

Two nations, one goal

HM King concludes historic Oman visit, new agreements signed to forge stronger bilateral ties

TDT | Manama

His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa concluded a state visit to the Sultanate of Oman yesterday in a historic step to strengthen bilateral relations.

The visit from 14 to 15 January, and hosted by His Majesty Sultan Haitham bin Tarik, underscored the enduring fraternal ties between the two nations and set the stage for enhanced cooperation across various sectors.

During the visit, extensive talks were held between the two leaders, focusing on bilateral relations and regional cooperation.

Joint statement

A joint statement was issued following HM the King's state visit with both leaders lauding the progress in joint efforts and the flourishing partnership between Oman and Bahrain.

They emphasised the importance of diversifying economic collaboration and expanding the scope of investment opportunities.

A key highlight was the establishment of the Omani-Bahraini Investment Company, which the leaders warmly welcomed, expressing their hopes for its success.

Several agreements, memoranda of understanding, and executive programs were signed during the visit, spanning various fields aimed at boosting the partnership between the two nations.

The leaders also praised the contributions of the Omani-Bahraini Joint Committee in advancing mutual interests, highlighting its active role in implementing joint projects and exploring new areas of cooperation.

The discussions extended beyond bilateral issues to address regional and international matters.

Both monarchs reaffirmed their commitment to the principles of dialogue and peaceful dispute resolution, advocating for enhanced international cooperation to ensure regional and global security and stability.

They also called for greater consultation and coordination on issues of mutual concern, reinforcing the pillars of stability and prosperity for the region and the world.

The leaders reviewed the progress of the Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC), emphasising the importance of collective achievements in advancing the Gulf's shared vision.

Gratitude

At the conclusion of the visit, HM King Hamad expressed his deep gratitude for the warm hospitality extended by Sultan Haitham and the people of Oman.

In return, HM Sultan Haitham conveyed his best wishes for Bahrain's continued progress and prosperity, reflecting the deep-rooted and enduring bond between the two nations.

The visit marked another milestone in the historic relationship between Oman and Bahrain, reaffirming their shared commitment to mutual growth and regional stability.

Kerala's Gulf Bridge Disrupted: Expatriates Rally for Action

Mahir Haneef
TDT | Manama

The decision by Gulf Air to cancel flights to Calicut and reduce services to Kochi has ignited a wave of online protests and appeals from passenger associations, who see these routes as more than just flights but as lifelines that have carried generations of Indians to the opportunities and livelihoods offered by the Gulf region.

Yesterday, the Kozhikode Jilla Pravasi Forum (KPF), an association representing air passengers from Calicut, filed a representation to H.E. Dr. S Jaishankar, the Minister of External Affairs of India, seeking his intervention.

KPF highlighted that Calicut, located on India's Malabar coast in the state of Kerala, has historically been a vital hub for travellers to the Gulf, particularly Bahrain and other GCC countries. The association stressed that Gulf Air's decision disrupts an essential lifeline for expatriates who rely on these flights for affordable and convenient travel.

Historical Significance

Calicut's relationship with the Gulf dates back centuries to its days as a prominent port city in the global spice trade. The connection grew stronger in the 1970s when a wave of migration from Kerala to the oil-rich Gulf region began. Gulf Air became a critical player in this movement, enabling workers to reach Bahrain, Saudi Arabia, and beyond. Over the years, these routes served not just economic migrants but also families maintaining bonds across borders and businesses trading goods between India and the Gulf.

A Plea for Action

KPF underscored that Gulf Air's four weekly flights to Calicut were consistently full, with occupancy rates exceeding 90 percent, reflecting the high demand for these services. The decision to terminate operations has sparked widespread concern, particularly among expatriates who now face higher costs and fewer options for travel.

In their plea to the Indian Minister of External Affairs, KPF urged the government to initiate discussions with Gulf Air's management, Bahrain's aviation authorities, and the Indian Ambassador to Bahrain. They hope such efforts can lead to a reversal of the decision, which has disrupted the lives of thousands of families who depend on these vital connections. The association's president Sudheer Thirunilath said it also plans to approach India's Directorate General of Civil Aviation and the Bahraini authorities to seek solutions under the framework of the Air Services Agreement between the two nations as it mandates that capacity and frequency of services should align with air transport demand.

For expatriates, this is about preserving a bridge of hope - a link that has not only transported people across borders but has also carried aspirations, sustained livelihoods, and fortified bonds that span continents and generations.

HM King leaves Oman

His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa concluded a state visit to Oman yesterday, following an invitation from His Majesty Sultan Haitham bin Tariq of Oman. During the visit, HM the King held discussions with HM Sultan Haitham, focusing on the historical and distinguished ties between the two countries and exploring means to enhance cooperation across various sectors. The talks also addressed key regional and international developments. After the visit, HM Sultan Haitham, accompanied by senior Omani officials and dignitaries, bid farewell to HM King Hamad.

Luncheon

In honour of His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa, His Majesty Sultan Haitham bin Tariq of the Sultanate of Oman hosted a luncheon during HM the King's state visit to Oman. The luncheon, held at Al Barakah Palace, was attended by members of the official delegation accompanying HM the King and senior officials from the Sultanate of Oman. During the luncheon, HM King Hamad exchanged cordial talks with HM the Sultan, highlighting the historical ties between Bahrain and Oman and underscoring the shared commitment to further strengthening relations for the benefit of the two countries and their peoples.

Stronger workforce

Bahrain and Oman sign key agreement on labour and human resource development

Mohammed Darwish
TDT | Manama

Bahrain and Oman have deepened their collaboration with the signing of an agreement focusing on labour and workforce development.

The deal coincided with His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa's state visit to Oman, made at the invitation of His Majesty Sultan Haitham bin Tariq.

The Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) was signed by Bahrain's Foreign Minister, His Excellency Dr Abdullah bin Rashid Al Zayani, and Omani Foreign Minister, HE Sayyid Badr Al Busaidi.

It outlines cooperative efforts in employment, training, and workplace safety, reinforcing the historical partnership between the two Gulf neighbours.

Acting Minister of Labour and Minister of Legal Affairs,

H.E. Dr Abdullah bin Rashid Al Zayani and Omani Foreign Minister, H.E. Sayyid Badr Al Busaidi, sign the Memorandum of Understanding

H.E. Yousuf bin Abdulhussain Khalaf, noted that the agreement paves the way for the exchange of successful practices in job creation, improving workplace conditions, and enhancing the capabilities of national workforces.

He highlighted the shared intervention of both countries to build on their Gulf-wide efforts in strengthening labour relations.

The agreement includes measures to draft labour laws, develop workplace standards, and establish mechanisms for resolving individual and collective disputes.

It also introduces joint training programmes, marketing strategies to expand job opportunities, and initiatives to encourage businesses to hire locally.

Additionally, the MoU promotes joint research, data collection, and publications on employment-related matters.

Modern technology and digital tools are expected to play a key role in improving labour market efficiency and coordination.

The agreement also commits both nations to closer cooperation in international forums, ensuring their positions are consistent when addressing labour and human resource challenges at regional and global levels.

Khalaf expressed optimism that the collaboration would lead to meaningful exchanges, helping both countries address shared concerns and create a stronger foundation for labour market development.

MoU signed to enhance investment cooperation

TDT | Manama

Bahrain and Oman signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) establishing a framework for cooperation in investment promotion between Bahrain and Oman.

This took place during His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa's state visit to the Sultanate, where he had official deliberations with His Majesty Sultan Haitham bin Tariq Al Said.

The MoU aims to raise awareness around investment opportunities and further strengthen bilateral relations.

It was officially signed by His Excellency Shaikh Salman bin Khalifa Al Khalifa, Bahrain's Minister of Finance and National Economy, and H.E. Qais bin Mohammed Al Yousef, Oman's Minister of Commerce, Industry, and Investment Promotion.

The agreement explores cooperation opportunities across 15 key economic sectors, focusing on promoting investment, facilitating public-private partnerships, coordinating promotional activities, and fostering connections between Bahraini and Omani businesses to encourage joint ventures and strategic collaboration.

Omani investment stock in Bahrain reached $398 million, with $39.3 million in investment inflows in 2023 alone.

The investments were made across vital sectors such as financial services, insurance, mining, healthcare, real estate, and construction, reflecting a commitment to diversifying economic ties.

Tourism partnership

TDT | Manama

Her Excellency Fatima bint Jaafar Al Sairafi, Minister of Tourism and Chairperson of the Bahrain Tourism and Exhibitions Authority (BTEA), emphasised the importance of strengthening tourism integration between the Kingdom of Bahrain and the Sultanate of Oman.

She highlighted the deep-rooted ties between the two nations, which are built on a shared history and strong bonds of brotherhood.

This statement came on the occasion of the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) on cooperation in the exhibitions and conferences sector between the two countries.

The MoU was signed during the state visit of His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa to the Sultanate of Oman, upon the gracious invitation of His Majesty Sultan Haitham bin Tariq.

The MoU was signed on Bahrain's behalf by His Excellency Dr. Abdullah bin Rashid

H.E. Fatima bint Jaafar Al Sairafi

The MoU aligns with initiatives to boost inter-Gulf tourism among GCC member states and promote the Gulf region as a unified tourism destination.

MPs call for fairer housing income rules

MP Bader Saleh Al Tamimi
TDT | Manama

MP Dr Ali Al Nuaimi
who have waited patiently for years.

Five MPs are pushing for changes to how the Ministry of Housing assesses income for housing applicants, arguing that applicants shouldn't be penalised for earning slightly more while waiting — sometimes for over 15 years — for their housing requests to be approved.

The proposal was tabled by MPs Bader Saleh Al Tamimi, Dr Ali Al Nuaimi, Hamad Farooq Al Doy, Abdulla Hassan Al Thaaen, and Abdulwahid Abdulaziz Qarata.

They argued that only the applicant's income at the time of submission should be considered, calling for the removal of the income threshold at the nomination stage.

Fairness

This, they said, would ensure fairness, protect citizens' housing rights, and provide greater certainty for families

Under the current rules, applicants must have a monthly income no higher than BD900 when they submit their request and no more than BD1,200 by the time they receive their nomination certificate.

However, delays in processing applications often stretch well beyond a decade, during which applicants may see their income rise naturally.

Disqualification

This can result in their disqualification, even if the increase is modest.

The MPs say these rules unfairly punish citizens for circumstances beyond their control, as the delays in allocating housing are due to administrative hold-ups rather than any fault of the applicants.

They added that many families face being turned away after years of waiting for housing they had planned their lives around.

MPs ban visit visa into work permits conversion despite committee opposition

Council of Representatives session in progress

Mohammed Darwish
TDT | Manama

After deferring the vote last week, MPs have approved a law to stop the conversion of visit visas into work permits.

The law seeks to change the 1965 Aliens (Immigration and Residence) Act by adding a section that bans visa conversions outright, nullifies conflicting rules, and sets out how the change will be applied.

Government pointed to long-standing rules like Ministerial Order No. 25 of 1976, which requires a No Objection Certificate (NOC) for work visas and bans visit visas for individuals suspected of seeking employment.

The committee argued that existing measures are enough to address the concerns, pointing to the steep decline in visa misuse as evidence.

