AFP | London

An elderly British couple released by the Taliban authorities after almost eight months in detention in Afghanistan arrived back in the UK yesterday.

Peter Reynolds, 80, and his wife Barbie, 76, arrived on a flight from the Qatari capital Doha, where they had stayed for medical checks following their release on Friday.

Qatar played a key role in helping to free the couple after mounting fears about their health.

Detained Sudanese ex-vice-president 'ready' for trial

AFP | Juba, South Sudan

South Sudan's detained former vice-president Riek Machar is "ready" to face trial and will appear in court tomorrow, his lawyer said yesterday, as fears grow of renewed insecurity in Africa's youngest nation.

The government of President Salva Kiir this month charged Machar with murder, treason and crimes against humanity and stripped him of his position as first vice-president in the unity government.

His position was part of a 2018 deal between the two men that ended a five-year civil war that killed some 400,000, but the fragile agreement has been unravelling for months.

Bridges for peace

TDT | Manama

Bahrain will continue its foreign policy rooted in peace, dialogue, and international solidarity, said His Excellency Dr. Abdullatif bin Rashid Al Zayani, Minister of Foreign Affairs and Chairman of the National Human Rights Committee.

Speaking on the occasion of the International Day of Peace, observed this year under the theme "Act Now for a Peaceful World", Dr. Al Zayani stressed that the Kingdom, under the leadership of His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa, "remains committed to building a world of security, stability, human coexistence, and sustainable prosperity."

Dedication

The Minister highlighted Bahrain's dedication to strengthening international partnerships, particularly through its upcoming presidency of the Gulf Cooperation Council Summit, as well as its active role in the League of Arab States, the Organization of Islamic Cooperation, and the United Nations.

"Bahrain's diplomacy, guided by the vision of His Majesty the King and the directives of His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister, reflects our unwavering pursuit of peace, understanding, and global partnership for the good of all humanity," Dr. Al Zayani said.

He noted that the Comprehensive Agreement on Integrated Security and Prosperity, signed in Washington in 2023 with the United States and later joined by the United Kingdom, marked a "qualitative leap in promoting peace, stability, and development" while safeguarding energy supplies, maritime navigation, and global trade routes.

Cooperation

Dr. Al Zayani also pointed to Bahrain's growing cooperation with the United Nations, particularly through the Strategic Partnership Framework for Sustainable Development (2025-2029), signed with 21

The Minister further praised the humanitarian initiatives of His Majesty, including the call for an international peace conference in the Middle East, efforts to achieve a ceasefire in Gaza, and support for humanitarian aid delivery.

Contributions

He also underscored Bahrain's international contributions to promoting tolerance and coexistence, citing the launch of the Kingdom of Bahrain Declaration on freedom of religion, the establishment of the King Hamad Global Centre for Coexistence and Tolerance, and the UN's adoption of Bahrain's initiative to mark an International Day of Peaceful Coexistence.

"Bahrain will continue to be a beacon for civilized dialogue, peaceful coexistence, and mutual respect, ensuring security and prosperity for all peoples," Dr. Al Zayani said.

US threat to Venezuela

Repatriate migrants or face 'incalculable' consequences

AFP | Washington

US President Donald Trump yesterday threatened Venezuela with "incalculable" consequences if it refuses to take back migrants it has "forced into the United States," as tensions soar with Caracas.

"We want Venezuela to immediately accept all of the prisoners, and people from mental institutions... forced into the United States of America," Trump said. "Thousands of people have been badly hurt, and even killed, by these 'Monsters'."

The president added, in all caps: "Get them the hell out of our country, right now, or the price you pay will be incalculable!"

Venezuela on Friday accused the United States of waging an "undeclared war" in the Caribbean and called for a UN probe of American strikes that have killed over a dozen alleged drug traffickers on boats in recent weeks.

Warships

Washington has also deployed warships to international waters off Venezuela's coast, backed by F-35 fighters sent to Puerto Rico in what it calls an anti-drug operation.

The biggest US naval deployment in the Caribbean in decades has stoked fears the United States is planning to attack Venezuelan territory.

The strikes have prompted debate over the legality of the killings, with drug trafficking itself not a capital offense under US law.

Nor has Washington provided specific details to back up its claims that the boats targeted had actually been trafficking drugs.

Bahrain's Ma'an Shows Measured Impact

Evidence of tolerance boost emerges from UNC partnership

● Post-survey shows major gains

● Journal validates Bahrain initiative

● Expansion of Ma'an programme urged

TDT | Manama

The Interior Ministry's Ma'an programme to promote peaceful coexistence and combat extremism has shown measurable results, backed by research with the University of North Carolina (UNC) in the United States.

A joint study between the Ma'an Regional Research and Training Centre and UNC found significant improvement in tolerance and coexistence among students, based on post-survey results compared with earlier findings. Interior Ministry constructive dialogue in schools and communities.

The findings were highlighted during a meeting between Shaikh Hisham and a UNC delegation led by Professor David Werk. He stressed the importance of continuing the study and expanding its scope to achieve even broader benefits.

International recognition

The collaboration also produced a joint research paper published in the International Public Health Journal. Shaikh Hisham said the publication reflected international appreciation of Bahrain's research initiatives and underscored the Kingdom's contribution to global scientific efforts.

Regional hub

He reaffirmed that Bahrain is committed to openness and co-operation with international institutions, aiming to strengthen its standing as a regional centre for research and training. This, he said, aligns with the Kingdom's broader vision to promote peace and human security at both national and international levels.

The meeting was also attended by Ali Ahmed Amini, Director of the Crime Prevention Department and head of the Ma'an programme.

Bahrain Pavilion ends National Day celebrations with flying colours

Tokyo

Amid a large international turnout and a festive atmosphere that embodied the spirit of cultural connection, the Kingdom of Bahrain Pavilion, Connecting Seas, concluded its National Day celebrations at Expo 2025 Osaka.

The programme ran from 17 to 20 September under the patronage of His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister.

Diverse programme

Organised by the Bahrain Authority for Culture and Antiquities (BACA), the celebrations were held across several Expo venues and featured musical and folk bands, alongside artists and creatives who presented a diverse programme that showcased the richness of Bahrain's identity and cultural history.

On 18 September, the Pavilion's official National Day, the programme began at the Pavilion with an Arabic coffee and calligraphy experience, before moving to the Expo's Grand Ring for a performance by the Bahrain Police Band, offering audiences a celebratory experience rooted in authentic Bahraini identity.

A comprehensive Bahraini cultural experience

rience rooted in authentic Bahraini identity.

Artistic journey

In the National Day Hall, the main concert, Bahrain's Music Across Time, took audiences on an artistic journey from traditional Bahraini arts to contemporary music.

