Cabinet backs Doha summit

● Cabinet condemns Israeli aggression

● Full solidarity with Qatar

● Delegation to represent Kingdom

H.E. Shaikh Khalid bin Abdulla Al Khalifa

The first Arab-Islamic Summit was held in 1969 in Rabat, Morocco, after an arson attack on Al-Aqsa Mosque, setting a precedent for extraordinary summits during regional crises.

Bahrain's Cabinet has reaffirmed the Kingdom's solidarity with Qatar, condemning the recent Israeli attack on Doha and backing the extraordinary Arab-Islamic Summit being held in the Qatari capital.

Chairing the weekly meeting at Gudaibiya Palace, Deputy Prime Minister Shaikh Khalid bin Abdulla Al Khalifa said Bahrain supports the summit, which was convened to discuss the aggression against Qatar.

The Cabinet stressed that Bahrain's participation, through a delegation led by His Highness Shaikh Abdullah bin Hamad Al Khalifa, Personal Representative of His Majesty the King, reflects the Kingdom's commitment to Arab and Islamic solidarity.

Ministers described the Israeli strike as a violation of Qatar's sovereignty and international law. They extended condolences to Qatar's leadership and people over the death of a member of its Internal Security Force, while reiterating full support for measures taken to protect the country's security.

Regional diplomacy

The Cabinet also welcomed the UN General Assembly's adoption of the New York Declaration on a two-state solution for Palestine, noting the roles of Saudi Arabia and France in advancing the resolution.

In addition, ministers highlighted the recent meeting between His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa and His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan, President of the UAE, as an example of strengthened coordination amid regional developments.

Other Cabinet items included welcoming the launch of the Arab Shipbuilding and Repair Yard's solar energy project, commending Bahrain's hosting of the Second Global Water, Energy and Climate Change Congress, and approving a memorandum on restructuring government agencies to improve performance.

But the central message from the Cabinet meeting was clear - Bahrain stands firmly with Qatar as the Doha summit convenes, voicing unity against aggression and underscoring shared regional security.

Shielding Bahrain

Nationwide drive shields economy and society

● 1,133 inspections conducted

● 154 violators deported

● Joint campaigns across governorates

Bahrain's labour market regulator carried out 1,133 inspections in one week, detaining 20 irregular workers and deporting 154 violators in a drive it says is designed to protect the Kingdom's economic and social security.

Safeguarding stability

The Labour Market Regulatory Authority (LMRA) said the inspections, conducted from September 7 to 13, also monitored violations related to provisions of regulating laws, especially labour market and residency regulations. Legal measures were taken regarding the observed violations.

Coordinated enforcement

According to LMRA, 1,120

inspection visits were carried out at various shops across the governorates, alongside 13 joint inspection campaigns. These included four campaigns in the Capital Governorate, four in Muharraq, two in the Northern Governorate and three in the Southern Governorate.

The Ministry of Interior, represented by the Nationality, Passports and Residence Affairs (NPRA) and the governorates' police directorates, along with the Social Insurance Organization, took part in the operations. The authority affirmed that coordination with government agencies will continue to intensify inspection campaigns and address any practices that could undermine the labour market or affect Bahrain's stability and security. It renewed its call for public support by urging residents to report violations through its website, the call centre on 17506055, or the government's Suggestions and Complaints System (Tawasul).

Bahrain-Jersey cooperation

His Excellency Shaikh Salman bin Khalifa Al Khalifa, Minister of Finance and National Economy, met with Senator Ian Gorst, Minister for External Relations of the Bailiwick of Jersey, on the occasion of his visit to the Kingdom of Bahrain. Shaikh Salman bin Khalifa reviewed relations between both sides, particularly in the financial and economic domains, highlighting the importance of advancing progress to further developing cooperation for the benefit of both countries and their peoples. The Finance Minister emphasised the longstanding cooperation between Bahrain and Jersey, noting the shared commitment to developing bilateral ties and advancing them to higher levels to meet common aspirations.

Strategic collaboration

Northern Governor Hassan Abdullah Mohammed Al Madani received the Director of Administration at Aluminium Bahrain (Alba), Hamad Al Shaibeh, in the presence of Deputy Northern Governor Brigadier Abdullah Ali Rashid Maaner, and several directors. During the meeting, they explored prospects for collaboration and strategic coordination, aligned with the governorate's vision to bolster civic engagement and elevate private sector involvement across diverse initiatives. The Northern Governor emphasised Alba's pivotal role in advancing community and national initiatives, commending the collaboration with the governorate and expressing hope for future partnerships to further develop and integrate the public and private sectors. The Director conveyed his sincere appreciation to the Northern Governorate, lauding its distinctive initiatives that foster national identity and civic values. He reaffirmed Alba's commitment to ongoing collaboration and support for national programmes.
