Activate Siren Alert on "MyGov" App

TDT | Manama

The Information & eGovernment Authority (IGA) has called on all citizens and residents to activate the alerts and sirens feature available on the "MyGov" app, as part of precautionary civil protection measures to enhance public safety. This feature aims to ensure that notifications issued by the relevant official authorities reach the public during emergencies.

The IGA emphasized that the alerts and sirens feature on the "MyGov" app serves as an effective digital channel in times of emergency to boost individual readiness and raise community awareness. It noted that this feature complements an integrated system for sending messages and alerts through multiple communication channels, ensuring that official information and instructions reach the widest possible audience and enhancing community response efficiency under all circumstances.

To benefit from this service, the IGA explained that users need to update the "MyGov" app to the latest version via official stores on iOS, Android, and Huawei devices, and activate the "General Notifications" option within the app's settings. Citizens and residents can download the "MyGov" app by visiting the eGovernment App Store at bahrain.bh/apps.

US steps up Iran-related sanctions as Mideast attacks flare

Washington, United States

The United States issued new Iran-related sanctions Friday, taking aim at the procurement of machinery for the country's defense industry at a time when war is flaring in the Middle East.

The US Treasury Department said it was targeting an individual and eight entities over their roles in the sourcing and transshipment of "sensitive machinery for Iran's defence industry."

Russia, Bahrain may launch Gulf wheat hub, says Putin

TDT | agencies

St. Petersburg: Russia and Bahrain are exploring the creation of a regional hub for Russian wheat exports, President Vladimir Putin announced during the plenary session of the St. Petersburg International Economic Forum on yesterday.

"Together with our friends from Bahrain, we are going to create a hub for shipping wheat from Russia," Putin said, adding that there is strong interest from many Arab countries in receiving Russian wheat supplies. "We will move in this direction step by step," he noted.

Russia remains the world's largest wheat exporter, with projections for the current export season (ending June 30) reaching 44 million tonnes, according to Agriculture Minister Oksana Lut. In 2024, Russia harvested 125.9 million tonnes of grain, including 82.6 million tonnes of wheat.

Spare Bushehr Start talking

Gulf faces nuclear catastrophe if Bushehr is hit, says IAEA

TDT | agencies

A military strike on Iran's Bushehr nuclear reactor could unleash a nuclear catastrophe across the Gulf, the UN's nuclear watchdog chief warned, calling for urgent restraint amid spiralling tensions. Even targeting the power lines that supply the facility could trigger a meltdown, said Rafael Grossi, Director General of the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA).

"This would cause a very high release of radioactivity," Grossi told the UN Security Council, noting that Bushehr contains thousands of kilograms of nuclear material. "Countries of the region have reached out directly to me in recent hours to express concern," he added.

Grossi warned that the fallout would not stop at Iran's borders. In a worst-case scenario, areas within several hundred kilometres of the site — including major population centres in Gulf Arab states — would face emergency evacuation orders, food restrictions, and the need for iodine distribution to counter radiation exposure.

While the IAEA has not detected any radiation leak so far during Israel's ongoing military campaign against Iran, Grossi stressed that Bushehr — the Middle East's first civilian nuclear reactor — remains a high-risk target. He confirmed that, as of now, the site appears to have been spared.

Bushehr's construction began in the 1970s under the Western-backed Shah of Iran. German engineers initially led the project, which was later completed and maintained by Russia after the 1990s.

Grossi urged all sides to pursue diplomatic solutions, reiterating the IAEA's role in verifying Iran's compliance with non-proliferation commitments. "We can guarantee, through a watertight inspection system, that nuclear weapons are not being developed in Iran," he said, offering once again to personally mediate a resolution.

Thousands protest in Tehran and the region against Israel

Tehran, Iran

Thousands of people rallied in Tehran, Baghdad and Beirut yesterday after weekly prayers to protest Israel's strikes on Iran, chanting slogans against Israel and its main backer, the United States. Images on Iran's state television showed protesters in Tehran holding up photographs of commanders killed since the start of the war, while others waved the flags of Iran and the Hezbollah.

According to state television, protests took place in other cities around the country, including in Tabriz in northwestern Iran and Shiraz in the south.

Israeli army chief warns of 'prolonged campaign' in Iran

Jerusalem, Undefined

Israel's military chief Eyal Zamir warned yesterday that his country should be "ready for a prolonged campaign" against Iran, as the longtime foes exchanged fire for the eighth day.

"We have embarked on the most complex campaign in our history to remove a threat of such magnitude, against such an enemy. We must be ready for a prolonged campaign," Zamir said in a video statement to Israelis.

Israel launched attacks against Iran last Friday which have combined targeted assassinations of key military personnel with strikes on Iran's nuclear and missile facilities.

Zamir said the Israeli military had prepared for "years" for the campaign against Iran, even while Israeli troops continue their devastating campaign against Hamas in Gaza.

Iran media reports arrest of 'European spy'

Tehran, Iran

Iranian authorities have arrested a European on suspicion of espionage, local media reported yesterday.

"A European citizen who sought to spy on sensitive areas of the country" was arrested in southwestern Iran, Tasnim news agency said, without specifying the nationality of the suspect or the arrest date.