The performance began with nahma and traditional seafaring work songs, followed by fjiri performed by the Qalali

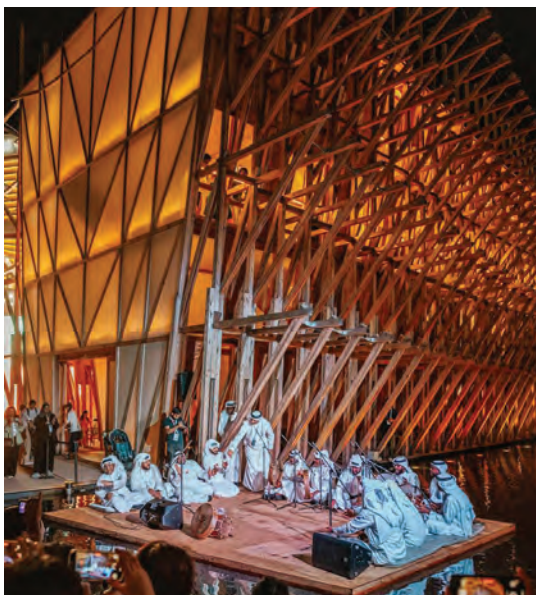

Folk Band, and a tribute to fanal sawt, a genre developed by Bahraini pioneers Mohammed bin Faris, Dhahi bin Walid, and Mohammed Zuwayd.

The evening concluded with a contemporary blend of tradition and piano performance by Bahraini artist Noor Al Qassim.

Concert

The concert also featured Bahraini talents Abdulrahman Awadh, Abdulla Haji, and Mohammed Aseeri, under the artistic direction of maestro Ziad Zaiman, reflecting the dynamism and renewal of Bahrain's musical scene across generations.

The concert was accompanied by a visual display on the Pavilion's main stage, showcasing significant works by Bahraini artists from different generations, including Abbas Al Mosawi, Abduljabbar Al Ghadban and Abdulla Al Muharraqi.

Successful Serbia visit

His Highness Shaikh Nasser bin Hamad Al Khalifa, Representative of His Majesty the King for Humanitarian Work and Youth Affairs, departed the Republic of Serbia, concluding the official visit. At the forefront to bid HH Shaikh Nasser farewell was Jagoda Lazarević, Minister of Internal and Foreign Trade of Serbia. HH Shaikh Nasser confirmed that the visit carried promising prospects for enhancing cooperation between the Kingdom of Bahrain and the Republic of Serbia in various domains and developing relations between the two countries in a way that serves their mutual interests.

Meets Bahraini Heritage" at the Residence of France in Manama and the University of Bahrain - Tuesday September 16th 2025

On Tuesday, September 16th 2025, the University of Bahrain together with the French Embassy to the Kingdom of Bahrain, and the Alliance Française Bahrain co-hosted the very first edition of the "French Day @UoB"

On the occasion of the European Heritage Days, this first edition was held on the heritage theme, taking a cross-cultural look at French and Bahraini heritage. This event reflects a genuine intercultural dialogue between France and Bahrain, particularly in the field of archaeology, which has been one of the cornerstones of our bilateral co-operation for several decades, as illustrated by the presence of the French archaeological mission in the Kingdom since 1977.

The event started with an exclusive visit of the Residence of France in Manama for the students of the University of Bahrain in French minor in the morning, guided by Zahra Hayyan, French and English Translator of the Bahrain Authority for Culture and Antiquities (BACA), and Marine Schuller, the Education Co-operation Attachée of the French Embassy.

The students thoroughly enjoyed this visit which opened the door of the diplomatic world as seen through our Bahraini-French relationship.

Around a French café and biscuits, some of them expressed their wish to continue learning French language at Master's level, either in Bahrain or in French universities.

Present were the President of the university, Dr. Fuad Mohammed Al-Ansari, and the Ambassador of France to Bahrain, His Excellency Eric Giraud-Telme, who opened this sequence with welcoming speeches.

Mismanagement claim junked by appeal court

Mohammed Darwish
TDT | Manama

The Court of Cassation has upheld the appeal and dismissed a former partner's mismanagement claim of about BD164,500, finding no proof of fault and ordering him to pay the legal costs.

The appeal court's findings stood. It preferred the managers' expert report and set aside the rival report.

On the figures, bad debts were 2.90 per cent of sales, which the court treated as commercially acceptable. There were no lost profits.

The company did not post losses but made profits and held high liquidity. Returns were 4.98 per cent in 2016 and 3.73 per cent in 2017, also within acceptable bounds.

Fault

With no negligence made out, fault did not arise and the claim for damages failed.

The claim had sought an injunction to stop the company, then under receivership, from dealing with its funds until judgment, and damages of BD 164,491.510.

The claimant once held 10 per cent of the company; his late father held 30 per cent.

Dues

He left after receiving his dues but said he retained a 3.70 per cent share derived from his father's holding.

A court of first instance had earlier ordered three managers, jointly and severally, to pay the sum, with costs.

They appealed, arguing error in law and relying on an accountant's report that rejected both liability and any entitlement to compensation.

The appeal court accepted that view, dismissed the case and ordered the claimant to pay fees and lawyers' costs.

On procedure, the courts recorded that an earlier filing by the claimant interrupted the limitation period and started a new one. The action nevertheless failed on the merits.

The Court of Cassation has now confirmed the dismissal.

Two Asian expats appeal verdict over drugs case

Mohammed Darwish
TDT | Manama

Two Asian expats appeal 15-year drug terms and BD5,000 fines over a cross-border ring that used dead drops.

Case papers say the pair were convicted of joining a network run by Asian nationals abroad that smuggled and sold narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances inside Bahrain for profit.

The group used dead drops, sending phone photos of stash points so runners could collect, split and pass on the packages to order.

The Anti-Narcotics Directorate opened the case after confidential intelligence from a trusted source named an Asian national directing large drug shipments into the Kingdom with help from others of the same nationality, including a man based overseas.

Inquiries identified the two defendants as working for the ring.

Both were living in Bahrain without stable status or lawful work and relied on proceeds from distributing drugs across the country on the network's instructions.

Their earnings were to be sent to relatives in their home country.

Warrants were issued to arrest them and search their residence.

The first defendant was stopped at the airport as he prepared to fly home.

Damistan apartment fire

Civil Defence teams swiftly contained a fire that broke out in a residential apartment in the Damistan area. A woman sustained minor injuries in the incident and was transported to hospital by the National Ambulance for treatment. Peace Day Policy

Concrete proposals headline peace message

● Call for Middle East peace conference

● Push for global anti-hate speech accord

TDT| Manama

H.E. Dr. Shaikh Abdulla bin Ahmed Al Khalifa

Bahrain marked the International Day of Peace by spotlighting two key policy initiatives through the King Hamad Global Centre for Coexistence and Tolerance.

Minister of Transportation and Telecommunications and Chairman of the Centre's Board of Trustees, H.E. Dr. Shaikh Abdulla bin Ahmed Al Khalifa, affirmed that the Kingdom, under the leadership of His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa and the directives of His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister, remains committed to dialogue and peaceful solutions.

In his statement, H.E. Dr. Shaikh Abdulla emphasised the Kingdom's call to convene an international peace conference in the Middle East, alongside a push for the adoption of a global accord to criminalise religious, sectarian and racist hate speech. H.E. said these initiatives reflect Bahrain's vision of peace as both a strategic choice and a shared destiny, in harmony with the purposes of the United Nations.

National role

The Chairman noted Bahrain's pioneering steps, which include hosting interfaith dialogue gatherings, supporting mediation and preventive diplomacy, and establishing the 'King Hamad Award for Coexistence and Tolerance'. These, H.E. said, embody the Kingdom's commitment to fostering equality, justice, and mutual respect through peaceful means.

