend the Baghdad government against insurgencies. After two decades of war, the country is awash with weaponry.

Much of it has passed legally into the hands of Iran-backed Shia militias, which are opposed to the US presence in the country, but since 2016 have been officially incorporated into the Iraqi armed forces as part of the fight against Islamic State.

Known for their efficiency in dismantling Islamic State's "caliphate" -- and for their brutal treatment of Sunni civilians -- these groups have become powerful actors in Iraq's security establishment.

RPGs (rocket-propelled grenades) and anti-tank missiles in the possession of Hashd al-Shaabi, the most powerful Shia militia umbrella, were transported to Iran through the Salamja border crossing on 26 March, where they were received by the Iranian military and taken on to Russia by sea, said a commander of the militia branch that controls the crossing.

Hashd al-Shaabi also dismantled and sent in pieces two Brazilian-designed Astros II rocket launcher systems, known in Iraq as the licence-built version Sajil-60, to Iran on 1 April, according to a source within the organisation.

"We don't care where the heavy weapons go [because we don't need them at the moment]," one Hashd al-Shaabi source said. "Whatever is anti-US makes us happy."

Three cargo ships capable of carrying such loads -- two Russian flagged and one Iranian flagged -- crossed the Caspian Sea from Iran's port of Bandar Anzali to Astrakhan, a Russian city on the Volga delta, within the timeframes outlined.

"What the Russians need in Ukraine right now is missiles. These require skill to transport as they're fragile and explosive, but if you are committed to doing it, it's possible," said Yörük Işık, an Istanbul-based maritime affairs expert. "It's also not the kind of activity that would be picked up by satellite imagery as they can be transported in large boxes and regular shipping containers."

BNET Hosts Ghabga for customers and partners

TDT | Manama

BNET (Bahrain Network) held a Ramadan Ghabga banquet at The Ritz Carlton Hotel and Spa on Tuesday, where it welcomed its business customers and strategic partners.

The event was attended by BNET’s Chief Executive Officer Ahmed Jaber Aldoseri, and a number of the company’s senior management, who welcomed senior executives from licensed telecommunications operators in the Kingdom, as well as representatives of BNET’s strategic partners and the media.

The event gave BNET customers, and strategic partners a valuable opportunity to network and meet with BNET management in a social and engaging atmosphere.

Commenting on the occasion, BNET Chief Executive Aldoseri said, “This event was held in honour of our customers the telecom companies, and our strategic partners, to whom we owe much of our success. We are delighted with the impressive turn out and are happy to receive feedback that everyone enjoyed their time.”

Chief Commercial Officer

Shaima Al Hamed commented, “As the company responsible for Bahrain’s national broadband network, the design, construction and operation of its Fiber infrastructure, BNET is always seeking to forge closer links with its business customers and such events provide the ideal setting.”

The Ghabga was a successful event with a fun and interactive atmosphere enjoyed by all attendees, who praised the initiative. The attendees expressed appreciation for BNET’s keenness to strengthen relations with its customers, the Kingdom’s licensed telecom operators, and all its strategic partners, stemming from its firm belief that the Kingdom’s vision for the telecommunications sector can only be achieved through joint efforts.

Shish Barak With Yoghurt

Ingredients

- Yoghurt
- Chicken stock
- Crushed clove
- Corn flour
- Chopped coriander

How To Make:

1. Pour in 6 cups of yoghurt in a large saucepan and add 1 cup chicken stock mixed with the corn flour. Stir the ingredients well until thoroughly mixed.
2. Place the pot on low heat until the yoghurt begins to boil.
3. Keep on stirring continuously in the same direction.
4. Add 2 cloves crushed garlic and 1/2 cup chopped coriander, leave the sauce to simmer while the saucepan is uncovered for 10 minutes.
5. Meanwhile, bake the shish barak in hot oven until they have become golden in color.
6. Gently add the shish barak to the yoghurt sauce and serve.

Abdulkarim, Sameer score high series

Abdulla Abdulkarim scores high series in Group A on day 18 of qualifying while Khalid Sameer tops all bowlers in Group B in Ramadan Funland bowling

- Abdulla Abdulkarim remains in second place on Group A rankings behind leader Emerson Gotencio
- Khalid Sameer climbs up to third on Group B standings behind top two Euly Salcedo, Ahmed Al Ansari

TDT | Manama

Abdulla Abdulkarim and Khalid Sameer posted the top scores on day 18 of qualifying in the Funland Ramadan Bowling Tournament 2022, currently being played at Funland Centre's lanes. Abdulkarim registered the high series of 725 pins amongst the competition's Group A participants, while Sameer enjoyed a trial of 710 pins to lead all bowlers in Group B. Competitors in the tournament are being divided into two groups, with Group A for advanced bowlers and Group B for beginners and ladies. Contestants from both groups in this first phase attempt trials as much as they need, with the total pinfalls including handicap for their best three trials being considered. Each trial is composed of three games. Qualifying action continues today and goes on until April 21. It is the first of the championship's five stages.

