Bahrain lauds UAE for mediating Russia-Ukraine prisoner exchange

TDT | Manama

Bahrain has praised the United Arab Emirates for successfully mediating the exchange of 168 prisoners between the Russian Federation and Ukraine.

In a statement, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs commended the UAE's humanitarian role, highlighting that the total number of prisoners exchanged through its mediation has now reached 4,349. The ministry also acknowledged the UAE's support for all initiatives aimed at resolving the ongoing crisis between the two countries.

Israeli military says its forces conducting operations on Gaza City outskirts

Jerusalem, Undefined

The Israeli military yesterday said its troops were conducting a range of operations on the outskirts of Gaza City, ahead of a new major offensive to capture the sprawling municipal area.

The announcement came a week after Israel's security cabinet approved the capture of the Palestinian territory's largest city following 22 months of war that have created dire humanitarian conditions.

Young guns drive workforce

Seven in ten Bahraini workers are under 40

● Young workforce dominates private sector

● 74.1% of Bahrainis in private sector jobs were under 40

● Out of 155,596 Bahraini employees, 107,963 were younger than 40

A youthful workforce continues to shape Bahrain's labour market, with seven in ten Bahraini employees under 40 in the first quarter of 2025, new government data reveal.

Across the public and private sectors, 155,596 Bahrainis were in employment, of whom 107,963 were under 40. The public sector employed 51,138 Bahrainis, with 30,470 under 40, accounting for 60%. The private sector, by contrast, counted 104,458 workers, including 77,493 under 40, or 74.1% of its workforce.

The largest age group among employees was 30 to 39, representing 41%, followed by those aged 20 to 29 at 28%. Only 1,140 insured Bahrainis were under 20, or 0.7% of the total.

In terms of gender, men made up 58% of the workforce (89,886), while women accounted for 42% (65,710). Among older age groups, 34,055 Bahrainis were aged 40 to 49 (22%), and 11,583 were 50 to 59 (7%).

The data highlight the strong presence of younger Bahrainis, particularly in the private sector, reflecting a workforce increasingly dominated by early and mid-career professionals.

YouTube turns to AI to spot children posing as adults

AFP | San Francisco, United States

YouTube has started using artificial intelligence (AI) to figure out when users are children pretending to be adults on the popular video-sharing platform amid pressure to protect minors from sensitive content.

The new safeguard is being rolled out in the United States as Google-owned YouTube and social media platforms such as Instagram and TikTok are under scrutiny to shield children from content geared for grown-ups.

A version of AI referred to as machine learning will be used to estimate the age of users based on a variety of factors, including the kinds of videos watched and account longevity, according to YouTube Youth director of product management James Beser.

"This technology will allow us to infer a user's age and then use that signal, regardless of the birthday in the account, to deliver our age-appropriate product experiences and protections," Beser said.

Trump, Putin shake hands at start of Alaska summit

Anchorage, United States

Donald Trump and Vladimir Putin shook hands and smiled at an air base in Alaska on Friday as they opened a high-risk summit that will test the US president's promise to end the bloody war in Ukraine.

In choreographed drama, Trump and Putin each arrived in their presidential jets and walked under gray skies to greet each other on the tarmac, before walking a red carpet together to an honor guard salute.

As fighter jets circled overhead, a reporter shouted audibly to Putin, "Will you stop killing civilians?"

Neither leader answered as they posed at a podium that said "Alaska 2025" before Putin -- in a highly unusual move -- followed Trump into the US presidential limousine.

For the Russian president, the summit marks his first foray onto Western soil since he ordered the invasion of Ukraine in February 2022, triggering a relentless conflict that has killed tens of thousands of people.

UN says at least 1,760 killed while seeking aid in Gaza since late May

Jerusalem, Undefined

The UN human rights office said yesterday that at least 1,760 Palestinians had been killed while seeking aid in Gaza since late May, a jump of several hundred since its last published figure at the beginning of August.

"Since 27 May, and as of 13 August, we have recorded that at least 1,760 Palestinians have been killed while seeking aid; 994 in the vicinity of GHF (Gaza Humanitarian Foundation) sites and 766 along the routes of supply convoys. Most of these killings were committed by the Israeli military," the agency's office for the Palestinian territories said in a statement.

That compares with a figure of 1,373 killed the office reported on August 1.

Common area management under RERA scanner

The authority bans unlicensed management of common parts

- Owners' associations barred from hiring unlicensed firms for shared areas
- New licensing categories set minimum experience and registration requirements
- Licence withdrawal possible for violations, inactivity, or false documentation

Mohammed Darwish
TDT | Manama

Owners' associations are no longer authorised to hire unlicensed firms to manage common parts or shared areas in investment islands, as well as in residential and commercial blocks, according to the Real Estate Regulatory Authority (RERA).

RERA chairman Essam Khalaf also ordered the enforcement of licensing decisions within five working days, with applications deemed refused if no decision is issued within that period.

Managing shared areas without prior authorisation is now prohibited.

