Interior Minister stresses police role in safeguarding Kingdom's stability, progress and achievements

TDT | Manama

The Bahain Police has evolved into a professional and capable organisation able to respond effectively to challenges while maintaining reliability, firmness where required, and a constant readiness to serve the public.

This was emphasised by the Minister of Interior, His Excellency General Shaikh Rashid bin Abdullah Al Khalifa, as he delivered a speech at a ceremony marking Bahrain Police Day yesterday.

In his address, he stressed that security remains a fundamental pillar for national development, prosperity, and the protection of the Kingdom's achievements, as he attended a ceremony marking Bahrain Police Day.

H.E. General Shaikh Rashid highlighted the central role of security in supporting Bahrain's progress, stating: "Security is a key pillar for national development and prosperity, and for safeguarding the achievements of the Kingdom."

The Minister noted that the Bahrain Police has steadily strengthened its professionalism, adding: "The Bahrain Police has developed into an organisation capable of responding efficiently to challenges, while remaining reliable, firm when necessary, and always ready to assist the public."

He emphasised that this progress reflects a clear commitment to modern, integrated policing that builds public confidence and stability.

The Interior Minister underlined that the continued guidance and support of His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa have played a vital role in enhancing the ministry's performance and advancing policing standards.

"The leadership of His Majesty the King has strengthened the Ministry of Interior's ability to promote security, public trust, and advanced policing within a modern and integrated system," he said, noting that these efforts have reinforced stability across the Kingdom. (Continued on Page 4)