"He had been visiting the country as a tourist at the time of the brutal attack by the Zionist regime," it added, referring to Israel's June 13 strikes that triggered the war.

Europe powers urge Iran to keep up diplomacy

Geneva, Switzerland

European powers yesterday urged Iran to revive diplomatic efforts with the United States, but Tehran warned it could only consider diplomacy once Israel halted its bombardment. British, French, German and EU top diplomats held talks in Geneva with Iranian Foreign Minister Abbas Araghchi. "The good result today is that we leave the room with the impression that the Iranian side is ready to further discuss all the important questions," said German Foreign Minister Johann Wadepuhl.

TDT | Manama

MP Dr. Maryam Al Dhaen has praised the UK-Bahrain defence and investment agreements signed during the official visit of His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister, to London on Thursday, describing them as a clear signal of international trust in Bahrain's strategic direction.

Dr. Al Dhaen said the agreements underscore Bahrain's rising influence in global diplomacy and security, pointing to the Kingdom's leadership in forging partnerships that strengthen regional stability and long-term economic growth.

She highlighted the potential of the new accords to advance cooperation in cybersecurity, defence training, and investment, particularly in sectors like artificial intelligence and digital infrastructure.

Growing Recognition

Al Dhaen added that the reception given to Bahrain in London, including support for its UN Security Council bid, reflects the growing confidence in the Kingdom's role as a constructive, stabilising force in the region.

She noted that the UK's engagement builds on Bahrain's earlier diplomatic initiatives under the Comprehensive Security and Prosperity Agreement (C-SIPA), broadening the scope of cooperation across defence and development fronts.

Al Dhaen also expressed hope that the agreements would serve as a model for future collaborations, inspiring deeper integration among allied nations seeking to address global challenges through shared security frameworks and joint investment strategies.

Blades from Bahrain Captivate the World

Heritage meets global spotlight

● Exhibition held in Russia

● Dagger craft takes focus

● Culture ties gain strength

Mahir Haneef
TDT | Manama

Bahrain's centuries-old tradition of sword and dagger craftsmanship took centre stage at one of the world's most iconic museums this week, as the Kingdom unveiled a cultural exhibition at the State Hermitage Museum in St. Petersburg, spotlighting its rich artisanal heritage before a global audience.

Hosted on the sidelines of the St. Petersburg International Economic Forum (SPIEF) 2025, the exhibition titled 'From Bahrain's Heritage: The Art of Sword and Dagger Making' presented intricately handcrafted Bahraini blades by Depaj Factory, a showcase of heritage deeply rooted in symbolism, strength, and identity.

Living tradition

The displays highlighted ancient techniques passed down through generations, tracing how these weapons evolved beyond their martial function into revered artistic forms. Officials, international guests, and investors at the exhibition experienced the craftsmanship as an expression of Bahrain's cultural identity and precision artistry. H.E. Shaikh Khalifa bin Ahmed bin Abdullah Al Khalifa, President of the Bahrain Authority for Culture and Antiquities, said the event was a reflection of enduring cultural ties between Bahrain and the Russian Federation. "The traditional craft of sword and dagger making is one of the most vivid expressions of our heritage, embodying meanings of strength, dignity, beauty, and artisanal precision," he said. He added that hosting such an event at the Hermitage, one of the world's greatest cultural institutions, demonstrated Bahrain's commitment to preserving its intangible cultural legacy and sharing it with the world.

Cultural engagement

Alongside the exhibition, a modern Bahraini dinner titled 'Pearls of the Gulf' was curated by Chef Yusuf Qumber. Guests were treated to a five-course meal inspired by the flavours and stories of Bahrain, designed to immerse diners in the country's history and traditions through food and storytelling.

Sara Buheji, CEO of the Bahrain Tourism and Exhibitions Authority, said the event was part of a broader strategy to elevate Bahrain's cultural brand internationally. "We are positioning the Kingdom as a premier global destination that blends Bahraini heritage with world-class cultural experiences," she noted.

By bridging ancient traditions with contemporary platforms, Bahrain continues to affirm its cultural presence on the global stage, one crafted blade at a time.

The State Hermitage Museum in St. Petersburg, founded in 1764, is one of the world's largest and oldest museums, with over 3 million artefacts spanning global civilisations.

The man found guilty of sailing under the influence of drugs and causing an accident at sea that claimed the lives of two Bahraini fishermen has been sentenced to seven months in jail. The court also slapped him with a BD1,150 fine.

He could, however, avoid jail by posting a BD100 bail, though his boat and fishing gear will be confiscated for operating with banned 'karaf' trawling nets and sailing without a mandatory satellite navigation tracker.

The verdict was issued by the Lower Criminal Court, which found the skipper guilty of manslaughter, reckless boating, and navigating under the influence of pregabalin, a controlled substance. He was sentenced to six months in prison for breaching

He was also fined BD1,000 for operating with banned 'karaf' trawling nets and sailing without a mandatory satellite navigation tracker. An additional BD50 fine was imposed for failing to provide life jackets, a fire extinguisher, and a first-aid kit on board. The deadly incident occurred in the waters off Umm as Sabaan islet, also known as Al-Muhammadiya, following a collision between two boats. Both Bahraini fishermen on board one of the vessels were killed. Two Asian crew members involved in the crash were each sentenced to 40 days in jail for illegal trawling, followed by deportation. They also received 10-day sentences for overstaying their visas.