Procedure

Applicants must obtain a licence from RERA in accordance

Representative picture

Bahrain was one of the first Gulf countries to establish an independent real estate regulator when RERA began operations on March 1, 2018, under a law introduced in 2017. All real estate professionals, including developers, brokers, and sales agents, were required to obtain a licence by August 31 of the same year with Article 3. The authority will decide on applications within five working days, with silence deemed a refusal. Applicants may lodge a grievance with the chief executive in accordance with Articles 6 and 7. If approved, the licence will be issued once the applicable fees are paid and the category is determined.

Three years of experience

Article 9 establishes two licensing categories. Category A covers main, central, and subsidiary common parts, while Category B applies only to subsidiary common parts. To qualifying for Category A, applicants must have at least three years of local or foreign experience in property or common parts management, along with access to financial, technical, and legal expertise either through direct employment or contractual arrangements. Category B applicants must have a minimum of one year's relevant experience.

Responsibility

Article 12 makes the licensee personally responsible for managing, operating, and maintaining the common parts. While technicians or contractors may be engaged, they must remain under the licensee's direct supervision. Routine repairs must be carried out without delay, and urgent repairs must be undertaken immediately. Replacement of common parts is permitted only when repair is impossible or serves no practical purpose.

Written contract

A written contract with the owners' association is required, detailing rights, duties, scope of work, fees, and dispute resolution. Any conflicts of interest must be disclosed, and RERA must be notified of licence changes or cessation of activity within 30 days.

Court orders BD 200 in moral damages for vulgar insult

TDT | Manama

The Minor Civil Court has ordered a defendant to pay BD 200 in moral damages, along with BD 30 in lawyers' fees and court costs, after ruling that a vulgar insult and obscene hand gesture caused harm warranting compensation.

The judgment was delivered during a public hearing on Thursday. The plaintiff, represented by lawyer Zainab Madan, had filed the claim earlier.

The court relied on a Public Prosecution certificate confirming that a criminal conviction against the defendant for insult, accompanied by a fine, had become final. The prosecution file was also reviewed before the case was reserved for judgment. The defendant attended the hearing and argued that his words did not justify compensation.

Case records showed the defendant used a vulgar term implying effeminacy and made an obscene gesture by showing the middle finger. The court applied Articles 158 and 162 of the Civil Code, which require proof of fault, damage, and causation, and allow compensation for moral harm, including injury to honour, reputation, and feelings.

The court emphasised the binding effect of a final criminal decision on civil proceedings, citing the Criminal Procedure Law, Evidence Law, and Court of Cassation rulings. With fault, damage, and causation established, the court assessed BD 200 as a sum that consoles the injured party and restores standing.

The defendant was also ordered to cover court costs and BD 30 towards the plaintiff's legal fees.

Classic car modification ends in court: Garage fined BD 14,950

The High Civil Court has ordered a garage owner to pay BD 14,950 to a Gulf national after damaging two classic cars that had been entrusted to him for race modifications.

The plaintiff, represented by lawyer Amna Al Awadhi, had initially agreed in 2022 to have a 2014 Toyota 86 modified. The car was delivered on 29 October 2022, with its condition documented in video and photographs. At the plaintiff's request, a second car, a 2013 Toyota 86, was added and handed over on 5 January 2024 to a representative of the defendant at the border.

The modification plan involved transferring the engine and gearbox from the first car to the second, making it fully operational, and fitting the first car with a new engine, gearbox, and other necessary parts. The plaintiff closely monitored the process, both in person and online, and documented every stage.

Payments to the defendant totalled BD 3,300. An expert appointed by the plaintiff later examined the vehicles and reported extensive damage: engines and gearboxes were missing, other parts were faulty or non-original, and prolonged poor storage caused additional harm. The inspection also found the cars parked outside the garage owner's father's house. The direct loss was valued at BD 13,950, after deducting scrap value, with an additional BD 1,000 sought for distress.

The court upheld the expert's findings, noting repeated but unsuccessful attempts by the plaintiff to secure progress. The defendant, despite being granted extra time, did not submit his own expert report.

The judgment ordered the defendant to pay BD 14,950 in total, covering damages, the expert's fees, legal costs, and expenses.

Port calls sail to new high

Khalifa Bin Salman Port logs 10% rise in arrivals in H1 2025

- 428 vessels arrived at Khalifa Bin Salman Port in H1 2025
- February 2025 saw 82 arrivals, second only to December 2024's record 86

Mohammed Darwish
TDT | Manama

Signalling a rebound in trade, Bahrain saw a 10% increase in port calls at the Khalifa Bin Salman Port in the first half of this year. Official figures show 428 vessels moored at the port between January and June 2025, up from 389 in the same period of 2024. Thanks to the port's strategic location, the Kingdom continues to attract regional and international cargo traffic. The rise points to a pick-up driven by Bahrain's trade recovery, larger import and export volumes, and growth in logistics services. February 2025 was the busiest month in the half with 82 arrivals, second only to December 2024's 86—the highest monthly count in more than five years. April 2025 was the quietest month, with just 56 vessels. Monthly tallies for 2025 were: 77 in January, 82 in February, 68 in March, 56 in April, 70 in May and 75 in June, giving a total of 428. For 2024's first half, the port handled 77 in January, 68 in February, 68 in March, 50 in April, 68 in May and 58 in June. In the second half, it re

