AGU organises third arts exhibition

TDI | Manama

The Deanship of Students Affairs in the Arabian Gulf University (AGU) has recently organised its third arts exhibition, showcasing around 100 works of art of 30 participants that included students from the College of Medicine and Medical Science and the College Graduate Studies in the university.

Aiming to promote the values of arts among students, the exhibition showcased a variety of artworks such as paintings, photographs and handcrafts, representing the creativity of the participating students. The activity also hosted Bahraini Calligrapher Hussain Al Qallaf, who presented his artworks to the visitors and participants.

Commenting on the exhibition, Social Supervisor at the Deanship of Students Affairs Mr. Ahmed Al Sa'ee said: "This year's show has been very well received by students and academics. Many have expressed their admiration for the show and their desire to participate in the coming times. Considering this success, we plan to organise a bigger exhibition in the near future and to allow more students to participate in it."

The Indian School Bahrain (ISB) Prefect Council for the academic year 2019-2020 was formally inducted during an investiture ceremony held in the Jashanmal Auditorium on Sunday.

The oath of office was administered by Principal-in-charge Anand R Nair in the presence of School Chairman Prince S. Natarajan, Secretary Saji Antony, EC Members Rajesh Nambiar, Saji George, Mohammed Nayaz Ullah, Vice Principals, Head Teachers, Co-ordinators and teachers.

Anantha Krishnan Baburaj was selected as the Head Boy and Livya Liffy as the Head Girl of the Prefect Council for Level A which consists of classes XI and XII. For classes X and IX (Level B) John Abraham was selected as the Head Boy and Leah Teresa Joseph as the Head Girl.

For classes VI - VIII (Level C), Aditya Mangalam was selected as the Head Boy and Ivana Anto Kallookaran as the Head Girl and for classes IV-V (Level D) Rajeevan Rajkumar was selected as the Head Boy and Janaki Sajikumar Nair as the Head Girl.

The Council members consisting of 75 students from classes IV to XII were selected on the basis of personal interviews and their aptitude to interact effectively between the students and the management.

ISB Chairman Prince S. Natarajan said the Prefect Council is a forum for the teaching and student communities to interact and that the Council members should take their responsibilities in the true spirit of teamwork which will help in bringing all students together. He reminded the student leaders to be gracious and lead from the front.

The Head Boy and the Head Girl said that they would take up the task at hand with grit and determination and live for the betterment of the school and society. They would do everything to uphold the dignity of the office bestowed on them.
