HM King Hamad hails successful second edition of 'Hawa Al Manama' event

● Tourism Ministry and BTEA express appreciation for royal commendation

TD | Manama

His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa commended the success of the "Hawa Al Manama" event second edition.

He noted that this initiative supports the tourism sector and contribute to preserving Bahrain's cultural heritage.

The event is held as part of the Kingdom's National Day celebrations.

Diversity

It featured a range of cultural, tourism, and historical exhibitions, museums, activities, and programmes that focused on a significant period in the history of Manama, highlighting the capital's cultural and social diversity.

This year's edition attracted strong turnout from citizens and residents, as well as visitors from other countries.

His Majesty expressed appreciation for the efforts of the Ministry of Tourism, the Bahrain Tourism and Exhibitions Authority (BTEA), and all relevant entities for the organisation of the event, which combined heritage, traditional arts, music, and entertainment.

HM the King

Hope

He expressed hope for the organisation of further national events across all governorates and areas of the Kingdom, aimed at reviving Bahraini traditions and values, highlighting popular heritage, strengthening national identity, and introducing Bahrain's cultural and historical assets.

His Majesty highlighted the importance of documenting Bahrain's cultural and civilisational heritage, raising awareness of it among citizens, residents, and visitors, and preserving it so that future generations remain connected to their history.

HM King Hamad reiterated support for initiatives that highlight Bahrain's history and the values of its people, wishing the Kingdom continued progress and prosperity.

Strong turnout from citizens, residents, and visitors at the event's edition this year

Remarks

Her Excellency Fatima bint Jaafar Al Sairafi, Minister of Tourism and Chairperson of the Board of BTEA, and H.E. Sara Ahmed Buhiji, Chief Executive of BTEA, expressed appreciation for the royal remarks, which forms part of the fourth edition of the Celebrate Bahrain season, the Kingdom's main tourism season.

The Minister said the success of the event aligns with the directives of His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister, which call for strengthening national initiatives that highlight Bahraini identity, support cultural and community-based events, and contribute to the development of the tourism sector.

She noted that the "Hawa Al Manama" event presented a distinctive experience that reflected effective cooperation and integration between the public and private sectors, contributing to the quality of organisation and the diversity of programmes offered, and supporting Bahrain's position as a cultural and tourism destination.

H.E. Buhiji emphasised that they support continued efforts to develop national events that reflect Bahrain's authentic identity. She said His Majesty's remarks provide motivation to further enhance initiatives that highlight Bahrain's cultural and historical depth and present its diverse heritage.

Her Excellency expressed appreciation to all entities that supported and contributed to the success of the event, emphasising the authority's commitment to continuing work on initiatives that strengthen national identity, preserve cultural heritage, and support Bahrain's standing as a tourism and cultural destination.

Shura Council debate

Focus on advertising bill and child digital safety law

Mohammed Darwish
TD | Manama

Advertising on public buildings, child safety online and the Future Generations Reserve Account are all on the Shura Council's agenda for its Sunday sitting.

Members will first consider the Public Utilities and Environment Committee's report on a draft amendment to Article 12 of Decree-Law No. 14 of 1973 on the regulation of advertisements, attached to Decree No. 27 of 2025.

The amendment would give government bodies a legal basis to use vacant areas in public buildings, or parts of buildings assigned to public services, as advertising space.

The terms, conditions and controls for this use would be issued by ministerial decision.

According to the committee, the proposal completes earlier work to reorganise the advertising sector in Bahrain.

The draft widens the scope for using public buildings for advertising purposes, and allows parts of service buildings to be used in this way, subject to rules issued by the minister.

The committee noted that the measure is expected to increase municipal income through advertising licence fees.

Vote set on housing expansion for divorced, single women

Mohammed Darwish
TDT | Manama

Parliament will vote on Tuesday on a request to raise the number of ‘Masaken’ flats reserved for women classed under category five in Bahrain’s housing rules: divorced, abandoned, widowed and unmarried applicants.

The proposal was submitted by MPs Basema Mubarak, Dr Hisham Al Asheeri, Mamdouh Al Saleh, Ali Saqer Al Dosari and Jaleela Alawi.

It refers to Article 4 of Ministerial Decision No. 909 of 2015 on the housing system, which lists the category and the basis for eligibility.

Request

Supporters of the request say many applicants in this group face difficulty securing suitable housing because the number of flats allocated to them is limited.

The papers say the problem is sharper where family support is no longer available.

The Public Utilities and Environment Committee has recommended approval, with all members present backing the request on public-interest grounds.

MP Basema Mubarak

Response

In its response, the Ministry of Housing and Urban Planning said the aim is already being met through projects delivered with the Supreme Council for Women.

It cited the first ‘Masaken’ building in Al Lawzi, which it said contains 68 flats, and said a second project, ‘Masaken 2’, is under construction in Al Hidd Housing City with 49 flats and is expected to be completed by the end of this year.

The Bahrain Women’s Union supported the request, saying access to suitable housing for divorced, abandoned, widowed and unmarried women helps protect their dignity and supports social and psychological stability for them and their families.

The explanatory note attached to the proposal cites constitutional provisions on protecting the family and the state’s duty to provide housing for low-income citizens.

It says the housing decision already grants category five applicants the right to housing, but argues that the limited number of flats reserved for the group remains an obstacle and calls for an increase to meet demand.

MPs propose intermediate school apprenticeships

MP Dr Muneer Seroor

Mohammed Darwish
TDT | Manama

Parliament will debate on Tuesday a proposal to bring apprenticeships into intermediate schools across public and private education, expanding a scheme that is currently limited to secondary students.

The proposal was submitted by MPs Dr Muneer Seroor, Mohammed Salman Al Ahmed and Lulwa Al Rumaihi.

It calls for an apprenticeship track at the intermediate stage to give pupils practical workplace experience alongside classroom study, with supporters saying this would help students form clearer career choices and ease the move into jobs later on.

The Services Committee has recommended backing the proposal, with all members present agreeing to approve it.

Theory

Dr Seroor said apprenticeships link theory to practice and help students gain hands-on know-how earlier.