Restrictions

In 2024, further restrictions were brought in under Ministerial Order No. 16, limiting conversions to cases where the sponsor remains the same.

This step, according to the Ministry of Interior, has already led to an 87 per cent drop in conversions.

Government also warned that a complete ban might create difficulties for citizens looking to recruit domestic workers — a sector that does not compete with Bahraini jobseekers.

It noted the added costs of sending workers back home and reapplying for permits, which would fall on employers.

Proposal

The Foreign Affairs, Defence, and National Security Committee, chaired by MP Hassan Bu Khammas, unanimously rejected the proposal.

The committee argued that existing measures are enough to address the concerns raised and pointed to the steep decline in visa misuse as evidence.

Committee members also stressed that the current system protects citizens from footing unnecessary travel and reapplication costs when hiring non-competitive workers, such as domestic staff.

BD800 forgery leads to jail sentence

Three years for trademark fraud

H Naser
TDT | Manama

A transaction agent has been sentenced to three years in prison for forging a trademark registration certificate.

The 50-year-old agent, already in custody on similar charges, pleaded guilty to creating a fraudulent certificate, falsely claiming it was issued by the Ministry of Industry and Commerce.

The crime involved a payment of BD800 from the victim.

Expertise

A business owner reported contracting the agent to register a trademark from abroad, believing him to have expertise in obtaining such certificates.

After paying BD800, she received what she believed to be an official certificate.

However, a check of the Ministry's website revealed the certificate was counterfeit, lacking a registration number and other key details.

Task

"Some friends recommended him for me to accomplish this task, and I thought he was reliable. Therefore, I paid the full amount beforehand, believing that I was in safe hands," the businesswoman said.

MPs delay law to crack down on reckless driving

TDT | Manama

A draft law cracking down on reckless driving, including illegal use of the hard shoulder, has been sent back to the committee by Parliament for the second time.

The proposal, introduced by MP Abdulla Al Rumaihi, aims to enforce stricter penalties, with drivers facing a minimum of six months in jail or fines ranging from BD2,000 to BD6,000 for offences such as dangerous overtaking and misuse of emergency lanes.

"This is about protecting lives and making sure reckless drivers face proper consequences," said Al Rumaihi, defending the proposal.

However, critics have raised concerns about its narrow focus on accidents that lead to fatalities, leaving incidents involving injuries or less severe breaches unaddressed.

Penalties

The Ministry of Interior has questioned the practicality of the law, warning that it could strip judges of the ability to weigh up individual circumstances by imposing fixed minimum penalties.

The ministry also criticised the proposal's use of vague terms like "security and safety", arguing that such wording could lead to uneven enforcement.

The ministry added that

MP Abdulla Al Rumaihi

Bahrain's existing traffic laws already provide strong measures to deal with fatal crashes and other serious violations.

Response

"The current laws are broad enough to cover what this proposal intends to address," the ministry said in its written response, pointing out that the draft fails to consider scenarios such as multiple deaths or accidents caused by driver error.

The ministry also noted that imposing harsher penalties could unfairly target those who make genuine mistakes rather than deliberate violations.

This is the second time the proposal has been delayed.

Concerns

In October, Parliament returned it to the Committee for Foreign Affairs, Defence, and National Security, citing concerns about its practicality and scope.

The latest decision calls for further revisions.

Modernisation milestone

Capital Governorate reaches 93% sewage system connectivity

H Naser
TDT | Manama

The Ministry of Works has announced that approximately 93% of buildings in the Capital Governorate are now connected to the upgraded sewage system, marking a significant milestone in its broader modernisation programme for the Kingdom of Bahrain.

Meanwhile, the Ministry confirmed its ongoing commitment to implementing strategic service plans, development projects, and infrastructure initiatives across the Kingdom of Bahrain.

Responding to a parliamentary inquiry by MP Hassan Ebrahim Bukhamass, the ministry detailed its comprehensive approach to infrastructure development.

Regarding the sanitation network, the ministry reported that approximately 93% of buildings in the Capital Governorate are connected to the sewage system.

This figure rises to 99% in the governorate's fourth constituency.

"Work continues to connect the remaining buildings in the fourth constituency, with project implementation based on a pre-determined programme considering factors such as the number of existing buildings, technical readiness, and the requirements of other service providers," the ministry stated, adding: "A project to establish a sewage network in Block 324 in Juffair is underway to address remaining unconnected properties in that area."

The ministry highlighted the completion of the Al Fateh Highway development project, a key strategic initiative extending from the Exhibitions Avenue entrance north to the Salman Port intersection south.

"This BD 29,662,315 project encompasses improvements to the Shaikh Duaij Avenue intersection, the Gulf Hotel intersection, the Al Fateh Mosque intersection, and the Juffair roundabout, aiming to improve traffic flow in both directions," the ministry revealed.

"Several road projects are currently underway, including infrastructure development in Block 324 in Juffair, and improvements to roads such as Road 4225 in Block 342 in Al Ghuraifa, and Hassan Jawad AlJishi Avenue and Roads 3320 and 3321 in Block 333 in Umm Al Hassam.

Zumba session for Filipinos

TDT | Manama

Filipinos from across Bahrain have flocked to Andalus Garden in Manama last January 10 to join a lively Zumba session organized by the Solid Tropang Bahrain (STB).

The Zumba class attracted participants seeking stress alleviation while enjoying the fellowship and camaraderie in a vibrant and encouraging environment, creating a positive and uplifting experience for all concerned.

Participants who were clad in colorful work-out attire thoroughly enjoyed the energetic music combined with choreographed movements; it helped bring about a good atmosphere that drew out community involvement and well-being apart from efforts to improve the physical health.