Dr. Shaikh Abdulla also drew attention to the close link between peace and sustainable development, stressing that peace is the foundation for growth, while development safeguards peace. He said the Centre is guided by the words of His Majesty the King that "Faith illuminates our path to peace" and works to invest in human values to combat violence and intolerance.

H.E. praised the Centre's efforts in education, training, and capacity-building as tools to spread a culture of solidarity and brotherhood. These, H.E. added, are aimed at creating an environment where ideas and identities can thrive together within an integrated global system.

The message concluded with a call for the international community to intensify collective action to protect peace and build bridges of trust and co-existence.

مستشفى الإرسالية الأمريكية American Mission Hospital

The impact of the future growth of the American Mission Hospital is triangulated between excellence in patient care delivery, the development of both medical student and post graduate training of Bahraini physicians and nurses and to strengthen our collaborative partnerships wit the Mayo Clinic network, the RCSI in Bahrain and CMC in Vellore, south India.

Last year AMH became the first private hospital in Bahrain recognized for training Interns. The second batch of 14 Bahraini Interns are now undergoing training between AMH and Government Hospitals . We are in the final stage of getting the accreditation by the Supreme Council of Health for Arab board Residency programs in some specialities.

The partnership between American Mission Hospital (AMH) and Mayo Clinic is significant for patient care in several ways:

- 1. Access to Expertise: Mayo Clinic is renowned for its high standards in healthcare and specialized medical expertise. This partnership allows AMH to tap into that knowledge, enhancing the quality of care provided to patients in Bahrain.
- 2. Best Practices: Through this collaboration, AMH can implement best practices in clinical protocols and patient management, leading to improved treatment outcomes and patient safety.
- 3. Training and Development: The partnership may include training programs for AMH staff, enabling them to gain skills and knowledge that align with Mayo Clinic's advanced practices.
- 4. Innovative Treatments: Patients at AMH could benefit from access to cutting-edge treatments and clinical trials that Mayo Clinic is involved in, broadening the options available for complex medical conditions.
- 5. Integrated Care Models: The partnership can facilitate the development of integrated care models that focus on holistic patient management, ensuring that all aspects of a patient's health are addressed.

Our transition to a full fledged Academic Medical Center providing the highest level of care to our patients at an affordable cost is the primary mission of AMH as a Non-Profit healthcare organization which has proudly served Bahrain for over 120 years.

By engaging with global leaders, the Nasser Scientific and Technical Center aims to reinforce Bahrain's role as a regional platform for knowledge, innovation, and collaboration.

Peace a 'firm foundation' for future generations

TDT | Manama

Bahrain supports international efforts to achieve comprehensive and sustainable solutions to regional and global conflicts, towards a more secure and stable future for all.

This was emphasised by Council of Representatives Speaker Ahmed bin Salman Al Musallam while emphasising that the vision of His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa has established peace as a consistent principle and a foundation for future generations.

Commitment

He highlighted the contents of HM the King's speech at the Extraordinary Arab Islamic Summit in Doha, which underscored the values of tolerance, coexistence, and fraternity, and the commitment to upholding human dignity, freedom, and the right to a decent life. The Speaker expressed pride in the royal vision and in the government's policies, led by His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister, in supporting mediation, diplomacy, and international cooperation to consolidate the foundations of just and lasting peace.

Peaceful settlement

for a peaceful settlement of the Palestinian issue and the implementation of the two-state solution.

Marking the International Day of Peace, observed annually on September 21 under the 2025 theme "Act Now for a Peaceful World," Al Musallam said the Kingdom of Bahrain consistently advocates peace, coexistence, and tolerance.

He added that the Kingdom supports the peaceful settlement of disputes through dialogue and mutual understanding, and rejects violence and discrimination.

Kingdom advances global peace and coexistence

TDT | Manama

Shura Council Chairman Ali bin Saleh Al Saleh has underscored the Kingdom of Bahrain's pioneering initiatives that demonstrate its sustained regional and international role in promoting coexistence, tolerance, and peace among religions and peoples.

He noted that Bahrain has become a symbol of openness to civilisations and cultures and a model for peaceful coexistence.

Al Saleh underlined that

Ali bin Saleh Al Saleh

these initiatives reflect the firm conviction of His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa in spreading global peace and building a better future for generations.

The Chairman pointed to landmark initiatives launched by Bahrain, including the establishment of the King Hamad Global Center for Coexistence and Tolerance and the King Hamad Award for Peaceful Coexistence.

He said these have taken on an international dimension and embodied HM the King's visionary approach to strengthening the foundations of security and peace worldwide.

Pride

Al Saleh expressed pride in Bahrain's achievements under the leadership of HM the King, emphasising its prominent global presence in strengthening the values of coexistence and tolerance and in reinforcing bonds of peace among nations.

Stage set for 'Parliamentary Bridges' youth program launch

TDT | Manama

The Secretariat of the Representatives will launch the first edition of the Parliamentary Bridges program on Wednesday, September 24.

The initiative will run until September 28.

It is held under the patronage of Council of Representatives Speaker Ahmed bin Salman Al Musallam and with the follow-up of His Excellency Eng. Mohammed Ibrahim Al-Sisi Al-Buainain, Secretary-General of the Council.

The program is part of ongoing efforts to enhance parliamentary culture among youth and strengthen national awareness.

It seeks to instill the values of national belonging by familiarizing participants with the comprehensive development process led by His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa, may God protect him.

The initiative will also introduce participants to the powers and functions of the Council of Representatives and its General Secretariat, promote the principles of the Constitution, foster a culture of citizenship, and develop public debate and dialogue skills among young people.

Providing opportunity to increase families' income

TDT | Manama

The Undersecretary of the Ministry of Social Development, His Excellency Zeyad Adel Darwish, paid an inspection visit to the Mubarak Jassim Kanoo Social Centre, where he reviewed the production units and training workshops.

It was part of the Ministry's efforts to follow up on social and economic empowerment programmes and support productive Bahraini families.

During the visit, the Undersecretary emphasised that the production units and training workshops provide an integrated opportunity for productive families, beginning with the acquisition of skills and knowledge through specialised training, followed by applying these skills in production units equipped to the highest health and technical standards, and culminating in the marketing of products through the centre's permanent store.

His Excellency said this cycle creates wider opportunities for families to expand their activities and increase their income.

He explained that this integrated system enables families to develop high-quality food and handicraft products, enhancing their ability to compete in the local market and promoting a culture of productivity and self-reliance.

NBB Concludes EVOLVE 2025 Summer Internship Programme

Manama

The National Bank of Bahrain (NBB) has successfully concluded the fourth edition of its flagship summer internship programme, EVOLVE. Building on the impact of last year's programme, the 2025 edition was delivered in two distinct phases tailored for school and university students, offering them the chance to develop technical and soft skills needed to excel in the financial services sector.

Attendees took part in classroom sessions led by NBB employees and industry experts, followed by immersive on-the-job placements across the Bank's various departments. This sector-specific learning journey was complemented by team-building workshops, sign language session, cultural awareness sessions, and first-aid training to nurture well-rounded, socially conscious future professionals.