He said many intermediate students need guidance to shape their interests and future work paths, and argued that steering students based on their skills at a younger age can improve their chances of securing jobs.

He added that apprenticeships can build experience and self-confidence, while also supporting the economy through work-based training.

In its written reply to the committee, the Ministry of Education said it aims to equip students with the academic and knowledge skills linked to the job market, including those in intermediate schools, which it described as a key stage leading into secondary education.

Experience

The ministry said it had kept the apprenticeship initiative at secondary level based on studies and the experience of countries that use similar systems, on the view that secondary school is more closely linked to work and that students at that age have greater readiness for field training after completing core courses and gaining basic skills.

It added that some private schools already offer programmes through which students can earn a vocational qualification alongside the general secondary certificate, depending on the system used and the choice made by the student and their parent or guardian.

Taxi driver robbed of BD220 in roadside attack

Mohammed Darwish
TDT | Manama

A taxi driver was attacked and robbed of BD220 and two mobile phones after a man stopped him on the road, forced his way into the vehicle and struck him with a stone, the High Criminal Court has heard.

Prosecutors say the driver was working when the accused approached, knocked on the window and, once it was opened, climbed into the car by force.

He is accused of taking two phones and the driver’s wallet, which contained BD220, before running off.

Wound

Court papers say the driver chased him but was hit on the head with a stone, suffering a wound that needed stitches. He also sustained swelling and redness to his right ring finger.

The driver later recovered one of the phones and his wallet, but the cash had been taken and the second phone was not returned, prosecutors said.

During questioning by the Public Prosecution, the defendant admitted assaulting the driver, according to the case file.

Video clips included in the papers are said to show the accused stopping the driver, opening the car door, taking a phone and beating him, with the victim’s face covered in blood.

The prosecution has charged the man with theft by force, saying he used his hand and a stone to overpower the driver, seize the items and flee.

Judgment has been set for 24 February.

Man on trial over BD2,490 banking-app ‘theft’ from friend

Mohammed Darwish
TDT | Manama

A man accused of using a friend’s phone line and a banking app to move BD2,490 while the account holder was abroad will learn his fate on 24 February, the High Criminal was told.

Prosecutors say the complainant, a company owner, gave the defendant a limited power of attorney because he was outside Bahrain.

The authorisation, they say, covered only some company matters and allowed the opening of bank accounts, but gave no right to use or move any money.

ISB Annual Fair a Grand Success with Overwhelming Support

TDT | Manama

The Indian School Annual Cultural Fair, presented by Star Vision Events, concluded on a grand note on Friday, January 16, 2026, emerging as a vibrant centrepiece of the school's Platinum Jubilee celebrations.

The two-day extravaganza transformed the campus into a lively hub of culture, music, and togetherness, drawing an enthusiastic response from students, parents, alumni, and the wider community.

The concluding evening witnessed a seamless blend of student cultural programmes and professional entertainment, culminating in a high-energy musical night led by popular playback singer Rupali Jagga.

Crowd

Her peppy and melodious numbers electrified the atmosphere, as the cheering crowd responded with unbridled enthusiasm, making the finale a memorable highlight of the celebrations.

The event was graced by the presence of several dignitaries, including Adv. Binu Mannil Varughese, Hon. Chairman; V. Rajapandian, Hon. Secretary; V. R. Palaniswamy, Principal; R. Ramesh, ISB Fair General Convener; Sethuraj Kadakkal, Chairman, Star Vision Events; Dr. Mohammed Faizal, Hon. Vice-Chairman & Hon. Member – Sports; Ranjini Mohan, Hon. Asst. Secretary & Hon. Member – Academics; Bonny Joseph, Hon. Member – Finance & IT; Mithun Mohan, Hon. Member – Projects & Maintenance; Mohammad Nayaz Ullah, Hon. Member – Transport; Pamela Xavier, Principal Junior Wing; G. Sathesh, Vice-Principal, Senior School & Academic Administration; Priya Laji, Vice-Principal,

Rupali and team on stage

Commitment

Addressing the gathering, Adv. Binu Mannil Varughese stated that the Platinum Jubilee celebrations mark seventy-five years of The Indian School's steadfast commitment to academic excellence, cultural harmony, and social responsibility.

He expressed his heartfelt gratitude to parents, staff, sponsors, volunteers, and the community for their unwavering support, which contributed significantly to the fair's resounding success.

A key highlight of the finale was the release of the Fair Souvenir, commemorating the Annual Cultural Fair-Platinum Jubilee Year 2025. Souvenir Editor Anoj Mathew and Staff Editor Sreesadan OP were present on the occasion.

Binu Mannil Varughese speaks at the event

Performances

Throughout the fair, students captivated the audience with vibrant and diverse cultural performances, reflecting the rich traditions and creative talent nurtured within the school.

The meticulous planning and tireless efforts of various committees ensured smooth logistics, engaging programmes, effective sponsorship coordination, and robust infrastructure, resulting in a seamless and enjoyable experience for all visitors.

The proceeds from the fair will be channelled towards student welfare initiatives and staff support programmes, reinforcing the school's strong ethos of social responsibility.

Excellency

As a signature event of ISB's Platinum Jubilee Year 2025, the Annual Cultural Fair stood as a powerful symbol of seventy-five years of educational excellence, cultural vibrancy, and community bonding in the Kingdom of Bahrain.

The online raffle draw is scheduled for January 26, in accordance with ministry guidelines. The first prize is a brand-new MG ZS silver car, generously sponsored by Zayani Motors, adding yet another note of excitement to an already unforgettable jubilee celebration.

Court orders BD80,000 repayment in debt dispute

Mohammed Darwish
TDT | Manama

A court has ordered a defendant to pay BD80,000 after accepting a written debt acknowledgement challenged by the defence, and awarded BD1,000 in lawyers' fees along with court costs.

The claim was brought by a man who said the defendant had borrowed BD80,000 under a dated private document and then failed to repay the sum when it fell due.

His lawyer, Dr Mohammed Al Kowheji, told the court his client had suffered loss as a result and sought judgment for the full amount, with interest from the due date until payment.

The defendant's lawyer denied the debt in full and said his client had never dealt with, or even met, the claimant.