The case came to light when Coast Guard officials responded to reports of a boat collision. They found the skipper attempting to tow the damaged vessel to Malkiya beach, with one victim's body still aboard. The second body was later recovered near Budaiya port.

Investigators faced challenges due to unclear marine reports and outdated tracking data from the cybercrime unit, which failed to show the boats' movements on the day of the incident. A marine inspector noted that some findings were speculative rather than based on concrete evidence.

Meanwhile, compensation claims filed by the victims' families have been referred to the civil court, with no fees charged.

Lavender-sprayed clothes fail to mask drug haul; smuggler jailed for 15 years

Mohammed Darwish
TDT | Manama

An Asian man in his thirties has been sentenced to 15 years in prison and fined BD5,000 for attempting to smuggle nearly four kilogrammes of marijuana into Bahrain using a suitcase packed with lavender-sprayed clothes to disguise the drug's scent. The court also ordered the confiscation of his luggage and his permanent deportation following the completion of his sentence.

The man was arrested at Bahrain International Airport after a customs officer noticed irregularities during a routine luggage scan. Inside the suitcase were twelve plastic-wrapped parcels concealed among folded clothing, emitting a strong scent of cannabis despite the lavender spray. The total weight of the drugs was 3.9 kilogrammes. When questioned, the defendant claimed the suitcase belonged to someone from his home country and said he had been instructed to deliver it to an unnamed person in Bahrain. The matter was handed over to the Drug Control Directorate.

Investigations revealed he was acting as part of a smuggling network, tasked with transporting the shipment into Bahrain for onward distribution. He later confessed to knowing the contents of the bag and said he had agreed to the job in return for 20,000 rupees. Further evidence was uncovered on his mobile phone, including messages about using lavender to mask the smell and photos and videos showing marijuana being packed into the suitcase — all taken by the accused. Lab analysis confirmed the seized material was narcotic.

petitiveness. She stressed that developing Bahraini talent is essential to achieving long-term sector growth and enhancing the visitor experience.

Homegrown strength

Buhejji participated in a panel titled 'Professionals for Tourism and Hospitality: Investing in Human Capital, Education, and International Cooperation', where she laid out initiatives aimed at nurturing local talent and equipping citizens to represent Bahrain's story to the world.

She underscored how cultural openness and authentic hospitality are among the Kingdom's most valuable tourism assets, emphasising that empowering Bahrainis to share those values is central to BTEA's 2022-2026 Tourism Strategy.

"Our people are the carriers of our culture," Buhejji told the forum, reinforcing the idea that tourism success is inseparable from community engagement and national pride.

Global showcase

At Bahrain's national pavilion

at SPIEF, BTEA spotlighted key investment projects and tourism offerings, including sustainable hospitality developments. The pavilion also hosted expert lectures, bilateral meetings, and the 'Gulf Pearls' culinary experience by Bahraini Chef Yusuf Qamber.

Bahrain's traditional craftsmanship also featured prominently, with a dagger and sword exhibition held in collaboration with the Bahrain Authority for Culture and Antiquities and Depaj Factory. The exhibition will continue through June 29, offering international visitors a deeper look into Bahrain's cultural heritage.

Strategic relations

In a separate panel on 'Russia-Bahrain: Bilateral Relations', Buhejji explored opportunities for cooperation in tourism and culture as both countries mark 35 years of diplomatic relations. She reaffirmed Bahrain's commitment to positioning itself as a regional hub for sustainable, experience-driven tourism.

"Our goals go beyond visitor numbers. We are building a tourism model that is inclusive, rooted in our values, and representative of who we are," she said.

As Bahrain looks to the future, its tourism sector appears increasingly anchored not just in infrastructure, but in its people.

Tourism employs nearly 8% of Bahrain's workforce, with the sector identified as a key non-oil driver of economic growth under the national Vision 2030 strategy.

Bahrain-UK agreement: What Happens Next?

Agreement details reveal strategic priorities

- Maritime security prioritised
- Expanded joint military training
- UK joins trilateral pact

Mahir Haneef
TDT | Manama

A day after the landmark Bahrain-UK defense agreement was signed, key strategic details are now emerging, outlining plans for deeper military coordination, stronger maritime security, and the United Kingdom's significant move into the Bahrain-US-led Comprehensive Security and Prosperity Agreement.

The agreement, formalized during the official UK visit of His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, Crown Prince Deputy, Supreme Commander and Prime Minister, signals a further strengthening of the Kingdom's longstanding strategic relationship with Britain. It specifically highlights critical areas of future cooperation and mutual benefit.

The deal signing

Maritime partnership
His Excellency Lieutenant General Abdullah bin Hassan Al Nuaimi, Minister of Defense Affairs, emphasized that maritime security has emerged as a central component of the agreement. Plans are in place for intensified naval exercises, coordinated joint patrol operations, and enhanced maritime surveillance involving Bahrain Defense Force and British armed forces personnel.

