Kuwait Ministry of Higher Education and RCSI Medical University of Bahrain Discuss Expanding Academic Collaboration

Manama

The Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland (RCSI) - Medical University of Bahrain welcomed His Excellency Dr Bader H. Albusairi, Undersecretary of the Kuwait Ministry of Higher Education, and His Excellency Professor Mohamed D. Aldughaim, Kuwaiti Cultural Attaché, Embassy of the State of Kuwait to the Kingdom of Bahrain, to explore avenues for expanding the existing academic collaboration between both institutions.

The delegation was received by Professor Sameer Otoom, President of RCSI Medical University of Bahrain, together with members of the University's senior leadership and academic team. Discussions focused on future opportunities to further develop this collaboration, in support of strengthening healthcare systems and advancing national and regional health priorities.

Commenting on the visit, His Excellency Dr Bader H. Albu-sairi said: "The relationship between the Kuwait Ministry of Higher Education and RCSI Medical University of Bahrain is founded on a strong and enduring academic partnership. We value the outcomes achieved through this collaboration and look forward to expanding it to include other programmes, in line with our shared objective of supporting high-quality healthcare education and workforce development."

His Excellency Professor Mohamed D. Aldughaim, Kuwaiti Cultural Attaché, shared: "We value the constructive and longstanding relationship with the leadership and staff of RCSI Medical University of Bahrain. The professionalism, openness and responsiveness demonstrated by the University contribute positively to the development of Kuwaiti students and reinforce the strength of this partnership."

Professor Otoom highlighted: "RCSI Medical University of Bahrain extends its thanks to the Kuwait Ministry of Higher Education and the Kuwait Cultural Office for their continued engagement and support. This partnership reflects a shared vision to develop skilled healthcare professionals who contribute to sustainable progress and improved patient care in Kuwait and beyond."

American University of Bahrain Launches Doctor of Business Administration Programme

Manama

The American University of Bahrain hosted a special event to announce the launch of its Doctor of Business Administration (DBA) program, attended by a distinguished group of senior executives, company leaders, professionals, and individuals seeking to pursue advanced studies in business administration.

The event formed part of the University's broader initiative to introduce the program, outline its academic structure and objectives, and engage experienced professionals interested in advancing their leadership and strategic capabilities through doctoral-level study.

The event commenced with an address by Prof. Hanan Naser, Associate Provost at AUBH, while welcoming attendees and highlighted the significance of the program within the University's academic portfolio. The address emphasized that the DBA program aligns with AUBH's strategic direction to deliver high-quality academic offerings that respond to the aspirations of professionals and the evolving demands of the labor market, while reinforcing the University's role in developing leaders capable of creating sustainable impact in the fields of business and management.

"The DBA program represents a strategic addition to the University's postgraduate offerings and reflects our focus on providing advanced academic pathways tailored to senior professionals and decision-makers. Designed in line with global business developments, the program equips graduates with the insight and capability required to address complex organizational challenges across local, regional, and international environments." Said Prof. Hanan Naser.

Furthermore, Dr. Fatema Alaa, Dean of the College of Business and Management, delivered a presentation outlining the structure of the DBA program. The presentation highlighted that the program is designed for experienced professionals and is grounded in applied research that addresses real-world business challenges. This approach enables participants to develop leadership and strategic expertise, enhance analytical capabilities, and create meaningful impact within their organizations and wider communities, while preparing thought leaders capable of delivering measurable outcomes in professional environments.

The event featured an interactive panel discussion followed by a structured Q&A session, providing attendees with the opportunity to engage in academic dialogue with faculty members and representatives from the admissions and registration teams, exchange perspectives, and foster professional connections.

Kites of Hope and Knowledge: BIS Celebrates Basant Panchami

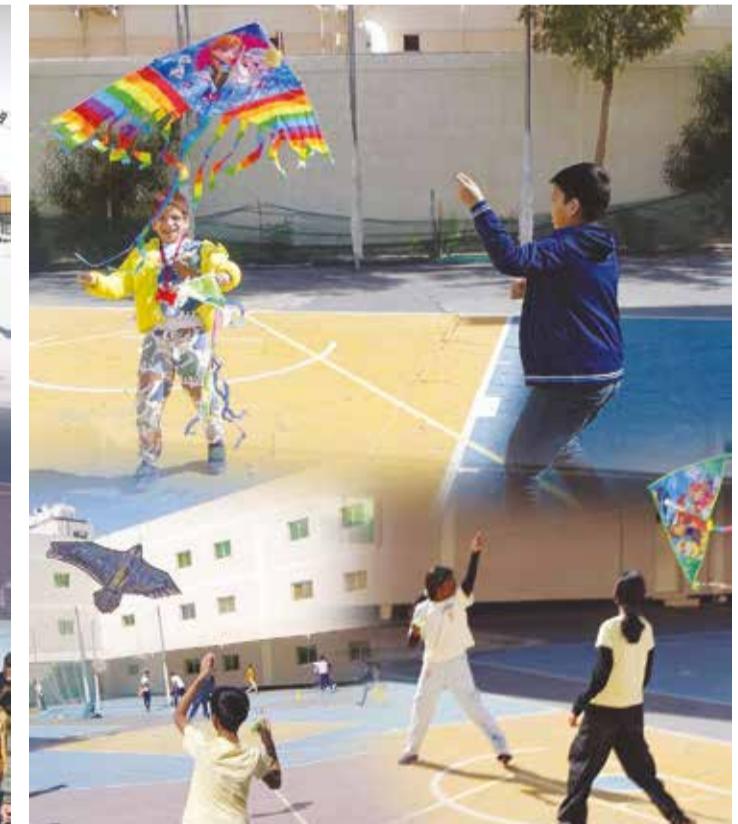

Manama

Bhavans- Bahrain Indian School (BIS) marked the auspicious festival of Basant Panchami, a celebration symbolizing education, knowledge, wisdom, and new beginnings, with vibrant enthusiasm and cultural pride. Observed under the inspiring theme "Dream Big, Fly High," the event beautifully blended tradition with creativity, reflecting the institution's commitment to holistic education. Basant Panchami, heralds the arrival of spring and inspires learners to pursue excellence with curiosity and confidence. The highlight of the celebration was kite flying, symbolizing freedom of thought, ambition, and the limitless potential of young minds. As colorful kites soared high in the sky, they mirrored the aspirations of students encouraged to dream boldly and reach beyond boundaries.

Adding to the festive charm, students and staff donned yellow attire, a colour traditionally associated with prosperity, energy, and enlightenment. The vibrant hues created a visually captivating atmosphere while reinforcing the cultural significance of the occasion.

Speaking on the occasion, Principal Mr. Saji Jacob remarked, "Basant Panchami reminds us that education is not merely the acquisition of knowledge, but the awakening of imagination and purpose." Echoing this sentiment, the Directors of BIS, Mr. Himanshu Verma and Mrs. Ritu Verma, stated, "Through this celebration, we encourage our students to believe in their dreams and pursue them with confidence and integrity."

The celebration fostered a sense of unity, cultural appreciation, and joyful learning, leaving students inspired and energized. Through events such as these, BIS continues to nurture values, creativity, and global outlooks, preparing learners to soar high in both academics and life.
