The Minister of Interior, His Excellency General Shaikh Rashid bin Abdulla Al Khalifa, pointed to the government's support under the leadership of His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister, to help Bahrain Police reinforce stability across the Kingdom.

He highlighted ongoing initiatives to develop the Interior Ministry's capabilities, implement future-focused projects, enhance personnel skills, and introduce innovative rapid-response tools to maintain public order and safety.

These measures reflect a comprehensive approach to strengthening national security while keeping pace with evolving challenges, H.E. General Shaikh Rashid noted.

Responsibilities

The Interior Minister emphasised that the responsibilities of ministry personnel go beyond professional duties, describing

H.E. General Shaikh Rashid bin Abdulla Al Khalifa with H.E. Shaikh Salman bin Khalifa Al Khalifa, along with senior officials and retired servicemen at the ceremony their work as a national trust and public service mission that demands integrity, loyalty, and commitment.

"The duties carried out by our personnel represent a responsibility rooted in national trust and service to the public," he said, praising their dedication around the clock, in both times of peace and crisis.

He commended officers and personnel for their unwavering service, underscoring the importance of discipline, commitment, and diligence in preserving the Kingdom's prosperity and security.

Opportunity

Bahrain Police Day, he added, serves as an opportunity to honour decades of dedicated service while reaffirming the Ministry of Interior's enduring commitment to safeguarding the nation and upholding its rights.

The ceremony was attended by His Excellency Shaikh Salman bin Khalifa Al Khalifa, Minister of Finance and National Economy, along with senior officials and retired servicemen.

On arrival, H.E. the Interior Minister was received by Lieutenant General Adel bin Khalifa

Parade of Bahrain Police personnel

Al Fadhel, Deputy Minister of Interior, and Lieutenant General Tariq bin Hassan Al Hassan, Chief of Public Security.

The event opened with a formal salute, an inspection of the parade, and a recitation from the Holy Quran.

The Interior Minister addressed the growing role of technology in modern policing, noting that while information technology can pose challenges if misused, it also offers significant opportunities when effectively managed.

He emphasised the importance of strengthening personnel expertise in digital and technical security, enhancing the ministry's electronic security presence, and proactively countering online misinformation.

H.E. General Shaikh Rashid also acknowledged the valuable contributions of national partners in supporting cybersecurity efforts, noting that such cooperation has strengthened the Kingdom's electronic security capabilities and reinforced its resilience in the digital domain.