Commenting on the occasion, Maram Buallay, Acting Group

Chief Human Resources Officer at NBB, said, "More than just an internship programme, EVOLVE has become a national platform for youth development built on our belief that investing in the next generation is essential to the Kingdom's long-term growth. Through our partnerships and internal expertise, we have created an environment where students are exposed to the highest standards of theoretical knowledge and professional practice. This edition of EVOLVE has further reinforced our commitment to ensuring that our national talent pipeline is ready to contribute meaningfully to Bahrain's ongoing transformation. We congratulate this year's graduating participants and wish them continued success in achieving their ambitions."

EVOLVE 2025 was delivered in collaboration with a wide network of leading academic institutions, charitable organisations, and training providers across the Kingdom. These partnerships played an instrumental role in delivering a holistic learning experience aligned with the needs of Bahrain's labour market.

Corporate and Individual Clients Commend Takaful International's Surplus Distribution

Manama

Takaful International Company, the leading Islamic insurance provider in the Kingdom of Bahrain, has witnessed significant interest from both individuals and corporate clients in redeeming their surplus, following the company's recent announcement of surplus distributions for the Motor and Property Takaful portfolios for the 2024 underwriting year.

Takaful International is the first takaful company in Bahrain to distribute the surplus to policyholders – a pioneering move that reflects the company's deep commitment to Islamic Takaful principles and reinforces customer trust and transparency in its operations.

The company confirmed that the initiative has seen a strong response from participants, who promptly inquired about and redeemed their surplus online via the company's website and the "Smart Takaful" application – a clear indication of customer trust and appreciation for this groundbreaking step.

As part of its efforts to enhance transparency and foster direct communication, the company also visited several of its corporate clients across the Kingdom to hand over their entitled surpluses. These visits were met with great appreciation, as recipients expressed their gratitude to Takaful International for this unprecedented initiative and its genuine commitment to embodying the concept of "participation."

This initiative is part of a broader campaign launched by the company under the slogan: "Powered by Sharing", reflecting Takaful International's ongoing dedication to fairness, cooperation, and transparency in its dealings with policyholders.

شركة التكافل الدولية
TAKAFUL INTERNATIONAL CO.

It is worth noting that the surplus distribution process is carried out under the supervision of the company's Shari'a Supervisory Board and with the guidance of an independent actuarial expert, ensuring that all procedures comply fully with Islamic Shari'a principles.

Participants have several options for redeeming their surplus, including: Bank transfer (upon submission of a valid IBAN certificate), A discount on the next contribution upon policy renewal, and Donation to charitable causes through the Royal Humanitarian Foundation

The surplus redemption service is available via the website (www.gigtakaful.bh) and the "Smart Takaful" app, using either the ID or commercial registration number along with the policy or vehicle number.

Participants may redeem their surplus within five years from the announcement date, or during the three-month period prior to the policy's expiry.

BeVentures and Kanoo Industrial & Energy Forge Strategic Partnership to Advance Energy Innovation

Manama

BeVentures, the venture capital arm of Bapco Energies dedicated to investing and building high-impact energy ventures, signed a strategic agreement with Kanoo Industrial & Energy, part of Yusuf Bin Ahmed Kanoo (Holdings) and a leading company focused on supporting energy initiatives.

This collaboration is designed to accelerate the development and adoption of innovative technologies, create a robust platform for deal flow in the energy sector, and strengthen the Kingdom of Bahrain's role as a hub for energy startups and solutions.

As part of the agreement, BeVentures and Kanoo Industrial & Energy will identify and share investment opportunities across the GCC and wider MENA region. The partnership aims to launch pilot projects to test and scale new technologies, positioning Bahrain as a sandbox for energy innovation. The two parties will also explore co-investment opportunities that generate value for the Kingdom while advancing its National Energy Strategy.

The signing ceremony was attended by Mr. Mark Thomas - Group CEO of Bapco Energies, Mrs. Areije Al Shakar - CEO of BeVentures, Mr. Ali Abdulla Kanoo - Chairman of Kanoo Industrial & Energy, Mr. Fahad Fawzi Kanoo - Board Member at Kanoo Industrial & Energy, Mr. Manoj K Tripathy - CEO of Kanoo Industrial & Energy and other senior officials from both parties.

Commenting on the partnership, Areije Al Shakar, CEO of BeVentures, said, "This partnership is an important milestone in our journey to build an ecosystem that drives innovation in energy. Kanoo Industrial & Energy's reputation and regional reach make them an ideal partner for BeVentures as we work together to accelerate the implementation of new technologies and unlock growth opportunities for startups and energy ventures."

Ali Abdulla Kanoo, Chairman, Kanoo Industrial & Energy, said "This collaboration is a commitment to shaping Bahrain's energy future. By combining Kanoo Industrial & Energy's legacy of enabling industrial growth with BeVentures' focus on innovation, we are building the base for an ecosystem where new technologies can thrive. Our goal is to create lasting value for the Kingdom, empowering startups, and advancing solutions that will define the next era of energy for Bahrain and the wider region."

Fahad Fawzi Kanoo, Board Member, Kanoo Industrial & Energy, stated, "This partnership with BeVentures represents a pivotal step in elevating Bahrain's role as a regional hub for excellence in energy. In alignment with our efforts through Kanoo Energy Sustainability Solutions (KESS), we are committed to delivering practical and scalable solutions that support the Kingdom's National Energy Strategy. By breakthrough technology and supporting the next generation of energy ventures, we aim to enhance Bahrain's competitiveness and establish a clear benchmark for responsible corporate leadership in the region's energy transition."

Bahrain Bourse (BHB), a licensed exchange by the Central Bank of Bahrain, in collaboration with the Bahrain Institute of Banking and Finance (BIBF) honored the 21 graduates of the "BHB Board Mentorship Program" at a distinguished ceremony which was held on Thursday, September 18, 2025.

The ceremony was attended by Sh. Khalifa bin Ebrahim Al-Khalifa, CEO of Bahrain Bourse, and Dr. Ahmed Al-Shaikh, CEO of BIBF, along with CEOs of listed companies and various organizations, program participants, and Board Members along with the Executive Management of Bahrain Bourse and the BIBF.

Sh. Khalifa bin Ebrahim Al-Khalifa, CEO of Bahrain Bourse, commented "We are proud of the outcomes achieved through our collaboration with the BIBF, which reflects our continued commitment to preparing qualified leaders who can play an active role in strengthening corporate governance and supporting the growth of Bahrain's capital market."

Dr. Ahmed Al Shaikh, CEO of BIBF stated, "This programme comes as a reflection of the vision of His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister, which emphasizes the importance of empowering women in leadership positions and encouraging companies and institutions to appoint more women to their Boards of Directors, in recognition of their high competence, professional commitment, and vital role in strengthening governance and achieving sustainable growth. This partnership reflects our commitment to excellence and our dedication towards providing students with first-class executive training. Moreover, the mentorship program presents aspiring leaders with a valuable opportunity to train from industry experts and gain firsthand knowledge on how to succeed on a board. This enhances the quality of future boardrooms and leaderships".

During the five-week mentorship program, participants engaged in more than 40 hours of comprehensive training, equipping aspiring senior executives with the appropriate skillsets to be prepared to be part of corporate boards, thereby fostering governance excellence within the corporate sector. The program included interactive workshops and lectures conducted by an international and local team of industry experts, providing participants with crucial knowledge and practical skills necessary for potential boardroom roles. A key highlight of the program was the Board Factual Simulation, which allowed participants to apply their learning in simulated real-world scenarios, testing their decision-making abilities and strategic thinking.