Expansion of University of Bahrain Health College Proposed

Mohammed Darwish
TDT | Manama

An expansion of the University of Bahrain's College of Health and Sport Sciences has been put forward to raise student intake after years of tight capacity. MP Dr Munir Suroor said the college's small premises in Sal-maniya limit admissions and leave thousands of applicants without a place each year. Some seats are set aside for scholarship students from different bodies, which further narrows entry. The college offers master's, bachelor's and diploma programmes, yet, according to Dr Suroor, it can accept only dozens in each specialism. In one recent year, the minimum average for admission reached 96.5 per cent. He said demand is shaped by the local and regional labour market, with nursing drawing the heaviest interest. Parents have, in some cases, turned to private universities and paid high fees so their sons and daughters can study healthcare. 'Every academic year I receive many calls from citizens and parents about their children's wish to study nursing, pharmacy and radiology,' he said. 'Unfortunately, they did not obtain admission because places are limited, demand is very high and competition intense.' He noted the college is nearing half a century since its founding and remains in two small buildings. Dr Suroor has submitted a proposal to enlarge the college to meet demand for healthcare staff. He added that the plan is intended to lay the ground for turning the college, in time, into a medical school.

Cityscape Bahrain Returns This November with a New Vision to ‘Elevate Your Lifestyle’

Over 76% of the exhibition space has already been sold, reflecting strong demand from both regional and local developers

Manama

Cityscape Bahrain, the Kingdom’s premier real estate exhibition and investment forum, is set to return for its fourth edition from 25 to 29 November 2025 at Exhibition World Bahrain.

Held under the theme ‘Elevate Your Lifestyle’, this year’s edition will spotlight the continued growth and transformation of Bahrain’s real estate sector. Over the course of five days, Cityscape Bahrain will serve as a strategic platform connecting government entities, real estate developers, investors, financial institutions, and industry leaders to explore investment-ready projects and long-term opportunities across both residential and commercial landscapes.

Organised in partnership with the Real Estate Regulatory Authority (RERA Bahrain), the event is expected to welcome over 12,000 attendees, including local and international stakeholders from across the real estate and investment industry.

Cityscape Bahrain 2025 will also host the fourth edition of the Cityscape Bahrain Conference, running from 25 to 28 November under the theme ‘Investing in Bahrain’. The conference will highlight the Kingdom’s growing appeal as a dynamic hub for regional and global investors, bringing together public and private sector leaders to explore Bahrain’s ongoing efforts to enhance urban development, improve quality of life, and position the Kingdom as a premier destination to live, work, and invest.

This edition of Cityscape Bahrain comes amid heightened market activity and investor confidence. More than 76% of the exhibition space has already been sold, reflecting strong demand from both regional and local developers. The event also coincides with growing interest in Bahrain’s Golden Visa program, which offers long-term residency to eligible real estate investors.

Cityscape Bahrain continues to reinforce the Kingdom’s position as a leading destination for real estate and investment, reflecting a forward-looking vision aligned with Bahrain’s national development priorities.

Bahrain Pavilion at Expo 2025 Osaka among top global attractions

TDT | Tokyo

Four months after opening at Expo 2025 Osaka, the Bahrain Pavilion, themed “Connecting Seas”, continues to showcase the Kingdom’s cultural and civilisational heritage in Japan, blending tradition with innovation and welcoming visitors from around the world.

Recognised by global architectural platform ArchDaily as one of the top ten must visit pavilions, it offers an immersive journey combining sensory exhibits, architecture inspired by Bahrain’s maritime history and Japanese woodworking, a café blending Bahraini and Japanese flavours, an economic showcase of the Kingdom’s future, and a heritage themed gift shop.

Shaikh Khalifa bin Ahmed bin Abdulla Al Khalifa, President of the Bahrain Authority for Culture and Antiquities (BACA) and Commissioner General of the pavilion, said the participation reflects Bahrain’s vision to enhance its cultural and economic presence globally. He noted preparations are under way for Bahrain’s National Day at the expo in September to highlight the Kingdom’s maritime heritage, artistic creativity, and cultural and economic resilience.

Located in the “Empowering Lives” zone, the 995-square-metre pavilion stands four storeys high with sea views. Designed by Lina Ghotmeh, it is built mainly from wood and cooled naturally by sea breezes, making it one of the most sustainable structures at the expo.

The multi sensory exhibition, curated with artists and institutions including Shepherd Studio, Sissel Tolaas, Hassan Hujairi, and La Méduse, explores themes of trade, crafts, industry, pearls, and the environment. The café, led by award winning Bahraini chef Tala Bashmi, serves seasonal menus fusing Bahraini and Japanese ingredients. Staff and volunteers wear designs by Lulwa Al Amin, featuring coastal inspired prints and embroidery.

Expo 2025 Osaka runs until October 13. Bahrain’s National Day at the pavilion will be celebrated on September 18.