Document

He also alleged the document relied upon had been forged, arguing it was signed on a blank sheet and later completed.

The claimant's lawyer rejected the allegation of forgery and maintained the document was genuine, asking the court to uphold the claim.

Judges heard witnesses from both sides and ordered a specialist to examine the document.

Acknowledgement

The expert was asked to assess if the body of the acknowledgement had been written at a later time than the defendant's signature and stamp.

The report said the main text had been drafted in a later writing context.

After the report was filed, the claimant's lawyer submitted further written pleadings and attached messages which, he said, showed the defendant's representative had prepared the acknowledgement and its details.

Court clears man in BD800 bank cash dispute due to insufficient evidence

Mohammed Darwish
TDT | Manama

A man in his forties has been cleared of taking an extra BD800 from a bank payout after a court found the evidence did not show he received more cash than he was due.

The Minor Criminal Court said the material before it, including CCTV and the cash-counting machine, did not prove the man left the counter with more than BD7,200, and that the inquiry did not reach the level needed for a conviction.

The case centred on a cheque for BD8,000.

The defence said the man, described in court as the son of a company owner, deposited BD800 into his account and took BD7,200 in cash, which his lawyer said matched the usual way the transaction is handled.

His lawyer, Entisar Al Asfour, told the court her client visits the bank each month to cash the wages cheque for company staff.

She said he did not count the money at the time because the bank counts cash using its machine, and he left believing the amount was correct.

Bahrain clear signs agreement with Beyon Connect

To Adopt National Digital Identity Authentication (eKey 2.0) Platform and Leverage Bulk KYC Services

Manama

Bahrain Clear, a fully-owned subsidiary of Bahrain Bourse, has signed an agreement with Beyon Connect to adopt the national digital identity authentication platform (eKey 2.0) to update its investor database, reflecting its commitment to advancing digital transformation, strengthening readiness and data governance.

As part of this collaboration,

Bahrain Clear has utilized Bulk Know Your Customer (Bulk KYC) services through the eKey 2.0 platform to update its investor database. This initiative aims to enhance the accuracy, completeness, and compliance of investor records across the capital markets ecosystem.

Christopher Hild, CEO of Beyon Connect

The eKey 2.0 platform, developed by Beyon Connect and operated by the Information & eGovernment Authority (IGA) enables secure, passwordless identity verification, biometric authentication, and secure data validation for regulated institutions in Bahrain.

Shaikh Khalifa bin Ebrahim Al-Khalifa, Chairman of Bahrain Clear, stated: "This agreement with Beyon Connect supports our efforts to modernize investor services and leverage technology and digitization, further strengthening the capital markets infrastructure in Bahrain. By integrating Bulk KYC, we ensure that our records remain up to date, compliant, and aligned with international best practices. This collaboration reflects our commitment to enhancing operational efficiency, improving investor experience, and driving digital transformation across the capital markets ecosystem."

Christopher Hild, CEO of Beyon Connect, added: "We are pleased to collaborate with Bahrain Clear on this important milestone in their digital journey. By adopting eKey 2.0 and implementing Bulk KYC services, Bahrain Clear is leading by example in building a secure, scalable, and future-ready capital market environment."

The agreement also sets the stage for potential future collaboration around other eKey 2.0 capabilities, including passwordless investor login, biometric authentication onboarding, and delegated digital services, enabling a seamless, secure experience across the broader financial ecosystem.

OpenAI introducing advertisements to ChatGPT

AFP | San Francisco, United States

OpenAI announced Friday it will begin testing advertisements on ChatGPT in the coming weeks, as the wildly popular artificial intelligence chatbot seeks to increase revenue to cover its soaring costs.

The ads will initially appear in the United States for free and lower-tier subscribers, the company said in a blog post outlining its long-anticipated move. Premium Pro and Enterprise subscribers will remain ad-free.

The integration of advertising has been a key question for generative AI chatbots, with companies largely reluctant to interrupt the user experience with ads.

But the exorbitant costs of running AI services may have forced OpenAI's hand.

Only a small percentage of its nearly one billion users pay for subscription services, putting pressure on the company to find new revenue sources.

Since ChatGPT's launch in 2022, OpenAI's valuation has soared to $500 billion in funding rounds -- higher than any other private company. Some expect it could go public with a trillion-dollar valuation.

But the ChatGPT maker burns through cash at a furious rate, mostly on the powerful computing required to deliver its services.

With its move, OpenAI brings its business model closer to tech giants Google and Meta, which have built advertising empires on the back of their free-to-use services.

Unlike OpenAI, those companies have massive advertising revenue to fund AI innovation -- with Amazon also building a solid ad business on its shopping and video streaming platforms.

"Ads aren't a distraction from the gen AI race; they're how OpenAI stays in it," said Jeremy Goldman, an analyst at Emarketer.

"If ChatGPT turns on ads, OpenAI is admitting something simple and consequential: the race isn't just about model quality anymore; it's about monetizing attention without poisoning trust," he added.

Sustainability Forum Middle East to host expert-led workshops driving practical climate and energy action for its 4th edition

● Register now to join interactive sessions delivered by KPMG, UNDP, and Anthesis Group

Manama

Sustainability Forum Middle East (SFME), set to convene its fourth edition on 27-28 January 2026 in the Kingdom of Bahrain, will host a series of expert-led, interactive workshops on 28 January, hosted by Strathclyde University, the Forum's Learning Partner, offering participants practical tools and insights to accelerate climate action, strengthen resilience, and unlock sustainable growth opportunities.

Held in the presence of H.E. Dr. Mohamed bin Mubarak Bin Daina, Minister of Oil & Environment and Special Envoy for Climate Affairs, and with the support of the Supreme Council for Environment, the Forum will be convened under the theme "Advancing Alignment, Innovation, and Implementation for Energy and Climate Transformation."

