No more 'bad blood' between Swift, Perry

IAN S | Los Angeles

Singer Katy Perry has praised Taylor Swift, with whom she had a long-running feud, for voicing her political opinion.

While attending the amfAR Gala here, Perry -- who was honoured with a Courage Award at the event -- proved they had buried the hatchet.

"She's setting a great example," Perry, 33, told Variety of why she supported Swift's decision to voice her political opinion.

Earlier this month, "he 'Look What You Made M' Do" singer, 28, broke her silence on politics to endorse two Democratic candidates running in Tennessee mid-term elections."

"I'm writing this post about the upcoming mid-term elections on November 6, in which I'll be voting in the state of Tennessee," Swift began her lengthy message alongside a subdued Polaroid of herself.

"In the last I've been re-

Katy Perry (L) and Taylor Swift

Swift and Perry's relationship has been on a rollercoaster of sorts over the last few years. Perry began to smooth things out when she sent Swift an olive branch and a letter in May before the start of Swift's Reputation tour luctant to publicly voice my political opinions, but due to several events in my life and in the world in the past two years, I feel very differently about that now. I always have and always will cast my vote based on which candidate will protect and fight for the human rights I believe we all deserve in this country."

"I believe in the fight for LGBTQ rights, and that any form of discrimination based on sexual orientation or gender is wrong. I believe that the systemic racism we still see in this country towards people of colour is terrifying, sickening and prevalent," Swift added.

Perry was one of many A-list Instagram users to "like" Swift's post, which suggested the pop stars were still on good terms.

Zayn Malik posts shirtless snap

IAN S | Los Angeles

Singer Zayn Malik sent his Instagram fans into a tizzy with an intimate shirtless photograph of himself.

The One Direction superstar, who has come up with new single "Fingers", logged into the official Zayn Instagram account to share a racy topless snap, reported dailystar.co.uk.

Shot with his trademark black and white filter, Malik showed off his extensive collection of body art as he posed for a mirror picture. He didn't caption the post.

Letting the picture do the talking, Zayn failed to caption the post. Fans swooned over the photograph, which garnered over 2 million likes in less than 12 hours.

"Holy Zesus," one support-

"Zayn you're so so beautiful," wrote another fan.

Malik is currently working on his second solo album.

The record, which had been tipped to be released this year, will be his first since 2016 offering "Mind Of Mine".

Loretta Lynn resting at home after hospital stay

IAN S | Los Angeles

A record label spokesperson for singer Loretta Lynn has issued a statement on her behalf, in which the country star says she had "a brief hospital visit" but is now "enjoying a weekend of rest at home".

Lynn's representative also said: "Please note, Michael Lynn is not a known relative and does not speak on behalf of Loretta Lynn or her family."

A social media account claiming to belong to a relative named Michael Lynn had set off alarms about Loretta Lynn's health condition on Saturday.

Dern returns home from hospital

IAN S | Los Angeles

Actor Bruce Dern is out of the hospital, in no pain, and eager to get back to work, according to his publicist, Lee Wallman.

Earlier reports had Dern hiking in Runyon Canyon, but the accident that briefly hospitalised him turned out to be borne of jogging. Dern was described as being in "incredibly good spirits" and anxious to get back to work.

On Saturday, the actor was hospitalised after he suffered a possible fractured hip.

The 82-year-old was jogging at Silverlake Reservoir.

The film will be released July 26, 2019, by Sony Pictures.