Keeping cool with colours -- Vienna museum paints asphalt to fight heat

Austrian artist Jonas Griessler measures the sweltering heat in an inner courtyard in the centre of Vienna. Thanks to his collective's art work covering the black asphalt with a multitude of bright colours, the ground temperature has dropped from 31C to 20C. Initiated by the museum showing the private collection of late Austrian billionaire Heidi Horten, the project combines creativity, science and urban planning as Europe suffocates under the latest heatwave.

South Korean President Lee Jae Myung vowed yesterday (Aug 15) to "respect" North Korea's political system and build "military trust", a day after Pyongyang said it had no interest in improving relations with Seoul. Lee has vowed to reach out to the nuclear-armed North and pursue dialogue without preconditions since his election in June - a reversal from his hawkish predecessor. Speaking at an event marking the anniversary of liberation from Japanese rule, Lee said the South Korean government "will take consistent measures to substantially reduce tensions and restore trust" with the North.

Tainted fentanyl death toll surpasses 100 in Argentina

The death toll from contaminated fentanyl administered in Argentina's hospitals grew to over 100 on Thursday, the government said, blaming a local pharma lab as outrage grew over the slow response to the crisis. Since May, the country has been trying to determine how many deaths were linked to bacteria-infected supplies of the drug used in hospitals in four provinces as well as the capital Buenos Aires.

World's first humanoid robot games begin in China

Two robots fight in a free combat style event during the World Humanoid Robot Games in Beijing

AFP | Beijing

The world's first-ever humanoid robot games began yesterday in Beijing, with over 500 androids alternating between jerky tumbles and glimpses of real power as they compete in events from the 100-metre hurdles to kung fu.

Hundreds of robotics teams from 16 countries are going for gold at the Chinese capital's National Speed Skating Oval, built for the 2022 Winter Olympics.

The games include traditional sports like athletics and basketball, as well as practical tasks such as medicine categorisation and cleaning.

"I believe in the next 10 years or so, robots will be basically at the same level as humans," enthusiastic 18-year-old spectator Chen Ruiyuan told AFP.

Human athletes might not be quaking in their boots just yet.

At one of the first events yesterday morning, five-a-side football, 10 robots the size of seven-year-olds shuffled around the pitch, often getting stuck in a scrum or falling over en masse.

However, in a 1500-metre race, domestic champion Unitree's humanoids stomped along the track at an impressive clip, easily outpacing their rivals.

The fastest robot AFP witnessed finished in 6:29:37, a far cry from the human men's world record of 3:26:00.

One mechanical racer barrelled straight into a human operator. The robot remained standing, while the human was knocked flat, though did not appear to be injured.

Robot competitions have been held for decades, but the 2025 World Humanoid Robot Games is the first to focus specifically on robots that resemble human bodies, organisers said.

The Chinese government has poured support into robotics hoping to lead the industry.

Beijing has put humanoids in the "centre of their national strategy", the International Federation of Robotics wrote in a paper on Thursday.

Marking I-Day, India's Modi vows self-reliance

● Modi calls for domestic fighter jets, chips, defence shield

● India-made semiconductor chips due this year

● Plans for space station within a decade

TDI | Manama

Prime Minister Narendra Modi used his Independence Day address to outline key achievements, major reforms, and a vision for a self-reliant, developed India by 2047.

"My dear countrymen, This festival of Independence is a celebration of the 140 crore resolutions of our people and a moment of collective pride. From the deserts to the Himalayas, the seashores to crowded cities, the 'Har Ghar Tiranga' campaign echoes the praise of our motherland.

In 1947, our nation began its journey with immense challenges. Guided by the Constitution, shaped by leaders like Dr. Rajendra Prasad, Babasaheb Ambedkar, Sardar Patel, and Hansa Mehta, we have followed the path set by revered Bapu. Today, I bow to these makers of modern Bharat.

On this 125th birth anniversary of Dr. Syama Prasad Mookerjee, we recall his sacrifice for 'One Nation, One Constitution'. Guests from across Bharat, from village panchayats to sports persons, are present here, symbolising unity.

Nature has tested us with landslides and cloudbursts; relief and rescue efforts are ongoing. Operation Sindoor showed our resolve after the Pahalgam massacre. Our forces, given full freedom, destroyed terrorist bases deep inside enemy territory. Bharat will not tolerate nuclear blackmail, nor will we allow Self-reliance is the foundation of a Viksit Bharat. 'Made in India' enabled Operation Sindoor's success. We are advancing in semiconductors, clean energy, nuclear power, and critical minerals. By 2047, nuclear capacity will grow tenfold, and we aim for energy independence through the National Deep Water Exploration Mission.

We are building an Aatmanirbhar Gaganyaan and preparing our own space station. I urge our scientists, engineers, and youth to develop indigenous jet engines, medicines, AI plat-

Security is paramount. We have reduced Naxal-affected districts from over 125 to just 20. Today, I announce the Sudarshan Chakra Mission - a powerful, indigenous defence system to protect strategic and civilian areas by 2035.

