Adele is dating LeBron James' agent

Fox | Los Angeles

It seems like pop star Adele has found her one and only.

A source tells us that the chanteuse is "100 percent" dating sports super-agent Rich Paul.

The pair were spotted sitting together at Game 5 of the NBA Finals on Saturday, sparking dating rumors.

"They are [definitely] dating," an insider confirms to Page Six.

Meanwhile, there are hints in the press that Paul and Adele, 33, may have been rolling in the deep as far back as May. In an article this summer in the New Yorker about how Paul — who is an agent for LeBron James, among other huge sports stars — is transforming the "business of basketball," Paul mentions that he has been "hanging out" with "a major pop star."

But he added in the article, which was published online on May 31, "I'm not dating, I'm single. Put that in the story." Things seem to have changed. And at least one person in on the news was ESPN's Brian Windhorst, who referred to the "Someone Like You" singer as Paul's girlfriend when they sat together at Game 5.

"Rich Paul, [LeBron James] agent, brings his girlfriend to the game sitting next to LeBron. His girlfriend is Adele," Windhorst said on his "The Lowe Post" podcast. "Rich Paul is at the game with Adele."

Adele was formerly married to Simon Konecki. They split in 2019.

Katherine Schwarzenegger opens up about premarital counseling with Chris Pratt

Fox | Los Angeles

Katherine Schwarzenegger is opening up about the work she and her husband Chris Pratt put into their marriage before exchanging nuptials.

"Before we got married in the Catholic Church, you have to do premarital counseling before you get married, and I was like, 'Oh, my God, what is that going to be like?'" the actress, 31, said during an appearance on the podcast on Monday.

Katherine Schwarzenegger

"It was the most amazing thing and just the most amazing gift," she continued, adding, "I know not everybody does [it], of course, because ... if they don't tell you you have to do it then why would you?"

The daughter of Arnold Schwarzenegger and Maria Shriver tied the knot with the Marvel star, 42, in June 2019 and honeymooned in Hawaii.

The author maintained that the guidance they received before saying their "I dos" was a needed foundation in ensuring their marriage had a real chance of success.

"When we had this experience of going to premarital counseling to get married in the Catholic Church it was such an amazing gift in our relationship ahead of getting married that we've definitely wanted to continue throughout our relationship and has been such a helpful thing to be able to have in our relationship of having that guidance," the author explained.

Schwarzenegger added: "Talking about things that maybe we wouldn't necessarily have talked about before getting married, talk about things that couples of 10 or 15 years still don't like to talk about with one another. Being prompted to talk about those things is also a really helpful thing to do early on," she explained.

"That I think helps us." In terms of setting aside necessary time for each other, Schwarzenegger said she and the "Jurassic World" performer make it a priority to "carve out" opportunities for themselves.

"Making sure that you can carve out that time. And of course, there are days where it doesn't happen, and then we make sure we connect in a different way," she said. "I also just remember growing up and watching my parents always be each other's biggest support system and biggest cheerleaders, and that was always something that I wanted with who I envisioned somebody that I marry; always wanting to have that same support system and that same dynamic."
