Arsenal beat Rosenior’s Chelsea in League Cup semi first leg

AFP | London

Arsenal ruined Chelsea manager Liam Rosenior’s first home game as they moved closer to Wembley with a 3-2 win in the League Cup semi-final first leg on Wednesday.

Rosenior’s side had beaten second-tier Charlton 5-1 in his debut in the FA Cup third round last weekend.

But Arsenal ensured his first game on the Stamford Bridge bench was significantly less enjoyable.

Ben White put the Premier League leaders ahead in the first half and Viktor Gyokeres punished a blunder by Chelsea goalkeeper Robert Sanchez to score their second after the interval.

Alejandro Garnacho came off the bench to pull one back for Chelsea before Martin Zubimendi grabbed Arsenal’s third goal.

Garnacho gave Chelsea a glimmer of hope with his second goal in the closing stages.

But Arsenal will go into the second leg at Emirates Stadium on February 3 as firm favourites to reach the Wembley final in March.

Manchester City won 2-0 at Newcastle in the first leg of the other semi-final on Tuesday.

Arsenal are unbeaten in their last 10 matches in all competitions as they try to win their first trophy since the 2020 FA Cup.

Gunners boss Mikel Arteta had claimed his players were motivated by their 4-0 aggregate defeat against Newcastle in the League Cup semi-finals last season.

They also lost in the semi-finals of the 2025 Champions League, the 2022 League Cup and the 2021 Europa League.

Top of the Premier League and Champions League, and through to the FA Cup fourth round, Arsenal may never have a better chance to end their silverware drought.

Rosenior, sacked by Hull in 2024, was hired by Chelsea last week to replace Enzo Maresca after earning plaudits for leading French club Strasbourg to a seventh-place finish last season.

The 41-year-old’s introduction to Stamford Bridge was hampered by the absence of Cole Palmer, Moises Caicedo, Reece James, Liam Delap, Jamie Gittens and Malo Gusto due to a combination of injuries, illness and suspension.

Set-piece experts

Despite saying he had been focused on playing Arsenal since the moment he took charge last week, Chelsea looked completely unprepared as they were caught cold in the seventh minute.

Arsenal’s set-piece prowess has become their most essential attacking quality over the last two seasons and Rosenior became their latest victim in the seventh minute.

Declan Rice curled a corner into the six-yard box and when Sanchez mistimed his attempt to catch the ball, the unmarked White had time and space to guide a downwards header into the net.

White’s first goal since 2024, when he netted against Chelsea, was Arsenal’s 24th from set-pieces -- including 18 at corners -- in all competitions this season, the most by any club in Europe’s top five leagues.

Enzo Fernandez and Estevao Willian.

Arsenal doubled their lead in the 49th minute thanks to Sanchez’s howler.

White’s low cross should have been easy for Sanchez, but he let it slip through his grasp and Gyokeres tapped into the empty net for his first goal in open play in 16 games.

It was a rare moment of vindication for the much-maligned Sweden striker, who has scored just eight times in 26 appearances since arriving from Sporting Lisbon last year.

Rosenior sent on Garnacho for Marc Guiu and the change made an immediate impact.

Garnacho struck in the 57th minute, drilling home from close range after Arsenal failed to clear.

Zubimendi restored the Gunners’ two-goal advantage in the 71st minute.

Muharraq’s title bid ends in Tunisia

Hussain Almaskati TDT | Manama

Bahrain champions Muharraq saw their impressive run in the 44th Arab Club Men’s Volleyball Championship come to an end yesterday, losing 3-1 (25-20, 24-26, 22-25, 21-25) to hosts Etoile Sportive du Sahel in the semi-final.

Muharraq started with authority at the Sports Palace Hall in Tunisia, taking the opening set 25-20 through composed attacking and solid blocking. Jacob Link and Mateusz Jozwik set the tempo, while Mohammed Abdulla and Naser Anan delivered crucial points late to keep the hosts at bay.

The turning point came in a tense second set. Muharraq led 24-20 after Link and Abdulla stretched the cushion, but service errors and extended video checks allowed Etoile back into contention. Hamza Hfaiedh sparked the comeback as the hosts overturned the deficit to snatch the set 26-24, silencing Muharraq’s bench.

Set three developed into a bruising battle of momentum swings. Muharraq repeatedly fought back to level the score, with Abdulla, Anan, and Jozwik keeping them in touch, but Etoile’s Wajdi Baroudi and Ala Samoud were decisive at the net. A spectacular rally finished by Farrah pushed the hosts to a 25-22 win.

Muharraq showed resilience again in the fourth, closing to within a point at 21-20 after late strikes from Link and Anan. However, Etoile responded under pressure, with Hfaiedh sealing the contest 25-21 to send the home crowd into celebration.

Coached by Yaseen Al Meel, Muharraq bow out with pride after a strong tournament run that included group-stage wins over Oman’s Majees SC, Qatar’s Police CF, and the Palestinian Forces Club, and a dominant quarter-final sweep of Qatar SC.

Despite the defeat, the Red Wolves’ semi-final showing underlined their growing stature among Arab volleyball’s elite.

Muharraq Keep Pressure on Leaders

Hussain Almaskati TDT | Manama

Matchweek 12 of the Nasser bin Hamad Premier League saw two key fixtures yesterday, with Muharraq edging Al Ahli 1-0 in Bahrain’s El Clasico at Khalifa Sports City, while Sitra secured a 1-0 victory over Bahrain Club at Shaikh Ali bin Mohammed Stadium.

In Sitra’s clash against Bahrain Club, the breakthrough came in the 38th minute. Ali Nasser played out wide to Karl, who squared the ball to Othman Al Hajj. The striker finished first-time with a composed strike into the left corner, giving Sitra a crucial lead. Despite Bahrain Club’s efforts, the hosts held firm to claim all three points, strengthening their mid-table position.

Meanwhile, Muharraq and Al Ahli produced a tense encounter. The decisive moment arrived in the 80th minute when Juninho scored the winner. A cross was delivered into the box, Arthur Rezende headed it into a dangerous area, and under intense pressure from Al Ahli captain Baqer Alasfoor, Juninho stretched high to connect and slot the ball home. The goal secured Muharraq three vital points and keeps them within striking distance of leaders Al Khaldiya.

with 30 points, three clear of Muharraq, who sit second with 27 points. Sitra’s win moves them to 15 points in sixth place, while Al Ahli remain in ninth with 12 points and Bahrain Club fight to climb from 11th with six points.

Earlier this season, in the reverse fixtures, Sitra defeated Bahrain Club 4-1, and Muharraq recorded a 3-0 victory over Al Ahli. With the title race tightening, every point will count as the league heads into its final stages.