Aligned with this theme, the workshops are designed to move beyond ambition toward execution and will be delivered by leading global and regional advisory organisations, equipping policymakers, sustainability leaders, and business decision-makers with actionable strategies to address climate risks, navigate evolving markets, and embed sustainability into core business models. The following workshops will be delivered and will be open to all registered participants of the Forum:

- KPMG – Future-Proofing Business: Climate Action and Responsible Sourcing for the GCC

An interactive workshop exploring how organisations can build credible net-zero roadmaps, set science-based emission targets, and embed transparency and ethics across supply chains, supported by real-world case studies and a hands-on team challenge.

- UNDP – Navigating Carbon Markets in the Arab States: A Guide for Public and Private Sectors

A practical deep-dive into carbon markets, carbon pricing, and Article 6 mechanisms, examining how high-integrity carbon markets can unlock climate finance, support national development goals, and drive regional collaboration, drawing on recent global climate outcomes and regional case studies.

- Anthesis Group – Sustainability, Reputation & Growth: How to Deliver Measurable Value

A strategic session focused on how sustainability can drive financial performance and reputational advantage, providing leaders with evidence-based insights to act confidently, communicate effectively, and mitigate the risks of greenwashing and greenhushing.

Commenting, Ms. Zahraa Taher, Managing Director of FinMark Communications, the Forum's Founder and Organiser, said: "We are pleased to present this year's workshops, delivered by leading global organisations and sustainability experts, and designed to support businesses and institutions in translating climate commitments into practical action. These sessions focus on implementation, credibility, and value creation, equipping participants with the tools they need to strengthen resilience, unlock opportunities, and contribute meaningfully to the region's energy and climate transition."

Ms. Zahraa Taher, Managing Director of FinMark Communications, the Forum's Founder and Organiser

The Forum is expected to welcome more than 400 senior policymakers, business leaders, and sustainability experts from across the region and beyond, with a world-class programme featuring keynote addresses, fireside chats, and high-level panel discussions. More than 50 expert speakers from rope, the UK, the US, and beyond will share insights, strategies, and solutions, engaging audiences in critical discussions on accelerating the net-zero transition, including climate-aligned business transformation, diplomacy and policy alignment, transition finance, the expanding role of carbon and biodiversity markets, energy transition and industrial decarbonisation, AI and next-generation technologies, and human capital development and capacity building.

The 2026 edition of Sustainability Forum Middle East is supported by Lead Partners SAFA and Bank of Bahrain and Kuwait (BBK); Strategic Partners United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), Gulf International Bank (GIB), and Bank ABC; Forum Partners Aluminium Bahrain (Alba), Arab Shipbuilding and Repair Yard (ASRY), Bahrain Ship Repairing and Engineering Company (BASREC), Boston Consulting Group (BCG), National Bank of Bahrain (NBB), Gulf Aluminium Rolling Mill (GARMCO), and the American Chamber of Commerce Bahrain (AmCham Bahrain); Supporting Partners Tamkeen, Hassan Radhi & Associates, and United Enterprises; Learning Partner Strathclyde University and Impact for Learning & Development; and Media Partners Arab News, Al Ayam, OGN, Trade Arabia, BFT Media, and The Butterfly Effect.

Former UK leader Blair back in limelight with Gaza role

Former British prime minister and Middle East Quartet envoy Tony Blair gestures during his visit to the West Bank village of Zakaria near the Jewish settlement of Efrat, south of Bethlehem

AFP | London, United Kingdom

Former British prime minister Tony Blair, whose legacy was heavily tarnished by the 2003 war in Iraq, has long been a contentious figure in the Middle East.

The 72-year-old political veteran was Friday named by US President Donald Trump as a member of a fledgling “Board of Peace” to help oversee Gaza.

He said Saturday he was “honoured” to have been tapped by Trump to join the board, adding he looked forward to working with “other colleagues in line with the president’s vision to promote peace and prosperity”.

He also welcomed as “a massive step forward” a Palestinian committee headed by former Palestinian Authority deputy minister Ali Shaath, which began work in Cairo on Friday to govern post-war Gaza. “It gives hope to people in Gaza that they can have a future different from the past and to the Israelis that they may have a neighbour which does not threaten its security,” Blair said in a statement.

Blair has been credited in some media reports with helping craft the US leader’s 20-point Gaza plan alongside Trump’s son-in-law and adviser Jared Kushner.

Blair has plenty of experience in the region, spending eight years as the envoy for the Middle East Quartet of the European Union, United Nations, United States and Russia.

But social media users were quick to point to his role in backing false evidence of Iraqi chemical weapons to justify the 2003 invasion.

Trump has already declared himself the chair of the board and on Friday announced its full membership will include Blair as well as Kushner, Secretary of State Marco Rubio and Steve Witkoff, Trump’s business partner turned globe-trotting negotiator.

Iran’s leader demands crackdown on ‘seditionists’ after protests

Estimates place the death toll possibly as high as 20,000

● Demonstrations have subsided after the crackdown that rights groups say left thousands dead

● Trump had repeatedly threatened new military action against Tehran if protesters were killed.

● Internet connectivity in Iran improves slightly: NetBlocks

AFP | Paris, France

Iran’s supreme leader yesterday said authorities “must break the back of the seditionists”, blaming US President Donald Trump for “casualties” after a deadly crackdown on protests against the country’s clerical leadership.

Iran was rocked by weeks of demonstrations sparked by anger over economic hardship that exploded into the biggest protests against the Islamic republic in more than three years.

But demonstrations have subsided after the crackdown that rights groups say left thousands dead under an internet blackout that lasted more than a week.

Authorities have said demonstrations they condemn as “riots” are under control, with state-aligned media reporting thousands of arrests and officials vowing swift punishment for those detained.

“By God’s grace, the Iranian nation must break the back of the seditionists just as it broke the back of the sedition,” Khamenei told supporters during an address marking a religious holiday com-

Supporters of Iraqi armed factions loyal to Iran, along with other protesters, burn US and Israeli flags during a demonstration near the Iranian embassy in Baghdad memorating the Prophet Mohammed’s ascension to heaven aired by state television.

“We do not intend to lead the country to war, but we will not spare domestic criminals,” he added, saying that “international criminals” were “worse” and would also not be spared punishment.

Iranian authorities have blamed the United States for fuelling a “terrorist operation” that they say hijacked peaceful protests over the economy.

