

celebs

Ariana Grande evacuates Scotland hotel after fire alert

London

Singer Ariana Grande was forced to evacuate her hotel in Scotland following a fire alert.

The singer, 26, was staying in the 2,500-pounds per night penthouse suite at Blythswood Hotel in Glasgow on Thursday, when the alarm went off, reports dailymail.co.uk.

Posting on Instagram a video in which the darkness of her suite that has a separate entrance to the property, Ariana wrote, "Why?"

Comedian Billy Connolly was in residence at the hotel, guests revealed on the social media.

Ariana Grande

Megan Fox encourages her six-year old son who likes wearing dresses

Los Angeles

Actor Megan Fox's six-year-old son Noah, likes to put on dresses and she is totally fine with it.

The 33-year old also not only encourages but tells him "to be confident no matter what" as her little boy is "really into fashion" and goes to school wearing whatever he likes, even dresses! "Sometimes, he'll dress himself and he likes to wear dresses, sometimes," People quoted Fox as saying on The Talk episode on Thursday.

Not only she allows the son to wear whatever he is comfortable in, but Fox also advises him to be confident.

"I send him to a really liberal, hippy school, but even there -- here in California -- he still has little boys going, 'Boys don't wear dresses,' or 'Boys don't wear pink,'" she said.

"So we're going through that now, where I'm trying to teach him to be confident no matter what anyone else says," Fox continued.

Fox even recalled a day when Noah returned from school and she asked him if boys made fun of him.

Noah

Megan Fox

Beyonce gets spot amongst Royals at Madame Tussauds

Los Angeles

It's time to bow down as 'Queen Bey' is here to claim her throne! Madame Tussauds London on Thursday unveiled Beyonce's wax figurine standing amidst the British Royals.

The singer's statue has been placed at Queen Elizabeth II's spot for a day where she is covered by the Duke and Duchess of Sussex, Prince Harry and Meghan Markle and Prince Philip to the right while Kate Middleton, Prince William, Prince Charles and Camila Parker Bowles are seen standing to her left.

On Friday, her statue will be replaced with the Queen's and she will join the figures of her likes including Ed Sheeran, Adele, Rihanna.

"Beyonce is a living legend, rightly crowned Queen Bey by her legions of fans and industry insiders. If anyone is fitting of a claim to The Queen's spot in our attraction for the very first time, it's Beyonce," Entertainment Weekly quoted Steve Davies, general manager at Madame Tussauds London as saying.

Beyonce

Quash FIR against Boney Kapoor, says Rajasthan High Court

Jaipur

The Rajasthan High Court on Friday ordered the quashing of an FIR lodged against Bollywood film producer Boney Kapoor on charges of duping an investor of Rs 2.5 crore in the name of organising a Celebrity Cricket League.

The alleged victim, Praveen Shyam Sethi, a resident of Ramnagar in Jagatpura, registered an FIR in June this year against three people namely Boney Kapoor, one Mustafa Raj and the director of the Signature Cricket League - Pawan Jangid - for allegedly duping him in the name of unrealistic returns on his investment in the Celebrity Cricket League.

Kylie Jenner dismisses rumours of split with boyfriend Travis Scott

Los Angeles

American model Kylie Jenner who fell prey to online speculations over possible trouble in her relationship with boyfriend Travis Scott, shut down the split rumours with an adorable family picture.

This week, the speculations found a way when the beauty mogul shared a mirror selfie on Instagram and a picture of Scott was suspiciously missing from the makeup closet of the star.

According to E-News, the fans of Kylie noticed the missing picture which was once spotted when she shared few snaps from inside her closet earlier.

However, in a selfie shared on Instagram from the same spot, the framed picture was no longer there in the background. "Ain't a game, boy," and gal pal Yris Palmer's comment, "Made for one player" and you've got a recipe for rumours.

Travis Scott and Kylie Jenner

Kim delayed giving birth to North West for a manicure

Los Angeles

Reality TV star Kim Kardashian says she delayed giving birth to her daughter North West in 2013 for a manicure.

The "Keeping Up with the Kardashians" star shared a hilarious story about her first birth experience when she stopped by on best friend Jonathan Cheban's new podcast "FoodGod: OMFG" on September 19, reports aceshowbiz.com.

Kim said that before going into labour six years ago, she made a few pit stops.

"I go, 'I need a McGriddle at McDonald's,' " the reality star recalled. She also asked Cheban: "Do you mind driving me to get a bikini wax?"

Cheban noted that Kim "couldn't move" that day. "I had to actually like squeeze her inside of the car and pull her out to get this wax," the 45-year-old added.

The pair recalled that they were being followed by paparazzi during the action-packed day. Calling the experience "crazy," the KKW Beauty founder said that they were "racing trying to like ditch them, and then at that moment I get the call saying, 'Hey you have preeclampsia you have to deliver right now.' Preeclampsia is a condition in which a pregnant woman has high blood pressure and typically results in the swelling of feet, legs and hands."

Kim also went to change her nail colour even after the doctors said that she needed to deliver.

Kim Kardashian

Brad Pitt opens about his bonding with Kanye West

Los Angeles

Looks like Brad Pitt and Kanye West are setting new BFF goals.

Pitt talked to Extra about his new buddy, West, during the premiere of his new movie 'Ad Astra' reported People.

"[We kept] just running [into each other] through the years," Pitt said of how he came to meet West. "I love that there's a Kanye out in the world, like, messing things up, you know?"

"Envisioning the future and, you know, we can't forget his music. He was one of the first to come out and be raw and open - he should always get credit for that," he continued.

The 55-year-old actor was also spotted with the rapper during the Sunday Service, which he referred as "really beautiful."

"I think what he's doing is pretty special," Pitt said. "It's this real celebratory thing of people and it's a really loving vibe and it's beautiful -- it's huge, so beautiful. I find it really special."

Speaking to Entertainment Tonight, earlier this week, the "Troy" actor said that the gathering was "a pure celebration of life and people. It's really delightful."

Brad Pitt

Lisa Kudrow, Courteney Cox get nostalgic as 'Friends' turn 25

Los Angeles

Twenty-five years ago, actors Jennifer Aniston, David Schwimmer, Courteney Cox, Lisa Kudrow, Matt LeBlanc and Matthew Perry became household names with the popular American sitcom "Friends". Till date, the star cast is fondly known by their characters' names among their fans.

Be it Rachel and Ross' "on again off again" romance or Monica's obsession with cleanliness or Joey's love for food and the group's long conversations on the couch of Central Perk, everything about the show is still embedded in the minds of avid watchers.

Lisa Kudrow, Courteney Cox

Ryan Reynolds and Blake Lively

This is how Ryan Reynolds is keeping wife Blake Lively happy!

Los Angeles

It seems that American actor Ryan Reynolds is leaving no stone unturned to keep wife Blake Lively happy with his choices in life.

The 42-year-old 'Deadpool' actor, who recently celebrated his seventh wedding anniversary, shared a series of pictures on social media from the photoshoot for the brand, Aviation Gin, which is owned by the actor himself.

"LOVE this @AviationGin shoot with the legendary @guyaroch. Hair by @serafinosays and styling by @joseph.episcopo," he wrote alongside the picture.

Ryan, who shares two children with Blake-with another baby on the way-also joked in his caption, "Bags under my eyes by two thankless who refused to go to bed the night before, despite the fact I read them Winnie the Pooh and nearly half of Stephen King's The Shining."