According to Dalia Divina Lictao, one of the officers of STB, "The activity was scheduled on the day off for OFWs so as to provide them a healthy and engaging alternative to the usual weekend routine and consider their physical and mental well-being."

Led by Toni Tallada, Editha Sumague and Apolinario Delos Santos, the rhythmic music and dynamic instructions attracted participants from all corners of the community, where everybody was more than willing to shake off the stresses of the workweek and indulge in pure joy through movement.

Demand for 2,000 additional pilgrims to compensate for losses

H Naser
TDT | Manama

Over 30 licensed Hajj operators in Bahrain are appealing to His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa after failing to secure the minimum number of pilgrims required for next year's pilgrimage.

The operators are requesting an additional 2,000 pilgrimage slots for Bahrain, bringing the total to 6,625, to be distributed among the affected companies.

This came during a meeting organised by the operators to discuss solutions for their ordeal.

Several operators shared their grievances, highlighting issues with the online registration system and a lack of transparency in the allocation process.

Jaffar Al Madhhoob, owner of Al Ammar Hajj Campaign, stated that he previously secured 2,000 pilgrims from Saudi Arabia, which were integrated into Bahrain's quota.

"A committee formed by the operators met with officials, including the Minister of Justice, Islamic Affairs and Endowments, to address the issue. The Speaker of the House of Representatives (Ahmed Al Mussalam) has also taken up our cause," he said during the meeting.

Council approves e-services expo

Council meeting in progress

TDT | Manama

The Northern Governorate Municipal Council held its regular session on Monday, approving several proposals aimed at improving public services and addressing citizen concerns.

Key decisions included the approval of an e-services expo for government entities and a change in land designation to create public parking.

The proponent of the exhibition proposal was council member Abdullah Al Qubaisi who highlighted its objectives during the session.

"The event represents a key initiative as it will shed light on the available online services provided by the government, encouraging digital adoption, providing technical support, simplifying online procedures, and facilitating direct interaction between citizens and government representatives," he said.

Meanwhile, council member Abdullah Ashoor stressed the importance of converting a plot of land in Block 734 in A'ali from a public park to a public parking lot was also approved.

Three government school officials face trial

TDT | Manama

Three employees of a government school will stand trial on charges of embezzlement and forgery, the Public Prosecution's Financial Crimes and Money Laundering Office announced yesterday.

The accused are alleged to have embezzled BD86,000 from school funds and forged official documents to facilitate the theft.

The investigation began after the Ministry of Education reported financial and administrative irregularities at the school, raising suspicions of criminal activity among several employees, including members of the school's finance committee and teachers.

The Financial Crimes and Money Laundering Prosecution launched an immediate investigation, interviewing the head of the ministry's internal investigation committee.

Seef Properties' innovative Ramadan initiative, 'Fawazeer Al Seef' was recognized in the Experiential Marketing category for successfully capturing the essence of Ramadan by engaging with mall visitors in meaningful conversations about the holy month's values and traditions, generating impressive audience engagement and expanding brand visibility through a series of daily interactive videos.

Reflecting on the win, Seef Properties CEO, Ahmed Yusuf said: "This achievement reflects our unwavering commitment to innovation and delivering exceptional experiences for visitors at our commercial destinations. The 'Fawazeer Al Seef' campaign was a unique initiative that celebrated the values of the holy month of Ramadan in an engaging and creative way, while strengthening our bond with the local community and enhancing audience interaction. We are proud to have reached this regional milestone and remain dedicated to introducing distinctive campaigns that further elevate the shopping and entertainment experience for our visitors."

The Fawazeer Al Seef campaign reached over 15 million people, with a majority of the audience being located in Bahrain and the Eastern Province of Saudi Arabia. The videos generated more than 2 million impressions and 17.2 million views, including three videos with over a million views each. Throughout the campaign, Seef Mall's Instagram channel saw an increase of over 30,000 profile visits, and the videos received 6,600+ comments and 246,000+ likes, along with 14,600 shares. Additionally, over 600 gifts were distributed during the 30-day campaign.

Huthis say attacked US aircraft carrier in Red Sea

AFP | Sanaa, Yemen

Yemen's Huthis said yesterday that they carried out a missile and drone attack on a US aircraft carrier in the Red Sea, though the American military declined to confirm whether its forces had come under fire.

The Huthis said in a statement that they targeted the USS Harry S. Truman and several accompanying warships in the northern Red Sea as part of a "military operation".

The Iran-backed rebels said they used "winged missiles and drones" during what they de-

Reached for comment by AFP, a US defence official did not confirm an attack had taken place, but said: "All personnel are safe and accounted for and... there has been no damage to any US vessels or equipment."

Since the war in Gaza erupted in October 2023, the Huthis have repeatedly launched missiles and drones at ships in the Red Sea and at targets in Israel in what they say is a show of solidarity with the Palestinians.

Israeli government spokesman David Mencer on Tuesday confirmed Israel was seeking the release of 33 hostages as part of the first stage.

Yes, there are 33 hostages that we want released, Mencer said during an online media briefing...

Israel is prepared to pay a heavy price -- in the hundreds, an anonymous Israeli official said...

Two sources close to Hamas told AFP that Israel would release about 1,000 Palestinian prisoners, including those with lengthy sentences.

The 33 are among the 94 hostages held in Gaza since Hamas's October 7, 2023 attack on Israel...

Gaza rescuers say Israeli strikes kill 27 Palestinians

Palestinian Territories

Gaza's civil defence agency said on Wednesday that Israeli strikes killed at least 27 people, as the military issued new evacuation calls...

The latest Israeli strikes come as truce mediator Qatar said negotiations for a ceasefire and hostage release deal in Gaza were in their final stages.