“The signing of this defense cooperation agreement is rooted in our distinguished partnership, continuously strengthened under the leadership of His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa and the directives of HRH the Crown Prince and Prime Minister,” stated Al Nuaimi.
He noted that expanding maritime cooperation is essential to maintaining regional stability and addressing evolving security challenges in Gulf waters.

Trilateral expansion
Another critical dimension unveiled in the agreement is the UK's access to the Comprehensive Security and Prosperity Agreement, previously a bilateral arrangement between Bahrain and the United States. This significant strategic step positions the UK firmly within a trilateral security framework, broadening collaborative defense and security operations in the region.

“The United Kingdom's inclusion, based on invitations extended by Bahrain and the United States, will elevate our joint security coordination and open broader avenues of cooperation, enhancing the mutual security interests of our nations,” Al Nuaimi explained.
Deep-rooted alliance

UK MPs vote in favour of assisted dying bill in historic step

Campaigners for a change in the law on assisted dying celebrate outside The Palace of Westminster
AFP | London

Britain's parliament took a historic step towards allowing euthanasia yesterday when MPs backed contentious legislation that would introduce assisted dying for terminally ill people. Lawmakers in the lower House of Commons chamber voted 314 in favour to 291 to send the proposal to the upper House of Lords for further scrutiny following four hours of emotional debate. The outcome sparked celebrations among supporters gathered outside parliament who say legalised euthanasia will give people with an incurable illness dignity and choice at the end of their lives. But opponents attending a neighbouring counter-protest said they feared vulnerable people could be coerced into dying and urged lawmakers to focus on improving palliative care instead. The Terminally Ill Adults (End of Life) Bill would allow assisted suicide in England and Wales for adults who have been given less than six months to live. They would have to be able to administer the life-ending substance themselves, and any patient's wish to die would have to be signed off by two doctors and a panel of experts. A change in the law would see Britain emulate several other countries in Europe and elsewhere that allow some form of assisted dying, including Belgium and the Netherlands. Labour MP Kim Leadbeater, who proposed the legislation, told yesterday's so-called third reading debate that a law change would "offer a compassionate and safe choice" for terminally ill people. She said maintaining the status quo would mean more "heartbreaking stories" of "pain and trauma, suicide attempts, PTSD, lonely trips to Switzerland, (and) police investigations". But Vicky Foxcroft, also of Labour, said the proposal did not include adequate safeguards for disabled people.

US steps up sanctions as Mideast attacks flare

United States issues new sanctions targeting Iran's defense industry and Huthi rebels

- Sanctions target defense industry machinery
- Aim to disrupt missile, drone programs

AFP | Washington

The United States issued new Iran-related sanctions yesterday, taking aim at the procurement of machinery for the country's defense industry at a time when war is flaring in the Middle East. The US Treasury Department said it was targeting an individual and eight entities over their roles in the sourcing and transshipment of "sensitive machinery for Iran's defence industry." "The United States remains resolved to disrupt any effort by Iran to procure the sensitive, dual-use technology, components, and machinery that underpin the regime's ballistic missile, unmanned aerial vehicle, and asymmetric weapons programs," said Treasury Secretary Scott Bessent in a statement. He added that Treasury would continue to target Iran's ability to make and proliferate such weapons, "which threaten regional stability and global security." The action comes as conflict is heating up in the Middle East. Iran has been firing daily missile salvos at Israel for the past week, since a wide-ranging Israeli at-

In a separate statement, the Treasury Department said it imposed sanctions directed at Yemen's Iran-backed Huthi rebels as well -- on four individuals, 12 entities and two vessels that imported oil and other illicit goods in support of the group. "The Houthis rely on a series of front companies and trusted facilitators to clandestinely generate revenue, procure weapons components, and advance their reign of terror in partnership with the Iranian regime," said US Deputy Treasury Secretary Michael Faulkender. Iranian foreign minister says Israel attack 'betrayal' of diplomacy with US

AFP | Geneva

Iran's foreign minister yesterday condemned the Israeli attacks against the Islamic republic as a "betrayal" of diplomatic efforts with the US, saying Tehran and Washington had been due to craft a "promising agreement" on the Iranian nuclear programme. "We were attacked in the midst of an ongoing diplomatic process," Foreign Minister Abbas Araghchi told the UN Human Rights Council in Geneva ahead of a crunch meeting with European foreign ministers. Araghchi, making his first trip abroad since the strikes began, denounced Israel's attack as an "outrageous act of aggression." US Special Envoy Steve Witkoff had planned to meet Araghchi in Oman on June 15 but the meeting was cancelled after Israel began the strikes days before. "We were supposed to meet with the Americans on 15 June having. Araghchi described the attacks by Israel as an "unjust war imposed on my people" that had killed "hundreds". Pointing to the risk of radiation after strikes on atomic plants, he said: "Attacks on nuclear facilities are grave war crimes."

Iran missiles injure 19 in Haifa

Israeli hospital reports 19 wounded as Iran continues daily missile salvos

Israel accuses Iran of war crimes

AFP | Jerusalem

Missiles fired from Iran yesterday left at least 19 people injured in the northern Israeli port of Haifa, a local hospital said, on the second week of war between the arch foes.

