Is Cristiano Ronaldo engaged?

Dailymail | Moscow

Georgina Rodriguez added weight to growing rumours of an engagement to Cristiano Ronaldo by revealing a sparking ring in her wedding finger as she cheered the footballer to victory in Moscow yesterday afternoon. The 24-year old wore the diamond encrusted ring while watching Ronaldo, 33, thump home the decisive winning goal against Morocco, his fourth of the tournament as Portugal played their second Group B game at Luzhniki Stadium.

The glittering accessory gave rise to further speculation that the footballer has proposed to Georgina, who gave birth to her first child with father-of-four Ronaldo in November. The brunette was clearly in good spirits throughout the match, and was seen donning a Portugal shirt, despite being born in Argentina and raised in Spain. She also wore the number seven shirt sported by Ronaldo during their opening match against her native Spain, during which he netted a hat-trick.

However she appeared to be nonplussed by footballing allegiances as she waved the Portugal flag and chatted with friends throughout the match.

Bloom had a crush on Cate Blanchett

IANIS | Los Angeles

Actor Orlando Bloom says he had a major crush on actress Cate Blanchett while they were filming for "The Lord of the Rings".

On an episode of "The Late Late Show with James Corden", which was taped in London, the 41-year-old actor joined Blanchett and confessed about his crush, reports etonline.com.

When asked what his first impression of Blanchett was when she was playing Galadriel and he was portraying Legolas in the film, Bloom said: "I can't think -- I had such a crush. I had the biggest crush on you."

Taken aback by the confession, Blanchett told him: "Well,

Orlando Bloom

Orlando Bloom has also been a part of Global Green, an environmental company, since the early 2000s it was your character!" Bloom stuck to his story, explaining, "No, it was me!" The actor said he was about 21 years old at the time of the filming and was intimidated by Blanchett, more than five years his senior.

Will Ferrell to star in Eurovision song contest comedy for Netflix

AFP | Los Angeles

"Anchorman" star Will Ferrell is set to direct and appear in a Netflix movie based on the Eurovision Song Contest, a glitzy annual musical extravaganza known for its over-the-top costumes, media reports said yesterday.

He will also co-write "Eurovision" with Andrew Steele, former head writer of "Saturday Night Live," on which Ferrell starred for years.

Ferrell was reportedly inspired by a visit to this year's Eurovision and is thought to have been a fan since being introduced to the contest by his wife of 18 years, Swedish actress Viveca Paulin. The movie is being interpreted as an attempt by Netflix.

Kit Harington plans major makeover after GoT wrap-up

Kit Harington

IANIS | London

Actor Kit Harington says he will cut his hair short after wrapping up "Game of Thrones".

With filming on the final season of the fantasy series entering its last weeks, Harington has expressed his wish to cut his signature long hair, ew.com reported.

"I'd like to step away and enjoy the obscurity, cut my hair, make myself less recognisa-

I'd like to step away and enjoy the obscurity, cut my hair, make myself less recognisable

KIT HARRINGTON

Harington said.

Harington has played Jon Snow across eight seasons of the show.

So, how short exactly will he go?

"Short-short. The beard will be harder to get rid of -- I quite like the beard. I like having the long hair and beard both, but it will be like ritualistic thing. I can't go into my next role looking the same. This role was brilliant, but I'll need to get rid of Jon Snow," he said.