Indian rescuers scour debris after 60 killed in flood

AFP | Kishtwar

Indian rescuers pulled bodies from mud and rubble yesterday after the latest deadly flood to crash through a Himalayan village killed at least 60 people and washed away dozens more.

Torrents of water and mud driven by intense rain tore through Chisoti village in Indian-administered Kashmir on Thursday, leaving dozens missing, including Hindu pilgrims who were visiting a shrine.

It is the second major deadly flooding disaster in India this month.

Officials said a large makeshift kitchen in Chisoti, where more than 100 pilgrims were, was com-

Arun Shah, 35, had just completed his pilgrimage with his family when the flood struck.

"It was horrifying", he said, speaking by telephone from a hospital in Kishtwar district, where Chisoti is located.

"Boulders and a rush of water came down from the mountain. We all got separated while trying to save ourselves," he said.

Kishtwar district hospital head Yudhvir Kotwal said more than 100 people were brought in after the disaster.

"Most of the injured had head injuries, fractured bones and ribs," Kotwal said, adding that "dead bodies are still being retrieved from under the mud and rubble".

Pakistan Floods Kill 199

Heavy monsoon rains trigger landslides and flash floods, killing at least 199 across northern Pakistan

- 180 killed in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa province
- Helicopter crash kills five during rescue
- Disaster-hit zones declared in four districts

AFP | Bajaur

Landslides and flash floods triggered by heavy monsoon rains across northern Pakistan have killed at least 199 people in the past 24 hours, national and local officials said yesterday.

Of those killed, 180 were recorded in the mountainous Khyber Pakhtunkhwa province, where one resident likened the disaster to “doomsday”.

Another nine people were killed in Pakistan-administered Kashmir, along with five in the northern Gilgit-Baltistan region, the National Disaster Management Authority said.

Most were killed in flash floods and collapsing houses, with the dead including 19 women and 17 children. At least 28 others were injured.

Another five people, including two pilots, were killed when a Khyber Pakhtunkhwa government helicopter crashed due to bad weather during a relief mission, the province’s chief minister, Ali Amin Gandapur, said in a statement.

The provincial government has

In Bajaur, a tribal district abutting Afghanistan, a crowd gathered around an excavator digging through a mud-soaked hill, AFP photos showed.

Funeral prayers began in a pad-dock nearby, with people grieving in front of several bodies covered by blankets.

“I heard a loud noise as if the mountain was sliding. I rushed outside and saw the entire area shaking, like it was the end of the world,” Azizullah, a resident of Buner district, where there have been dozens of deaths and injuries, told AFP.

“I thought it was doomsday,” he said.

“The ground was trembling due to the force of the water, and it felt like death was staring me in the face,” said Azizullah who, like many in the region, uses only one name.

The meteorological department has issued a heavy rain alert for Pakistan’s northwest, urging people to avoid “unnecessary exposure to vulnerable areas”.

In the Indian-administered part of Kashmir, a region divided with Pakistan, rescuers pulled bodies from mud and rubble yesterday after a flood crashed through a Himalayan village, killing at least 60 people and washing away dozens more.

Prolonged monsoon

The monsoon season brings South Asia about three-quarters of its annual rainfall, vital for agriculture and food security, but it also brings destruction.

Landslides and flash floods are common during the season, which usually begins in June and eases by the end of September.

Syed Muhammad Tayyab Shah, a representative of the national disaster agency, told AFP that this year’s monsoon season began earlier than usual and is expected to end later.

“The next 15 days... the inten-

The provincial government has declared Saturday a day of mourning, chief minister Gandapur said.

“The national flag will fly at half-mast across the province, and the martyrs will be laid to rest with full state honours,” the statement from his office said.

Scientists say that climate change has made weather events around the world more extreme and more frequent.

Pakistan is one of the world’s most vulnerable countries to the effects of climate change, and its population is contending with extreme weather events with increasing frequency.

The torrential rains that have pounded Pakistan since the start of the summer monsoon, described as “unusual” by authorities, have killed more than 500 people, including 159 children.

World plastic pollution treaty talks collapse with no deal

People on boats collect recyclable plastics from the heavily polluted Citarum River at Batujajar in Bandung, West Java, Indonesia

AFP | Geneva

Talks aimed at striking a landmark global treaty on plastic pollution fell apart yesterday as countries failed to find consensus on how the world should tackle the ever-growing scourge.

Negotiators from 185 nations worked beyond Thursday’s deadline and through the night in an ultimately futile search for common ground.

A large bloc wants bold action such as curbing plastic production, while a smaller clutch of oil-producing states want to focus more narrowly on waste management.

The stalemate was a resounding failure for the environment and for international diplomacy at a time when its frailties are in the spotlight.

Countries voiced anger and despair as the talks unravelled, but said they wanted future negotiations -- despite six rounds of talks over three years now having failed to find agreement.

“We have missed a historic opportunity but we have to keep going and act urgently,” said Cuba.

Colombia added: “The negotiations were consistently blocked by a small number of states who simply don’t want an agreement.”