Iran has been firing daily missile salvos at Israel for the past week, since a wide-ranging Israeli attack on the Islamic Republic's nuclear installations and military bases triggered war.

At least one projectile appeared to evade Israel's air defences, slamming into an area by the docks of Haifa where it damaged a building and blew out windows, littering the nearby ground with rubble, images showed.

A spokesman for the city's Rambam hospital said 19 people had been injured, with one in a serious condition.

Earlier, Israel's Magen David Adom rescue service reported two people had been injured by falling shrapnel after the attack but did not specify the location.

Israeli President Isaac Herzog said in a statement that Haifa's Al-Jarina mosque "was struck by an Iranian missile, injuring Muslim clerics and worshippers at prayer".

Foreign Minister Gideon Saar later shared a similar message on social media, adding that "the Iranian regime is targeting Muslim, Christian and Jewish civilians, as well as civilian sites. These are war crimes."

A military official said that "approximately 20 missiles were launched towards Israel" in the latest Iranian salvo.

Around 20 minutes after the air raid sirens were activated, the army released a statement saying people were allowed to leave bomb shelters.

Earlier yesterday, sirens rang out in parts of the country following another Iranian missile launch.

Footages showed police operating in the southern Israeli city of Beersheba, alongside emergency response teams and bomb disposal expert.

Security forces there inspected a crater near residential buildings, where the wreckage of charred cars lay below the mangled metal of destroyed balconies.

The Soroka Hospital in the city was struck on Thursday, injuring 40 people.

Israel, saying Iran was on the verge of developing nuclear weapons, launched a massive wave of strikes on June 13, triggering an immediate retaliation from Tehran. Residential areas in both countries have suffered, while Israel and Iran have traded accusations of targeting civilians.

At least 25 people have been killed in Israel by Iranian missile strikes, according to authorities.

Iran said on Sunday that Israeli strikes had killed at least 224 people, including military commanders, nuclear scientists and civilians.

Israeli army chief warns of 'prolonged campaign' in Iran

AFP | Jerusalem

Israel's military chief Eyal Zamir warned yesterday that his country should be "ready for a prolonged campaign" against Iran, as the longtime foes exchanged fire for the eighth day. "We have embarked on the most complex campaign in our history to remove a threat of such magnitude, against such an enemy. We must be ready for a prolonged campaign," Zamir said in a video statement to Israelis.

Israel launched attacks against Iran last Friday which have combined targeted assassinations of key military personnel with strikes on Iran's nuclear and missile facilities.

Zamir said the Israeli military had prepared for "years" for the campaign against Iran, even while Israeli troops continue their devastating campaign against the Palestinian militant group Hamas in Gaza.

The Iranian "operation was made possible thanks to the convergence of operational and strategic conditions, some of which were temporary," Zamir said, adding that "history would not forgive us if we failed to act now" against an "existential threat" to Israel.

Analysts say Iran was severely weakened by Israeli strikes on allied militant groups Hamas in Gaza and Hezbollah in Lebanon since 2023, while Israel damaged Tehran's air defences in tit-for-tat exchanges between the countries last year.

Zamir hailed "extraordinary results" from fighter jet pilots flying missions "at the greatest range and intensity in the (air) force's history".

He also said that Israelis needed to brace for more difficulties, as the country comes under daily attack from Iranian ballistic missiles.

"Although we have made significant achievements, difficult days still lie ahead. We must remain alert and united until the mission is complete," he added.

We have embarked on the most complex campaign in our history to remove a threat of such magnitude, against such an enemy. We must be ready for a prolonged campaign

No one chooses to be a refugee. In Chad, I met Sudanese families fleeing unimaginable violence — and communities that welcomed them with grace. This #WorldRefugeeDay, solidarity means standing with refugees — and with those who open their doors and hearts.

Paris Hilton hails ‘kind’ and ‘patient’ Carter Reum

Bang Showbiz | Los Angeles

Paris Hilton has praised Carter Reum for filling their family home with “love, laughter, and fun”. The 44-year-old star has son Phoenix, two, and daughter London, 18 months, with Carter, and Paris took to Instagram on Father’s Day (06.15.25) to heap praise on her husband. The blonde beauty - who has been married to Carter since 2021 - wrote on the photo-sharing platform: “Happy Father’s Day to the Dada who fills our home with love, laughter, and fun. Watching you be a dad is the greatest gift — your kindness, patience, and playful heart make every day magical [star emojis] Phoenix, London, and I adore you beyond words “Forever grateful for our #CutesieCrew [tears and hearts emoji] (sic)” Paris also paid tribute to her own dad on Father’s Day. The socialite wrote: “Happy Father’s Day to my incredible dad @RickHilton7 [heart emoji] The most loyal, loving, and protective man [tears emoji] “Thank you for always believing in me and letting me chase my dreams [heart and stars emoji] I’m so lucky to be your daughter. Love you forever [heart emojis]

#FathersDay. (sic)” Meanwhile, Paris previously admitted to feeling like “the luckiest girl in the world” after getting married to Carter. The singer took to social media to pay a heartfelt tribute to her husband on their second wedding anniversary. Alongside some throwback snaps from their wedding day, Paris wrote: “Before 2021, 11:11 was just my favorite time of day [star emojis] Now it’s the anniversary of one of the best days of my life [heart emojis] Happy 2 year anniversary my love! [heart emojis] Thank you for making me feel like the luckiest girl in the world

every single day. [queen emoji] So happy and grateful for this beautiful life we are building together Love you so much Dada (sic)” Paris has also admitted that she loves the challenges of motherhood. She told E! News: “It’s been such a special time. “My little baby boy is my world and he’s made my life feel so complete. My husband is just the sweetest, kindest, most loyal and loving partner - just my everything. “It’s been amazing being a mom, being a wife and this new phase of my life. I just never felt so happy.”