CAPTAIN'S CORNER

Messages from the Sea
that Reached Japan

CAPTAIN MAHMOOD AL MAHMOOD

Not long ago, Bahrain turned its compass eastward, steering its cultural, economic, and official presence toward the far edge of Asia. There, in Osaka, His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister, graced with his presence the celebration of Bahrain's National Day at Expo 2025 — an event that was more than a ceremony, it was a message carried across oceans.

When one gazes upon a nation with a history as profound as Japan's, and sets it side by side with Bahrain, a quiet harmony appears. Both lands are shaped by the currents of tradition and modernity, both hold fast to their heritage while boldly stepping into the future. Japan is known for its hospitality, its discipline, and its spirit of tolerance — values that echo in Bahrain's own story: a kingdom whose people have, for centuries, welcomed the traveler, embraced diversity, and pursued progress with youthful ambition.

Bahrain's presence in Osaka was thus a conversation across cultures, a gentle reminder to the Japanese people: we too carry an ancient memory, a proud identity, and a heritage as enduring as the tides.

And so, the National Day celebrations were met with warmth and curiosity. To many in attendance, Bahrain seemed like a distant mirror — an Arab reflection of an Eastern spirit. It was as though the two nations were once joined in a single cultural fabric, patiently separated by time and geography, now reunited by the poetry of encounter. The name of the event, "The Meeting of the Seas," could not have been more fitting.

In his decision to be present in person, His Royal Highness offered more than protocol. He carried a message: that history and heritage are bridges between nations, and that the shared soul of Bahrain and Japan deserves to be celebrated. But the journey eastward was not only cultural. It was also economic — a chance to renew and deepen cooperation with the world's third-largest economy. The story of Bahrain and Japan's economic bond began almost a century ago, in June 1934, when the first Bahraini oil shipment set sail from Sitra Port bound for Yokohama. That voyage was more than trade; it was the writing of the first chapter of a partnership that has grown ever since, carried forward by countless ships and countless dreams.

At His Royal Highness's side stood a distinguished delegation — senior officials and economic leaders who have been the architects of Bahrain's economic growth. Among them was His Highness Shaikh Isa bin Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, Minister at the Prime Minister's Court and Chairman of the Board of Tamkeen, along with members of the Economic Development Board — together, the navigators of Bahrain's modern prosperity.

And let us not forget the quiet craftsmen of this success — the men and women of the Bahrain Authority for Culture and Antiquities, led by Shaikh Khalifa bin Ahmed bin Abdullah Al Khalifa. Their work transformed Bahrain's pavilion into a living vessel, carrying the Kingdom's history, warmth, and spirit to the farthest shores of the East.

In Osaka, Bahrain's message was clear: the seas that separate us are the same seas that carry us toward one another — and in their meeting, our futures meet as well.

Cyberattack hits
European airports

● Brussels, Heathrow, Berlin hit by cyberattack

● Check-in systems crash, forcing manual process

AFP | Washington

Major European airports including Brussels, Berlin and London's Heathrow were yesterday hit by a cyberattack on checkin systems that caused cancellations and long delays for many passengers.

At least three busy European air hubs warned of flight delays and cancellations.

At least 10 flights were cancelled out of Brussels Airport and another 17 delayed by over an hour after the system was hit by a "cyberattack" late Friday, the airport said.

"We have become aware of a cyber-related disruption to our MUSE software in select airports," airport service provider Collins Aerospace said.

"The impact is limited to electronic customer check-in and baggage drop and can be mitigated with manual check-in operations," Collins Aerospace added.

Brussels airport said the attack was still having a "large impact" on flight schedules yesterday morning.

According to the BBC, aviation watchdog Eurocontrol said airlines had been asked to cancel half their flights to and from Brussels between 0400 GMT yesterday and 0200 GMT on Sunday because of the attack.

Only manual check-in and boarding was taking place at Brussels, which advised passengers to check their flight status with airlines before going to the airport yesterday.

AFPTV images showed large queues at Brussels as passengers monitored announcement boards showing many flight delays.

London's Heathrow Airport -- the busiest in Europe -- said its check-in and boarding systems, also provided by Collins Aerospace, were hit by a "technical issue" that "may cause delays for departing passengers".

'Queues not moving'

"They didn't tell us anything. It's always crowded here, but today is like extra," said a 41-year-old architect, who gave her first name as Rowan.

"If the system is down they should delay the flight. That's what I'm hoping," she added, waiting in the packed check-in area at Heathrow's Terminal 4 for a Saudia Airlines flight to Jeddah.

Another woman waiting for an Air Algerie flight to Algeria said she had waited for over an hour to check in.

"They said they're doing everything manually. That's all they've told us," said the 30-year-old, asking not to give her name.

Trump's $100,000 fee for H-1B visas, a tech industry favourite, concerns India

● 85,000 H-1B visas awarded annually

● India receives 75% of H-1Bs

● Tech firms warn of talent shortages

AFP | Washington

India's leading IT trade body said yesterday it was concerned by a new annual $100,000 fee that US President Donald Trump ordered for H-1B skilled worker visas, an addition that could have major repercussions for the tech industry where such permits are widespread.

The foreign ministry in New Delhi also said the new measure, which will likely face legal challenges, would cause "disruption" for the families of H-1B visa holders.

Such visas allow companies to sponsor foreign workers with specialised skills --- such as scientists, engineers, and computer programmers -- to work in the

The United States awards 85,000 H-1B visas per year on a lottery system, with India accounting for around three-quarters of the recipients.

India's top IT industry body Nasscom said the new measure would hit "business continuity" and was also concerned by the short timeline, with the new fee coming into effect on Sunday.

"A one-day deadline creates considerable uncertainty for businesses, professionals, and students across the world," Nasscom said in a statement.

"Policy changes of this scale are best introduced with adequate transition periods, allowing organisations and individuals to plan effectively and minimise disruption," it said.

Trump announced the change in Washington on Friday, along with the introduction of a $1 million "gold card" residency programme he had previewed months earlier.

Ukrainian leader seeks US backing as Russia intensifies strikes and targets civilian areas

- Russia fires 40 missiles, 580 drones
- At least three killed in Dnipro
- Zelensky demands sanctions, security guarantees

AFP | Kyiv

Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky said yesterday he would meet US counterpart Donald Trump on the sidelines of the UN General Assembly next week as Russia intensified deadly strikes across his country.

Russia carried out one of its largest aerial attacks, firing 40 missiles and some 580 drones at Ukraine in a nighttime barrage that killed at least three people and wounded dozens, Zelensky said.

A Ukrainian strike killed four people in Russia's southwestern Samara region, the local governor said, in one of the deadliest Ukrainian strikes since Russia launched its invasion in 2022.

Zelensky said he would discuss security guarantees for Ukraine and sanctions on Russia during the talks with Trump in New York.

Ukraine has insisted on Western-backed security guarantees

Burning cars are seen in a parking lot following an air attack in the Kyiv region to prevent future Russian attacks. Russian President Vladimir Putin has however warned that any Western troops in Ukraine would be unacceptable and legitimate targets.

A US-led push for a quick end to the war has stalled and Russia effectively ruled out a Putin-Zelensky meeting -- something that Kyiv says is the only way towards peace.