The civil defence agency said in a statement that 11 bodies were brought to the Al-Aqsa Martyrs Hospital in the central Gaza Strip...

Israel's retaliatory campaign in Gaza has killed 46,707 people, a majority of them civilians, according to figures from the health ministry...

A woman reacts as she checks the destruction in the aftermath of an Israeli strike at the Al-Farabi school in the centre of Gaza City...

A seven-year-old boy and three teenagers were among the dead, the agency said.

A separate strike targeted a school building used as shelter for war-displaced Palestinians in Gaza City...

The Israeli military confirmed that its forces had carried out multiple strikes overnight in house in the Al-Nuseirat refugee camp...

In the past 24 hours, the military said it had struck more than 50 targets across the Gaza Strip.

The Israeli military on Wednesday issued a new evacuation call in Arabic for the northern Gaza city of Jabalia...

Israeli forces were expected to remain up to 800 metres (yards) inside Gaza stretching from Rafah in the south to Beit Hanun in the north...

Israeli forces were expected to remain up to 800 metres (yards) inside Gaza stretching from Rafah in the south to Beit Hanun in the north...

Additional disputes concern the withdrawal of Israeli troops, the reopening of border crossings and governance over Gaza.

Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu has rejected a full withdrawal from Gaza and opposed any post-war role for Hamas in the territory.

The ongoing of talks in Qatar are being conducted with Hamas and Israeli negotiations present in two separate rooms...

Any agreement would likely require approval from Israel's cabinet.

Private US, Japanese lunar landers launch on single rocket

AFP | United States

One rocket, two missions: Lunar landers built by US and Japanese companies launched their "rideshare" to the Moon yesterday...

der the Artemis program, leveraging commercial partners to deliver critical hardware at a fraction of the cost of government-led missions.

On board the SpaceX Falcon 9 rocket that took off from the Kennedy Space Center in Florida were Firefly Aerospace's Blue Ghost and space's Resilience from Japan...

Both uncrewed missions aim to build on the success of Texas-based Intuitive Machines, which last year became the first company to successfully touch down on Earth's celestial neighbor.

Until recently, soft landings on the Moon were achieved only by a handful of well-funded national space agencies, starting with the Soviet Union in 1966.

Now, however, several emerging US companies are attempting to replicate this feat under NASA's experimental Commercial Lunar Payload Services program...

The US plans to establish a sustained human presence on the Moon later this decade under the Artemis program...

India's triple naval launch shows 'self-reliance': Modi

India's Prime Minister Narendra Modi (C) and defence minister Rajnath Singh (L) attend the tri-commissioning ceremony of the Indian Navy's INS Surat, INS Nilgiri and INS Vaghsheer ships, in Mumbai

AFP | Mumbai, India

Prime Minister Narendra Modi said yesterday the launch of two Indian-made warships and a submarine was key to its quest towards self-reliance...

India is now becoming a major maritime power of the world, Modi said in a speech at the triple commissioning ceremony in Mumbai...

India has rushed to rapidly expand its naval fleet, pouring efforts into building vessels within the country, with plans to expand the number of warships and submarines from around 150 to 170 over the next decade.

India is also in talks with Paris for multibillion-dollar deals to purchase French-made Rafale fighter jets and Scorpene-class submarines...

Jennifer Lopez won't 'give up' when things go wrong

Bang Showbiz | Los Angeles
Jennifer Lopez refuses to "give up" when things go wrong. The 55-year-old singer and actress has taken on the role of Judy Robles - the mother of renowned wrestler Anthony Robles - in the biopic 'Unstoppable' and explained that her role has reinforced her belief that the "difference between success and failure" is resilience. She told US TV show 'Extra': "You just have something inside you that says, 'Don't give up, just don't give up.' The difference between like success and failure, you know, is that somebody just didn't stop. "They just didn't give up until they got there and I think, you know, all of us, you know, fall down in life and you know how you're down for a minute and then you go,

“You just have something inside you that says, ‘Don’t give up, just don’t give up.’ The difference between like success and failure, you know, is that somebody just didn’t stop.”
JENNIFER LOPEZ

"Okay, got time to get back up. Here we go!" "Not giving up is really the message of the movie... no matter what, you know, obstacles are in the way, you just don't stop. You just keep going." The 'Jenny from the Block' hitmaker was joined by Judy for the joint interview, who admitted that the pop superstar had done an "amazing job" of bringing her to the screen for the film.

She said: "She did such an amazing job of portraying me. Honestly, I saw this again and again, but there is nobody who could have done a better job. There's just being a Latina and being a parent and just pushing so hard and she's done so much in her life but always moving forward, and that's me at the core... She understood me. In understanding who I am as a person, I think that's what was portrayed on that screen."

David Schwimmer recalls 'genuinely frightening' moment on Friends set

Bang Showbiz | Los Angeles

David Schwimmer has recalled a "genuinely frightening" incident on the set of 'Friends'. The 58-year-old comic called for cameras to cut after seeing his co-star Matt LeBlanc go "totally white" and look close to fainting after dislocating his shoulder when a fall went badly wrong during the taping of season three episode 'The One with the Jam'.

David is thrilled to have been cast in the second season of 'Goosebumps'. Recalling receiving a call expressing interest in casting him in the show, he said: "[I felt] genuine excitement... I was like, 'Wait, what?' Because I've never been able to act in horror-action-comedy, and I'm such a fan. I'm a genuine fan of horror." The series will see David play botanist Anthony Brewer, who needs to use his science skills to stop a shocking disappearance from his childhood reoccurring for a new generation.