Brad Pitt needs to ‘try and be calm’ on the road

Bang Showbiz | Los Angeles

Brad Pitt has admitted he needs to “chill” while driving. The Hollywood star - who plays racer Sonny Hayes in new blockbuster F1 - got to speed around racetracks for the movie, but he acknowledged he should learn to slow down when he’s out and about. Noting he is “trying to be calm in traffic”, Brad told Extra: “I’m one of those that feels like I’m always on the racetrack and I need to, like, chill. “I just need to chill. So that’s this year, just trying to chill. Enjoy the sights, don’t sweat the traffic. “I’m not doing very well, by the way.”

Brad Pitt

The 61-year-old actor’s character in the movie is a retired driver making his return to the sport, and Brad has seen parallels with the film world. He said: “It’s nice... It’s a funny thing because I see the new generations coming in and it’s really exciting what they’re doing, and the movies are about a place in time, in our time, and they reflect our time... “I really enjoy it, but I so enjoy what other people are doing, so it’s less of a hunt and more of an appreciation, you know, as the natural evolution happens.” Brad recently opened up about having to learn from his mistakes, as he appeared to reflect on lessons learned following his divorce from Angelina Jolie. He told Entertainment Tonight:

“o matter the mistake, you know, you just learn from (it) and move on.” Brad added about making an error: “It’ll lead to the next success.” The A-listener and Angelina concluded their divorce in December 2024, more than eight years after the actress, 50, first filed to dissolve their marriage in September 2016. The couple, who starred together in Mr and Mrs Smith, share six children – Maddox, 23, Pax, 21, Zahara, 20, Shiloh, 19, and twins Knox and Vivienne, 16. Speaking about what keeps him grounded at this point in life, Brad said: “At this age, you see how important it is to surround yourself with the people you know, the people you love, the people that love you back.”

Hollywood star Jamie Lee Curtis ‘loves her life’

Bang Showbiz | Los Angeles

Jamie Lee Curtis is “not that particular” about her career choices. The 66-year-old actress has enjoyed a hugely successful career in Hollywood, starring in movies such as ‘Halloween’ and ‘Freaky Friday’ - but Jamie insists she’s not very picky about her film projects. The actress told Us Weekly: “Usually, if a part comes to me, there’s a reason. It’s not random. “I don’t believe you’ll be seeing me playing Lady Macbeth. I don’t think you’re going to see Lady Macbeth in my filmography.” Jamie loves working in the film industry, admitting that she has “no complaints” about her work life. The movie star said: “I pretty much do the work that comes to me ... I love my life. “I just love the fact that I get to be me, that I get to do what I do, that I get to do art and be a part of the art form that I get to be part of - entertainment. I love the combo platter of show business. I’m a marketing guru. I love marketing. And I just love the process of living a creating life. So I got no complaints.” Jamie previously described herself as a “loner”. Despite this, Jamie still enjoys spending time with her co-stars.

Justin Bieber has ‘anger issues’

Bang Showbiz | Los Angeles

Justin Bieber is “broken” and has “anger issues”. The 31-year-old singer has recently sparked concern among fans over his erratic social media posts, but he has seemingly addressed their comment in order to ask people to stop urging him to “heal” and admitted he is “exhausted” with having to think about himself all the time. He wrote: “People keep telling me to heal. “Don’t you think if I could have fixed myself I would have already? I know I’m broken. I know I have anger issues. “I tried to do the work my whole life to be like the people who told me I needed to be fixed like them. And it just keeps making me more tired and more angry. The harder I try to grow, the more focussed on myself I am. “Jesus is the only person who keeps me wanting to make my life about others. Because honestly I’m exhausted with thinking about myself lately aren’t you?” His post came after Justin shared a message exchange with a friend, in which he fumed he would be cutting off for good after they seemingly criticised his actions. # PSG stunned by Botafogo after Messi lights up Club World Cup

European champions PSG suffer shock 1-0 defeat to Botafogo as Messi scores free-kick winner for Miami

- PSG lost 1-0 to Botafogo
- Inter Miami beat Porto 2-1
- Atletico Madrid beat Seattle 3-1
- Palmeiras beat Al Ahly 2-0

AFP | Pasadena

European champions Paris Saint-Germain suffered a shock 1-0 Club World Cup defeat to Brazilian side Botafogo on Thursday after Lionel Messi lit up the tournament with a brilliant free-kick winner for Miami.

Atletico Madrid and Palmeiras also won as the second round of group matches began, but it was Botafogo who stole the headlines.

