Sony’s ‘Hotel Transylvania’ tops box office

‘Hotel Transylvania 3- Summer Vacation’ took an estimated $44.1 million in ticket sales during its first weekend in North American theaters -AFP

AFP | Los Angeles

Sony’s “Hotel Transylvania 3: Summer Vacation” booked a stay at the top of the North American box office, taking $44.1 million in ticket sales, according to industry estimates Sunday. The animated fantasy comedy, whose voice cast includes Adam Sandler and Selena Gomez, follows Count Dracula and his family as they get away from their hotel for their own vacation. It swatted away last week’s number one, “Ant-Man and the Wasp,” in at second with takings of $28.8 million over the three-day weekend, according to industry tracker Exhibitor Relations. The 20th release in Disney’s Marvel Cinematic Universe sees ex-con Scott Lang (Paul Rudd) languishing under house arrest in San Francisco after being caught, as his shrinkable superhero alter-ego, fighting some of the other Avengers in “Captain America: Civil War” (2016). Struggling to balance home life and Ant-Man duties, he’s confronted by old flame Hope van Dyne (Evangeline Lilly), alias the Wasp, with an urgent new mission. Third place went to Universal’s new release “Skyscraper,” with earnings of $25.5 million.

Taylor Swift handles concert malfunction with ease

IAN5 | Los Angeles

Singer-songwriter Taylor Swift turned a technical failure on stage into a special spontaneous moment with fans. The 28-year-old singer played a second show to her hometown crowd in Philadelphia as part of her Reputation Stadium Tour. The Grammy winner was trying to perform “Delicate” as she was transported from one stage to another. In between singing

Taylor Swift became the youngest sole writer and singer of a no.1 country song through her single “Our Song” the hit single, an unexpected malfunction occurred that even caught Swift by surprise, reports people.com “I’m pretty sure I’m stuck up here. It’s a nice view, though,” said Swift. After the song, Swift attempted to explain what happened. Although Swift had an earpiece in, the only way she could communicate back to her team was to speak into her mic, letting the crowd in on every part of the unexpected moment.

Rita Ora wants to bag more acting roles

IAN5 | Los Angeles

Singer Rita Ora wants to continue with her acting career after the success of the “Fifty Shades of Grey” movie franchise, and says she would like to do a horror film. Ora took on the role of Mia Grey in the movie franchise, and garnered positive response. The “How we do” hitmaker confessed that acting, along with singing, has been a passion from an early age. “I actually had my first acting role at the age of eleven in the movie ‘Spivs’. I love acting. Acting is pretty much like a performance too,” dailymail.co.uk quoted Ora as saying. When asked what kind of genre she would lean towards in the future, Ora said she would “love to do a horror movie”. But she is practical when it comes to the next step in the acting business.

Binoche, Hawke to star in ‘La Verite’

IAN5 | Los Angeles

Actors Juliette Binoche and Ethan Hawke have been selected to star in Japanese filmmaker Hirokazu Kore-eda’s directorial film “La Verite”. Kore-eda said his film “La Verite” will also feature actors Catherine Deneuve and Ludivine Sagnier, reports variety.com. Being produced by French firm 3B and Kore-eda’s Bunbuku, the film will be shot in France in October and November. The script of the film is based on a stage play which was written by Kore-eda nearly 15 years ago but never produced. Binoche and Hawke will portray a married couple who return to France from the US when the wife’s mother (Deneuve), a well-known actress, publishes her autobiography. During their reunion, various truths are revealed.