Trump, who backed and joined Israel’s 12-day war against Iran in June, had repeatedly threatened new military action against Tehran if protesters were killed.

‘American conspiracy’

Khamenei on Saturday lashed out at Trump, accusing him of being “guilty for the casualties, damages and accusations he has levelled against the Iranian nation”.

“This was an American conspiracy,” he said, adding that “America’s goal is to swallow Iran... the goal is to put Iran back under military, political and economic domination”.

While Washington has appeared to have stepped back, Trump has said he has not ruled out military options and made clear he was keeping a close eye on whether any protesters were executed.

Alarm has mounted over the reported death toll during the crackdown, as verifying cases remains difficult under severe internet restrictions.

Monitor Netblocks said on Saturday that internet connectivity in Iran rose “very” slightly, more than 200 hours into the nationwide internet shutdown.

Norway-based rights group Iran Human Rights (IHR) says 3,428 protesters have been verified to have been killed by security forces, but warns the actual toll could be several times higher.

Other estimates place the death toll at more than 5,000 -- and possibly as high as 20,000, IHR said.

Trump invites more leaders to join Gaza ‘Board of Peace’

AFP | Washington, United States

US President Donald Trump’s so-called “Board of Peace” for postwar Gaza began to take shape yesterday, with the leaders of Egypt, Turkey, Argentina and Canada asked to join.

The announcements from those leaders came after the US president named his Secretary of State Marco Rubio, former British prime minister Tony Blair, and senior negotiators Jared Kushner and Steve Witkoff to the panel.

Trump had already declared himself the chair of the body, as he promotes a controversial vision of economic development in the Palestinian territory, which lies in rubble after two-plus years of relentless Israeli bombardment.

The moves came after a Palestinian committee of technocrats meant to govern Gaza held its first meeting in Cairo which was attended by Kushner, Trump’s son-in-law who has partnered with Witkoff for months on the issue.

In Canada, a senior aide to Prime Minister Mark Carney said he intended to accept Trump’s invitation, while in Turkey, a spokesman for President Recep Tayyip Erdogan said he had been asked to become a “founding member” of the board.

Egypt’s Foreign Minister Badr Abdelatty said Cairo was “studying” a request for President Abdel Fattah al-Sisi to join.

Sharing an image of the invitation letter, Argentine President Javier Milei wrote on X that it would be “an honor” to participate in the initiative.

In a statement sent to AFP, Blair said: “I thank President Trump for his leadership in establishing the Board of Peace and am honored to be appointed to its Executive Board.”

The medal is not the prize

Maria Corina Machado handed over her Nobel Peace Prize medal to US President Donald Trump (NDTV World)

AFP | Oslo, Norway

The Nobel Peace Prize is inseparable from the person who won it, the Nobel Committee said Friday, a day after this year's winner gave her medal to US President Donald Trump.

Venezuelan opposition leader Maria Corina Machado said she had "presented" her Nobel medal to Trump, in a bid to win over the US president who had sidelined her since ousting Nicolas Maduro.

But the Nobel Committee's statement from Oslo said: "Regardless of what may happen to the medal, the diploma, or the prize money, it is and remains the original laureate who is recorded in history as the recipient of the prize."

"Even if the medal or diploma later comes into someone else's possession, this does not alter who was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize," it added.

The committee said it would make no comment "on Peace Prize laureates or the political processes that they are engaged in".

There were no restrictions on what laureates did with the medal, diploma and money they received as part of the prize, it added.

It listed several instances in which laureates had sold or given away their medals.

Machado won hers for "for her tireless work promoting democratic rights for the people of Venezuela and for her struggle to achieve a just and peaceful transition from dictatorship to democracy", according to the award citation.

Trump had campaigned hard to win last year's Nobel Peace Prize for what he says are his efforts to stop eight wars.

Machado won Nobel for "for her tireless work promoting democratic rights for the people of Venezuela and for her struggle to achieve a just and peaceful transition from dictatorship to democracy", according to the award citation.

Instead it went to Machado, who appeared in Oslo last month to collect her prize -- following a daring escape from Venezuela by boat -- and then dedicated it to Trump.

UN chief Guterres warns 'powerful forces' undermining global ties

● Guterres' term as secretary-general ends on December 31 this year

AFP | London, United Kingdom

United Nations (UN) Secretary-General Antonio Guterres speaks at the UNA-UK conference to mark the 80th anniversary of the founding of the UN, at Methodist Central Hall, the site of the inaugural UN General Assembly, in London

They met in London because the UN headquarters in New York had not yet been built.

Guterres paid tribute to Britain for its decisive role in the creation of the United Nations and for continuing to champion it.

But he said 2025 had been a "profoundly challenging year for international cooperation and the values of the UN".

"We see powerful forces lining up to undermine global cooperation," he said, adding: "Despite these rough seas, we sail ahead."

Guterres cited a new treaty on marine biological diversity as an example of continued progress.

The treaty establishes the first legal framework for the conservation and sustainable use of marine diversity in the two-thirds of oceans beyond national limits.

"These quiet victories of international cooperation -- the wars prevented, the famine averted, the vital treaties secured -- do not always make the headlines," he said.

"Yet they are real. And they matter."

CAPTAIN'S CORNER

Efficiency Through Intelligence—Bahrain's Digital Leap

CAPTAIN MAHMOOD AL MAHMOOD

As Bahrain stands on the precipice of a new legislative session in 2026, a landmark proposal led by a coalition of lawmakers signals a transformative shift in the Kingdom's governance. The motion to integrate Artificial Intelligence (AI) across government ministries is not merely a technological upgrade; it is a calculated move to redefine the relationship between the state and its citizens through heightened efficiency and radical transparency.

The strength of this proposal lies in its dual focus on internal fiscal discipline and public-facing utility. By leveraging AI for internal audits and the detection of unusual financial patterns, the government can move toward a preemptive model of oversight. Instead of identifying waste after it occurs, these systems provide "smarter oversight," ensuring that public funds are utilized with optimal precision. This proactive stance on financial integrity is a vital step in building long-term public trust.