A first-half goal from Igor Jesus proved the difference as last year's Copa Libertadores winners all but sealed a place in the knockout rounds from Group B in front of 53,699 fans at the Pasadena Rose Bowl in California.

PSG are one of the favourites for FIFA's 32-team tournament after a dazzling season which culminated with a scintillating 5-0 demolition of Inter Milan in the Champions League final.

But their hopes of securing a victory which would have seen them become the first side into the last 16 were stymied by a resilient performance from their opponents from Rio de Janeiro.

"A lot of people wondered, but we showed how strong Botafogo is," goalscorer Jesus said after the win, which kept all of South America's representatives unbeaten at the competition in the United States.

"It was a difficult game and we had to defend well, and we did our job and scored a goal."

Botafogo took the lead against the run of play on 36 minutes as Jefferson Savarino's through ball split the PSG defence and released Jesus.

He then did brilliantly to

"We knew it was going to be a very difficult match -- they defended very well," said PSG coach Luis Enrique.

"This Club World Cup is very intense and difficult and all the teams are highly motivated, especially when they're playing against us."

Botafogo's win leaves them firmly on course for the last 16, with a final group game against Atletico to come on Monday.

Atletico off the mark

Atletico bounced back from a 4-0 loss to PSG as Diego Simone's side beat Seattle Sounders 3-1.

Pablo Barrios scored twice, including an 11th-minute opener which crashed in off the underside of the crossbar.

Belgian Axel Witsel came off the bench at half time and almost immediately made it 2-0, nodding in from close range after a Marcos Llorente shot was tipped onto the woodwork.

Albert Rusnak quickly pulled one back for Seattle, only for Barrios to score again for 3-1.

Botafogo top Group B with six points, with PSG and Atletico each on three and Seattle facing probable elimination after two defeats.

Earlier, Messi scored a trademark free-kick to secure a 2-1 comeback win for Inter Miami against Porto in Atlanta in Group A.

The Argentine superstar found the top corner with a set-piece nine minutes after half time to clinch a surprise victory for the MLS side and give them a strong chance of progressing.

Samu Aghehowa's early penalty gave Porto the lead and they had the better of the first half.

But Telasco Segovia blasted Miami level and then Messi's free-kick helped them claim a noteworthy scalp.

"It's a huge joy, the whole team made a big effort, we worked really well," Messi told broadcaster DAZN.

"It's a really important win for us and we have to enjoy it."

"You can see that we want to compete and today we competed against a really good European team."

Javier Mascherano's Inter Miami have four points from two games, meaning they are level atop the group with Palmeiras.

The Brazilians beat Egypt's Al Ahly 2-0 at MetLife Stadium outside New York.

A Wessam Abou Ali own goal gave Palmeiras a 49th-minute lead before Flaco Lopez doubled their advantage 10 minutes later.

The match was then suspended in the 63rd minute because of a weather warning, with players and fans instructed to take shelter because of a nearby storm before the action eventually resumed.

A draw between Inter Miami and Palmeiras on Monday will send both teams into the last 16.

Pacers thrash Thunder to stay alive in NBA Finals

AFP | Los Angeles

The Indiana Pacers, rallying around injured star Tyrese Haliburton, crushed the Oklahoma City Thunder 108-91 on Thursday to force a decisive game seven in the NBA Finals.

Haliburton, cleared to play with a right calf injury only a couple of hours before tipoff, scored 14 points with five assists and two steals in a solid contribution to a comprehensive team effort.

"We just wanted to protect home court," Haliburton said. "We didn't want to see these

"Backs against the wall, we just responded," he added. "So many different guys chipped in, total team effort. I'm really proud of this group."

Obi Toppin led the Pacers scoring with 20 points off the bench as Indiana's reserves outscored Oklahoma City's bench 48-37.

Andrew Nembhard added 17 points and Pascal Siakam had 16 points and 13 rebounds as the Pacers, who had lost the last two games to stand on the brink of elimination, leveled the best-of-seven championship series at three games apiece.

Ton-up Jaiswal makes England toil in first Test as India take control

AFP | London

India's Yashasvi Jaiswal marked his first Test innings in England with a superb century and captain Shubman Gill hit an unbeaten fifty as the tourists took control of the series opener at Headingley yesterday.

India dominated the bulk of the morning's play after being sent into bat, only to lose two wickets in quick succession as they ended the session on 92-2.

By tea on the first day of the opening Test in a five-match series, India were firmly back in control on 215-2, with 23-year-old opener Jaiswal 100 not out.

Gill, in his first innings as skipper since succeeding the retired Rohit Sharma, was also in fine form on 58 not out.

The pair had so far shared an unbroken partnership of 123 in 25.2 overs, with India going through the second session without losing a wicket.

England captain Ben Stokes' decision to bowl, which may have been influenced by the fact the last six Tests at Headingley have all been won by the team batting second, meant England did not have to face India's star paceman Jasprit Bumrah at the start of the match.

Jaiswal became only the third Indian opener to score a century on Test debut in England, joining the elite company of Sunil Gavaskar and KL Rahul

It also gave England a chance to strike an early blow against an India top order without experienced batsmen Rohit and Virat Kohli after the pair retired from Test cricket within days of each other last month.