He told Entertainment Weekly: "During the live taping of the show, [Matt LeBlanc] is supposed to do a kind of a pratfall, and he actually dislocated his shoulder. "He went totally white, and he stood up, and I could see his shoulder was out. He looked like he was going to pass out. "[I remember] immediately turning to the camera like, 'Cut, cut, cut.' That was genuinely frightening. "You could see how badly hurt he was. And we had to stop filming that night, obviously, and he went to hospital. That was scary." Meanwhile, David Schwimmer

Angelina Jolie: Filming Maria was therapeutic

Bang Showbiz | Los Angeles

Angelina Jolie found starring in 'Maria' to be a therapeutic experience. The Oscar-winning actress plays opera singer Maria Callas in the biographical drama film, and Angelina has revealed that it was one of the most impactful roles of her career. Angelina, 49, told Sky News: "To be very candid, it was the therapy I didn't realise I needed. I had no idea how much I was holding in and not letting out. "So, the challenge wasn't the technical [side of opera], it was an emotional experience to find my voice, to be in my body, to express. You have to give every single part of yourself." The movie tells the story of Maria in the seven days before her death in 1977. And Angelina appreciated having the support of her family throughout the emotionally-draining shoot. She said: "Everyone in my home, we all give each other space to be who we are and we're all different. "I'm the mom, but I'm also an artist and a person and so my family has been very kind and gives me their understanding. They make fun of me, and they support me and just as you'd hope it would be. "When you play somebody who is dealing with so much pain, it's very important to come home to some kindness." Angelina previously revealed that she spent "months" preparing to sing in 'Maria'. The actress said at the Telluride Film Festival: "I had seven months of opera classes, great teachers and Italian classes, and a supportive team that were going to help me." Despite this, Angelina still felt anxious about singing when the cameras started rolling. She said: "I was so nervous that morning I was out of my mind."

Bang Showbiz | Los Angeles

Carrie Underwood is reportedly performing at Donald Trump's inauguration "for America, not specifically for" the president-elect. The 41-year-old singer is set to sing 'America The Beautiful' after Trump and his vice president JD Vance are sworn in, and despite backlash from some fans, the country star is "very proud". An insider told DailyMail.com:

"This is going to be a big year for Carrie who is embarking on being a judge for 'American Idol' and now performing at the inauguration. "This is something that she is very proud of, and the spin she is putting on it is that she is doing it for America, not specifically for Trump." It's said she is "looking broader than any controversies" with the aim of "uniting the country" with her music. The source added: "She understands the backlash, but she also doesn't care. "She does her music for everyone, and she also knows many of her fans will be watching the inauguration, so this was a no brainer as she feels there is more good that will come from it besides those that will bash her for what it looks like supporting Trump."

'Outstanding' Liverpool deserved more than Forest draw: Slot

Slot praises Liverpool's character after Jota scores vital equaliser

AFP | London

Arne Slot insisted Liverpool deserved to beat Nottingham Forest after the "outstanding" Premier League leaders needed Diogo Jota's equaliser to rescue a 1-1 draw against their title rivals.

Slot's side were rocked by Chris Wood's eighth-minute opener at the raucous City Ground.

But Jota came off the bench to head in fellow substitute Kostas Tsimikas' corner just 20 seconds after Slot sent on the pair in the 66th minute.

Although Liverpool had struggled to cope with Forest's intensity and rock-solid defending until Jota's leveller, they laid siege to the Forest goal in the closing stages.

It took a series of superb saves from Forest goalkeeper Matz Sels and a goal-line clearance from Ola Aina to ensure Nuno Espirito Santo's team held on.

"Their goalkeeper had to make a few incredible saves but their defenders also made some good blocks with quite a few chances. They blocked almost every shot," Slot said.

"I could not have asked for more. Second half was outstanding.

Nottingham Forest's goalkeeper Matz Sels saves the ball from the feet of Liverpool's Mohamed Salah

There are not many teams that can create so many chances against an opponent so defensively strong. Unfortunately we couldn't get a second."

It was a pulsating clash that recalled the golden era when Liverpool and Forest won five European Cups between them from 1977 to 1981.

They were also both English champions during that period and, while Forest are unlikely to ever emulate the Brian Clough era, this tenacious display indicated a title challenge is not beyond them.

Forest had already beaten Liverpool 1-0 at Anfield in September -- the leaders' only defeat in 20 league games -- and Slot needed no reminding of their qualities.

"We were definitely better than the last time that we played them. That wasn't that difficult though. Back then we did not create much, today we did," he said.

"It is so, so hard for every team to create here. And at times it was one chance after another. "To win games in the second half of the season is more difficult than in the first. Teams get used to playing you and they improve, they can even bring in new players or a new manager, and they fight for every point."

Chasing a first English title since 2020, Liverpool remain in control of their own destiny.

'Like ping pong'

Arsenal can close the gap on the Reds to four points with a win against Tottenham later yesterday, but Liverpool will hold a game in hand and Slot sees no reason to panic after two successive league draws.

"For us to come from behind shows the character and quality the team has," he said.

Their goalkeeper had to make a few incredible saves but their defenders also made some good blocks with quite a few chances. They blocked almost every shot

"We must not get a habit of not getting what we deserved because it happened at Tottenham and it happened today."

Forest's six-game winning run in the league may have come to an end, along with a seven-hour streak of not conceding a single goal in the top-flight.

But this was an energising night for Forest, who have enjoyed a remarkable transformation this term after narrowly avoiding relegation last season.

"First half we were organised and didn't allow too many situations. The second half was like ping pong and that is when Liverpool become stronger, when they have space and with the speed and talent they have it is very dangerous," Nuno said.

"I'm very proud of the team for the way they worked and ran, especially up and down and the sprints to recover and the desire to attack."

Forest are up to second place -- a position they last finished in way back in 1988 -- and Nuno urged them to keep pushing.