Despite being the day's high series, Abdulkarim's 725 score was not amongst his top three of the tournament thus far, and therefore it did not count towards his standing in Group A. The local talent remained on a 2,265 total for a 251.7 average in second place on the rankings, narrowly behind leader Emerson Gotencio from the Philippines who boasts a 2,283 total and a 253.7 average. Abdulrahman Al Kheliwi from Saudi Arabia stayed in third place with a 2,207 total and 245.2 average, while Ahmed Al Khaja was fourth on marks of 2,132 and 236.9. Bowlers ranked fourth through eighth, respectively, were Ahmed Al Goud (2,129, 236.6), Ahmed Fareed (2,119, 235.4), Ali Al Mass (2,118, 235.3) and Essa Taqi (2,099, 233.2). Meanwhile, Sameer's 710 outing was his best of the competition to date, and it added to his two other leading scores of 629

Overtaken by Sameer on the table and going down to fourth was Filipino bowler Ronald Ser-alvo (1,893, 210.3), while Isa Akbari (1,871, 207.9) was fifth and Dexter De Asis (1,846, 205.1), also from the Philippines, sixth. The top eight was rounded off by Sami Saloom (1,838, 204.2) and Waleed Daraj (1,799, 199.9). At the end of the qualifying round, bowlers ranked first and second from Groups A and B will advance directly to round three, while bowlers ranked third to 16th from each group will play in round two. The Funland Ramadan Bowling Tournament is being held in memory of the Late Murtadha Qudrat Rasti, the Late Shaikh Ebrahim bin Mohammed Al Khalifa, and the Late Shaikh Mohammed bin Abdul Rahman Al Khalifa. Nearly BD4,000 in prize money will be on offer to the top 16 finishers.

Ancelotti happy to suffer as Real Madrid battle to make last four

Reuters | Madrid

Real Madrid coach Carlo Ancelotti survived another breathtaking European night at the Bernabeu as his team saw off a stirring Chelsea fightback to book a place in the Champions League semi-finals despite a 3-2 defeat after extra time in the second leg. Their 5-4 aggregate win on Tuesday came five weeks after Real recovered from two goals behind in their tie against Paris St Germain to earn an epic 3-1 victory on the night as they knocked the visitors out 3-2 on aggregate in the last 16. "The more I suffer, the happier I am," Ancelotti told a news conference with a smile on Tuesday. "It was a lot of suffering, though. We were losing 2-0 (against Chelsea) but I believe we didn't deserve it, the team did well. We were not in a hurry to score, we didn't need it, but for me when they scored the second they didn't deserve it." Ancelotti praised his players for never giving up, even after going 3-0 behind with 15 minutes remaining before Rodrygo brought the tie level at 4-4 on

The players were brave and faced it like warriors", he said. "The match was difficult, we knew that, but it was more complicated. After their second goal, the team had a psychological downturn, but the magic of this stadium helps the players and the team a lot to never give up." Ancelotti said that he needed to cool down and evaluate the team yesterday to understand what really happened. He praised Chelsea's resilience under pressure and said his team suffered more than usual because they were missing their best set-piece defender Eder Militao, who was suspended as well as suffering from a knee injury at Stamford Bridge last week. "We have to be proud of what we did, we played a very tough round of 16 against PSG, now against the defending champions Chelsea in the quarter-finals to go through the semi-finals, so I can't be happier."

Chelsea's Tuchel disappointed referee was 'smiling and laughing' with Ancelotti

Reuters | Madrid

Chelsea manager Thomas Tuchel said he was disappointed to see referee Szymon Marciniak "smiling and laughing" with Real Madrid coach Carlo Ancelotti after the Premier League side went out of the Champions League quarter-finals 5-4 on aggregate on Tuesday. Tuchel told a news conference he was disappointed that Marciniak was having "a good time with Carlo" after the final whistle. "When I wanted to go and say thank you, he was smiling and laughing with the opponent's coach," Tuchel added. "I think this is the very wrong time to do this after the final whistle, 126 minutes of a team giving their heart. When you go and see a referee smiling and laughing with the other coach, it's bad timing. I told him this."

