Johnny Depp reveals on trembling life

IAN S | Los Angeles

Actor Johnny Depp, whose life has been marred by several problems and issues including legal troubles, financial woes and a tumultuous, shrouded personal life, says there was a point when he was as low as he could have gotten.

"I was as low as I believe I could have gotten. The next step was, 'You're going to arrive somewhere with your eyes open and you are going to leave with your eyes closed.' I couldn't take the pain every day," Johnny Depp told rollingstone.com, recalling his emotional state in the midst of his failed marriage and his simultaneously collapsing financial situation.

Depp had a highly publicized divorce from actress

Amber Heard, which was finalized in August 2016, following a legal battle.

After Heard's allegations of spousal abuse, which Depp has vehemently denied -- his legal troubles continued to spiral.

LaBeouf, David Ayer to join forces for 'Tax Collector'

Shia LaBeouf

ANI | London

Hollywood actor Shia LaBeouf is all set to reunite with filmmaker David Ayer for upcoming crime thriller 'Tax Collector'. According to reports, the 'Transformers' actor previously teamed up with the director for 2014 World War-II drama 'Fury'.

David Ayer will start shooting in Los Angeles, the report further said. Previously, LaBeouf was seen in tennis drama 'Borg vs. McEnroe' and recently completed shooting 'Honey Boy'.

Milly Shapiro's real life incident in horror film

IAN S | Los Angeles

Actress Milly Shapiro had to recreate a moment from her life for horror film "Hereditary".

"The thing that I was most worried about was the allergic reaction scene. But I actually had that type of an allergic reaction before because I'm highly allergic to red ants," Shapiro said in a statement.

"I was, like, five or six, so I had an experience with it, which I thought was absolutely hilarious, that I was going to have to act that. But I was really nervous because I thought that I would get it wrong. I was just worried.

"Everyone was really great with helping me through it and Ari Aster and I worked together to get the perfect breathing and action for it. I was really nervous for that," she added.

Heist films are like superhero movies

IAN S | New York

Actress-rapper Awkwafina says heist films are like superhero movies.

"In a way heist films are like superhero movies. The audacity of pulling off a heist is something that no ordinary person would ever do," Awkwafina said in a statement.

"With heist movies, the line between good and bad becomes subject to interpretation. The 'Ocean's 8' women are criminals, but at the same time they are doing this for a reason," she added.

A sequel to Steven Soderbergh's 'Ocean's' trilogy,

Awkwafina

Awkwafina released her first album in 2014 called Yellow Ranger

'Ocean's 8' stars Sandra Bullock as ringleader Debbie Ocean, the sister of George Clooney's character Danny. After getting out of jail, she recruits seven women.

Anderson gets in sculpting mode for 'Isle Of Dogs'

IAN S | Los Angeles

Director Wes Anderson says he created 500 clay dog puppets to bring a touch of reality to his film "Isle of Dogs".

"We wanted to put on screen dogs that look somewhat familiar to us but have heightened qualities beyond reality," Anderson said in a statement.

Anderson, who has written and produced the film as well, began sculpting clay dog puppets based on his observations and analysis.

He worked closely with Andy Gent, the head of the puppets department. Instead of simply sketching ideas, they used clay to sculpt sample dogs.

Wes Anderson

With more than 70 artists on the puppet team, a total of 1,000 clay puppets were created out of which 500 puppets were humans and 500 were dogs.