Putin hails North Korean troops as ‘heroic’ in letter to Kim

AFP | Seoul

Russian President Vladimir Putin hailed North Korean troops sent to fight in Ukraine as “heroic” in a letter to Kim Jong Un, North Korean state media reported yesterday.

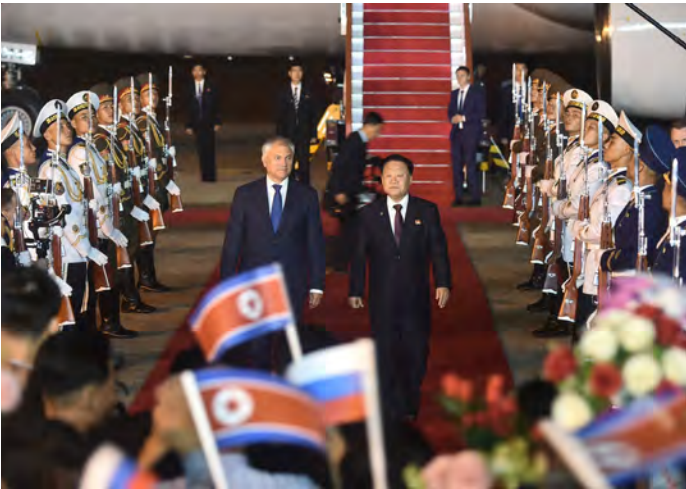

In a letter marking the anniversary of Korea’s liberation from Japanese rule, Putin recalled how Soviet Red Army units and North Korean forces fought together to end Japan’s colonial occupation.

“The bonds of militant friendship, goodwill and mutual aid which were consolidated in the days of the war long ago remain solid and reliable even today,” Putin said in a letter revealed by North Korean state media.

“This was fully proved by the heroic participation of the DPRK soldiers in liberating the territory of Kursk Region from the Ukrainian occupationists,” he said, according to news agency KCNA.

“The Russian people will keep forever the memories of their bravery and self-sacrifice.”

Putin added that the two countries would continue to “act jointly and effectively defend their sovereignty and Around 600 North Korean soldiers have been killed and thousands more wounded fighting for Russia, Seoul has said.

The letter from Putin came alongside a visit by a Russian delegation to Pyongyang, where the speaker of the Duma thanked Kim for sending “excellent soldiers” to Ukraine, KCNA reported.

‘Obsessed’ Sesko will star for Man Utd says Amorim

Benjamin Sesko

AFP | London

Backed Benjamin Sesko to torment Premier League defenders saying Manchester United’s new striker is ready to face Arsenal in their top-flight opener on Sunday.

Sesko joined United from RB Leipzig in a deal worth up to £73.7 million ($99 million) last Saturday.

Armed with the predatory instincts and physical stature, the 22-year-old Slovenian will spearhead Amorim’s bid to revitalise United after their worst season since 1973-74.

Sesko could join fellow United new-boys Matheus Cunha and Bryan Mbeumo in Amorim’s overhauled attack, starting with Arsenal’s visit to Old Trafford this weekend.

“He can play different types of football,” Amorim told reporters yesterday.

“He is going to learn but he has a great potential and I can see Ben being a striker for Manchester United for a lot of years.

“That’s why we paid so much money to have a striker that will have his history in our club.”

Asked if Sesko could start against Arsenal, the United boss said: “We didn’t have a lot of time but he’s ready.

“Physically, he’s ready. That is a big component in our league. Then, he’s really smart. Every detail that he asks, he’s a guy that is always thinking.

“He spends all afternoon here working on his fitness, so he’s ready to play. We will see if he’s going to start.”

Sesko scored 21 goals for German side Leipzig last term and has made a good first impression on Amorim at United’s new-look Carrington training complex.

“He’s one guy who stays here, has lunch, and goes to the medical department, does the stretching,” he said.

“He is always thinking about football. He’s really obsessed about that and that is a good thing because you don’t have to think about that aspect with that young guy.

“I don’t need to tell Ben, ‘Ben, this is Manchester United, a lot of pressure, you have to perform, you need to be ready for the physicality, we need to be ready, every game is like do or die’.

Sesko’s arrival in Manchester has raised fresh questions over the future of United striker Rasmus Hojlund.

Atmane stuns Rune to set up Sinner semi-final

French qualifier earns second top-10 scalp to face world number one Jannik Sinner

● Atmane beats Rune 6-2, 6-3

● Sinner thrashes Auger-Aliassime in 71 minutes

● Shelton continues form with Lehecka win

● Gauff powers into quarter-finals

AFP | Cincinnati

French qualifier Terence Atmane topped another top-10 player in Holger Rune on Thursday to line up a semi-final showdown with world number one Jannik Sinner at the Cincinnati Open.

Atmane followed up his victory over fourth-ranked Taylor Fritz with a 6-2, 6-3 win over ninth-ranked Rune.

The 23-year-old will now face the ultimate test against defending champion Sinner, who said he “felt great” as he thrashed Felix Auger-Aliassime 6-0, 6-2.

“I don’t think any words can describe how I feel right now,” the 136th-ranked Atmane said after blasting 22 winners past Rune, 14 of them off his powerful lefty forehand.