Maresca 'concerned' as Chelsea winless run stretches to five games

AFP | London

Chelsea boss Enzo Maresca expressed his concern at the Blues' reaction to conceding in a 2-2 draw at home to Bournemouth as their winless Premier League run stretched to five games on Tuesday.

Maresca's men looked destined to end that slump with a dominant first-half display at Stamford Bridge.

But Cole Palmer's cool finish for his 14th Premier League goal of the season was all the home side had to show for it at the break.

Bournemouth bounced back in the second half as Justin Kluivert levelled from the penalty spot before Antoine Semenyo blasted in at the near post to put the Cherries in front.

Chelsea captain Reece James came off the bench to salvage a point in stoppage time with a fine free-kick.

But Chelsea could now drop out of the Premier League top four should in-form Newcastle beat Wolves later yesterday.

"I think we deserved much more, especially in the first half," said Maresca. "The negative thing is that we changed how we played after conceding. We dropped back.

"The game was completely in our control and it's something we need to improve.

"I have concerns always, even when we are winning matches. This is the Premier League, when you don't create chances and don't score then you have to be more concerned."

Dyche says Everton exit came at 'the right time'

Sean Dyche

AFP | London

Sean Dyche said yesterday he had left Everton at "the right time" after managing the club during "one of its toughest periods in its history".

Dyche was sacked just hours before the FA Cup tie with Peterborough last Thursday by Everton's new US-based owners, The Friedkin Group, with the Liverpool club just one point above the Premier League relegation zone.

Within two days, David Moyes returned as Everton manager, with the Scot having previously held the job at Goodison Park from 2002 to 2013.

Dyche, in a statement issued by the League Managers' Association, said: "It was an honour to manage Everton, a football club with a significant heritage and an enormous following in Liverpool and all over the world, through one of its toughest periods in its history."

Guardiola laments Man City decision-making in Brentford collapse

AFP | London

Pep Guardiola said Manchester City's lack of care with the ball was the reason for their late collapse from 2-0 up to draw 2-2 at Brentford on Tuesday.

Phil Foden's double put the English champions on course for a fourth consecutive win after a miserable run of one victory in 13 games.

But defensive deficiencies and struggles to hold onto leads have been a consistent theme in a difficult season for Guardiola's men.

Brentford created chances throughout the game and took them in the final 10 minutes through Yoane Wissa and Christian Norgaard to hit back for a deserved point.

Manchester City's Norwegian striker #09 Erling Haaland (L) fights for the ball

"Long balls we won and we could run and in that moment we didn't take the right decisions," said Guardiola.

"Maybe that would have been different but at the same time they had chances. Their strikers are really good, Wissa and (Bryan) Mbeumo are really dangerous."

City were again without injured centre-backs Ruben Dias and John Stones, while captain Kyle Walker was not included in Guardiola's squad after expressing his desire to leave the club this month.

"At 2-0 we have to close it but we don't have those specific players to defend in the box so we have to do it by controlling the ball," added Guardiola.

"The fatigue against Brentford in the last 15 minutes is normal. I don't have anything to regret. Recover and go to the next game."

A point leaves City still sixth in the Premier League, two points adrift of the top four and 12 behind leaders Liverpool.

Djokovic creates slice of history

Rainy Day Four in Melbourne sees Djokovic set Open Era record, Alcaraz cruises, and Sabalenka battles

● Djokovic secures 430th Grand Slam match

● Ruud, Zheng stunned

● Osaka, Gauff battle through tough matches

AFP | Melbourne

Novak Djokovic celebrated a slice of Grand Slam history on his way into the Australian Open third round yesterday, but last year's women's finalist Zheng Qinwen was knocked out in the biggest shock so far.

Defending champion Aryna Sabalenka, in-form Coco Gauff, former Melbourne winner Naomi Osaka and a rampant Carlos Alcaraz were all victors on a rainy day four.

Alexander Zverev also progressed but Norway's Casper Ruud went down in four sets to Czech teenager Jakub Mensik to become the highest men's seed to fall at six.

Playing under the roof on Rod Laver Arena, Djokovic needed four sets for the second match in a row before defeating Portuguese qualifier Jaime Faria 6-1, 6-7 (4/7), 6-3, 6-2.

It was Djokovic's 430th singles match at a major to claim sole ownership of most ever played, men or women, in the Open Era ahead of Roger Federer (429) and Serena Williams (423).

The Serb is chasing a record-extending 11th Australian Open title and historic 25th Grand Slam crown.

"Whether I win or lose, I will always leave my heart out on the court. I'm just blessed to be making another record," said Djokovic, 37, now coached by former rival Andy Murray.

Djokovic faces Czech 26th seed Tomas Machac next and is drawn to meet Spain's Alcaraz in the last eight.

Four-time Grand Slam winner Alcaraz dropped just five games in an ominous display to sprint into the third round.

NOVAK DJOKOVIC

The third seed showed no mercy to Japan's Yoshihito Nishio in a 6-0, 6-1, 6-4 rout in 81 minutes.

"The less time you spend on court in the Grand Slams, especially in the beginning, it is going to be better," said Alcaraz, who is yet to go beyond the quarter-finals in Melbourne.

Second seed Zverev swept through with a straight-sets victory over Spain's Pedro Martinez. Heading home yesterday with Ruud was qualifier Hady Habib, who on Sunday became the first player from Lebanon to win a Grand Slam match.

He exited in three sets to France's Ugo Humbert.

'Nothing more'

Olympic champion Zheng was sent packing 7-6 (7/3), 6-3 by world number 97 Laura Siegemund, the second-oldest player in the women's draw at age 36.