Furthermore, the initiative promises to alleviate the "administrative burden" that often slows bureaucratic processes. From optimizing traffic flows with AI-driven signals to automating routine data retrieval, the goal is to liberate human talent for "higher-value work." As noted by the Nasser Centre for Science & Technology, the three years of successful prototyping—ranging from legal-text search tools to complaint analysis systems—demonstrate that Bahrain is not just theorizing about the future; it is ready to implement it.

However, the success of this rollout hinges on the proposal's emphasis on human capital. The commitment to training existing staff and partnering with local universities ensures that this digital leap remains a sovereign achievement, tailored specifically to Bahrain's unique needs. As Parliament discusses this initiative, the focus must remain on this balance: adopting cutting-edge innovation while ensuring the workforce is equipped to lead it. This proposal represents a bold vision for a leaner, smarter, and more accountable government.

(Captain Mahmood Al Mahmood is the Editor-in-Chief of The Daily Tribune and the President of the Arab-African Unity Organisation for Relief, Human Rights and Counterterrorism)

India slaps $2.45 mn fine on IndiGo for mass flight cancellations

AFP | New Delhi, India

India's civil aviation regulator yesterday imposed a fine of $2.45 million on IndiGo, the country's biggest airline, for poor roster planning that led to large-scale flight cancellations in December.

Airports across India were thrown into disarray late last year, with the private carrier admitting "misjudgement and planning gaps" in adapting to a new policy of pilot rest.

Over 4,000 mostly domestic flights were either cancelled or delayed for over a week across the country, stranding hundreds of thousands of passengers.

The operational meltdown came even though IndiGo had two years to prepare for the new rules aimed at giving pilots more rest periods in between flights to enhance passenger safety.

The Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA) said it was levying the penalty for several lapses, including "failure to strike (a) balance between commercial imperatives and crew members' ability to work effectively".

The regulator ordered IndiGo to relieve its senior vice president of its operations control centre of his responsibilities, according to a statement released Saturday.

It also issued warnings to senior officials at the company, including CEO Pieter Elbers "for inadequate overall oversight of flight operations and crisis management".

There was no immediate response from IndiGo to the fine.

Capital Governor opens 2026 Coffee and Chocolate Exhibition

His Excellency Sheikh Khalid bin Humood Al Khalifa, Governor of the Capital Governorate, officially inaugurated the fifth edition of the Coffee and Chocolate Exhibition 2026 at Water Garden City. Organized by Bidayat, the event is a central component of Bahrain's strategy to revitalize its hospitality sector and strengthen its position as a regional hub for specialized tourism. His Excellency emphasized that the exhibition reflects the Kingdom's rapid economic growth and its ability to attract high-quality investments. He noted that such initiatives align with the government's vision for sustainable development and income diversification by fostering new business partnerships and highlighting Bahrain's advanced organizational capabilities. The event features a diverse program, including professional competitions, educational workshops, and manufacturing demonstrations. With broad participation from local and international factories and cafes, the exhibition offers a unique platform for industry innovation and cultural exchange in the heart of Manama.

Bahrain's Tamil Community Celebrates Grand Pongal Festival

The Bharathi Association hosted a vibrant Pongal celebration on Friday at the Indian Club, drawing thousands from across the Kingdom. H.E. Ziyad Adel Darwish, Undersecretary of the Ministry of Social Development, represented the Ministry and praised the Tamil community's contributions to Bahrain's multicultural landscape. He highlighted the festival's significance as a traditional farmers' celebration and enjoyed an authentic feast featuring over 23 vegetarian dishes served on banana leaves. The event showcased rich cultural heritage, including a Kummi dance by 60 women and folk performances by 100 students. Attendees participated in traditional activities such as the Kolam competition and adventure games like Uri Adithal. The festivities concluded with a grand evening concert featuring Tamil film singers and comedians, organized under the leadership of President Vallam Basheer. Attended by over 4,000 people across two sessions, the event successfully celebrated the ancient historical links between India and Bahrain.

KFH-Bahrain Sponsors Health Awareness Campaign by Medical Students

Kuwait Finance House – Bahrain (KFH-Bahrain) supported a health awareness campaign led by Kuwaiti medical students from the Arabian Gulf University. Held at The Avenues Mall on January 16 and 17, the initiative aimed to educate the public on disease prevention and healthy lifestyles. Organized in cooperation with the Cultural Office of the Kuwaiti Embassy, the event highlighted the importance of synergy between financial and educational institutions in community service. Dr. Shadi Zahran, CEO of KFH-Bahrain, stated that the bank believes true investment begins with supporting education and health. He emphasized that empowering young medical professionals to play an active role in society is central to the bank's vision for sustainable development. By sponsoring this campaign, KFH-Bahrain reinforces its commitment to social responsibility and its role as an active partner in enhancing public health and the quality of life within the Kingdom.

KMCC Bahrain hosts 2nd International Chess Tournament

The KMCC Bahrain Vadakara Constituency Committee recently organized its second International Chess Tournament in memory of former Chief Minister C.H. Mohammed Koya. Held in collaboration with Arjun Academy, the event attracted nearly 100 participants from various countries. The tournament was inaugurated by KMCC Acting President Aslam Vadakara and Kozhikode District General Secretary P.K. Ishaq. In the youth categories, Prithvi Raj Prajeesh secured first place in the Under-18 division, while Hridik Dhananjaya Shetty triumphed in the Under-10 category. Beyond the chessboard, the event featured vibrant cultural displays, including a traditional Kalaripayattu performance by the Choorakodi Kalari Sangam. State General Secretary Shamsuddin Velikkulangara joined other dignitaries in presenting trophies to the winners. Led by President Ashkar Vadakara and Secretary Shaukkathali Onchiam, the event successfully blended international sportsmanship with rich cultural heritage.

Real Madrid overcome Bernabeu boos to record Arbeloa's first win

AFP | Madrid, Spain

Angry Real Madrid fans jeered their own team before they went on to beat Levante 2-0 in La Liga on Saturday to record new coach Alvaro Arbeloa's first win at the helm.

Arbeloa's debut after replacing Xabi Alonso ended in a humiliating Copa del Rey defeat in midweek at second-tier Albacete, but second-half goals from Kylian Mbappe and Raul Asencio secured three vital points at the Santiago Bernabeu.