"We expect sanctions if there is no meeting between the leaders or, for example, no ceasefire," Zelensky said in comments released by the Ukrainian presidency.

"We are ready for a meeting with Putin. I have spoken about this. Both bilateral and trilateral. He is not ready," Zelensky added.

In Russia's latest aerial assault, "a missile with cluster munitions directly struck an apartment building" in the central city of Dnipro, Zelensky said on social media.

He posted pictures of cars and a building on fire and rescuers carrying a person to safety amid rubble scattered nearby.

In the Dnipropetrovsk region, the strikes killed one person and wounded at least 30 people, with one man in a serious condition, regional governor Sergiy Lysak said.

'Intense' fighting

The strikes come a day after three Russian fighter jets violated the airspace of Estonia -- a NATO member on the alliance's eastern flank -- an allegation Moscow denied.

But it triggered fears in the West of a dangerous new prov-

Ukraine's targeted drone strikes have shut down several Russian oil pumping stations, cutting into major war revenues—actions confirmed by Ukraine's SBU as part of a campaign to block Russia's oil-dollar superprofits ocation from Moscow after Poland last week complained that around 20 Russian drones overflew its territory.

Zelensky repeated the call for "joint solutions" to shoot down drones over Ukraine "together with other countries".

Russia, which has been chipping away at Ukrainian territory for months, announced yesterday its troops had captured the village of Berezove in the Dnipropetrovsk region.

In the northeastern Kharkiv region, there were "intense actions" in the key area of Kupiansk, Zelensky said, referring to a rail hub Ukraine recaptured in a 2022 offensive.

Hammas warns hostages face fate of missing pilot if Israel assault continues

Left-wing Israeli activists demonstrate along the border with the Gaza Strip calling for an end to the war

AFP | London

Hammas' armed wing published yesterday "farewell" photographs of most of the remaining hostages in Gaza, warning that Israel's assault on Gaza City could endanger them.

With the images, it evoked the case of an Israeli pilot missing since 1986 after being shot down over Lebanon.

Of the 251 people seized by Palestinian armed men during their attack on Israel in October 2023, 47 remain in Gaza, including 25 the Israeli military says are dead.

"Due to (Prime Minister Benjamin) Netanyahu's obstinacy and (military chief Eyal) Zamir's submission.... a farewell photograph taken at the start of the operation in Gaza" City, the Brigades wrote alongside the photos.

Israel launched a ground assault on Gaza City on Tuesday, following weeks of heavy air strikes that continue on the territory's largest urban centre.

Hundreds of thousands of residents have fled, while families of hostages have urged the government to halt the offensive, warning it risks the lives of their loved ones still in captivity in Gaza.

The Ezzedine Al-Qassam Brigades released 46 photographs of hostages on its Telegram channel, each one labelled with the name of Ron Arad, an Israeli air force navigator whose plane went down over southern Lebanon in 1986 during the Lebanese civil war.

Trump says his negative media coverage is 'illegal'

AFP | Washington

President Donald Trump on Friday bashed US media coverage that he claimed was unduly negative and therefore "illegal," stoking a debate over free speech following the suspension of comedian Jimmy Kimmel's TV show by ABC.

"They'll take a great story and they'll make it bad. See I think it's really illegal, personally," Trump, who has sued multiple major news organizations this year, told reporters gathered in the Oval Office.

The 79-year-old Republican, an avid television watcher, chiefly focused his diatribe on US television networks, reiterating a claim that coverage of him and his administration is "97 percent bad."

He also defended the head of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC), Brendan Carr, whose threats against broadcasters have sparked a national debate over free speech and caused some unease even among Republicans.

Carr on Wednesday criticized Kimmel's remarks on the assassination of conservative activist Charlie Kirk and threatened broadcasters who carry his show with possible sanctions.

DONALD TRUMP

Hours later, ABC announced Kimmel's show was suspended indefinitely.

On Friday, Trump called Carr "an incredible American patriot with courage."

Texas Senator Ted Cruz, a close Trump ally, meanwhile said he believes it's dangerous for a government to put itself in a position to say what speech it may or may not like.

Commenting on Carr's threat to fine broadcasters or pull their licenses over the content of their shows, Cruz referenced a Martin Scorsese gangster movie.

"I got to say that's right out of 'Goodfellas'," Cruz said. "That's right out of a mafioso coming into a bar going, 'Nice bar you have here. It would be a shame if something happened to it.'"

BIC set to host FIA WEC 2025 season-finale this November

FIA WEC Bapco Energies 8 Hours of Bahrain to be held this 7 and 8 November in Sakhir

Shaikh Salman bin Isa Al Khalifa, BIC Chief Executive; Mark Thomas, Bapco Energies Group Chief Executive Officer; Sherif Al Mahdy, BIC Chief Commercial Officer

● Bapco Energies to celebrate 10th anniversary as title sponsor

● Spirit of Le Mans to come alive in Sakhir as WEC's newest Hypercar and LMGt3 champions to be crowned

● Tickets and hospitality packages now available

TDT | Manama

Bahrain International Circuit (BIC), 'The Home of Motorsport in the Middle East', held on Thursday evening the official Press conference launch for the 2025 FIA WEC Bapco Energies 8 Hours of Bahrain.

In attendance at the event, held at BIC, were Shaikh Salman bin Isa Al Khalifa, BIC Chief Executive; Mark Thomas, Bapco Energies Group Chief Executive Officer; Sherif Al Mahdy, BIC Chief Commercial Officer; and senior management from both organisations.

Shaikh Salman announced details of the highly anticipated endurance racing spectacle, which will be taking place 7 and 8 November as the eighth and final round of the 2025 FIA World Endurance Championship (WEC).

This year's occasion marks a special milestone for the circuit's lead partners Bapco Energies, who are marking the 10th anniversary of their title sponsorship of the 8 Hours of Bahrain, which also features Beyon as a support partner.

"This year marks a decade of partnership with the FIA World Endurance Championship, and we are proud to continue as the title sponsor of the Bapco Energies 8 Hours of Bahrain," said Mark Thomas, Group Chief Executive Officer of Bapco Energies. "Endurance racing is about efficiency, performance, and pushing boundaries. Values that resonate deeply with our mission to deliver sustainable energy solutions for the future. Together with our partners, we look forward to creating another unforgettable experience for fans while showcasing the Kingdom of Bahrain as a hub for excellence and progress."

WEC is the most prestigious endurance world championship under the Federation Internationale de l'Automobile (FIA), and the Spirit of Le Mans will be coming alive in Sakhir for the race weekend, which features many of international motor racing's biggest stars and some of the fastest and most technologically advanced cars from the most sought-after brands.

"WEC represents a major part of the growing popularity of motorsport across the world," Shaikh Salman highlighted. "Both participation and viewership continue to grow since its establishment in 2012.

"It is also an extremely competitive series, with five different winners from the six races so far this season, so there is all to play for in the season-finale here in Bahrain."

The FIA WEC is known for its high-octane endurance racing action featuring large grids that include two classes: the Hypercar and the LMGt3. These ultra-quick racing machines boast motoring's biggest international brands, and more than 35 cars are once again expected to light up BIC's 5.412-kilometre track for an experience like no other.