"I knew I just had to play more

Novak Djokovic

Novak Djokovic is now the sole record holder for the most Grand Slam singles matches played in the Open Era, surpassing Roger Federer and Serena Williams than my best tennis. I had nothing to lose so I just told myself to swing free," said the German.

"It's tennis. Nothing more," said China's Zheng, 22, who was given two time violations and lost her cool as her tilt at a maiden major crown evaporated in only the second round.

Sabalenka dropped her serve three times and faced 11 break points before overcoming Spain's Jessica Bouzas Maneiro 6-3, 7-5, rattling off the last five games in a row.

"I have to fight. Today's match proved that. Girls can go there and just play without any fear, without anything to lose. They can put you in really uncomfortable positions," said Sabalenka, who beat Zheng in the 2024 final.

The win kept the Belarusian world number one on course for a rare hat-trick of consecutive Australian Open titles, a feat last achieved 26 years ago by Martina Hingis and only matched by four other women in history.

Former world number one Osaka, the 2019 and 2021 champion in Australia but now unseeded, stormed back to defeat 20th seed Karolina Muchova 1-6, 6-1, 6-3.

Osaka called it a "little revenge" for defeat at the US Open in August to the Czech.

World number three Gauff, who finished 2024 by winning the China Open and the WTA Tour Finals, fought back from 5-3 down in the second set to see off Britain's Jodie Burrage 6-3, 7-5.

Asked what she had to do to beat 30th seed Leylah Fernandez next, Gauff told reporters: "Obviously serve better!"

Gauff's fellow American Jessica Pegula, beaten in the US Open final by Sabalenka last year, eased through against Belgium's Elise Mertens.

On Thursday, men's number one Jannik Sinner steps up the defence of his Melbourne crown when he faces Australian wildcard Tristan Schoolkate.

Daniil Medvedev, Iga Swiatek and Brazilian teenage sensation Joao Fonseca are also in second-round action.

Ancelotti demands Real Madrid response after Clasico drubbing

AFP | Madrid

Real Madrid coach Carlo Ancelotti yesterday demanded a rapid reaction from his team after their capitulation against rivals Barcelona in the Spanish Super Cup final.

The Catalans lifted the trophy on Sunday in Saudi Arabia with an emphatic 5-2 victory and Madrid's Italian coach welcomed Thursday's Copa del Rey last 16 clash against Celta Vigo as a chance for his team to bounce back.

"It's a great opportunity to leave behind the bad game we played, which hurt us a lot, but has not sunk us," Ancelotti told a news conference yesterday.

"We want to react, it's good this game for us against a team that plays well, the team can have a strong reaction after that bad game the other day..."

"It was a step backwards, but we have to keep going forward, we're in a good position in all competitions."

Ancelotti said his team made

Real Madrid's Italian coach Carlo Ancelotti gestures during a training session

"a heap of errors" against Barcelona but had looked for solutions in the days since ahead of Celta's visit to the Santiago Bernabeu.

The coach did not want to single out any players for criticism after the thrashing but said the whole team "lacked commitment" in defence.

"The evaluation of the game was a bad game in a defensive sense in every line of the team, not just in attack, or in midfield, or in defence, and there's nothing more to add," added Ancelotti.

The veteran coach, who led Real Madrid to La Liga and Champions League triumphs last season, has been criticised in the Spanish media after the defeat in Jeddah.

"I'm not following the wave of criticism -- one day you're the best in the world, and the next the stupidest (coach) of all," added the 65-year-old.

"Luckily my experience in this world has given me the balance that I need not to follow the wave... I'm not the best in the world but neither am I the stupidest."

Exciting horse racing continues at REHC

Action from a previous race at REHC

TDI | Manama

Excitement is building for the 13th race of the 2024/2025 season at the Rashid Equestrian and Horse Racing Club, scheduled for Friday. The event will feature the coveted Shaikh Isa bin Salman Al Khalifa Cup and other prestigious trophies.

The Shaikh Isa Cup, a highlight of the season, traditionally attracts elite horses preparing for the upcoming Crown Prince Cup festival. Notable international and Bahraini entries promise fierce competition across all categories.

This week's event also includes the third round of the Bahrain International Trophy series, supported by prominent sponsors such as Bapco Energies, Alba, and Gulf Air. The series has elevated Bahrain's global standing in horse racing, drawing top-rated horses, trainers, and jockeys worldwide.

Friday's races will feature 12 events, including key rounds in the Bahrain International Trophy, contested by some of the finest local and international horses. Among the highlights are the Waseem Cup and Al-Adiyat Cup, showcasing thrilling performances across varied distances and categories.

The season's earlier rounds saw impressive wins by Bahraini and international horses, raising anticipation for Friday's events. With extensive participation from global and local stables, the competition is expected to set new benchmarks for the sport in Bahrain.

The Rashid Equestrian Club continues to reinforce Bahrain's position on the international horse racing map, blending tradition with world-class standards.

Germany's Thiaw to miss Juve and Champions League clashes with hamstring injury: AC Milan

AFP | Milan

Malick Thiaw will sit out AC Milan's match with Juventus and the Champions League game against Girona after the Serie A club said yesterday that he has a hamstring injury.

In a short statement, Milan said Thiaw had hurt his left hamstring, an injury that forced the Germany defender to be substituted in the second half of Tuesday's 2-1 win at Como.

"He will be assessed in seven to 10 days," added Milan.

The 23-year-old will sit out Saturday's trip to fierce rivals Juve, four days before Milan continue their bid for direct qualification for the last 16 of the Champions League against Spanish club Girona at the San Siro. Milan added that attacking stars Christian Pulisic and Alvaro Morata, who were replaced at half-time against Como, had not picked up similar muscle injuries as previously feared.