“It’s pretty insane to be honest,” added Atmane, who will move inside the top 100 in the rankings for the first time.

“I cannot believe it. Being here in the semi-finals of a Masters 1000, breaking into the top 100. It means a lot to me.”

He will face a formidable challenge in Wimbledon champion Sinner, who powered through a rapid-fire opening set and bounced back quickly after dropping serve to open the second.

Sinner prevailed in a brief 71 minutes as he claimed an eighth victory in a row at this event and his 30th match win this season.

“I felt great on the court today, you could see that,” said the Italian, who turns 24 on Saturday. “But every day can be different. Let’s see what I can do in the semis.”

Sinner took advantage of Auger-Aliassime’s serving troubles to take the first set in less than 30 minutes, the Canadian delivering three double-faults in the final game.

After going down a quick break in the second Sinner broke back to level at 2-2 and advanced as Auger-Aliassime coughed up his eighth double-fault on match point. “I served well today, that was the key for me,” Sinner said. “I had a small drop in the second set and I’m happy that I broke back. He moves and serves well, he’s difficult to play.”

In the day’s only other men’s match, fifth-seeded Ben Shelton -- coming off a title in Toronto -- posted a 6-4, 6-4 victory over Jiri Lehecka to book a quarter-final clash with third-seeded Alexander Zverev.

quarter-final berth with a 6-2, 6-4 victory over Lucia Bronzetti.

“I could have maybe made some more first serves in that second set, but overall I had a lot of aces and unreturnables,” said Gauff, the 2023 Cincinnati champion who went on to win the US Open title that year.

“I’m happy considering where (my serve) was last week.”

The American next takes on seventh seed Jasmine Paolini, who crushed 2024 Wimbledon champion Barbora Krejickova 6-1, 6-2.

Krejickova had treatment on her left foot in the second set and her movement was clearly hampered.

“She’s a great player and can do anything she wants with the ball,” Paolini, a finalist at Roland Garros and Wimbledon in 2024, said. “But I don’t think she was at 100 percent today.”

France’s Varvara Gracheva rallied to beat Germany’s Ella Seidel 2-6, 6-1, 6-1 in an error-strewn battle of qualifiers.

“I made her play her best game,” Gracheva said. “She was so hot at the end of the first set that I could barely see a ball.

I don’t think any words can describe how I feel right now. It’s pretty insane to be honest. I cannot believe it. Being here in the semi-finals of a Masters 1000, breaking into the top 100. It means a lot to me

Lyon terminate veteran Matic’s contract a year early

AFP | Lyon

Former Serbian international Nemanja Matic has reached an “amicable” agreement for the early termination of his contract with Lyon, the Ligue 1 club said on Thursday.

The 37-year-old former

Manchester United, Chelsea and Benfica midfielder’s contract had been due to run until 30 June, 2026.

However, the club has opted to shed one of its highest paid players as part of its effort to significantly reduce its payroll.

Bundesliga giants eye Bayern's crown

Dortmund, Leverkusen and Stuttgart gear up for a serious assault on Bundesliga dominance

- Bayern lose key stars in summer window
- Rivals strengthen squads with fresh signings
- Kimmich warns of unpredictable title race

AFP | Berlin

Predecessors to the crown Borussia Dortmund, Bayer Leverkusen and cup holders Stuttgart are priming themselves for a run at Bayern Munich's Bundesliga title after a frustrating summer transfer window for the Bavarian giants. Bayern travel to Stuttgart on Saturday for the Franz Beckenbauer Supercup -- the season opener which pits the defending league champions against the reigning German Cup victors. Winners of 12 of the past 13 Bundesliga titles, Bayern occupy their usual role as favourites for the crown. This summer, however, the 34-time league champions have not had everything go their own way. Efforts to lure Florian Wirtz away from Leverkusen fell flat, with the German footballer of the year opting rather for a move to the Premier League and Liverpool.

