Palace frustrate Chelsea in Premier League opener

VAR denies Palace as Chelsea struggle post-Club World Cup triumph

● VAR rules out Eze free-kick

● Estevao wastes Chelsea's best chance

● Nottingham Forest beat Brentford 3-1

AFP | London

Chelsea suffered a Club World Cup hangover as they were lucky to escape with a 0-0 draw against Crystal Palace to open their Premier League campaign yesterday.

Palace were denied an early opener when Eberechi Eze's free-kick was ruled out by a VAR review for Marc Guehi obstructing the Chelsea wall.

New Chelsea signing Estevao came closest to snatching a winner for the home side, but the newly-crowned world champions were blunt in attack against a well-organised Palace defence.

The Eagles key duo of Guehi and Eze started despite mounting speculation the England internationals are set to join Liverpool and Tottenham, respectively.

"As long as they are 100 per cent committed, they will play as they are so good," said Palace boss Oliver Glasner.

"They didn't just show they are great footballers, but they are great persons and that's what I expected."

Eze thought he had opened the scoring with a blistering free-kick that had too much power for Robert Sanchez.

The goal was disallowed for Guehi's role in creating a gap by man-handling Moises Caicedo into the Chelsea wall.

Chelsea's demolition of European champions Paris Saint-Germain in the Club World Cup final last month had raised the Blues' hopes they can challenge for a first Premier League title since 2017.

But Enzo Maresca bemoaned his side's lack of preparation time since beating PSG in New York just 35 days ago.

"They played about eight (pre-season) games, we played just two so we tried our best," said the Italian.

"We expected a tough game. Apart from the first half free-kick, we didn't concede any chances."

Estevao scored against Chelsea at the Club World Cup in his final game for Palmeiras.

Chelsea's new signing Estevao, who scored against them in the Club World Cup final for Palmeiras, missed their best chance on debut, slicing over from close range boss Keith Andrews.

"It was a very good first half. The combinations were really good, beautiful goals," said Nuno.

"This is why we are insisting on a good balanced squad that gives us options and solutions."

The Bees have lost their manager, captain and top scorer in the off-season.

Thomas Frank left to take charge of Tottenham, Bryan Mbeumo got his dream move to Manchester United and Arsenal secured Christian Norgaard.

Yoane Wissa was also missing from the Brentford squad ahead of an expected move to Newcastle.

Igor Thiago's first goal for the club from the penalty spot late on was the only consolation for the visitors.

Sinner, Alcaraz set Cincy final clash

AFP | Cincinnati

World number one Jan-nik Sinner and hot rival Carlos Alcaraz will face off in a major final for the fourth time this season after both booked straight-set wins into the title match at the ATP-WTA Cincinnati Open on Saturday.

Defending champion Sinner ruthlessly subdued 136th-ranked qualifier Terence Atmane 7-6 (7/4), 6-2 while Spanish second seed Alcaraz defeated an ailing Alexander Zverev, who was suffering badly from the 32 Celsius heat and humidity, by 6-4, 6-3.

Alcaraz and Sinner have played for trophies this season in Rome, Roland Garros and Wimbledon, with the Italian winning their most recent at the All England Club last month.

Sinner, celebrating his 24th birthday, ended Frenchman Atmane's dream run and will now try to become the first man since Roger Federer in 2014-15 to win back-to-back titles in Cincinnati.

Sinner, tuning up for the US Open in his first tournament since winning Wimbledon, hasn't dropped a set en route to the final.

"It's a very, very tough challenge every time you play a new opponent," Sinner said. "In the later stages of the tournament, the pressure is on, they deserve to be there." Alcaraz will also be playing in his second Cincy final after losing to Novak Djokovic in 2023.

The Spaniard increased his ATP season match win lead to 53 in a year of five titles.

Alcaraz broke Zverev once in the opening set to claim it before the German, who is diabetic, began feeling poorly and took a medical timeout off court after the third game of the second set.

Zverev, who has retired in only two matches since 2014, came back out to finish what was a patchy match from Alcaraz, who double-faulted for times in the second game of the second set but won the last 12 points with Zverev running on fumes.

"We started well with good rallies, a good level," Alcaraz said. "All of a sudden he felt bad and I was thinking more about how he was feeling instead of playing good tennis."

Arjun's Chess Academy to compete in 31st Abu Dhabi Chess Festival

TDT | Manama

Bahrain's Arjun's Chess Academy (ACA) is all set to make its mark once again at one of the world's largest chess events — the 31st Abu Dhabi Chess Festival 2025, scheduled from 14th to 24th August in Abu Dhabi, UAE.

This year's festival is expected to witness over 3,000 players from various countries competing in 31 different tournaments, making it a global celebration of chess. The ACA team, led by coach Arjun Kakkadath, will be participating for the third consecutive year, reaffirming the academy's commitment to providing its students with top-level international exposure.

The ACA contingent comprises 10 talented students: Prithvi Raj Prajeesh, Aaryan Anil Jai Prabhakaran, Dhrupad Lohidas, Arnav Singh Dewan, Rudra Viral Desai, Khush Dholaria, Jishnu Balajee Meenu, Vaishnav Sumesh, Nimit Minu and Tanya Singh. They will compete in multiple events including the Standard Open, Junior Open, Schools Tournament, Academy Tournament, and Blitz Tournament.

Speaking about the event, Arjun Kakkadath said, "The Abu Dhabi Chess Festival offers our players a rare chance to face top-rated opponents from across the globe. It's an invaluable experience that pushes them to improve and grow as chess players."