Zverev battles into Halle semis, joined by Medvedev

Alexander Zverev in action

AFP | Halle

Home favourite Alexander Zverev shrugged off a mystery illness at Halle yesterday to battle past Italian Fabio Cobolli and progress to the last four of the Wimbledon warm-up.

The German second seed felled Cobolli 6-4, 7-6 (8/6) and will next face Daniil Medvedev, after the Russian third seed beat American Alex Michelsen 6-4, 6-3 in his quarter-final.

In a rematch of a third-round meeting at Roland Garros three weeks ago, Zverev again produced an impressive serving performance.

He crucially rallied from 0-40 down in the second and fourth games of first set.

A finalist in Stuttgart last week Zverev will be hoping to go one better on the grass of Halle after being a losing finalist at the tournament in 2016 and 2017.

It wasn't all plain sailing as he had to take an unscheduled break at 1-1 and deuce in the first set.

I went to throw up, and then 15 minutes later I felt okay again. So I don't know what it was. I've never experienced that before, to be honest. Hopefully I will be fine the next couple of hours, when the adrenalin settles. After that, I think it was a pretty good match

ALEXANDER ZVEREV

“I felt fine before the match, and then out of nowhere I felt really, really bad and felt ill,” recounted Zverev.

“I went to throw up, and then 15 minutes later I felt okay again. So I don't know what it was. I've never experienced that before, to be honest. Hopefully I will be fine the next couple of hours, when the adrenalin settles. After that, I think it was a pretty good match.”

Australia drop struggling Labuschagne for first West Indies Test

AFP | Sydney

Australia yesterday dropped Marnus Labuschagne for the opening match of their three-Test tour of the West Indies after a poor run of form while Steve Smith is out injured.

Teenager Sam Konstas and Josh Inglis come into the starting XI for the opening match in Barbados starting on Wednesday.

Labuschagne opened the batting in the World Test Championship final loss to South Africa last week but managed scores of only 17 and 22 on a challenging Lord's pitch.

Marnus Labuschagne in action

His last hundred for Australia in Test matches was in July 2023, against England at Manchester. Since then, Labuschagne has averaged 24.7 with the bat, in 16 matches.

“Marnus at his best can be a really important member of this team,” chair of selectors George Bailey said.

“He understands his output hasn't been at the level we, or he, expects. We will continue working with him on the areas of his game we feel he needs to rediscover. We continue to value his skill and expect him to work through the challenge positively.”

Smith injured his finger while fielding in the slips at Lord's. He left the field and did not return, watching South Africa's winning run chase from the pavilion.

“Steve needs more time for the wound to heal so we'll give him another week's rest and assess his functionality after that,” Bailey said.

Bangladesh edge ahead in Galle Test

Bangladesh lead Sri Lanka by 187 runs with seven wickets in hand after day four

- Bangladesh finish day four at 177-3
- Shadman Islam scored 76
- Sri Lanka dismissed for 485

AFP | Galle

Bangladesh edged ahead of Sri Lanka on day four of the first Test in Galle yesterday, extending their lead to 187 runs with seven wickets in hand.

The visitors finished at 177-3 after a strong partnership of 68 between opener Shadman Islam and skipper Najmul Hossain Shanto.

All-rounder Milan Rathnayake dismissed Shadman for 76 but veteran campaigner Mushfiqur Rahim, fresh off a first-innings century, joined his captain to steady the innings.

The duo built an unbroken 49-run partnership for the fourth

Bangladesh off-spinner Nayeem

Hasan earlier took five wickets to halt Sri Lanka's first-innings charge, with the visitors dismissed for 485 after lunch to trail by 10 runs.

Nayeem was well supported by Hasan Mahmud, who finished with 3-74.

Sri Lanka looked set for a useful lead after the first session, reaching 465-6 with Kamindu Mendis and Rathnayake stitching together a gritty 84-run stand for the seventh wicket.

However, Sri Lanka then surrendered the momentum with a lower-order collapse, losing their last four wickets for 15 runs.

Rathnayake had shown commendable defiance for his 39 but was undone by an inside edge onto the stumps off Mahmud.

Kamindu followed in the next over with Sri Lanka's score unchanged, falling to Nayeem's off-spin as the ball kicked off the surface and caught the left-hander by surprise.

His composed 87 included eight fours and a six but he fell with a third hundred against Bangladesh within sight.

Nayeem said he “really enjoyed” Kamindu's wicket.

“Very happy with that ball that got him,” he said.

Nayeem also removed debutant Tharindu Rathnayake for a duck with another sharp off-break that went through the gate

YOU KNOW WHAT

Nayeem Hasan triggered Sri Lanka's collapse with three wickets in 10 balls, including Kamindu Mendis who fell 13 short of what would have been his third Test century against Bangladesh as Sri Lanka lost three wickets for just one run in 10 deliveries.

He then bowled Asitha Fernando (4) to close out Sri Lanka's innings.

The last Test draw at the Galle cricket ground was between the same two sides in 2013.

“I think the game is open for both sides,” Kamindu said.

“If we are able to get three wickets early, then we are up for a challenge.”