Bayern Munich's players celebrate a goal lish champions, they lost Thomas Mueller, Leroy Sane and Eric Dier on free transfers. Kingsley Coman is set for a move to Saudi Arabia, Mathys Tel made his Spurs loan permanent and efforts to sign Germany striker Nick Woltemade from Stuttgart have been rebuffed. Speaking with the Bundesliga website on Thursday, Bayern captain Joshua Kimmich said the shifting sands across the league this summer made it hard to see who would be their main rivals. "We'll see who knocks at the top. For us, it will be important to go our own way. We can't influence what the others will do," Kimmich said. Kimmich nominated former side RB Leipzig to bounce back after a poor 2024/25 campaign, where they missed out on Europe for the first time in the top flight. The Saxon club have brought in several young talents including winger Johan Bakayoko and midfielder Arthur Vermeeren, in former Liverpool coach Jurgen Klopp's first summer transfer window as Red Bull global head of football. "Leipzig have a good team. Because Leipzig aren't in European competition, they'll be able to concentrate on the Bundesliga," Kimmich added. New-look Leverkusen Leverkusen, Bayern's principal rival across the past two seasons, have undergone a clear-out this summer. Most of the main contributors to their stunning unbeaten 2023/24 league and cup double have moved on. Wirtz, along with wing-back Jeremie Frimpong have signed with Liverpool. Midfield conductor Granit Xhaka has also moved to the Premier League, while Germany defender Jonathan Tah has joined title rivals Bayern. The biggest loss of all, however, is coach Xabi Alonso, with the Spaniard departing to join Real Madrid. His replacement, former Manchester United boss Erik ten Hag, will be looking to revive his own reputation while cobbling together a squad with several new arrivals. Impressive last season in finishing third, Eintracht Frankfurt are also rebuilding, having lost centre-forward Hugo Ekitike to Liverpool in July, just six months after winger Omar Marmoush moved to Manchester City. Quietly building under Bundesliga-winning coach Niko Kovac, Borussia Dortmund could again trouble old foes Bayern this term. Kovac took over the reins in January with Dortmund flailing but helped the club rise from 11th to fourth, picking up 22 of a possible 24 points to end the season. The addition of Jobe Bellingham will provide steel in mid-field, while the only major loss is winger Jamie Gittens who moved to Chelsea, having struggled for game time under Kovac. Cup winners Stuttgart, who finished second ahead of Bayern in 2023/24, look set to continue troubling the big guns. Stuttgart captain Atakan Karazor told AFP and other media on Thursday: "We have a very special team... we've got quality players in every position -- even some that people haven't heard of." Karazor said the key man is coach Sebastian Hoeness, who has taken Stuttgart from relegation battlers to cup winners and European football in just over two years at the helm. "An amazing, amazing coach. You can see his handwriting on everything the team does. From the moment he came in, the mindset of the team changed," the midfielder said.

Bahrain Silence Host Crowd to Seal Perfect Prelims

Nationals remain flawless vs. Egypt, eye gold in rematch against Algeria

Hussain Almaskati
TDT | Manama

At the Cairo International Stadium, Egypt's home crowd roared, but Bahrain remained unshaken. After trailing 20-18 in the first quarter, they surged 23-16 in the second and led 61-45 after three quarters, closing 80-72. This is their fifth win in the 22nd U16 Arab Basketball Championship for Youth, following convincing wins over Qatar (90-50), Algeria (80-54), Kuwait (81-57), and Tunisia (93-70). Patrick Still the Pillar Somoto Patrick led with 19 points, 19 rebounds, and three blocks, asserting himself inside yet again in the tournament. Hassan Showefi added 18 points and 13 rebounds, while Aly Husien contributed 16 points and six assists. Youssef Mashaai scored 13, and Hassan Fouad's timely five points helped seal the win.

Egypt's Resistance Fades

Egypt started strong, with Mohamed Hassan (15), Karim

Hendi (13), and Omar Mostaf (13), but they were outworked on the boards. A nine-point third quarter for the hosts effectively decided the contest, and while they rallied late with 27 in the fourth, Bahrain's composure under pressure saw them home. Final Beckons Against Familiar Foe The win keeps Bahrain unbeaten (5-0) heading into tomorrow's gold medal game after today's rest day. Their opponents, Algeria, arrive with a near-perfect record, having beaten Kuwait 76-42 yesterday but already tasting defeat (80-54) against Bahrain earlier in their campaign. With six nations competing, Bahrain's form has set them apart. Already qualified for next year's FIBA U16 Asia Cup in Mongolia, they now chase regional gold.

Leipzig sign striker Romulo as Sesko's replacement

AFP | London

RB Leipzig yesterday announced the signing of Brazilian striker Romulo from Turkish side Goztepe to replace Benjamin Sesko, who has left for Manchester United. Romulo, 23, has signed until 2030 for a reported fee of 25 million euros ($29.2 million) including bonuses. Leipzig badly needed a forward after Sesko's big-money move to United. The Slovenian, 22, reportedly cost United 85 million euros. Romulo scored 13 times and laid on nine assists in 29 league matches last campaign.

Liverpool target Isak controls his Newcastle future: Howe

AFP | London

Eddie Howe admits Newcastle striker Alexander Isak has control of his future with the club as Liverpool remain interested in signing the Sweden forward. Isak will not be involved in Newcastle's Premier League opener at Aston Villa on Saturday after reportedly telling the club he wants to leave St James' Park. The 25-year-old was the subject of a rejected £110 million ($149 million) bid from Premier League champions Liverpool earlier in August. Newcastle boss Howe is desperate to keep Isak, who helped the Magpies end their 56-year trophy drought by winning the League Cup final against Liverpool last season, while also firing them to Champions League qualification. Asked if he envisioned Isak playing for the Newcastle before the end of the summer transfer window, Howe told reporters yesterday: "As I sit here now, I don't know that. Alex will control that." Isak is reportedly refusing to train or play in an effort to force his way out of the club he joined from Real Sociedad in 2022. He did not take part in Newcastle's pre-season tour, training alone at his former club Sociedad instead. Isak has three years remaining on his Newcastle contract and it is understood he will be fined -- the maximum penalty for a single offence is two weeks' wages -- for missing a competitive match this weekend.