The series also includes some of the sport's most popular drivers, such as ex-Formula 1

World Champion Jenson Button, along with other big names like Mick Schumacher, Kevin Magnussen, Antonio Giovinazzi, Sebastian Buemi, Robert Kubica, and Kamui Kobayashi, to name a few.

"In a grid which will comprise 36 cars in total, there will be much excitement for fans throughout the weekend," added Shaikh Salman.

"None of this would be possible without the support of our title partner, Bapco Energies. We are proud to have worked with the team at Bapco Energies over many years and are especially pleased that this year is the 10th anniversary of their title sponsorship of WEC. We thank them wholeheartedly for their long-term support and look forward to continuing our work together, not just for WEC but as a lead partner at the circuit."

This year's Bapco Energies 8 Hours of Bahrain will be the 14th WEC race in Sakhir. It will also be the seventh time it is being held in its current eight-hour format, which is unique on the WEC calendar as the only race of this duration.

The Hypercar class is the WEC's top-tier category, where eight of the world's most iconic manufacturers showcase their ground-breaking technologies. They include Aston Martin, Porsche, Toyota, Cadillac, BMW, Alpine, Ferrari, and Peugeot.

The LMGt3 class boasts competition that is just as competitive and thrilling. Nine major car brands field their GT cars in this category, namely Aston Martin, Ferrari, BMW, Chevrolet, McLaren, Mercedes, Ford, Lexus, and Porsche.

PCCME opens new season

The Porsche Carrera Cup Middle East (PCCME) will be supporting the WEC all weekend.

BIC Chief Executive Shaikh Salman bin Isa Al Khalifa speaks during the event

This championship is the region's leading one-make series, run by Lechner Racing and born and based at BIC.

The WEC event will mark the PCCME's first of six rounds this 2025/2026 season. Other meetings will be held in Doha, Abu Dhabi, Dubai, and Jeddah, making for a truly regional battle.

Off-track attractions

Off the track at the FIA WEC Bapco Energies 8 Hours of Bahrain, BIC has lined up plenty of entertainment for the whole family to enjoy. The attractions have been put together in signature BIC style, with so much to see and do over the course of the two days.

Headlining the colourful programme this year are extreme stunt shows, including the return of world-famous stuntmen Terry Grant and Lee Bowers, along with freestyle motocross (FMX) bike stunts and monster trucks, with a monster truck ride for fans also available.

There will be plenty of roaming entertainers coming from all over the world who will be setting a vibrant mood throughout the circuit, including drummers, artists, magicians, Pop the Balloon Man, and much more.

For the kids, BIC will be setting up an exclusive outdoor area where they can enjoy multiple live shows filled with magic and adventure. These will feature popular tales such as The Little Mermaid, Alice's Adventures in Wonderland, and Jack and the Magical Beanstalk.

Green Ticket Initiative

BIC's partnership with Bapco Energies goes beyond what happens on track, and this year they are collaborating again to bring back the ground-breaking Green Ticket Initiative. This follows the tremendous success of the project first introduced for the 2022 WEC event.

For every WEC ticket sold, a proportion of the revenue, matched by Bapco Energies, will be donated to a fund which will directly support the planting of new mangroves in Bahrain.

In the presence of Mr Mohamed Alaraibi, Assistant Undersecretary for Agriculture Affairs, BIC today announced today a new donation of 5,000 mangrove trees, based on last year's Green Ticket Initiative campaign.

The Bahrain Mangroves Initiative, launched by His Highness Shaikh Mohammed bin Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, aims to enhance community involvement in achieving Bahrain's climate goals, particularly the target of quadrupling the number of mangroves in the Kingdom by 2035. The initiative also aims to support national efforts aimed at achieving carbon neutrality by 2060, increasing awareness about the significance of planting and protecting mangroves, and fostering greater community engagement to support environmental objectives.

Tickets, hospitality options now available

Tickets and hospitality options for WEC race weekend are now available.

Grandstand seats cost just BD5.5 for adults and BD2.75 for children for the two-day endurance racing spectacle – incredible rates offering great value for money to attend a world championship event.

Tickets can be bought online at bahraingp.com or by calling the BIC Hotline on +973-17450000.

Fans are urged to secure theirs as soon as possible so as not to miss out on this major sporting and entertainment extravaganza.

Hospitality packages are also available to enjoy the event from BIC's luxurious suites. These are priced at BD290 per person, excluding VAT, for the two days. The package is inclusive of dining and drinks, all in a first-class setting of the circuit's lounge which overlooks the WEC pit-lane and main straight.

A group rate of BD2,800 for 10 people is also on offer.

HH Shaikh Isa bin Salman attends commemorative race held in his honour in Japan

TDT | Manama

His Highness Shaikh Isa bin Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, Minister of the Prime Minister's Court and Chairman of the High Committee of the Rashid

Equestrian and Horseracing Club (REHC), attended the "Commemorative Race for the Visit of His Highness Shaikh Isa bin Salman Al Khalifa of the Kingdom of Bahrain" today at Nakayama Racecourse in Japan.

HH Shaikh Isa bin Salman emphasised that this commemorative race signifies a pivotal moment in the collaborative efforts between Bahrain and Japan, showcasing their mutual interests in equestrian sports and horse racing.

He further noted the significance of the event aligning with the official visit of His Royal Highness the Crown Prince and Prime Minister to Japan, which has yielded ambitious strategic outcomes.

BIC unveils new season

BIC hosts record-breaking 2024/2025 season, with 424 events on and off the track

● Packed 2025/2026 season to flag off this month and continue until first quarter of 2026

● Formula 1, WEC confirmed again

● Rotax Karting Grand Finals in November

TDT | Manama

Bahrain International Circuit (BIC), 'The Home of Motorsport in the Middle East', kicks off its 2025/2026 season later this month, with plenty on offer from world-class international championships to adrenaline-pumping fan experiences.

Details of the new campaign were announced in a Press conference launch held Thursday evening at BIC's Paddock 6.

In attendance at the event were Shaikh Salman bin Isa Al Khalifa, BIC Chief Executive; Mark Thomas, Bapco Energies Group Chief Executive Officer; Sherif Al Mahdy, BIC Chief Commercial Officer; and senior management from both organisations.

Shaikh Salman announced that BIC is coming off a record-breaking campaign in 2024/2025, when the circuit hosted 424 events both on and off the track. Shaikh Salman explained that those included 48 racing events, headlined by international weekends in Formula 1 and the World Endurance Championship (WEC), as well as regional and national series such as drag racing and karting, along with track days and corporate events – making for a packed calendar of motorsport across the year.

BIC's diverse schedule also included 112 non-motorsport events such as Batelco Fitness on Track, shopping festivals, darts, event space hires, non-track corporate events, the widely popular Bahrain Comicon, and many others.

Shaikh Salman noted that BIC's grassroots motorsport facility, Bahrain International Karting Circuit (BIKC), hosted 71 events and 18 races last season. The track welcomed more than 64,000 karters for arrive-and-drive and non-competitive racing experiences, which continue to be available daily, and over 40 per cent of customers were under the age of 25.

BIC has lined up plenty more thrills with a packed 2025/2026 calendar. Aside from F1 and the WEC, international racing will be headlined by the 2025 Rotax MAX Challenge Grand Finals (RMCGF).

