PBA Philippine Cup makes Bahrain debut

Basketball heavyweights bring championship-caliber action to the kingdom

Hussain Almaskati
TDT | Manama

Bahrain is set to witness a historic moment in Asian basketball as the Philippine Basketball Association holds its first official league games in the kingdom. The action begins tonight, on the eve of Bahrain's National Day, with the Magnolia Chicken Timplados Hotshots taking on the Rain or Shine Elasto Painters at 7pm at Khalifa Sports City Arena in Isa Town. The excitement continues on Wednesday when Barangay Ginebra San Miguel faces Rain or Shine at the same venue and tip-off time, giving local fans two opportunities to see top-tier Philippine basketball in action.

These fixtures feature three of the league's most prominent franchises and form part of the ongoing PBA Philippine Cup during the league's 50th anniversary season. Rain or Shine arrive in Bahrain firmly in the championship picture, sitting second in the standings with a 7-2 record from nine games. They are tied with leaders San Miguel Beermen but trail slightly on point difference. Magnolia occupy fifth place at 6-3, while Barangay Ginebra are eighth at 5-4, with all three teams eager to build momentum as they climb the 12-team league standings.

The Bahrain trip was formalized in July when PBA commissioner Willie Marcial signed the agreement with Bahrain Basketball Association president Alaa Mudara. The deal was confirmed during a meeting that and Ahmed Kaldari, along with a large crowd of fans. Ahead of tip-off, a press conference is scheduled at the Hilton Hotel Juffair at 2:30pm, giving local media the opportunity to hear from coaches and players.

These games mark the PBA's first overseas league contests since 2019 and cap a year in which Bahrain has hosted several major basketball events, including the FIBA Mid-Term Congress, the Hall of Fame induction ceremony, and the Manama Final of the FIBA 3x3 World Tour.

‘Golden moment’ as Messi meets Tendulkar, Chhetri on India tour

AFP | Mumbai

Football icon Lionel Messi's second day in India passed smoothly Sunday, after a chaotic opening to his three-day tour, as the World Cup winner kicked balls into the crowd and met cricket legend Sachin Tendulkar.

Messi greeted excited fans decked out in Argentina football jerseys at a packed Wankhede stadium in India's financial hub Mumbai, as supporters chanted his name.

The 38-year-old Argentina and Inter Miami superstar took centre stage in the presence of India's sporting royalty including Tendulkar and football star Sunil Chhetri.

Messi along with his Inter Miami teammates Luis Suarez and Rodrigo de Paul are part of a so-called GOAT Tour of a cricket-crazy nation.

Cricket great Tendulkar presented Messi with his iconic number 10 jersey from India's 2011 World Cup triumph at the same venue.

"I have spent some incredible moments here," said batting star Tendulkar.

"Mumbai is a city of dreams and number of dreams have seen the finish line here on this very venue and without your support we could never have seen those golden moments in 2011.

"And today having all three greats of game here is indeed a golden moment for Mumbai, Mumbaikars and India."

Although a cricket powerhouse, the nation of 1.4 billion struggles on the football pitch and are 142nd on the FIFA rankings.

"Thank you for being here and encouraging youngsters," said Tendulkar. "I hope football here in India also reaches the heights that we all aspire."

The footballer won his second consecutive Major League Soccer Most Valuable Player award this week after propelling Inter Miami to the MLS title and leading the league in goals.

The former Barcelona and Paris Saint-Germain forward will spearhead Argentina's defence of the World Cup in June-July in North America.