Madrid cut the gap on leaders Barcelona to one point before the in-form Spanish champions visit Real Sociedad on Sunday.

Star players Vinicius Junior and Jude Bellingham came in for ire from the home fans after a disastrous week. Mbappe also started but was spared the jeers.

The French forward had been expected to return for the Champions League game against Monaco next week as he manages his recovery from a knee sprain.

"Today was a very important day, playing in front of our fans, we wanted to turn around the situation," Asencio told Real Madrid TV.

"What happened at Albacete should not have happened, we felt guilty and we wanted to make things better.

"The team gave a good account of themselves, above all in the second half."

It was Arbeloa's 43rd birthday and he was eventually able to celebrate with a victory, although his team lacked energy and spark in the first half.

That was not the case in the stands as a significant part of the crowd harangued their own team, showing they were upset at the club's situation.

In a wild week, Los Blancos lost the Spanish Super Cup final to rivals Barcelona in Saudi Arabia on Sunday, parted ways with Alonso on Monday and then crashed out of the cup on Wednesday.

Some fans also chanted for president Florentino Perez to resign in a sour atmosphere in the Spanish capital.

Mbappe, who appeared in pain in the warm up after a collision with team-mate Dean Huijsen, had the best chance of a flat first half against the team in 19th in La Liga.

Reaching a long ball the French superstar met it with a volley that flew wide of the post.

A step forward

Home fans jeered their side in at the break and Madrid emerged for the second half with more impetus, with Arbeloa bringing on Franco Mastantuono and Arda Guler.

Mbappe drew a foul in the area from Adrian de la Fuente to earn a penalty, which he dispatched for his 19th league goal of the campaign.

Mbappe has scored 50 goals in 53 La Liga games, taking only a little longer than Real Madrid's all-time top goalscorer Cristiano Ronaldo to reach the milestone.

The Portuguese managed it in 51 appearances.

Asencio doubled Madrid's advantage with a header into the top corner from Guler's corner as the hosts took control.

Bellingham came close to adding a third but Mathew Ryan parried his header from Fede Valverde's cross and then saved Vinicius's effort after a darting run from the Brazilian.

Ryan thwarted Bellingham again as tensions calmed by the end, with the crowd temporarily sated by the victory. Unless Madrid can build on it, the jeers and whistles will return.

Skipper Martinez fires Inter past Udinese and six points clear

Udine, Italy

Lautaro Martinez made sure that Inter Milan put pressure on their Serie A title rivals with the only goal in Saturday's 1-0 win at Udinese, which extended his team's league lead to six points.

Martinez expertly poked home the winner in the 20th minute in Udine to continue Inter's nine-match unbeaten run in Italy's top flight.

Inter were the better team from start to finish, putting pressure on Udinese high up the pitch as Cristian Chivu wants his team to do.

"What we're displaying on the pitch is a testament to the desire of these players, because it's not easy to change habits," said Chivu to DAZN.

"We defend high up the pitch and we start with pressure from the forwards and it comes from their work, the desire for our midfielders to win duels and from the courage of our defenders in maintaining a high line."

Inter have collected 25 points from a possible 27 since losing the Milan derby at the end of November and again showed a ruthlessness in dealing with the smaller sides that both AC Milan and Napoli have lacked.

Napoli take on Sassuolo in Saturday's next fixture after three straight draws have left the champions in third, nine points off the Scudetto pace.

Second-placed Milan host Lecce on Sunday with a six-point gap separating them from local rivals Inter even though the seven-time European champions haven't lost since the opening day of the season.

Massimiliano Allegri's side have dropped a host of points to teams they should beat, starting back in August against Jamie Vardy's Cremonese who remain the only team to get three points from Milan.

Inter meanwhile have the opposite problem, with a poor track record in matches against high-profile opposition, a weakness which will be tested by Premier League leaders Arsenal on Tuesday in the Champions League.

Four straight wins at the start of the league phase of the competition were followed up by two defeats which have left direct qualification for the last 16 in doubt.

Juventus, in fourth, trail Inter by 10 points but have been improving under Luciano Spalletti and are heavy favourites to win at Cagliari in Saturday's late match.

ITF W75 kicks off

TDT | Manama

The Manama Women's Tennis Championship (ITF W75) will get under way today, with the Bahrain Tennis Federation hosting the tournament until January 25 at the courts of the Ministry of Interior Officers' Club.

Being staged in Bahrain for the first time, the tournament is part of the International Tennis Federation's women's circuit and will feature a strong field of professional players from around the world.

Commenting on the occasion, Sheikh Abdulaziz bin

Mubarak bin Hamad Al Khalifa, President of the Bahrain Tennis Federation, said hosting elite tournaments encourages young players to take up tennis, giving them the opportunity to engage with international standards and gain experience by watching top professional players up close—benefiting the sport's future in the kingdom.

He said extensive efforts, in coordination with relevant authorities, have been made to ensure the tournament's success and to provide an ideal competitive environment that reflects Bahrain's sporting reputation.

Pakistani team set first-class cricket record defending 40 target

APakistani team created a first-class cricket record when they won a two-inning match after setting their opponents a paltry 40 to win.

Pakistan Television (PTV), the President Trophy holders, led by just 39 after their second innings but bowled out Sui Northern Gas (SNGPL) for a meagre 37 to win by two runs on day three of the four-day game.

The previous record was set at Lord's Old Ground in London in 1794 when Oldfield successfully defended a target of 41 to beat MCC to win by six runs.

"I am delighted with my team's world-record effort," PTV's head coach Mohammad Waseem, a former Pakistan player, told AFP.

"My team's motto is to never give up, fight till the last ball.

"We have won all our three matches coming from well behind by remaining positive in all situations."

After PTV made 166 in their first innings, SNGPL hit 238.

PTV then made just 111 but bowled out the star-studded SNGPL batting order, led by Pakistan Test captain Shan Masood, in 19.4 overs.

Only one batter, Saifullah Bangash, reached double figures with 14. Masood was out without scoring.

Mohammad Ali made six and spinner Sajid Khan just three. Both are Test players.