The RMCGF is set to take place 28 November to 6 December at BIKC. The event will feature more than 400 of the world's best Rotax karters from over 60 nations, who will be competing over a full week of exciting karting action. The field will be competing in eight categories, including the Micro MAX, Mini MAX, Junior MAX, Senior MAX, DD2, DD2 Masters, and electric classes E20 Senior and E20 Masters.

Team Bahrain will feature in the event, with nine racers flying the Kingdom's flag in six of the classes, including the Micro MAX, Mini MAX, Junior MAX, Senior MAX, DD2, and the E20

Senior.

BIC also announced that from the start of the new season next month, BIKC will have a brand-new fleet of karts available for customers to enjoy. These new karts will continue to enhance the experience for karters and help encourage even more visitors to visit the venue, Al Mahdy said.

Best of local motorsport flavour

The very best of Bahraini motorsport will again be highlighted by the Kingdom's national championships, run by BIC in cooperation with the Bahrain Motor Federation and all those under its umbrella.

Headlining the calendar of local events is the hugely popular Bahrain Drag Racing Championship – the premier drag racing series in the entire Middle East.

It features top teams and drivers from around the world. They will be competing in cars and motorbikes over five rounds of head-to-head battles from November and continuing until March of 2026. Each category's winners at the end of the season will come away with a coveted Wally Trophy – a prestigious accolade presented only to champions of NHRA-sanctioned events.

In circuit racing, the Bahrain Touring Car Championship (BTCC), formerly the BIC 2,000cc Challenge, and the Bahrain Motorcycle Championship will take place over seven rounds this campaign, also beginning in October and wrapping up in April of next year.

Since its relaunch last year,

Bahrain International Karting Circuit welcomed over 64,000 karters last season, with more than 40% of participants under 25 years old the BTCC has seen increased participation and the new campaign promises continued growth.

BIKC will be hosting plenty of thrills with a pair of highly competitive national karting championships.

The 1.414-kilometre CIK-FIA track will be staging both the Sakhr Rotax MAX Challenge (SRMC) and the Bahrain Rotax MAX Challenge (BRMC).

The SRMC will be flagging off next weekend with the first of four rounds, while the BRMC will be feature eight rounds, beginning from October and continuing until April.

Circuit racing and karting events will feature both day and night racing, adding to the challenge and spectacle for both participants and fans.

Aside from these, there will also be competition in drifting, time attack, autocross, and burnout.

Fan experiences

BIC's national season also includes a wide-range of motorsport experiences and activities on offer to the public. These have all become favourites amongst the Kingdom's adrenaline seekers and are to be held from October to April.

BIC's widely popular Batelco Fitness on Track will kick the calendar off on October 3, which will be the first of 20 events held throughout the new campaign.

The circuit's other retail events over the course of the next several months include Open Track days and nights; Ebrahim K Kanoo Drag and Drift Nights; Track Experiences featuring drives and passenger rides in Clio Cup, SR1, and SR3 race cars; and the Kanoo Motors Rolling Drag.

Furthermore, available to the public on a daily basis is the YK Off-Road Experience and the Circuit Tour, in addition to karting.

In partnership with YK Almoayyed and Sons, fans can experience the very latest from the Ford Bronco range either as a passenger or driver in the YK Off-Road Experience, which includes expert tuition across the challenging desert terrain.

The Circuit Tour offers the chance for a behind-the-scenes look at what goes on at BIC, fans getting to visit the iconic Sakhr Tower, Race Control Tower, the Media Centre, and the Medical Centre, while also being taken around the world-famous track itself.

Many of these experiences can be purchased at a discounted bundle rate. Full details are available at bahraingp.com or by calling +973-17450000.

Bahrain start AFC Futsal Asian Cup with defeat

● South Korea win 2-0 through Kang Joo-kwang, Shin Jong-hoon

Hussain Almaskati
TDT | Manama

Bahrain's national futsal team were handed a tough start to their AFC Futsal Asian Cup 2026 qualifying campaign yesterday, suffering a 0-2 defeat to South Korea in their Group B opener at Nonthaburi Stadium in Thailand. The loss leaves them with ground to make up in the days ahead.

Head coach Rafael Fogageiro's men entered the competition well-prepared and with optimism after weeks of training and friendlies, but found themselves unable to overcome the physical and disciplined Korean side. Starting for Bahrain were goalkeeper Sayed Fadhel Mahfoodh, Mohammed Sindi, Mohammed Abdulla, Salman Al Mulla, and Ali Al Araibi.

Second-half breakthrough

Bahrain's team huddle before kickoff

Bahrain held firm during the first half, but the breakthrough came for South Korea just four minutes after the restart. Kang Joo-kwang latched onto a second-ball chance to put the Koreans ahead. Despite Bahrain's attempts to fight back, their opponents doubled the lead in the 38th minute through Shin Jong-hoon, capitalising on a late power-play push by the Bahrainis.

Qualification stakes clear

Group B is one of the toughest pools of the qualifiers, featuring Bahrain, South Korea, hosts Thailand, and Brunei Darussalam. After yesterday's setback, the Bahrainis will quickly turn their focus to tomorrow's match against hosts Thai-land, before concluding the group stages against Brunei on Wednesday.

The qualifiers see 31 teams competing across eight groups, with only the group winners and the seven best second-placed finishers advancing to the finals alongside hosts Indonesia. The AFC Futsal Asian Cup 2026 will take place in Jakarta from January 27 to February 7.

Seef bow out in Manila thriller

● Bahrainis edged by Mandaluyong after strong fightback

Hussain Almaskati
TDT | Manama

Bahrain's Seef basketball team saw their campaign at the Manila Challenger 2025 come to an agonising end yesterday, exiting the FIBA 3x3 World Tour event after a one-point loss to hosts Mandaluyong SBP in their final group-stage match.

Seef, featuring Sayed Mohammed Hameed, Hasan Fahad, Alwatheq Ali, and Serbian import Bogdan Dragovic under coach Murtadha Mohammed, opened Pool A against tournament favourites Ub of Serbia, the world's top-ranked 3x3 side. The Bahrainis struggled to match Ub's pace, losing 21-9, with Dragovic contributing four points while Hameed, Fahad, and Ali struggled to find rhythm against the dominant European unit.

Bogdan Dragovic in action for Seef

Bounceback bid falls short

Seef showed improvement in their second game against Mandaluyong. The Bahrainis controlled most of the contest and led 12-10 with just over a minute remaining, thanks to Dragovic's clutch two-pointer and Fahad's steady play. But the Filipinos mounted a late surge, with Zedjay Etulle and Mao-do Malick Diouf scoring three unanswered points to snatch a 13-12 win at the buzzer, denying Seef a spot in the quarter-finals.

Numbers underline the effort

Statistically, Seef out-rebounded Mandaluyong 16-15, with Dragovic grabbing six boards and five points, while Fahad added four points and three rebounds. Hameed contributed two points and two rebounds but missed crucial free throws. Mandaluyong's efficiency (46% shooting vs. Seef's 44%) proved decisive in a game decided by the slimmest of margins.

Potential Ahead of Manama Finale

The Manila Challenger is part of the FIBA 3x3 World Tour, offering ranking points, prize money, and qualification for the Macau Masters. Despite the early exit, Seef showed signs of promise for the season finale in Manama this November.