Tuchel was also unhappy that Marciniak had not checked the VAR monitor himself when Marcos Alonso's effort was disallowed for handball in the second half. "I didn't see the goal but I am super disappointed he didn't come out and check it on his own," Tuchel said. "You should stay the boss and not give the decisions to someone in a chair who is isolated." The German also said his side had left everything on the pitch in trying to turn the tie around. "We went to the full limit today. I'm very proud of my players and I think we deserved to qualify but luck was not on our side," Tuchel said.

Villarreal fuelled to Bayern win by Nagelsmann remark, says Moreno

Villarreal players celebrate end of the match

AFP | Madrid

Villarreal forward Gerard Moreno said comments by Bayern Munich coach Julian Nagelsmann inspired the Spaniards to their shock 2-1 aggregate win over the German giants in the Champions League quarter-finals on Tuesday. Leading 1-0 from the first leg, Villarreal snatched a 1-1 draw on the night and a semi-final place through Samuel Chukwueze's 88th-minute goal. "Tonight they (Bayern) made the mistake of not killing us off and we took advantage of that," Moreno said. On Monday, Nagelsmann said Villarreal had made a mistake by winning the first leg by a slender 1-0 margin "which allowed us to survive". "In the first leg we made the mistake of not finishing them off. All the comments about that served as motivation," said Moreno, whose cross set up Chukwueze's tie-winning strike. "What this team has done is great." Robert Lewandowski had put Bayern ahead on the night to level the tie. Unai Emery's Villarreal had already knocked out Juventus in the last 16 following a stunning 3-0 win in Turin. "It's an extraordinary feel-

The Spaniards face either Benfica or Liverpool in the semi-finals. Jurgen Klopp's Reds take a 3-1 lead into yesterday's second leg at Anfield. "It's unbelievable, it's taken a lot of hard work," said Villarreal captain Raul Albiol, the man of the match in Munich, who at 36 is two years older than Nagelsmann. "Our victories are as a team. We have suffered a lot in both games, but to be in the semi-finals is great for Villarreal. "We knew it was going to be a long 90 minutes and we were going to suffer a lot.

Ahli capture basketball league bronze

Al Ahli rout Al Hala in one-off classification contest to claim third place overall in 2021/2022 Zain Bahrain Basketball League

● Ahmed Aldurazi leads all scorers with 32 points for Ahli, including impressive eight three-pointers

● Ahli take control of contest with strong second quarter and lead by as many as 31 points late on, en route to final buzzer

TDI | Manama

Al Ahli last night claimed the bronze medals for the 2021/2022 Zain Bahrain Basketball League.

Ahli secured third place overall after defeating Al Hala 115-87 in their one-off classification clash played at the Khalifa Sports City Arena in Isa Town.

The game between the league's two losing semi-finalists was a generally one-sided affair after the second quarter.

Ahli held a slim 25-22 lead at the end of the opening period, but then outscored their rivals by 11 before the half-time break to blow the game wide open.

Ahli led by as many as 31 points from there, as Hala never recovered.

Court general Ahmed Aldurazi spearheaded the Ahli attack with a game-high 32 points. He was scorching hot from the three-point line, burying eight long-range baskets from beyond the arc.

Hesham Sarhan added 17 points while American professional Adrian Uter had 13 and eight rebounds in just 22 minutes of work.

Versatile forward Mohammed Kuwayed chipped in with 11 including nine rebounds and five assists, while three other Ahli players contributed nine points apiece, including Maitham Jameel, Hasan Ali Alsayed and Ali Aqeel.

For Hala, Anthony McClain, last year's Ahli import, had 21 points and 10 rebounds to pace his side in the loss. Skipper and point guard Hussain Salman was their only other player in double figures, finishing with 16.

Brian Halums was held to just eight points, while Ahmed Khalifa and Abdulqader Thani had seven markers apiece.

Ahli's biggest lead in the contest of 31 came on a Mohammed Hussain Mohammed lay-up with a minute and 57 seconds to go, which made it 113-82.

Both teams had cleared their benches then as the game was all but decided.

The victors' strong second-quarter showing helped them go up 61-47 heading into the half-time interval, and then after three they continued to lead 87-71. In the final canto, Ahli outscored their opponents by 12 to seal the end result.

Ahli, who were the back-to-back league champions from the last two seasons, lost in the Golden Square semi-finals in three games to Muharraq.