The winners used only two bowlers in the second innings. Left-arm spinner Ali Usman wrecked the batting with 6-9 and pacer Aamdat Butt took 4-28. SNGPL's head coach is former Pakistan Test skipper Misbah-ul-Haq with another former captain Azhar Ali their batting coach.

Al-Attiyah claims sixth Dakar car crown as Benavides edges bike title

Al-Attiyah, at the wheel of a Dacia, only had to avoid a final day slip-up

AFP | Yanbu, Saudi Arabia

Qatar's Nasser Al-Attiyah secured his sixth Dakar Rally car title in Saudi Arabia yesterday with Luciano Benavides scraping home by two seconds to claim the bike title.

Al-Attiyah, at the wheel of a Dacia, only had to avoid a final day slip-up to top the podium after bringing his career tally of stage wins to 50 on Friday.

The 55-year-old, who took clay pigeon shooting bronze at the 2012 London Olympic Games, was adding to his previous Dakar wins in 2011, 2015, 2019, 2022 and 2022.

With Belgian co-driver Fabian Lurquin, Al-Attiyah took control of the overall standings early on in the motorsport marathon.

After placing ninth on the 13th and final stage in Yanbu on the Red Sea he had almost 10 minutes in hand over second-placed Nani Roma (Ford).

Roma's Swedish teammate Mattias Ekstrom won the final stage to complete the car podium in third overall.

Last year's champion, Saudi Yazeed Al Rajhi, was forced to pull out with mechanical problems last week.

Earlier, Argentina's Luciano Benavides took the bike honours by a mere two seconds.

Second in the 13th and closing stage was enough for the 30-year-old KTM rider to deny Honda's American two-time champion Ricky Brabec and secure a debut Dakar crown.

'Glimmer of hope' 'I've dreamed of this moment my whole life,' said the ment my whole life," said the winner.

Brabec, winner in 2020 and 2024, was target for a third title but lost time when he went the wrong way close to the finish of the 105km ride around Yanbu.

"Even yesterday, it seemed impossible, but I still felt it could happen, and today Ricky took the wrong line and I took the right one," Benavides said.

"It was a glimmer of hope.

"I saw it was him and that he had to pull a U-turn to get back on the right line because crossing between the two was impossible. I saw the opening and I went for it."

Edgar Canet won the bike stage, with Spain's Tosha Schareina (Honda) finishing third and also taking the number-three spot in the overall standings.

Benavides' older brother Kevin won the marathon race in 2021 and 2023.

Benavides said he had given his all "from start to finish to day".

"I'd told everyone before the start that this Dakar was mine," he added.

"Nine years in the Dakar and my first win. My brother and I are making history.

"He won by 43 seconds and I've won by two. I think I have him beaten on that front! It's a dream come true."

The Dakar Rally is one of the world's toughest motorsport events, covering thousands of kilometres across extreme terrain such as deserts, dunes and rocky tracks, and is open to motorcycles, cars, trucks and side-by-sides. Originally run from Paris to Dakar, it has been held in Saudi Arabia since 2020.

Man Utd dominate Man City in dream start for Carrick

AFP | Manchester, United Kingdom

Manchester United gave Michael Carrick the dream start to his interim tenure as manager on Saturday, beating Manchester City 2-0 to deal a huge blow to their local rivals' Premier League title aspirations.

The Red Devils dominated at Old Trafford and were only made to wait until the final 25 minutes to seal victory by the inspired Gianluigi Donnarumma and because they had three goals ruled out for offside.

Bryan Mbeumo marked his return from the African Cup of Nations (AFCON) by firing home the opening goal before Patrick Dorgu sealed just a second win in eight games for United.

Victory lifts Carrick's men into the top four, but their win will be celebrated just as much in north London as Arsenal close in on a first league title in 22 years.

Mikel Arteta's men can open up a nine-point lead at the top when they visit Nottingham Forest later on Saturday.

Carrick's bold team selection paid off as both the in-form Benjamin Sesko and Matheus Cunha made way for the return of Mbeumo and Amad Diallo from their international duties at AFCON.

Harry Maguire also returned for his first start in two months and should have scored inside the first two minutes.

The centre-back rose highest to meet Bruno Fernandes' corner but crashed his header off the crossbar from point-blank range.

City are set to seal a deal for Crystal Palace captain Marc Guehi, but ravaged by injuries in defence, Pep Guardiola named inexperienced duo Max Alleyne and Abdulkodir Khusanov at centre-back.

City's makeshift back line struggled to keep United at bay all afternoon and would have been embarrassed but for the brilliance of Donnarumma in goal.

The Italian's first major intervention came midway through the first half to parry Dorgu's effort.

Donnarumma was twice beaten before the break but both Diallo and Fernandes strayed offside before rounding the goalkeeper to score.

Guardiola tried to awaken the visitors with a double substitution at half-time, introducing Nico O'Riley and Raya Cherki.

Manchester United's Danish defender #13 Patrick Dorgu (2L) celebrates with teammates after scoring their second goal during the English Premier League football match between Manchester United and Manchester City at Old Trafford in Manchester, north west England

But City's title challenge has faded fast in a four-game winless run in the Premier League since the turn of the year.

Donnarumma continued to defy the home side until beyond the hour with a stunning double save from Diallo's powerful strike and Casemiro's follow-up effort.

City played a big part in their own downfall when the opening goal finally arrived 25 minutes from time.

Cherki's poor

free-kick allowed United to sprint forward in numbers and Fernandes' pass was perfectly weighted for Mbeumo to fire low and hard beyond Donnarumma's long levers.

Cunha came off the bench to make the second as Dorgu caught Rico Lewis sleeping to steal in at the back post.

Guardiola appeared to waive the white flag as he replaced Erling Haaland 10 minutes from time to reserve the Norwegian's energy with City still fighting in four competitions.

Diallo nearly sealed a stunning individual display when he hit the post in the 90th minute.

Mason Mount then rolled in Cunha's cross with his first touch after replacing Fernandes only for VAR to come to the visitors' rescue again for offside.

But the damage had already been done to City's title aspirations, making victory all the sweeter for Carrick on his return to the Theatre of Dreams.