Hala, on the other hand, succumbed to Manama, also in three games.

Muharraq currently hold a 1-0 lead in the championship series, with game two scheduled for tomorrow at the same venue. Game three, if needed, will be held on Monday.

Ahli still have plenty to play for this season, as they are in the final of the Khalifa bin Salman Cup, which is scheduled to be held on April 25.

Sheffield wins Brabantse Pijl as Alaphilippe suffers spectacular fall

US' Magnus Sheffield of Ineos Grenadiers celebrates after winning the men's Brabantse Pijl

New York teenager Magnus Sheffield broke away for a solo triumph at cycling's Brabantse Pijl one-day classic yesterday while world champion Julian Alaphilippe crashed after his own team car caused a domino effect of falls.

Sheffield, 19, was part of an eight-rider group who had dropped the rest of the field and he made his move two kilometres from the Overijse finish line.

The Ineos Grenadiers rider had two teammates in the small, pursuing group who refused to chase leaving the rookie to ease over the final 100m and slowly raise his arms in celebration at an unexpected win.

"It's unbelievable. When I broke off the front I never expected to win," Sheffield said.

"I'm a mentally soft type of person and with this awful weather, I mean it was kind of gritty and cold out there," he said.

Sheffield's winning break followed closely on the heels of Alaphilippe's dramatic fall after the Frenchman's own team car clipped another rider er causing a quick succession of other falls.

After dusting himself down, Alaphilippe eventually returned to the saddle of his bike.

This is a second win for Ineos in less than a week after Poland's Michał Kwiatkowski won the Amstel Gold classic on Sunday.

In that race, French AG2R rider Benoit Cosnefroy thought he had won only to be classified second after a photo-finish.

He was second again yesterday.

Dar Kulaib win Isa bin Rashid volleyball bronze medals

● Dar Kulaib win third place for second successive season following five-set win over Al Najma in one-off contest

TDI | Manama

Dar Kulaib captured the bronze medals for the 2021/2022 season in the Isa bin Rashid Bahrain First Division Volleyball League.

Dar Kulaib claimed their top-three finish following a thrilling five-set victory over Al Najma in their one-off game for third place, held at the Isa bin Rashid Volleyball Arena at Isa Sports City in Riffa.

After winning the first set, Dar Kulaib fell behind in the contest with Najma taking sets two and three. But the victors were able to bounce back in the fourth and force the tie-break, where they eventually eked out the narrow win with a 3-2 (25-18, 22-25, 22-25, 25-19, 15-11) score line.

With the victory, Dar Kulaib were able to win the league's bronze medals for the second successive season.

They had previously narrowly lost the opportunity to battle for the league title after losing to defending champions Al Ahli in the semi-finals. Najma also lost in the final four, where they succumbed to Al Nasser.

Meanwhile, the championship series between Ahli and Nasser continues tonight with game two of their best-of-three clash.

The game is scheduled for a 9.30pm start at the same venue. Ahli will be looking to secure their second successive league title with a win this evening, while Nasser will be hoping to extend the series to a third game, which will be played on Saturday, if needed.

Following the match for third place, Dar Kulaib were awarded their bronze medals in a presentation ceremony attended by officials from the Bahrain Volleyball Association.

Years of hard work are paying off, says Ferrari chairman

Reuters | Milan

Years of hard work are paying off for Ferrari with a stellar start to the Formula One season, company chairman John Elkann said yesterday.

Charles Leclerc has won two of the first three races, finishing second in the other, and has a 34-point lead in the championship.

Ferrari, who last won a title in 2008 and failed to win a race in 2020 and 2021, also lead the constructors' standings by 39 points from champions Mercedes.

"We said two years ago that we had to work hard to get back to being competitive and the 2022 championship has got off to a truly thrilling start," Elkann said at Ferrari's annual shareholders' meeting.

Ferrari slumped to sixth overall in the 2020 season, their lowest ranking since 1980, but rose to third last year under principal Mattia Binotto and their new car looks both fast and reliable. "Like all our tifosi (fans) around the world, I am delighted we are competing at the highest level," said Elkann.

"That said, we know the season has just begun and in Formula One you are always surrounded by fierce competitors.

We must work tirelessly as a team to optimize every aspect of our performance.

"That is the spirit and approach I look forward to seeing at Imola and as the season progresses."

The next race, round four of 23, is a home one for Ferrari at the Italian circuit named after company founder Enzo and son Dino.
